Trade Measurement Administration Amendment Regulation 1998

under the

Trade Measurement Administration Act 1989

His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Trade Measurement Administration Act 1989.

BRIAN LANGTON, M.P.,
Minister for Fair Trading

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to amend the Trade Measurement Administration Regulation 1997 so as:

- (a) to increase the charges payable to the Superintendent of Trade Measurement by the owners of measuring instruments for verification or re-verification of the instruments by an inspector (Schedule 1 [1]),
- (b) to increase the charges payable to the Superintendent of Trade Measurement by the holders of servicing licences of charges in respect of the certification of measuring instruments by the licensees (Schedule 1 [2]).
- (c) to add spirit measures to the verification and certification charges for batches of liquor beverage measures (Schedule 1 [3] and [4]),
- (d) to remove a separate charge for liquefied gas flowmeters from the verification and certification charges for flowmeters (Schedule 1 [5] and [6]).
- (e) to insert a charge for verification or certification of dimensional measuring instruments (Schedule 1 [7]).

1998 No 103

Trade Measurement Administration Amendment Regulation 1998

Explanatory note

(f) to increase:

- (i) the fees payable to the Commissioner (that is, the Director-General of the Department of Fair Trading) in relation to licence applications, licences and certificates (Schedule 1 [8]-[12]),
- (ii) the charges payable to the Superintendent of Trade Measurement in relation to the examination or testing of measuring instruments (Schedule 1 [13]-[17]),

(g) to reduce a charge payable for the use of testing equipment provided by the Superintendent of Trade Measurement (Schedule 1 [18]).

The fees and charges are being increased having regard to increases in the Consumer Price Index since they were last fixed in 1992.

The Regulation is made under the Trade Measurement Administration Act 1989, including Part 3 (Fees and charges) and section 28 (the general regulation-making power).
