Superannuation Administration (Local Government Superannuation Scheme Transitional Provisions) Amendment Regulation 1999

under the

Superannuation Administration Act 1996

His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Superannuation Administration Act 1996.

Michael Egan

Treasurer

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to make provision for the determination of certain disputes involving persons who are members of the local government superannuation scheme established by trust deed in accordance with section 127 of the Superannuation Administration Act 1996. The disputes concerned are disputes about the rights and obligations of those persons under FTC or STC schemes to which they formerly belonged by reason of service with an employer who has since become associated with the local government superannuation scheme. The Regulation provides that such disputes are to be resolved by the trustee of the local government superannuation scheme.

This Regulation is made under sections 22 and 67 of the Superannuation Administration Act 1996 (as inserted by the Superannuation Legislation Further Amendment Act 1998) and section 129 of that Act (the general regulation-making power).
