Maritime (Short Description of Offences) Amendment (Shipboard Oil Spill Response Plans) Regulation 1997

under the Justices Act 1902

His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Justices Act 1902.

C Scully
Minister for Ports

Explanatory note

Short descriptions of offences are the descriptions that, by virtue of section 145B of the Justices Act 1902, may be used to describe summary offences (or indictable offences that may be dealt with summarily) in any information, complaint, summons, warrant, notice, order or other document.

The object of this Regulation is to provide short descriptions of the offence under Regulation 63L (2) of the Management of Waters and Waterside Lands Regulations—N.S.W.

Regulation 63L (1) requires certain vessels, when visiting specified environmentally-sensitive places, to have on board a shipboard oil spill response plan, appropriate equipment, materials and substances to deal with such spills and crews trained in containing them. It is inserted in the Management of Waters and Waterside Lands Regulations—N.S.W. by the Management of Waters and Waterside Lands Amendment (Shipboard Oil Spill Response Plans) Regulation 1997, which commences on 30 June 1997.

This Regulation is made under the Justices Act 1902, and, in particular, under section 145B.
