BIRTHS, DEATHS AND MARRIAGES REGISTRATION ACT
1995—REGULATION

(Relating to registration information and consequential amendments)

NEW SOUTH WALES

[Published in Gazette No. 156 of 22 December 1995]

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, and in pursuance of the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1995, has been pleased to make the Regulation set forth hereunder.

JEFFREY SHAW, Q.C., M.L.C.,
Attorney General and Minister for Industrial Relations.

Commencement

1. This Regulation commences on 1 January 1996.

Amendments

2. The Registration of Births, Deaths and Marriages Regulations 1973 are amended:

- (a) by omitting from Regulation 3 the words “Registration of Births, Deaths and Marriages Act 1973” and by inserting instead the words “Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1995”;
- (b) by inserting at the end of Regulation 3 the following clause:
 - (2) Notes in these Regulations are explanatory notes and do not form part of the Regulations.
- (c) by omitting Regulations 4–8 and by inserting instead the following Regulations:

Particulars required to be given for the purposes of notification of birth

4. For the purposes of section 12 of the Act (Notification of births), the following particulars are required:

- (a) the sex and date and place of birth of the child;
- (b) whether the child was born alive or stillborn;

- (c) the full name, maiden family name, date of birth and usual place of residence of the mother of the child;
- (d) the full name and occupation of the person giving the notice.

Particulars required to be given for the purpose of having the birth of a child registered

5. For the purposes of section 14 of the Act (How to have the birth of a child registered), the following particulars are required:

- (a) the sex and date, place and time of birth of the child;
- (b) the full name and address of the doctor or midwife responsible for the professional care of the mother at the birth;
- (c) the weight of the child at birth;
- (d) the full name, maiden family name, occupation and usual place of residence of the mother of the child;
- (e) the date of birth (or age) and place of birth of the mother of the child;
- (f) the full name, occupation and usual place of residence of the father of the child;
- (g) the date of birth (or age) and place of birth of the father of the child;
- (h) the date and place of marriage of the parents of the child (if applicable);
- (i) if the mother of the child has any other children, the given name, sex and date of birth of those children (including any deceased children);
- (j) whether or not the mother or father of the child is of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander origin;
- (k) if either parent of the child was born outside Australia, the period of residence in Australia of that parent.

Note. The notice given for the purposes of section 14 of the Act (called a birth registration statement) must also state the name of the child (see section 21 of the Act).

Registration of adoptions

6. For the purposes of section 24 of the Act (How adoptions are registered), the following particulars are required:

- (a) the full name, sex and date and place of birth of the child to whom the memorandum relates;

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1995 repeals the Registration of Births, Deaths and Marriages Act 1973 and provides for the continuation of regulations made under the repealed Act. The object of this Regulation is to amend the regulations made under the repealed Act as a consequence of the commencement of the new Act.

In particular, this Regulation:

(a) sets out the information that the Registrar of Births, Deaths and Marriages may require in respect of a specific registrable event under the new Act; and

1995—No. 747

- (b) makes minor consequential amendments to the fees that may be required in respect of a service provided by the Registrar; and
- (c) removes provisions made obsolete by the new Act.

This Regulation is made under the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1995, in particular section 62 (Regulations) and the sections referred to in the Regulation.
