Casino Control Amendment (Police Integrity Commission) Regulation 1998

under the
Casino Control Act 1992

His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Casino Control Act 1992.

J. RICHARD FACE, M.P.,
Minister for Gaming and Racing

Explanatory note

Section 148 of the Casino Control Act 1992 prohibits any person who acquires information in the exercise of functions under that Act from, directly or indirectly, making a record of that information or divulging the information, except in the exercise of functions under that Act.

Section 148 (6) of that Act provides that this secrecy provision does not apply to the divulging of information to, or the production of any document or any other thing to, certain specified persons or bodies (e.g. ICAC) or any other person or body prescribed by the regulations.

The object of this Regulation is to prescribe the Police Integrity Commission for the purposes of section 148 (6).

This Regulation is made under the Casino Control Act 1992, including sections 148 (6) and 170 (the general regulation-making power).
