Motor Accidents Amendment (Insurance Ministerial Corporation) Regulation 1997

under the

Motor Accidents Act 1988

His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Motor Accidents Act 1988.

JEFFREY SHAW, Q.C., M.L.C.,
Attorney General

Explanatory note

Following the privatisation of the former Government Insurance Office in accordance with the Government Insurance Office (Privatisation) Act 1991, the responsibility for administering the Transport Accidents Compensation Fund (established under the Transport Accidents Compensation Act 1987 and continued under the Motor Accidents Act 1988) passed to the NSW Insurance Ministerial Corporation constituted by the Privatisation Act.

The Motor Accidents Amendment Act 1997 made various amendments to the Motor Accidents Act 1988 including replacing where appropriate references to the former Government Insurance Office with references to the Ministerial Corporation.

The objects of this Regulation are:

- (a) to replace references to the former Government Insurance Office in the Motor Accidents Regulation 1995 with references to the Ministerial Corporation (Schedule 1 [1]), and
- (b) to repeal a provision that is no longer required (Schedule 1 [2]).

This Regulation is made under the Motor Accidents Act 1988, including section 136 (the general regulation making power).
