Legal Profession Amendment (Advertising) Regulation 1997

under the

Legal Profession Act 1987

His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Legal Profession Act 1987.

JEFFREY SHAW, Q.C., M.L.C.,

Attorney General

Explanatory note

The object of this regulation is to provide that a barrister or solicitor must not advertise in a way that constitutes a contravention of a provision of the Workers Compensation (General) Regulation 1995 that prohibits false, misleading, vulgar, sensational or unprofessional advertising in connection with workers compensation claims. The effect of the amendment is that such a contravention will be dealt with as a breach of the regulations under the Legal Profession Act 1987.

This Regulation is made under section 38J (Advertising) of the Legal Profession Act 1987.
