

New South Wales

Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Amendment (Interstate Law) Regulation 2000

under the

Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1995

His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1995.

BOB DEBUS, M.P.,
Attorney General

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to prescribe the Gender Reassignment Act 2000 of Western Australia in relation to interstate recognition certificates for transgender persons. The proposed amendment will enable a person to whom a certificate has been issued under that Act to be legally recognised in New South Wales as a person of the sex stated in the certificate.

This Regulation is made under the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1995, including sections 32I (Effect of alteration of register and interstate recognition certificates) and 62 (the general regulation-making power).
