Chapter 8 Academic governance

1 Academic Board

- (1) The Academic Board:
 - (a) is the University's primary academic advisory body, and
 - (b) consists of the membership, and has the functions, prescribed by rules made by the Senate.
- (2) The Academic Board reports directly to the Senate.

2 Academic Forum

There is to be an Academic Forum which:

- (a) is an advisory body that reports directly to the Academic Board, and
- (b) consists of the membership, and has the functions, prescribed by rules made by the Senate.

3 First election of the Academic Forum

- (1) The first election of members of the Academic Forum must be held on or before 30 September 1996.
- (2) Of the members of the Academic Forum elected at the first election of members of the Academic Forum:
 - (a) half (selected by lot) remain members until 31 December 1997, and
 - (b) the other half remain members until 31 December 1998.

4 First election of the Academic Board

- (1) An election of members of the Academic Board (other than the Chair and the Deputy Chairs) must be held within 8 weeks of the declaration of the first election of the Academic Forum.
- (2) The Academic Board members elected as undergraduate or postgraduate student members at the first election remain members until 31 December 1997.
- (3) Of the other Academic Board members elected at the first election:
 - (a) half (selected by lot) remain members until 31 December 1997, and
 - (b) the other half remain members until 31 December 1998.
- (4) An election of the Chair and the Deputy Chairs of the Academic Board must be held on or before 1 June 1997.

1996 No 352

University of Sydney Amendment (Academic Governance) By-law 1996

Schedule 1 Amendment of By-laws of the University of Sydney

5 Savings and transitional provisions consequent on the reconstitution of the Academic Board

- (1) On the commencement of the University of Sydney Amendment (Academic Governance) By-law 1996, the membership of the Academic Board is to consist of those persons who, immediately before that commencement, held office as members of the Academic Board.
- (2) The members continue to hold office:
 - (a) in the case of the Chair or a Deputy Chair—until a new Chair and new Deputy Chairs are declared to be elected under clause 4 (4), and
 - (b) in any other case—until new members are declared to be elected under clause 4 (1).

6 Making of rules

- (1) The Senate may make rules for or with respect to the Academic Board and the Academic Forum.
- (2) The Academic Board may also make rules for or with respect to the meeting procedures of the Academic Board.
- (3) If there is any inconsistency between a rule made by the Senate under subclause (1) and a rule made by the Academic Board under subclause (2), the rule made by the Senate prevails to the extent of any inconsistency.
- (4) A rule made under this clause must be displayed on all official University notice boards for at least 24 hours. Such a rule takes effect:
 - (a) on the first day after the day on which it is displayed, or
 - (b) on a later day, if such a day is specified in the rule.
- (5) A rule made under this clause must also be published in at least one official publication of the University. Failure to do so does not invalidate the rule.
