

Passenger Transport Amendment (Penalty Notice Offences) Regulation 1996

under the

Passenger Transport Act 1990

His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Passenger Transport Act 1990.

BRIAN LANGTON, M.P.,
Minister for Transport.

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to amend the Passenger Transport (Bus Services) Regulation 1995, the Passenger Transport (Ferry Services) Regulation 1995 and the Passenger Transport (Private Hire Vehicle Services) Regulation 1995 so as to prescribe:

- certain additional offences under those Regulations in respect of which penalty notices (“on-the-spot fines”) may be issued, and
- the short descriptions that, by virtue of section 145B of the Justices Act 1902, may be used to describe those offences in any information, complaint, summons, warrant, notice, order or other document, and
- the penalty payable for such offence if the offence is dealt with under the penalty notice rather than by a court.

This Regulation also:

- (a) amends the penalties payable under penalty notices for certain offences against the Passenger Transport (Private Hire Vehicle Services) Regulation 1995 to reflect more accurately the differences in the maximum penalties for those offences, and
