Local Government (Approvals) Amendment (Sewage Management) Regulation 1998 No 3

under the Local Government Act 1993

His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Local Government Act 1993.

ERNIE PAGE, M.P..
Minister for Local Government

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to extend the periods during which a person may, in certain circumstances, operate a system of sewage management (as defined in the Local Government (Approvals) Regulation 1993) without having obtained approval to do so under the Local Government Act 1993.

This Regulation is made under that Act, and, in particular, under section 748 and Schedule 6 (the general regulation-making power).

Local Government (Approvals) Amendment (Sewage Management) Regulation 1998 No 3

1 Name of Regulation

This Regulation is the Local Government (Approvals) Amendment (Sewage Management) Regulation 1998 No 3.

2 Notes

The explanatory note does not form part of this Regulation.

3 Amendment of Local Government (Approvals) Regulation 1993

The Local Government (Approvals) Regulation 1993 is amended by omitting clause 95I and by inserting instead the following clause:

95I Transitional provision—temporary exemptions in relation to operation of system of sewage management

- (1) Despite the other provisions of this Regulation, a person may operate a system of sewage management without the approval required under section 68 of the Act until (and on) 30 June 1999 if the system of sewage management uses or involves sewage management facilities that were installed or constructed on the premises concerned before 6 April 1998.
- (2) Further, if a person duly applies, on or before 30 June 1999, for approval to operate the system of sewage management concerned, the person may continue to operate that system of sewage management without approval until the application is finally determined.
