Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to amend the Victims Rights and Support Regulation 2013 to make further savings and transitional provisions consequent on the enactment of the Victims Rights and Support Act 2013 (the 2013 Act) and the closure of the statutory compensation scheme under the Victims Support and Rehabilitation Act 1996 (the repealed Act). The provisions:

- (a) make certain family victims who lodged an application for statutory compensation under the repealed Act eligible for a special grant of $5,000 from the Victims Support Fund under clause 5 of Schedule 2 to the 2013 Act in the circumstances specified in that clause, and
- (b) provide that in determining the amount of payments to be made to an applicant who is a family victim under clause 5 there is to be no reduction for any interim payment made under the repealed Act for funeral expenses, and
- (c) ensure that certain rights of appeal under section 38 of the repealed Act in respect of applications for statutory compensation made under the repealed Act before its repeal are preserved.

The Regulation also provides for costs and expenses payable with respect to proceedings before the Administrative Decisions Tribunal under the 2013 Act with respect to victims support to be determined in accordance with section 88 of the Administrative Decisions Tribunal Act 1997.

This Regulation is made under the Victims Rights and Support Act 2013, including section 117 (the general regulation-making power) and clause 1 of Schedule 2.
