Road Transport (Vehicle Registration) Amendment (Authorised Examiners and Inspection Stations) Regulation 1999

under the

Road Transport (Vehicle Registration) Act 1997

His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Road Transport (Vehicle Registration) Act 1997.

CARL SCULLY M.P.

Minister for Roads

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to amend the Road Transport (Vehicle Registration) Regulation 1998 so as:

- (a) to enable the Roads and Traffic Authority (the RTA) to impose conditions on an examiner's authority or proprietor's authority granted under that Regulation, and
- (b) to require the RTA to be satisfied as to the suitability of the character of an applicant for such an authority before it grants the authority, and
- (c) to empower the RTA to make rules requiring the holder of such an authority to furnish information to the RTA, so enabling the RTA to ensure that persons involved in the operation of authorised inspection stations and the conduct of vehicle inspections at those stations are of suitable character, and
- (d) to enable such an authority to be suspended or cancelled for any breach of the conditions of the authority, and
