Proclamation

Explanatory note

Explanatory note

The object of this Proclamation is to commence amendments to the Marine Pollution Act 1987 that enable regulations to be made under that Act with respect to preventing or regulating the pollution of waters by vessels and other facilities used for operations of vessels. The amendments will also enable regulations to be made with respect to the installation and operation on vessels of toilet and other waste control facilities.

The Proclamation also commences provisions that enable the issue of penalty notices for prescribed offences under the marine legislation.
