

New South Wales

Disability Services Amendment (MS Society) Regulation 1998

under the

Disability Services Act 1993

His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Disability Services Act 1993.

FAYE LO PO', M.P.,

Minister for Disability Services

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to exclude certain services provided by the Multiple Sclerosis Society of New South Wales from the definition of designated service in section 4 of the Disability Services Act 1993. A further amendment, to take effect on 1 September 1998, repeals this exclusion, so bringing those services back into that definition.

This Regulation is made under the Disability Services Act 1993, including section 26 (the general regulation making power) and the definition of designated service in section 4.
