

Anglican Church of Australia (Bodies Corporate) Act 1938—Order

GORDON SAMUELS, Governor.

I, the Honourable Gordon Samuels AC, Governor of the State of New South Wales, with the advice of the Executive Council, and in pursuance of section 4 (3) of the Anglican Church of Australia (Bodies Corporate) Act 1938, do, by this my Order, declare that the persons who for the time being are members of the body known as the Diocesan Schools Council, and constituted under the Diocesan Schools Council Ordinance 1998 made by the Synod of the Diocese of Canberra and Goulburn, are a body corporate under the name “Diocesan Schools Council”.

Signed at Sydney, this 10th day of March 1999.

By His Excellency’s Command,
JEFFREY SHAW, Q.C., M.L.C.,
Attorney General

Explanatory note

Section 4 of the Anglican Church of Australia (Bodies Corporate) Act 1938 provides that persons who, for the time being, are the members of an unincorporated body that is constituted by an ordinance of the Synod of a diocese for the purpose of managing, governing or controlling an institution or organisation of the Anglican Church of Australia, or of dealing with any church trust property, may be the subject of another ordinance by that Synod declaring that it would be expedient to constitute them as a body corporate.

Once the second ordinance is passed by the Synod, the Governor may, by order published in the Gazette, declare the members of the unincorporated body to be a body corporate.

The purpose of this Order is to provide for the members of the Diocesan Schools Council to be a body corporate under that name. The relevant ordinances are the Diocesan Schools Council Ordinance 1998 and the Diocesan Schools Council Incorporation Ordinance 1998.
