

New South Wales

District Court Rule (Minor Law Revision) 1998

under the

District Court Act 1973

The District Court Rule Committee made the following rule of court under the District Court Act 1973 on 8 October 1998.

J G Cowen

Secretary to the Committee

Explanatory note

The object of this Rule is to amend the District Court Rules 1973:

- (a) to enable a registrar to submit to the Court (rather than, as is presently the case, to a Judge) any affidavits filed under Part 2 A rule 3 for certain directions and orders in respect of changes of venue, and
- (b) to remove the present requirement in Part 5, rule 13 (2) that an action transferred from the Supreme Court to the District Court be treated as being subject to the jurisdictional limits that would apply to the action if it had been commenced in the District Court, and
- (c) to ensure that the requirement in Part 9, rule 27 (3) (d)(v) for a person seeking damages for personal injury to provide particulars in respect of loss of income extends to a person who was self-employed after the accident concerned, and
- (d) to provide in Part 29, rule 6 that the registrar is not required to place a copy of a subpoena issued under that rule on the Court's file, and
