

New South Wales

STATE RECORDS ACT 1998 No 17—PROCLAMATION

(L.S.)      GORDON SAMUELS, Governor.

I, the Honourable Gordon Samuels AC, Governor of the State of New South Wales, with the advice of the Executive Council, and in pursuance of section 2 of the State Records Act 1998, do, by this my Proclamation, appoint 1 January 1999 as the day on which that Act (Part 4 excepted) commences.

Signed and sealed at Sydney, this 9th day of December 1998.

By His Excellency's Command,

BOB CARR, M.P.,
Minister for the Arts

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

---

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The object of this Proclamation is to commence provisions of the State Records Act 1998 that make provision for the creation, management and protection of records of public offices of the State, provide access to records and establish the State Records Authority. The Proclamation does not commence Part 4 of that Act, which deals with the Authority's entitlement to the control of State records not currently in use.

---