Rural Lands Protection Amendment (Pig Dogging) Regulation 1998

under the

Rural Lands Protection Act 1989

His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Rural Lands Protection Act 1989.

RICHARD AMERY, M.P.,
Minister for Agriculture

Explanatory note

Under Part 9 of the Rural Lands Protection Act 1989, a rural lands protection board for a district may order the owner or occupier of land within that district to suppress or destroy noxious animals (such as feral pigs) by any method prescribed by the Rural Lands Protection Regulation 1995 specified in the order.

The object of this Regulation is to remove “dogging” as a prescribed method for the eradication of noxious animals.

This Regulation is made under the Rural Lands Protection Act 1989, including sections 127 and 217 (the general regulation-making power).
