Transport Administration (Railway Offences) Amendment (Rail Access Corporation) Regulation 1996

under the

Transport Administration Act 1988

His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Transport Administration Act 1988.

BRIAN LANGTON

Minister for Transport

Explanatory note

The objects of this Regulation are as follows:

- (a) to ensure that appropriately authorised personnel of Rail Access Corporation are (among others) authorised persons for the purposes of enforcement of provisions of the Transport Administration (Railway Offences) Regulation 1994 directed to the use, protection and preservation of rail infrastructure facilities and that such personnel may require persons to identify themselves in certain circumstances (see Schedule 1 [2]–[10] and [15]),
- (b) to provide for the giving of notice of proposals to cross railway lines with heavy vehicles to Rail Access Corporation rather than to the SRA (see Schedule 1 [11] and [12]),
- (c) to impose restrictions on vehicles that may be driven on or over certain structures owned by or vested in Rail Access Corporation (see Schedule 1 [14]),
