Motor Traffic Amendment (Penalty Notices and Short Descriptions) Regulation 1999

under the Traffic Act 1909

His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Traffic Act 1909.

MICHAEL KNIGHT, MP
for Minister for Roads

Explanatory note

The Justices (Short Descriptions of Motor Traffic and Other Offences) Regulation 1986 is to be repealed on 1 September 1999 as part of the staged repeal of subordinate legislation under the Subordinate Legislation Act 1989. That Regulation prescribes short descriptions for offences for the purposes of section 145B of the Justices Act 1902, including certain offences under the following:

- (a) the Motor Accidents Act 1988,
- (b) the Motor Vehicles Taxation Act 1988,
- (c) the Roads Acts 1993,
- (d) the Tow Truck Act 1989 and the Tow Truck Regulation 1990,
- (e) the Traffic Act 1909, the General Traffic Regulations 1916, the General Traffic (Pedestrian) Regulations 1937 and the Motor Traffic Regulations 1935.

Section 145B of the Justices Act 1902 enables short descriptions for certain offences to be prescribed for use in any information, complaint, summons, warrant, notice, order or other document.

1999 No 492

Motor Traffic Amendment (Penalty Notices and Short Descriptions) Regulation 1999

Explanatory note

Section 145B (3) provides that the short description may be prescribed by a regulation under the Justices Act 1902, under the Act creating the offence concerned or under any Act authorising the issue of a penalty notice for the offence concerned.

Section 18B of the Traffic Act 1909 enables penalty notices to be issued for offences under the Acts and Regulations mentioned in paragraphs (a)–(e).

The objects of this Regulation are as follows:

- to prescribe in the Motor Traffic Regulations 1935 the short descriptions in respect of the Acts and Regulations referred to in paragraphs (a)–(e) for the purposes of section 145B of the Justices Act 1902,
- to provide for the issue of penalty notices for all offences to which section 18A of the Traffic Act 1909 applies (that is, all offences for which the registered owner of a motor vehicle is automatically liable) rather than for parking offences only (as is currently the case),
- to effect minor renumbering of provisions in Schedule K to the Motor Traffic Regulations 1935.

This Regulation is made under the Traffic Act 1909, in particular section 3 (5) (the general regulation-making power) and section 18B, and under section 145B of the Justices Act 1902.
