

New South Wales

Anglican Church of Australia (Bodies Corporate) Act 1938—Order

I, the Honourable Gordon Samuels AC, Governor of the State of New South Wales, with the advice of the Executive Council, and in pursuance of section 4 (3) of the Anglican Church of Australia (Bodies Corporate) Act 1938, do, by this my Order, declare that the persons who for the time being are members of the body known as the Bathurst Endowment of the See Board constituted under the Bathurst Endowment of the See Ordinance 1997 shall be a body corporate under the name “Bathurst Endowment of the See”.

Signed at Sydney, this 24th day of February 1999.

By His Excellency’s Command,

JEFFREY SHAW, Q.C., M.L.C.,
Attorney General

Explanatory note

Section 4 of the Church of Australia (Bodies Corporate) Act 1938 provides that the persons who, for the time being, are the members of an unincorporated body that is constituted by an ordinance of the Synod of a diocese for the purpose of managing, governing or controlling an institution or organisation of the Anglican Church of Australia, or of dealing with any church trust property, may be the subject of another ordinance by that Synod declaring that it would be expedient to constitute them as a body corporate. Once the second ordinance is passed by the Synod, the Governor may, by order published in the Gazette, declare the members of the unincorporated body to be a body corporate.

1999 No 121

Anglican Church of Australia (Bodies Corporate) Act 1938—Order

Explanatory note

The purpose of this Order is to provide for the members of the Bathurst Endowment of the See Board to be a body corporate known as “Bathurst Endowment of the See Board”. The relevant ordinances are the Endowment of the See Ordinance 1997 and the Bathurst Endowment of the See Incorporation Ordinance 1997–1998.

This Order is made under section 4 (3) of the Anglican Church of Australia (Bodies Corporate) Act 1938.
