University of Sydney Amendment (Academic Governance) By-law (No 2) 1996

under the
University of Sydney Act 1989

His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has approved the following By-law made by the Senate of the University of Sydney under the University of Sydney Act 1989.

J J Aquilina
Minister for Education and Training

Explanatory note

The object of this By-law is to amend the By-laws of the University, of Sydney so as:

- to reconstitute the Academic Board, and provide for the Senate to make rules regarding the Board, and
- to establish an Academic Forum, and provide for the Senate to make rules regarding the Forum.

This By-law is identical to the University of Sydney Amendment (Academic Governance) By-law 1996, with the exception that the term of office of members of the Academic Forum will now be either one year or two years. (See clause 3 (2) of Part 8.)

This By-law is made under the University of Sydney Act 1989, including section 15 (Academic Board), section 36 (By-laws) and section 37 (Rules).

5 Savings and transitional provisions consequent on the reconstitution of the Academic Board

- (1) On the commencement of the University of Sydney Amendment (Academic Governance) By-law (No 2) 1996, the membership of the Academic Board is to consist of those persons who, immediately before that commencement, held office as members of the Academic Board.
- (2) The members continue to hold office:
  - (a) in the case of the Chair or a Deputy Chair—until a new Chair and new Deputy Chairs are declared to be elected under clause 4 (4), and
  - (b) in any other case—until new members are declared to be elected under clause 4 (1).

6 Making of rules

- (1) The Senate may make rules for or with respect to the Academic Board and the Academic Forum.
- (2) The Academic Board may also make rules for or with respect to the meeting procedures of the Academic Board.
- (3) If there is any inconsistency between a rule made by the Senate under subclause (1) and a rule made by the Academic Board under subclause (2), the rule made by the Senate prevails to the extent of any inconsistency.
- (4) A rule made under this clause must be displayed on all official University notice boards for at least 24 hours. Such a rule takes effect:
  - (a) on the first day after the day on which it is displayed, or
  - (b) on a later day, if such a day is specified in the rule.
