

New South Wales

Police Service Amendment (Unclaimed Property) Regulation 1998

under the

Police Service Act 1990

His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Police Service Act 1990.

Paul Whelan

Minister for Police

Explanatory note

Clause 66 of the Police Service Regulation 1990 allows the Commissioner of Police to dispose of unclaimed property in the custody of members of the Police Service (other than property held in connection with an offence) by public auction or, if the property is not suitable for sale, in any manner that the Commissioner directs.

The object of this Regulation is to enable the Commissioner to use such unclaimed property in police integrity testing programs conducted under section 207A of the Police Service Act 1990.

This Regulation is made under the Police Service Act 1990, including section 219 (the general regulation-making power) and, in particular, section 219 (2) (e).
