Education Reform Amendment (HSC Transitional Provisions) Regulation 1998

under the
Education Act 1990

His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Education Act 1990.

JOHN AQUILINA, M.P.,
Minister for Education and Training

Explanatory note

The Education Reform Amendment Act 1997 contains changes to the curriculum for students in Years 11 and 12 who are candidates for the Higher School Certificate. Those changes are to commence on 1 January 2000. The object of this Regulation is to provide, as a transitional matter, for Year 12 students who are candidates for the Higher School Certificate in 2000 to complete their studies under the provisions of the Education Act 1990, the regulations under that Act and the rules of the Board of Studies that applied immediately before those changes commence.

The Regulation also changes the name of the Education Reform Regulation 1996 to bring it into line with the name of the Education Act 1990 as changed by the Education Reform Amendment Act 1997.

This Regulation is made under the Education Act 1990, including section 130 (the general regulation-making power) and clause 2 of Schedule 3 (Savings, transitional and other provisions).
