Racing Administration Amendment Regulation 1999

under the

Racing Administration Act 1998

His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Racing Administration Act 1998.

J RICHARD FACE MP

Minister for Gaming and Racing

Explanatory note

The Racing Administration Amendment Act 1999 amended the Racing Administration Act 1998 to enable a person or body prescribed by the regulations to publish information in relation to dividends and betting odds payable in respect of an authorised totalizator operation conducted in another State or Territory. The object of this Regulation is to prescribe certain persons for that purpose.

The Racing Administration Regulation 1999 currently provides that members of the Internet Industry Association of Australia who are bound by the Internet Industry Code of Practice as in force on 1 March 1999 are exempt from the offence of providing certain services relating to electronic access to gambling operations. The object of this Regulation is to extend the exemption to those members who become bound by the Code of Practice as in force from time to time.

This Regulation is made under the Racing Administration Act 1998, including sections 28, 30 and 37 (the general regulation-making power).
