Prisons (General) Amendment (Inspector-General) Regulation 1998

under the
Correctional Centres Act 1952

His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Correctional Centres Act 1952.

BOB DEBUS, M.P.,
Minister for Corrective Services

Explanatory note

Clause 118 of the Prisons (General) Regulation 1995 provides that correspondence addressed by an inmate of a correctional centre to, or to an inmate from, certain specified persons may only be opened, inspected or read by the inmate or person to whom it is addressed, or a person authorised by the inmate or person. The object of this Regulation is to include the Inspector-General of Corrective Services as a person whose correspondence to or from an inmate is to be treated in this way.

This Regulation is made under the Correctional Centres Act 1952, including section 50 (the general regulation-making power).
