

New South Wales

Confiscation of Proceeds of Crime Amendment (Victorian Law) Regulation 1998

under the

Confiscation of Proceeds of Crime Act 1989

His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Confiscation of Proceeds of Crime Act 1989.

J W Shaw

Attorney General

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to declare the Confiscation Act 1997 of Victoria to be a law that corresponds to the Confiscation of Proceeds of Crime Act 1989 of New South Wales and to declare orders in force under the Victorian Act to be interstate orders for the purposes of the New South Wales Act. The Confiscation Act 1997 repealed the Crimes (Confiscation of Profits) Act 1986 of Victoria, which is presently a corresponding law within the meaning of the New South Wales Act.

This Regulation is made under the Confiscation of Proceeds of Crime Act 1989, including the definitions of corresponding law, interstate forfeiture order, interstate pecuniary penalty order and interstate restraining order in section 4 (1).
