

Coastal Protection Amendment (Code of Practice) Regulation 2013

under the

Coastal Protection Act 1979

Her Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Coastal Protection Act 1979.

ROBYN PARKER, MP
Minister for the Environment

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to update references to a Code of Practice specified in the Coastal Protection Regulation 2011. That Regulation provides that requirements specified in the Code of Practice must be complied with in relation to:

- (a) the placement, maintenance and removal of temporary coastal protection works, and
- (b) orders to remove material, structures and temporary coastal protection works on beaches, and
- (c) the restoration of land after the removal of material, structures and temporary coastal protection works.

This Regulation is made under the Coastal Protection Act 1979, including sections 55P (2) (f), 55R (1) (d), 55VC (1) (b), 55ZA (3) (b), 55ZC (5) (b) and 60 (the general regulation-making power).
