

New South Wales

ROAD TRANSPORT (VEHICLE REGISTRATION) ACT 1997
No 119—PROCLAMATION

I, the Honourable Gordon Samuels AC, Governor of the State of New South Wales, with the advice of the Executive Council, and in pursuance of section 2 of the Road Transport (Vehicle Registration) Act 1997, do, by this my Proclamation, appoint 29 June 1998 as the day on which that Act commences, except for the following:

- (a) so much of Schedule 1 [3] as omits section 3 (1) (q11) and (q12) of the Traffic Act 1909,
- (b) so much of Schedule 1 [10] as omits section 11C of the Traffic Act 1909,
- (c) Schedule 1 [13].

Signed and sealed at Sydney, this 24th day of June 1998.

By His Excellency's Command,

CARL SCULLY, M.P.
Minister for Roads.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The object of this proclamation is to commence all the provisions of the Road Transport (Vehicle Registration) Act 1997 with 3 exceptions.

The provisions that will remain uncommenced deal with the following:

- (a) the repeal of regulation-making powers in the Traffic Act 1909 concerning the designation and treatment of persons as owners of vehicles for the purposes of section 18A (Liability of motor vehicle owner for designated offences) of that Act,
- (b) the repeal of certain paragraphs of the definition of owner in section 18A of that Act, including a paragraph referring to regulations made under those regulation-making powers,
- (c) the repeal of section 11C, which provides for the seizure of number-plates by police officers and persons authorised by the Roads and Traffic Authority.
