CONSTITUTION OF CITIES, MUNICIPALITIES, AND SHIRES.

DIVISION 1.—Cities.

Proclamation
of cities,
cf. L.G. Act,
1906, s. 8.

11. (1) The cities proclaimed before the commencement of this Act are continued as cities under this Act.

(2) The Governor may proclaim as a city a municipality which—

(a) has, during the five years next preceding such proclamation, had an average population of at least twenty thousand persons; and

(b)

(b) has during the said period had an average gross income from all sources of at least twenty thousand pounds; and

(c) is an independent centre of population and is not a suburb, whether residential, industrial, commercial, or maritime, of any other municipality or centre of population.

(3) A city may be described as "the city of....."; and the council thereof may be described as "the council of the city of....."; or as "the..... city council."

(4) All the provisions of this Act which apply to a municipality shall apply to a city.

DIVISION 2.—Municipalities.

12. (1) An area constituted a municipality under the Local Government Act, 1906, or under any Act repealed by that Act, and in existence at the commencement of this Act, is continued as a municipality under this Act.

15. Any land on the boundary of but not within an area as constituted shall be deemed, with any building or structure thereon, to be included in the area, if—

- (a) it has at any time been reclaimed from tidal waters; or
- (b) it is situate under tidal waters or on the shore, or on or below high-water mark, or below the margin of any tidal waters;

and if, in either case—

- (i) it is privately owned; or
- (ii) there is thereon any jetty, wharf, pier, or building; or
- (iii) the Governor by proclamation declares that the land shall form part of the area.

PART III.

ALTERATIONS OF CITIES, MUNICIPALITIES, AND SHIRES.

Alteration of areas.

cf. Eng. L.G.
Act, 1888,
ss. 57-59.

16. The Governor may at any time by proclamation—

- (a) alter the boundaries of areas by taking part of one area and adding it to another area;
- (b) alter the boundaries of an area by adding thereto any land which is not within an area: Provided that land in the Western Division shall not be added to a shire;
- (c) take land from any one or more areas, and constitute such land a separate shire or municipality;
- (d) divide any whole areas or whole areas and parts of areas into a different number of areas and constitute such areas as municipalities or shires;
- (e) unite areas, and constitute the united area as a municipality or a shire;

(f)

- (f) convert and constitute a municipality as a shire George V,
No. 41. or a shire as a municipality ;
- (g) give names to any areas constituted under this Part ;
- (h) correct errors in the proclamation of the boundaries of areas.

17. A new municipality shall not be constituted New municipality—conditions
precedent. (except by union of areas) unless—

- (a) it contains a population of at least three thousand inhabitants ; and
- (b) it has an average density of population of at least one inhabitant per acre ; and
- (c) the unimproved capital value of all ratable land included therein is such that a general rate of threepence in the pound on such unimproved capital value will yield an annual income of three thousand pounds.

18. Every area, when altered under this Part, shall Areas to be continuous. consist of adjoining territories.

19. (1) A proposal to the Governor to exercise any Proposals for alteration of areas. power under this Part may be submitted to the Minister—

- (a) by the council ; or
- (b) in a case where the status of any whole area will be directly affected—by fifty electors of any such area ; or
- (c) in a case where part of an area is proposed to be separated from one and attached to another area, or is proposed to be created a separate area—by fifty electors of that part, or, if there be less than fifty electors enrolled in respect of lands situated in that part, by any number of electors not less than one-third of those so enrolled ; or
- (d) in a case where a general rate of fourpence in the pound on the unimproved capital value of the ratable lands in a municipality would not yield a greater income than one thousand pounds, and a proposal is to be made to unite such municipality with another area—by an officer of the Minister.

George V,
No. 41.

(2) If the Minister decide to proceed with any such proposal he shall give the prescribed notice.

(3) Within the time fixed in such notice objection to the proposal may be lodged by the council or by such number of such electors as by this section are empowered to submit a like proposal.

(4) If objection be duly lodged, and if the Minister, after considering such objection, decide to proceed further with the proposal, he shall (subject to the other provisions of this section) refer it for inquiry and report to such local land board as he may appoint, or to a person appointed by him in accordance with this Act.

(5) If the proposal be one involving the union with another area of a municipality in which a general rate of fourpence in the pound on the unimproved capital value of the ratable lands therein would yield a greater income than one thousand pounds, and if within the time fixed in such notice a petition for a poll be duly lodged by fifty electors of the municipality, the Minister shall (in lieu of referring the proposal for such inquiry and report) direct that a poll of electors of the municipality be held by the council on the proposal, and the council shall hold such poll accordingly.

(6) If objection be not duly lodged, or if the report made as the result of inquiry following on the lodging of objection be in favour of the proposal (with or without modification), or if the decision of such poll be in the affirmative, the proposal with such modification, if any, as may be found advisable may be submitted for the Governor's decision.

(7) The powers of section sixteen of this Act shall not be exercised except upon a proposal dealt with in accordance with this section.

Division of assets and liabilities.

20. (1) If in the opinion of the Minister the giving effect to any proposal under this Part would render necessary a division of the assets or liabilities, or both, of any area, the provisions of this section shall have effect.

(2) The Minister shall require the councils of the areas affected to confer with one another and with their their creditors (if any) and to agree upon an arrangement as to the apportionment of assets, rights, and liabilities between the areas and creditors affected. George V,

No. 41.

(3) Where the councils or the councils and creditors (if any) do not confer or cannot agree as aforesaid the Minister may make a draft of such an arrangement and give the prescribed notice thereof by advertisement. The councils and their creditors may agree to any such draft with or without amendment.

(4) Where the councils and their creditors do not agree to any such draft any council or creditor may within the time allowed in the aforesaid notice submit the matter of making an equitable arrangement to a district court judge, who may summon witnesses, hear evidence, and determine the matter, and make an arrangement which shall be final and shall be embodied in the Governor's proclamation.

(5) If the matter be not submitted to a district court judge as hereinbefore provided, the arrangement proposed by the Minister with or without amendment as aforesaid may be embodied in the Governor's proclamation.

21. (1) For the purposes of this Part the Governor may (notwithstanding anything elsewhere in this Act provided) by proclamation— What may be provided in Governor's proclamation.

- (a) provide for the substitution of one council for another so as to enable the former to exercise or enforce on its own behalf any right or power formerly exercised or enforced by the latter council; cf. L.G. Acts,

- (l) give effect to any arrangement made as elsewhere provided by agreement between councils and creditors, or by the Minister, or by a district court judge, with respect to the apportionment of assets, rights, and liabilities ;
- (m) transfer, or provide for the transfer of, any unascertained liabilities of a council (including liabilities for damages only) which are not included in any arrangement referred to in the last preceding paragraph to another council : subject to such conditions or limitations as he may think just ;
- (n) grant approval to councils, subject to conditions specified in such approval, to borrow for the purpose of meeting any liabilities transferred to them under the proclamation ;
- (o) provide for the allotment and apportionment of property not covered by any such arrangement made as aforesaid ;
- (p) provide for the giving and completing of documents to give effect to any transfer or alteration necessitated by the proclamation ; provide for the transfer or apportionment of any certificates, deeds, documents, and records, relating to, or to be executed in, any part of the area affected by the proclamation ;
- (q)

- (q) extend or limit as to locality the operation of any Act as necessitated by such proclamation; and George V,
No. 41.
- (r) provide for any matter or thing (whether herein stated or not) which the Governor may deem necessary or expedient in the circumstances.
- (2) Such proclamation shall have the force of law.

PART IV.

THE COUNCILS OF CITIES, MUNICIPALITIES, AND SHIRES.

DIVISION 1.—Incorporation.

22. (1) For the local government under this Act of each city municipality and shire there shall be a council. Incorporation of councils.
cf. Sydney
Corporation
Act, 1902,
s. 3; and Municipal Corporations
Act, 1908,
s. 4 (New Zealand).

(2) The council shall be a body corporate, with perpetual succession and a common seal, and may sue and be sued in its corporate name; and shall, for the purposes and subject to the provisions of this Act, be capable of purchasing holding granting demising disposing of and alienating real and personal property, and of doing and suffering all such other acts and things as bodies corporate may by law do and suffer.

(3) The corporate name of the council shall be "the council of the (city municipality or shire, as the case may be) of....." cf. L.G.
Acts, 1906-8,
s. 14.

DIVISION 2.—City and municipal councils.

23. (1) Each city and municipal council shall consist of aldermen elected by the electors (except where otherwise provided). Composition of city and municipal councils.
cf. L.G. Acts,
1906-8, s. 29.

(2) The number of aldermen of a municipal council shall be the number now constituting such council, or as determined or altered by the Governor from time to time. Number of aldermen.
cf. L.G.
Acts, 1906-8,
s. 31.

(3) Such number shall not be less than six nor more than fifteen.

(4) Where a municipality is divided into wards the number of aldermen to be elected by the electors of the respective wards shall be the number apportioned to

George V, to such wards at the commencement of this Act, or as
No. 41. determined or altered by the Governor from time to time.

(5) Any alteration in the number of aldermen shall not have effect until the next ordinary election of the council.

(6) If a vacancy in the office of alderman continues after the time prescribed for election thereto the Governor may appoint any qualified person to the vacant office :

Provided that where he deems it expedient the Minister may authorise the holding of an election to fill the vacant office.

DIVISION 3.—Shire councils.

Composition of shire councils.

24. (1) Each shire council shall consist of councillors elected by the electors (except where otherwise provided).

of ridings.
cf. L.G. Acts,
1906-8, s. 24.

(4) The respective ridings of a shire shall be represented on the council by an equal number of councillors.

(5) Any alteration in the number of councillors shall not have effect until the next ordinary election of the council.

(6) If a vacancy in the office of councillor continues after the time prescribed for election thereto the Governor may appoint any qualified person to the vacant office :

Provided that where he deems it expedient the Minister may authorise the holding of an election to fill the vacant office.

DIVISION 4.—Mayors and presidents.

Mayors and presidents.

25. (1) Each municipal council shall elect one of its members to be the mayor.

(2) Each shire council shall elect one of its members to be the president.

(3)

(3) If a vacancy in the office of mayor or president continues after the time prescribed for election thereto, the Governor may appoint any qualified person to the vacant office.

George V.
No. 41.
cf. L.G.
Acts, 1906-8,
s. 35.

(4) If any ordinary election of mayor or president is not held within the prescribed time the Governor may appoint any qualified person to the office.

26. (1) A council may from time to time elect one of its members to act as deputy-mayor or deputy-president either for the mayoral or presidential year or for a limited term as may be resolved by the council.

Deputy of mayor or president.

(2) A deputy-mayor or deputy-president may act in the office of mayor or president during such time (if any) as the mayor or president is prevented by absence, illness, or otherwise from performing any duty of his office, or during such time as an extraordinary vacancy exists in the office of mayor or president.

cf. L.G. Act,
1906, s. 35(8);
Sydney Corporation Act,
1902, s. 50(2).

(3) While so acting the deputy-mayor or deputy-president shall have the powers, authorities, duties, and liabilities of the mayor or president.

(4) If the deputy-mayor or deputy-president be prevented by absence, illness, or otherwise from performing the duties of the mayor's or president's office when occasion arises for him so to act the council may elect another deputy-mayor or deputy-president to act in his place.

27. The prescribed time for an election of mayor or president shall be—

Time for election of mayor or president.

- (a) for the ordinary election of mayor or president following the triennial ordinary election of councils in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty—within the month of February in that year;
- (b) for the next ordinary election thereafter—within the month of December, one thousand nine hundred and twenty;
- (c) for any ordinary election of mayor or president in the year of any subsequent ordinary election of councils—within three weeks after the date of the triennial election;

- (e) for an extraordinary election—within fourteen days after the occurrence of an extraordinary vacancy ;
- (f) for the first election after the constitution of an area—within fourteen days after the appointment of a provisional council or after the first election of aldermen or councillors, as the case may be ;
- (g) for the first election after the appointment or election of a council for a defaulting area—within fourteen days after such appointment or election of a council.

DIVISION 5.—Allowances to aldermen and councillors, mayors and presidents.

Travelling
expenses.
cf. L. G. Act,
1906, s. 26 ;
L. G. Acts, 1906-8,
s. 47B.

28. (1) A council may pay to or on behalf of its members reasonable allowances towards their necessary out-of-pocket expenses for conveyance and subsistence in travelling—

- (a) to and from the meetings of the council ;
- (b) upon inspections within the area, provided such inspections are undertaken in compliance with resolutions of the council passed beforehand ;
- (c) upon business of the council outside the area in compliance with a resolution passed beforehand by the council : Provided that expenses shall not be paid to or on behalf of more than two members of the council under this paragraph, and that this paragraph shall not apply to the conferences hereinafter provided for ;
- (d) to and from the periodical conference of the Local Government Association of New South Wales or the Shires Association of New South Wales or of the Town Planning Associations of Australia or of any district associations of councils councils of municipalities or of shires: Provided that expenses shall not be paid to or on behalf of more than one member of the council under this paragraph. George V,

No. 41.

(2) Allowances under this section shall not exceed such amount as may be prescribed.

29. (1) The council may pay to its mayor or president an allowance in any mayoral or presidential term. Mayors and Presidents.
cf. L.G. Act,
1906, s. 27, 32.

(2) Any allowance to the mayor or president shall be payable to him by monthly instalments from the commencement of his office until it becomes vacant, or, where so resolved by the council, may be paid in any other manner. Method of payment.

(3) During such time as the mayor or president is prevented by absence illness or otherwise from performing any duty of his office the council may grant to the deputy-mayor or deputy-president (if any) such allowance for his expenses as the council may in the circumstances determine, and any such allowance to the deputy-mayor or deputy-president shall be deducted from the corresponding allowance to the mayor or president.

(4) Allowances under this section shall be for the expenses of the mayor or president in connection with his office, and shall not be used for payments to or on behalf of aldermen or councillors.

DIVISION 6.—Qualifications and disqualifications for civic office.

30. (1) Unless disqualified by this Act every person whose name is on a roll of electors compiled under this Act shall be qualified for a civic office. Qualification of office.

 1906, s. 69. available, persons so appointed shall not, until rolls for that area are in force, be deemed to be disqualified for a civic office by reason only of non-enrolment.

cf. L.G. Act, (2) If a person acts in a civic office while dis-1906, s. 71. qualified therefor, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred pounds.

(3) If a person is convicted of acting in a civic office while subject to a special disqualification within the meaning of this Act, the minimum penalty shall be fifty pounds, and his conviction shall have the following consequences, that is to say—

- (a) he shall be disqualified for a civic office for a period of seven years from the conviction unless the court by which he is convicted sees fit in the circumstances of the case to reduce the period of disqualification to a shorter period not being less than one year;
- (b) he shall not be entitled to receive or recover from the council any money in respect of the disqualifying position, agreement, or trading;
- (c) the council may within two years after the receipt by him from the council of any money in respect of the disqualifying position, agreement, or trading recover the same from him in any court of competent jurisdiction.

DIVISION 7.—Tenure of civic office.

Tenure of office.

- (b) become vacant on the day appointed for the next ordinary election of aldermen or councillors or on the occurrence of an extraordinary vacancy, whichever first happens.

alderman or councillor.
See s. 39 post.

(2) Before taking office as alderman or councillor a person elected or appointed thereto shall before a Commissioner of the Supreme Court or a justice of the peace, take the oath of allegiance to His Majesty, and make and subscribe the following declaration of office and transmit the same to the clerk :—

Oath of allegiance and declaration of office.

I , having been elected alderman (or councillor) of , do hereby declare that I will duly and faithfully fulfil the duties of the office according to the best of my judgment and ability.

Any neglect to take such oath or to make such declaration within fourteen days after his election shall be deemed a refusal to accept office.

34. The office of mayor or president shall—

- (a) commence on the day of his election or appointment thereto ;
- (b) become vacant on the day of the election or appointment of his successor, or on the occurrence of an extraordinary vacancy.

Office of mayor or president.

35. An extraordinary vacancy in a civic office shall occur if the person elected or appointed thereto—

- (a) dies ; or
- (b) resigns the office by notice in writing addressed to the town or shire clerk ; or
- (c) is disqualified for the office ; or
- (d) is ousted of the office ; or
- (e) is absent without leave of the council from four consecutive ordinary meetings of the council ; or
- (f) ceases for any reason to hold office before the day on which the office would ordinarily become vacant.

tion Act,
1902, s. 34.

36. If any holder of a civic office becomes bankrupt within the meaning of the law in force for the time being relating to bankrupts or if he compounds his affairs with his creditors he shall thereby cease to hold office, but shall be eligible for re-election if not otherwise disqualified.

Attendance at meetings of council—default.

37. (1) If any councillor or alderman does not attend at least one-half of the meetings of the council held during any year he shall at the end of the year cease to hold office.

(2) He shall be eligible for re-election, if not otherwise disqualified.

(3) This section shall not apply to any absence caused by illness or other sufficient cause if—

- (a) such illness or sufficient cause is duly set out in apologies received at the meetings from which he was absent, and if such apologies are accepted by resolution of the council ; or
- (b) the period of absence so caused is covered by leave of absence granted by the council before or after the absence and before the end of the year and the resolution granting such leave sets out the cause thereof.

(4) Where a councillor or alderman was not in office at the commencement of the year any meetings held before his entry into office shall not in his case be counted in determining the number of meetings held during the year.

DIVISION 8.—Elections.

Appointed days.

1906 s. 43.

38. (1) Elections of aldermen and councillors shall, except as provided in this section, take place on the days appointed therefor respectively.

(2) If it appears to the Minister to be impracticable or inconvenient to hold an election on the day appointed, he may appoint a subsequent day not being more than one month thereafter.

(3) Where the time for the holding of the triennial ordinary election is postponed in any area— George V,
No. 41.

- (a) the election of mayor or president shall be postponed and shall be held within fourteen days after the day of election of the council, and in such case the mayor or president in office immediately before the election may if re-elected as alderman or councillor act as mayor or president until his successor is elected or appointed; and
- (b) the retiring aldermen or councillors may remain in office until the day of the election, and if any of them resigns in the meantime his successor may hold office for the remainder of his term.

(4) In the case of an extraordinary vacancy occurring within the last six months of any council's term of office the Minister may, on the application of the council, order that an election shall not be held; but notwithstanding such order the Minister may, on the like application, subsequently authorise the holding of an election to fill the vacancy, and appoint a day therefor.

39. The appointed day for an election of aldermen or councillors shall be—

- (a) for the ordinary election in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty—the day following the last Friday in January;
- (b) for ordinary elections after the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty—the first Saturday in December, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-two, and the same day in every third year thereafter;
- (c) for the first election after the constitution of an area or for an election in respect of a defaulting area—a Saturday to be proclaimed by the Governor;
- (d) for an extraordinary election—a Saturday fixed and advertised by the returning officer, being within one month in the case of a municipality and two months in the case of a shire after the occurrence of an extraordinary vacancy.

41. (1) No election under this Act shall be invalid by reason only of any of the following irregularities, that is to say—

- (a) any formal defect or error in or relating to the election, if the election was held substantially in accordance with this Act; or
- (b) any defect or want of title of any person who acted as returning officer; or
- (c) any extension of the time of closing the poll, where the voting is by postal ballot, if such extension is approved by the Minister.

(2) If the Governor proclaims that any such irregularity does not invalidate the election, the proclamation shall be conclusive as to the matter stated therein.

Lapsed or void elections.
cf. Sydney
Corporation
Act, 1902,
s. 46.

42. (1) If an election under this Act does not take place on a day appointed therefor or is afterwards declared void for any reason, the council shall not thereby be deemed to be dissolved or to be disabled from taking any necessary steps for the election of aldermen or councillors in the future.

(2) In any such case the election shall be held as in the case of an extraordinary vacancy, and every act necessary to be done for completing the election shall be as valid as if the election were held upon the day or within the time originally appointed for that purpose.

DIVISION

DIVISION 9.—*Ouster of office.*George V,
No. 41.43. (1) In any of the following cases, that is to say—

- (a) where any person declared to be elected or purporting to be appointed to a civic office has been elected or appointed unduly or contrary to the provisions of this Act; or
- (b) where any person holds or acts in a civic office and is disqualified therefor,

poration Act,
1902, s. 56; L.G.
Act, 1906, s. 72.

the Supreme Court or a judge thereof or any district court or court of petty sessions having jurisdiction within the area in which the election has been held or in respect of which the appointment has been made may oust the person of the office.

(2) In any case within paragraph (a) of subsection one of this section a person shall not be so ousted unless proceedings are commenced for that purpose not more than three months after the date when he was elected or appointed, as the case may be.

cf. L.G. Act,
1906, s. 72 (1).

(3) A person who proposes to take proceedings for ouster under this division shall at least twenty-one days before doing so serve upon the person proposed to be ousted a notice of his intention so to proceed and copies of all affidavits proposed to be lodged with the application for ouster.

(4) If within fourteen days after service of the notice and copies of affidavits aforesaid the person served resign his office proceedings for the ouster shall not be taken.

44. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act and to any rules of Court, proceedings for ouster of office shall be taken in accordance with this section.

(2) Upon affidavit of the facts the Supreme Court or a judge thereof or any district court or court of petty sessions having jurisdiction as aforesaid may grant a rule or order calling upon the person concerned to show cause to the court or judge why he should not be ousted of the office.

(3) Upon the return of the rule or order the court or judge may make the rule or order absolute, or may discharge the rule or order, and in either case with or without costs.

(4)

George V,
No. 41. (4) The person against whom the rule or order is made absolute shall be deemed thereby to be ousted of the office, and the ouster shall take effect as by this section provided.

(5) If an appeal from the rule or order be made and the appeal be not upheld, the ouster shall take effect on the decision of the appeal.

(6) If an appeal from the rule or order be not made, the ouster shall take effect on the expiration of the time allowed for appeals: Provided that where the person ousted lodges with the clerk a notice of intention not to appeal, the ouster shall take effect on such lodgment, and thereupon the right of appeal shall lapse.

Inquiry.

cf. No. 1893,
(Victoria).

45. (1) Where proceedings for ouster of office have been commenced, the Supreme Court or a judge thereof or any district court or court of petty sessions having jurisdiction as aforesaid may direct that any matters of fact be ascertained in such manner as the court or judge deems proper, and in particular the court or judge may order that an inquiry be held by any fit person to be named in the order, and that the person so named do report to the court concerning any matters of fact.

(2) The court or any judge thereof or any person so named, as the case may be, may call for and inspect the ballot papers and any roll or papers used at the election and sealed up as prescribed.

(3) The provisions of the Witnesses Examination Act, 1900, so far as the same apply to powers rights and liabilities conferred or imposed in the case of an order for the issue of a commission for the examination of witnesses (except so far as relates to costs and the conditions under which examinations or depositions are to be read in evidence) shall be deemed to apply in the case of any order under this section in like manner as if the person ordered to report hereunder had been authorised and required to take examinations under any such commission.

Appeals.

46. (1) An appeal from any rule or order of a district court or court of petty sessions under this Division on the ground that such rule or order is erroneous in law may be made to the Supreme Court or a judge thereof.

(2) Any such appeal from a district court shall be made and determined in the same manner as an appeal in an action in such court. George V.
No. 41.

(3) Any such appeal from a court of petty sessions shall be made and determined in the same manner as an appeal from the determination of justices in the exercise of their summary jurisdiction.

DIVISION 10.—Business and proceedings of the council.

Meetings.

47. (1) Business shall not be transacted at any meeting of a council unless a quorum, that is to say, a majority of its members is present. Quorum.

- (b) he is the person nominated in writing as an elector by a body corporate which is, or by trustees who are, in occupation as tenant or occupier as aforesaid of ratable land of the yearly value of five pounds or upwards: Provided that the body corporate or trustees may not nominate more than one person for enrolment as occupier in any one ward or riding; or
- (c) he has been continuously during the three months next preceding such prescribed day jointly or severally the occupier of ratable land by virtue of a miner's right or business license under the Mining Act, 1874, or any Act amending or consolidating the same; or
- (d) he has been continuously during the three months next preceding such prescribed day resident within the area and a share-farmer of ratable land—that is to say, a person holding a written license to occupy and cultivate ratable land of a yearly value of five pounds or upwards in consideration of sharing the produce of such land, or, in the case of land used as a dairy farm, sharing the produce of such use, or of the animals grazing thereon; or
- (e) he is in occupation of ratable land owned by the Crown, and, directly or indirectly, pays rent therefor by way of deduction from salary or otherwise; or
- (f) he is a resident manager of any ratable land (other than Crown land which is under lease, promise, or contract of lease from the Crown) which, with or without any houses or other buildings thereon, is of a yearly value of five pounds or upwards; provided that this shall only apply in shires; or (g)

- (g) he is resident, as caretaker for the owner or lessee, upon any ratable land which, with or without any houses or other buildings thereon, is of a yearly value of five pounds or upwards; or
- (h) he is a soldier or sailor within the meaning of this Act, and has been continuously during the three months next preceding such prescribed day resident within the municipality or shire :

George V.
No. 41.

Provided that where the land jointly tenanted or occupied as aforesaid is of less yearly value than ten pounds only one of the joint tenants or occupiers shall be entitled to be placed on the roll, and where the land jointly tenanted or occupied as aforesaid is of the yearly value of ten pounds or upwards, such number of the joint tenants or occupiers as, when divided into the said yearly value, gives a quotient of five pounds with a remainder of less than five pounds shall be entitled to be placed on the roll; and the joint tenants or occupiers who shall be so entitled shall, in either case, be determined by a majority of the tenants or occupiers evidenced by agreement signed by such majority and delivered to the clerk, or, failing such agreement, according to the alphabetical order of their surnames.

cf. Syd. Corp.
Act, 1902,
s. 9 (3).

No. 41.

Persons not entitled to vote.

56. (1) Subject to this Act a person shall not be entitled to vote unless—

- (a) his name is on the roll for the ward or riding for which he claims to vote; and
- (b) he retains the requisite qualification and fulfils the conditions and requirements prescribed in respect of voting :

Provided that a married woman who is enrolled under her name prior to marriage may vote under that name pending correction of the rolls.

(2) A person shall not cease to retain the requisite qualification by reason only of a change of residence within the same ward or riding.

(3) A person who has changed his residence from the ward or riding for which he is enrolled to another ward or riding shall not on that account be debarred from voting at an election held within three months after the change of residence.

58. (1) The Governor may by proclamation divide municipalities into wards.

(2) The Governor may by proclamation alter or abolish any division of a municipality into wards, and after abolishing any such division may again divide a municipality into wards: Provided that such alteration, abolition, or subsequent division shall not affect the representation of the municipality on its council until the next following ordinary election of the council or such earlier time as may be proclaimed.

Preliminaries to alteration of wards.

(3) Before such division, alteration, abolition, or subsequent division is carried out the prescribed notice shall be given, and the council or any elector of the municipality may make written representations with regard thereto.

(4) Before so dividing a municipality or altering or abolishing any such division, or redividing a municipality, the Governor shall, on the request of one hundred or more of the electors of the municipality, remit to a poll of electors of the whole municipality the question whether such division, alteration, abolition, or redivision shall be carried out. The council shall thereupon fix and notify as prescribed a day on which such poll shall be held, and the same shall be held accordingly. If the decision of the poll is in the negative the proposal shall not be given effect to; and a proposal having substantially the same effect shall not be brought forward within twelve months thereafter.

(3) But before any such alteration is made the prescribed notice shall be given, and the council or any elector of the shire may make written representations with regard thereto.

Divisions made under previous Acts are divisions under this Act.
cf. L.G. Acts, 1906-8, s. 20.

62. Any division of shires into ridings, and any alteration of such division made under the Acts hereby repealed, and in force at the commencement of this Act, shall be a division and an alteration of such division made under this Act.

Ridings for extraordinary elections and for supplementary rolls.

63. Any alteration or abolition of ridings or division of a shire into ridings proclaimed since the last ordinary election shall not take effect for the purpose of any extraordinary election or the compilation of any supplementary roll.

DIVISION 4.—The rolls.

Original rolls.
cf. L.G. Acts, 1906-8, ss. 50, 53.

64. (1) Within a reasonable time before each triennial ordinary election of the council and whenever required by ordinance the council shall, and at any other time the council may, cause an original roll of electors to be prepared.

Supplementary rolls.
cf. L.G. Acts, 1906-8, ss. 51, 50.

(2) In each year other than those in which original rolls are prepared each council shall cause supplementary rolls of electors to be prepared.

Method of preparation of rolls.

65. (1) The preparation of an original roll shall consist of—

- (a) the compilation of a list of persons who appear to have the requisite qualification of electors;
- (b) the exhibition of the list for public information;
- (c) the receipt of claims and objections to enrolment;
- (d) the revision of the list and the determination of the claims and objections by a revision court;
- (e) the signing of the lists as revised by the revision court.

(2) The preparation of a supplementary roll shall consist of—

- (a) the compilation of a list of persons not already enrolled who appear to have the requisite qualification for enrolment; and of the additions and

and omissions which it is necessary to make to and from the existing roll because of errors, changes of qualification, changes of name by marriage, changes of residence, death, loss of qualification, or other sufficient reason ;

George V.
No. 41.

- (b) the exhibition of the list for public information ;
- (c) the receipt of claims and objections to enrolment ;
- (d) the revision of the list and the determination of the claims and objections by a revision court ;
- (e) the signing of the list as revised, and the signing and initialling of a copy of the existing roll with the necessary changes made therein, by the revision court.

(3) Subject to this Act rolls shall be prepared as prescribed.

(4) Rolls shall be prepared separately for wards or ridings ; and the rolls for all the wards or ridings of an area shall taken together be the roll for the area.

66. (1) A person shall not be enrolled more than once in respect of the same ward or riding.

Enrolment

(2) A person may be enrolled in respect of each ward or riding in which he is qualified as owner or as ratepaying lessee.

cf. L.G. Act,
ss. 52, 60.

(3) A person qualified for enrolment as owner or as ratepaying lessee in any ward or riding who is also qualified for enrolment in another ward or riding of the same area as occupier shall not be enrolled under both of these qualifications. He may give notice to the clerk naming the ward or riding in which he elects to be enrolled ; and failing such notice within the time prescribed shall be enrolled in the ward or riding in which he is qualified as owner or as ratepaying lessee.

(4) A person qualified for enrolment as occupier in more than one ward or riding shall be enrolled in one ward or riding only. He may give notice to the clerk naming the ward or riding in which he elects to be enrolled ; and failing such notice within the time prescribed the clerk may decide the question.

67. Any person making a claim or objection to be laid before the revision court may be required to make a declaration in the presence of a witness and in the prescribed form.

s. 7.

DIVISION

George V,
No. 41.

Powers of mayor or president.

DIVISION 2.—The mayor or president.

87. (1) The mayor or president shall preside at all meetings of the council at which he is present.

(2) The mayor or president shall be the chief executive officer of the council, and in particular may, unless otherwise directed by or under this Act or by resolution of the council—

- (a) carry on the regular services and operations of the council within the sums voted by the council for expenditure thereon, and in accordance with the resolutions of the council ;
- (b) control and direct the servants of the council ;
- (c) suspend any servant of the council, and appoint some person to carry on the work until the next meeting of the council ;
- (d) authorise the payment of the salaries and wages of the servants of the council within the sums voted by the council for expenditure thereon ;
- (e) authorise any work which in his opinion is urgent, at a cost not exceeding ten pounds or such other limit beyond that amount as the council may determine ;
- (f) at any meeting of the council, remove or cause the removal of any member of the council who after warning is guilty of disorder, and at the same or any subsequent meeting exclude or remove such member unless he apologise without reservation.

(3) The mayor or president shall give effect to the provisions made by or under this Act and any other Act conferring powers or imposing duties on the council, and to any resolution, minute, or report which has been passed or adopted by the council.

(4) In addition to his original vote a mayor or president (or any chairman presiding at any meeting of a council) shall in the case of equality of voting at any meeting of the council have a second or casting vote. This shall not apply to the election of mayor or president.

DIVISION

DIVISION 3.—*The servants of the council.*George V,
No. 41.

88. (1) Subject to this Act, every municipal and shire council shall appoint and employ a town or shire clerk, and, on the occurrence of a vacancy, shall, within three months thereafter, make an appointment.

Certificated
clerks.
cf. L.G.
Acts, 1906-8,
s. 122.

(2) In making such appointment a council whose income from all sources for the last preceding year was not less than one thousand five hundred pounds shall appoint a person who holds a certificate as prescribed: Provided that in exceptional cases in areas in the Western Division the Minister may from time to time exempt a council for a limited period from the operation of this subsection.

(3) Ordinances may be made prescribing the conditions upon which certificates of town and shire clerks may be issued, and providing for the continuance in force of certificates issued under the Acts hereby repealed.

(4) Subject to the approval of the Minister, any person holding the prescribed certificate may be appointed clerk to two councils.

89. A council may appoint a deputy clerk who shall have the powers and duties of the clerk during the absence for good cause of the clerk, or during a period not exceeding three months after the occurrence of a vacancy in the position of town or shire clerk.

Deputy
clerks.
cf. L.G. Acts,
1906-8, s. 122.

90. (1) Every shire council shall appoint an engineer, who shall hold a certificate as prescribed.

Certificated
engineers.
cf. L.G. Acts,
1906-8, s. 123.

(2) Where, after the commencement of this Act, a vacancy occurs in any municipality in the position of the servant having the principal oversight of the work of road construction and maintenance (whether under the title of engineer, overseer, foreman, or any other title), the council shall, if during the last preceding year its income from all sources other than a gas or electricity undertaking exceeded the sum of fifteen thousand pounds, appoint an engineer who shall hold a certificate as prescribed: Provided that the Minister on the occurrence of a vacancy as aforesaid may grant the council an exemption from this provision.

(3)

George V.
No. 41. (3) Subject to the approval of the Minister any person holding the prescribed certificate as engineer may be appointed engineer to two or more councils.

(4) Ordinances may be made prescribing the conditions upon which certificates as engineer may be issued; providing for the continuance in force of certificates issued under the Acts hereby repealed, prescribing the cases in which an engineer may be employed for less than the full number of working days in the year, and prescribing the minimum number of days of employment in various cases.

Income for
year.

91. For the purposes of this Division, in any case where by reason of reconstitution or alteration of an area the income for the last preceding year cannot be computed the estimated income from a general rate of three pence in the pound in a municipality or three half pence in the pound in a shire shall be substituted for the income from all sources for the last preceding year.

Certain statutory rights of ex-Public
servants.
Vide L.G.
Acts, 1906-8,
s. 120.

92. Where a district assistant engineer in the Public Service or his assistant was under the Local Government (Shires) Act, 1905, or the Local Government Act, 1906, appointed to the position of shire engineer, any rights which such district assistant engineer or his assistant may have had to any pension, gratuity, or refund payable out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund on the abolition of his office in the Public Service shall be adjusted, and payments in respect thereof shall, where not already made, be made as soon as practicable after the commencement of this Act.

Failure to appoint.
Vide L.G.
Acts, 1906-8,
s. 122.

93. (1) Where any council fails to appoint a certificated clerk or engineer in accordance with this Act the Minister may serve notice upon such council requiring it to make such appointment within a reasonable period stated in such notice, not being less than one month.

(2) Where any council fails to make an appointment within the period fixed in any notice given by the Minister in accordance with this Act, the Governor may make an appointment and may fix the terms of such appointment. The clerk or engineer so appointed shall be

be paid by the council and shall not be dismissed nor shall the terms of his appointment be altered except by the Governor. George V,
No. 41.

94. (1) The Governor may on information from the Board of Health that the sanitary duties are not being efficiently carried out, require a council to appoint one or more health inspectors, approved by the said board, and may, if the council do not appoint such inspectors within three months of the date of such requirement being made, himself appoint such inspectors, and may fix the terms of any such appointment. Health inspectors.
cf. L.G. Acts,
1906-8, s. 123.

(2) The salary of any such health inspector appointed by the Governor shall be paid by the council, and such inspector shall not be dismissed nor shall the terms of his appointment be altered except by the Governor.

95. (1) Subject to the provisions of this or any other Act and of any ordinance— Servants.

- (a) the council may by resolution from time to time appoint such servants as it thinks necessary to assist in the execution of this Act, and may remove or reappoint them;
- (b) during the absence from duty of any servant of the council by reason of illness leave of absence or other cause, the duties powers and authorities of the servant may be performed and exercised by a deputy to be appointed and removed by resolution of the council, and any such appointment may be either general or for some occasion only.

(2) A person who has held office in a council shall not be eligible to be appointed to any position in the pay of that council until six months have elapsed from his ceasing to hold such office. Ex-aldermen and ex-councillors not eligible for appointment as servants.

(3) When making any appointment of a servant the council shall, other things being equal, give preference to an applicant (if any) who is a returned soldier or sailor, or who has been a member of the Australian Imperial Forces, and has been discharged on account of injuries suffered while undergoing training in Australia. Preference to soldiers.

(4)

George V,
No. 41.

(4) The council shall not appoint or pay any person in contravention of this section.

Private work by public officials.

96. (1) A servant of the council shall not for any person other than the council prepare any plans, specifications, or applications in respect of the subdividing of land, the opening of new roads, or the erecting of buildings, or in respect of the constructing of any works in any case where the works are such that the permission or approval of the council or the supervision of the council's servant is needed :

Provided that this shall apply only to matters done in or with respect to the area of the council.

(2) This section shall apply notwithstanding that the council may have granted the servant the right of private practice.

Gratuities of
servants.

97. When terminating the employment of any servant for any reason other than misconduct, or on the death of any servant, a council may as an act of grace grant to him or to his dependants a gratuity not exceeding the amount of two weeks' salary or wages (such salary or wages being reckoned at the average of the last fifty-two weeks, or, if he has not been continuously employed so long, at the average of his term of employment) for each year of his service with such council, and proportionately for a fraction of a year.

Certain rights conferred on
servants.

98. Any certificated town or shire clerk, or certificated local government engineer, who is in the service of a council shall, if otherwise qualified, be eligible for appointment to any vacant office in the Public Service connected with the administration of this Act as if he were an officer of the Public Service, and the words "Public Service" where they occur in sections thirty-four, thirty-five, and thirty-six of the Public Service Act, 1902, shall, for the purpose of this section, be taken to extend to and include such clerks and engineers. All such appointments shall be made subject to the provisions of the Public Service Act, 1902, and the regulations made thereunder.

before dismissal of certain
servants.

99. (1) The provisions of this section shall apply to town or shire clerks, engineers, health inspectors, and overseers.

(2) Where the council proposes to terminate the employment of any such servant it shall either order an inquiry hereunder or suspend him. George V.
No. 41.

(3) Where any such servant is suspended the council shall state the reasons for the suspension.

(4) Within one week after suspension the servant may (if an inquiry hereunder has not already been held) apply to the council for an inquiry. Thereupon the council shall order an inquiry. If the servant does not apply for an inquiry the council may proceed to determine the matter.

(5) The inquiry shall be held by some person appointed by the Governor.

(6) The person holding the inquiry shall report to the council; and his report shall be read in open council.

(7) Where an inquiry is ordered the decision of the council shall not be given until after the reading of the report as aforesaid.

(8) The provisions of the Royal Commissioners' Evidence Act, 1901, shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to a person holding an inquiry under this section.

DIVISION 4.—Offences with respect to administration.

100. The offences in this Division shall be the offences with respect to administration under this Act.

Offences with respect to administration.
Sec. 30-2 (h)
ante.

101. (1) Any person in any office or employment under this Act who without lawful authority demands or receives from any person any payment gratuity or present in consideration of doing or of omitting to do any act or thing pertaining to his office or employment shall be liable to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a term not exceeding two years.

Corruption.
cf. L.G. Act,
1906, s. 125.

(2) Any person who without lawful authority offers makes or gives to any person in any office or employment under this Act any payment gratuity or present

George V, present in consideration that the latter will do or omit
 No. 41. to do some act or thing pertaining to his office or employment shall be liable to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a term not exceeding two years.

Failure to account or deliver up.

cf. L.G. Act,
 1906, s. 124.

cf. Sydney
 Corporation
 Act, 1902,
 s. 63.

cf. C.T.W.
 and S. Act,
 131.

102. (1) If any servant when required by the mayor or president or by the council fails—

- (a) to render account of moneys which shall have come into his hands or under his control and of his dealings therewith or to pay to the mayor or president the balance of any such moneys; or
- (b) to deliver up within two days to the mayor or president all papers property and things in his possession or power relating to the execution of this Act or belonging to the council, any stipendiary or police magistrate or any two justices may on the complaint of the mayor or president order such servant to render the accounts pay the balance or deliver up the papers property and things, as the case may be, and that on non-compliance with the order the servant be imprisoned for a period not exceeding six months.

(2) It shall be the duty of the mayor or president to institute proceedings whenever he has reason to believe that any servant has not complied with a requirement under this section.

(3) Proceedings under this section shall not affect the liability of any surety of any servant, or relieve any servant from being held to answer any criminal information charge or proceeding.

(4) For the purposes of this section "servant" shall include a person who has, within six months prior to any requirement aforesaid, been a servant of the council.

Wilful destruction of documents.
 cf. Sydney Corporation Act,
 1902, s. 63.

Prosecution for larceny or embezzlement.
 cf. L.G. Act,
 1906, s. 126.

103. Any servant or other person who wilfully destroys any document of or belonging to the council shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanour.

104. Where the council has reasonable grounds to believe that any of its servants has stolen or embezzled any of its moneys or property the council shall with due diligence prosecute the offender.

DIVISION

DIVISION 5.—*Ordinances.*George V,
No. 41.

105. Ordinances may be made for carrying this Part into effect, and in particular for and with respect to—

- (a) the insurance of the fidelity of the servants of the council;
- (b) the suspension cancellation and recall of certificates and the effect thereof;
- (c) the regulation of the conditions of employment of servants of councils;
- (d) the prevention of evasion of the law relating to the appointment and employment of certificated servants, the definition of what constitutes such evasion, and the preservation of the status and privileges of the holders of certificates.

PART VII.

FINANCE.

DIVISION 1.—Funds.Separate funds.

106. (1) For the purposes and subject to the provisions of this Act each council shall establish the following funds, that is to say :—

- (c) all moneys borrowed for any general purpose and all moneys received or receivable in respect of the loan rate (if any) levied in respect of such borrowings ;
- (d) all moneys transferred in accordance with this Act from a trading fund to the general fund ;
- (e) all moneys and property directed by or under this Act to be allocated to the general fund.

Application
of the fund.

(2) The general fund may be applied to any of the following purposes, that is to say—

- (a) any general purpose ;
- (b) contributions to any reserve for loan repayment in respect of moneys borrowed for any general purpose ;
- (c) payment of principal interest and expenses in respect of moneys borrowed for any general purpose ;
- (d) transfers to a trading fund for promotion expenses, or to make good any deficiency in the income for any year of a trading fund ;
- (e) any purpose authorised by or under this Act for the application of the general fund ;
- (f) payment of the expense of lighting streets or roads where the whole of the area would be benefited by such expenditure, or where the amount so expended is not more in any year than one-tenth of the total amount received from general rates in such area during the preceding year.

For "general purpose" see subsec. 3.

(3) A general purpose is a lawful purpose under this Act in respect of which income or expenditure is not payable or chargeable to any fund other than the general fund.

(4) The council may create separate funds subsidiary to the general fund in respect of any work or service chargeable to the general fund.

*A special fund.*George V.
No. 41.

108. (1) A special fund shall consist of the following assets of the council—

Assets of the fund.

- (a) all moneys received or receivable in respect of the special rate in respect of which the fund is kept;
- (b) all moneys received or receivable in respect of the special matter or purpose for which the special rate is levied;
- (c) all moneys borrowed in respect of that special matter or purpose; and all moneys received or receivable in respect of the loan rate (if any) levied in respect of such borrowings;
- (d) all moneys and property directed by or under this Act to be allocated to the special fund.

cf. L.G. Acts,
1906-8, s. 180.

(2) A special fund may be applied to any of the following purposes, that is to say—

Application of the fund.

- (a) the special purpose for which the special rate in respect of which the fund is kept is levied;
- (b) contributions to any reserve for loan repayment in respect of moneys borrowed for the aforesaid special purpose;
- (c) payment of principal, interest, and expenses in respect of moneys borrowed for the aforesaid special purpose;
- (d) any purpose authorised by or under this Act for the application of the fund.

(3) Where a special fund is closed any balance therein may be carried to some other fund, if the Governor approve.

Closing of the fund.

A local fund.

109. (1) A local fund shall consist of the following assets of the council:—

Assets of the fund.

- (a) all moneys received or receivable in respect of the local rate in respect of which the fund is kept;
- (b) all moneys received or receivable in respect of the special matter or purpose for which the local rate is levied;
- (c) all moneys borrowed in respect of that special matter or purpose, and all moneys received or receivable

1906-8, s. 181.

George V,
No. 41.

receivable in respect of the loan rate (if any) levied in respect of such borrowings;

- (d) all moneys and property directed by or under this Act to be allocated to the local fund.

Application
of the fund.

(2) A local fund may be applied to any of the following purposes, that is to say,—

- (a) the special purpose for which the local rate in respect of which the fund is kept is levied;
- (b) contributions to any reserve for loan repayment in respect of moneys borrowed for the aforesaid special purpose;
- (c) payment of principal interest and expenses in respect of moneys borrowed for the aforesaid special purpose;
- (d) any purpose authorised by or under this Act for the application of the fund.

Closing of the fund.

(3) When a local fund is closed any balance therein may be carried to some other fund if the Governor approve.

The trading funds.

Assets of a trading fund.

110. (1) The trading fund in respect of each trading undertaking shall consist of the following assets of the council, that is to say—

- (a) all moneys received or receivable in respect of the trading undertaking;
- (b) all moneys borrowed for the purposes of the trading undertaking, and all moneys received or receivable in respect of the loan rate (if any) levied in respect of such borrowings;
- (c) all moneys transferred from the general fund or other fund for promotion expenses, or to make good any deficiency in the income for any year of the trading fund;
- (d) all moneys and property directed by or under this Act to be allocated to the trading fund.

Application
of a trading fund.

(2) The trading fund in respect of each trading undertaking may be applied to any of the following purposes, that is to say—

- (a) any purpose of the undertaking (including establishing or acquiring the undertaking);
- (b)

- (b) transfers to any reserve for loan repayment in respect of moneys borrowed for the purposes of the undertaking; George V,
No. 41.
- (c) payment of principal interest and expenses in respect of moneys borrowed for the purposes of the undertaking;
- (d) transfers in accordance with this Act to the general or other fund;
- (e) any purpose authorised by or under this Act for the application of the trading fund.

(3) When a trading fund is closed any balance therein may be carried to some other fund if the Governor approve. Closing of the fund.

(4) A transfer shall not be made from a trading fund to the general or other fund except by way of refund, or in payment of rates or debts, properly payable by the trading fund, or on the closing of the trading fund. Transfers from and to a trading fund.

(5) If in any trading fund there is for any year a surplus of net profit after providing for reserves and all other proper purposes in accordance with the provisions of this Act, the surplus shall be paid to the reserve for loan repayment in the trading fund.

(6) If in any trading fund there is a loss for any year the deficiency shall be met out of the surplus of any previous year, and if there is no such sufficient surplus the deficiency shall so far as necessary be made good by the transfer of such sums from the general or any other fund or both as the Governor may on the application of the council determine.

(7) Any transfer from the general or any other fund to the trading fund (except in payment of rates or debts properly payable to the trading fund) shall be treated as a liability of the trading fund and be repaid out of the first available surplus of any subsequent year.

The trust fund.

111. (1) The trust fund shall consist of the following assets, that is to say— Moneys of
the fund.

- (a) all moneys granted by the Government to the council on the condition that they shall be used for a specified purpose;
- (b)

George V,
No. 41.

cf. Sydney
Corporation
Act, 1902,
s. 206.

Application
of the fund.

- (b) all moneys and property held by the council by way of deposit or in trust for any person ;
- (c) all moneys and property assigned conveyed bequeathed or devised to the council in trust for any charitable or public purpose.

(2) This trust fund shall be applied as follows, that is to say—

- (a) where the moneys have been granted by the Government as aforesaid and the accounts for expenditure in respect of the specified purpose have been passed by the council for payment, such portion of the grant as may be required to pay the accounts may be transferred to the appropriate fund ;
- (b) where the moneys or property are held by way of deposit or in trust for any person, the same may be paid or assured to or on behalf of the person entitled thereto :

Provided that if the moneys have lain in the trust fund for ten years the council may transfer the same to such fund as it may deem proper, subject to repaying the same from that fund to any person entitled thereto ;

- (c) except as otherwise provided in this section, the moneys and property shall be applied for the purposes and according to the trusts concerning the same.

Classification of ancillary powers and duties.

Classification of expenditure according to purpose for which powers are exercised.

112. (1) For the purposes of classification and distribution among the funds, the income and expenditure arising from the exercise of any power of a general or ancillary nature shall be treated as appertaining to the purpose or matter for or in respect of which the power is exercised.

(2) The provisions of this section shall mutatis mutandis apply to the duties of the council.

Transfers.

Transfers from fund to fund
regulated.
cf. L.G. Acts, 1906-8,
s. 181A (3).

113. (1) Moneys shall not be transferred from one fund of a council to any other fund, except in accordance with this Act or with the ordinances.

(2) In the ordinances provision may be made for the distribution of the administrative expenses of the council among the various funds, and for the definition of administrative expenses. George V,
No. 41.

(3) The Minister may permit a council to lend money from any fund to any other fund. Except in respect of a temporary loan fund established under the Local Government Act, 1906, this subsection shall not apply to loan moneys. Loans from fund to fund.

(4) The council shall comply in all respects with the provisions fixed by the Minister in such permission as to the amount of and application of the money, the time and method of repayment, and the interest payable thereon.

114. (1) The provisions of this section shall apply to the loan funds kept by councils at the commencement of this Act under the provisions of the Acts hereby repealed. Closing of old loan funds—transfer to other funds.

(2) The assets and liabilities of the temporary loan fund may be transferred to and amalgamated with such other funds of the council as may be appropriate, or the temporary loan fund may be continued until its liabilities have been paid, and shall then be closed.

(3) All loan funds, other than the temporary loan fund, shall be closed. The assets and liabilities of each such fund shall be transferred to such other funds of the council as may be appropriate; but such transfer shall not affect the allocation and appropriation of the moneys of these loan funds to the specific purposes for which they were raised. See also
post.

Decisions of questions relating to the funds.

115. If any question arises under this Act or the ordinances with respect to— Questions as to funds.

(a) the fund or account within a fund to which any moneys or property should be allocated;

or

(b) the fund which should be applied for any purpose,

the Minister may determine the question.

No. 41.

Ordinances.

Ordinances.

116. Ordinances may be made for carrying this Division into effect, and in particular for and with respect to—

- (a) the classification of income and expenditure;
- (b) the payment of moneys into a bank, the drawing of moneys out of a bank, and the signature and counter-signature of cheques; and
- (c) the investment of moneys of the council on fixed deposit or in the loans of the Commonwealth or of the State.

DIVISION 2.—Rates.

Four kinds
of rates.
cf. L.G. Acts,
1906-8, s.
141.

117. Rates levied by a council may be of four kinds, namely—

General rates.
Special rates.
Local rates.
Loan rates.

General rates.

General rates
in municipalities and shires.
cf. L.G. Acts, 1906-8,
ss. 150-151.

118. The council of a municipality or shire shall in each year make and levy a general rate of not less than one penny in the pound on the unimproved capital value of all ratable land in the area :

Provided that if the council shows that a general rate of one penny in the pound is more than sufficient to meet the requirements of the area the Governor may allow the council to levy any lower rate approved by the Governor.

Suspension of land tax.
Schedule
Two.

cf. L.G. Acts,
1906-8, s. 152.

119. The enactments mentioned in Schedule Two are suspended in municipalities and shires :

Provided always that in each area such suspension shall not apply to the land tax for the years from one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six up to the year in which a general rate on the unimproved capital value of land was first made in such area.

Special

Special rates.

120. (1) Special rates may be made and levied by the council of a municipality or shire on the unimproved capital value or on the improved capital value of all ratable land in the area for any purpose which may lawfully be undertaken by the council.

George V,
No. 41.

Special rates.
cf. L.G. Acts,
1906-8, s. 153.

(2) The purpose of a special rate shall be specified in the resolution to make the rate.

(3) On publication of notice of a proposal to make and levy a special rate a petition for a poll of ratepayers on the question of the basis of the rate may be served on the council within the prescribed time by any number not less than one-fifth of such ratepayers.

(4) If a petition for a poll be duly made the council shall take the poll forthwith.

(5) At the poll all enrolled ratepayers in the area may vote.

(6) Notice of the poll shall be given by advertisement at least fourteen days before it is taken.

(7) The question submitted at the poll shall be whether the rate shall be levied on the improved or unimproved capital value, and the council, if it makes and levies the rate, shall give effect to the decision of the poll.

Local rates.

121. (1) For or towards defraying the expenses of executing any work or service which in the opinion of the council would be of special benefit to a portion of its area to be defined as prescribed, the council of a municipality or shire may make and levy a local rate on the unimproved capital value or on the improved capital value of ratable land within such portion.

Local rate.
cf. L.G. Acts, 1906-8,
s. 124.

(2) The council of a municipality or shire may by notice in the Gazette from time to time define part of the area to be known as a "town improvement district" within which a "town improvement local rate" may be levied under the provisions of this section.

Town

(3) On publication of notice of a proposal to make and levy a local rate a petition for a poll of ratepayers

George V,
No. 41.

payers on the question of the basis of the rate may be served on the council within the prescribed time by any fifty ratepayers on the roll having their qualification in respect of land which will be subject to the rate, or if there are not one hundred and fifty such ratepayers on the roll, by any number not less than one-fifth of such ratepayers.

(4) If a petition for a poll be duly made the council shall take the poll forthwith.

(5) At the poll all enrolled ratepayers having their qualification in respect of land which will be subject to the local rate may vote.

(6) Notice of the poll shall be given by advertisement at least fourteen days before it is taken.

(7) The question submitted at the poll shall be whether the rate shall be levied on the improved or unimproved capital value; and the council, if it makes and levies the rate, shall give effect to the decision of the poll.

Ratepayers' power to require imposition of local rate.

122. (1) The council shall, if required so to do in accordance with this section, make and levy a local rate on the unimproved capital value or improved capital value of all ratable land in a particular ward or riding.

(2) Upon receipt of a written requisition signed by all of the aldermen or councillors representing the ward or riding concerned, or signed by any number not less than one-fifth of the ratepayers of such ward or riding, the council shall take a poll of the ratepayers in that ward or riding on the question whether the council shall be required to levy a local rate as aforesaid, and upon the question whether the rate shall be on the unimproved capital value or improved capital value of ratable land.

(3) The requisition shall state the purpose for which the local rate is to be levied and the amount in the pound of the proposed rate, and also whether it is proposed that the rate shall be on the unimproved capital value or upon the improved capital value of ratable land.

(4) At the poll all enrolled ratepayers having George V.
No. 41. their qualification in respect of land which will be subject to the proposed local rate may vote.

(5) If the result of the poll is in favour of the levying of the rate, the council shall thereupon make and levy the same in accordance with such result.

123. (1) Where the council of a municipality or shire proposes to levy any local rate for the purpose of defraying the cost of lighting public places the provisions of this section shall apply. Local rate for lighting.

(2) The council shall, by resolution published twice, with an interval of not less than seven days, in a newspaper circulating in the locality affected, define by metes and bounds a lighting district within which such rate shall be levied. Definition of lighting
district.

(3) Any person who will, if such lighting district be adopted, be liable to pay any such rate on land within such lighting district may within one month after service of the rate notice appeal to the nearest court of petty sessions against the inclusion of that land therein. Appeal.

(4) The court shall hear and decide such appeal.

(5) The court shall, in deciding the appeal, consider whether that land is within that portion of the area which will derive benefit from the expenditure of the rate.

(6) The decision of the court shall not be subject to appeal.

(7) The boundaries of any lighting district may be altered by the council at any time provided that the procedure herein prescribed for the definition of a lighting district shall, mutatis mutandis, be followed and that the same right of appeal shall apply. Alteration of lighting
district.

Loan rates.

124. (1) A council may make and levy a loan rate on the unimproved capital value, or on the improved capital value, of all ratable land in its area. Loan rate when money borrowed.
cf. L.G. Act, 1903-8,
s. 156.

(2) The purpose of a loan rate shall be to pay interest on and repay the principal of a loan.

(3)

George V,
No. 41.

(3) Where by any other provision of this Act a council is required to levy a loan rate in respect of a loan the council shall (except as by this Act otherwise provided) in the year when the loan is raised, and in every succeeding year until the loan is repaid, make and levy a loan rate on the unimproved capital value, or on the improved capital value, of ratable land accordingly.

Local loan rate.

(4) Where a loan is raised for any work or service which in the opinion of the council would be of special benefit to a portion only of its area, the loan rate may, at the discretion of the council, be levied as a local loan rate only on the ratable land within such portion.

Amount of rate.

(5) Except as hereinafter provided a loan rate shall be sufficient to provide the sum required for the payment of interest and the provision of instalments of repayment or of reserve for loan repayment (or sinking fund) as stated in the loan proposal approved by the Governor.

Non-levying of loan rate in certain cases.

(6) Where a council satisfies the Minister that the net income which will probably be derived from any loan work or service will be sufficient to make full provision for depreciation of the assets of the work or undertaking, to pay the interest, and to provide for the instalments of repayment or reserve in respect of the loan, the Minister may permit the council to refrain from levying a loan rate during the year in which the money is borrowed and during the succeeding two years or any less period.

Suspension of
loan rates
in certain
cases.

(7) Where a council has borrowed money for any specified work or service, and has levied a loan rate in respect of such loan, or has been permitted to refrain from levying such rate as hereinbefore provided, the Minister may, at any time thereafter, on being satisfied, on application of the council, that the net income actually derived from such work or service has been sufficient to make full provision for depreciation of the assets of the work or undertaking, to pay the interest, and to provide for the instalments of repayment or reserve in respect of the loan, exempt the council from the obligation to make and levy a loan rate,
and

and shall notify such exemption. Such exemption shall not operate for a longer period than one year on any one occasion. George V.
No. 41.

(8) Where the Minister is satisfied that a substantial net income has been derived from the work or service, but is not satisfied that such income has been sufficient to pay interest and provide for depreciation and instalments of repayment or reserve as aforesaid, he may, on application by the council, from time to time authorise the council to reduce, for not longer than one year on any one occasion, the amount of the loan rate, and shall notify such authorisation. The loan rate as so reduced shall be such that it together with the net income from the work or service shall be sufficient, after deducting full provision for depreciation as aforesaid, to pay interest and provide for instalments of repayment or reserve as aforesaid. Reduction of loan rates in certain cases.

(9) In cases where in accordance with this section a loan rate is discontinued, suspended, or reduced, the council shall provide for interest and for instalments of repayment or reserve and for depreciation as aforesaid. Provision for principal and interest, &c.

(10) Where by reason of the increase or decrease of the valuations of lands subject to any loan rate the amount produced by the rate exceeds or is less than the sum necessary to make provision for interest and repayment as prescribed, the council may, if the Minister consent, levy a reduced rate if the valuations have increased, or an increased rate if the valuations have decreased. Increase or decrease of loan rate
where valuations have decreased or increased.

(11) Every council which has at the commencement of this Act any debt owing in respect of moneys borrowed under any Act shall, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty, and in every year thereafter until such debts have been paid, make and levy a loan rate sufficient to pay the interest on, and to repay within a period of thirty years from the said commencement the principal of, such debt. Loan rate for repayment
of money
before the commencement of this
Act.

Where the money borrowed as aforesaid was expended on purposes which in the opinion of the council were of direct benefit only to a portion of the area, such loan rate may be levied as a local loan rate upon the ratable lands in such portion.

This

George V. This subsection shall not apply to temporary loans
No. 41. obtained with the consent of the Minister before such commencement, nor to loans with respect to which a loan rate must be levied in compliance with other provisions of this Act or of the Acts hereby repealed, nor to loans with respect to which the council obtains from the Minister a certificate that it has, in the opinion of the Minister, made or undertaken to make adequate provision for repayment within a reasonable term not exceeding thirty years.

This section to apply to loans requiring loan rates under repealed Acts.

(12) The provisions of this section (except subsection eleven) are extended to and shall apply to loans with respect to which loan rates were required to be levied under the Acts hereby repealed, and to such loan rates, and such requirement is hereby continued.

Polls re loan rates.

Loan rate
polls.

125. (1) On publication of notice of a proposal to make and levy a loan rate, a poll as to the basis of the rate may be demanded as in the case of a special rate; and the provisions of this Act relating to special rates shall for that purpose apply.

(2) On the notification of a proposal to levy a local loan rate a poll as to the basis of the rate may be demanded as in the case of a local rate: and the provisions of this Act relating to local rates shall for that purpose apply.

and 181 post.

(3) This section shall not apply to loan rates in respect of special loans, which are elsewhere specifically provided for.

Minimum.

Minimum
amount.

126. The minimum amount of any rate which shall be levied in respect of any separate parcel of land shall be as follows:—

For a general rate, two shillings and sixpence; for each other rate, one shilling, except where this Act otherwise provides.

Combination.

*Combination.*George V.
No. 41.

127. (1) Where more than one rate is payable into the same fund such rates shall be made separately, but may be levied as a combined rate or as separate rates, as the council may decide.

Combination
of rates.

(2) Where more rates than one are levied as a combined rate there shall be stated separately on the rate notice the description and the number of pence in the pound in respect of each rate, the total pence in the pound, and the amount of the combined rate, together with any other particulars which may be prescribed. The rate-book may be modified accordingly.

Other rates.

128. (1) Where, under any special Act, the council of a municipality is empowered to levy a rate on the annual value for a special purpose the council may, in lieu thereof, and for the same purpose, levy a special or local rate under this Act on the unimproved capital value or on the improved capital value of ratable land in its area.

Rates under
other Acts.
cf. L.G. Acts, 1906-8,
s. 158.

(2) Where the rate under the special Act is levied on all ratable land in the area, the provisions of this Act relating to a poll as to the basis of a special rate shall apply.

(3) Where the rate under the special Act is levied on part only of the ratable land in the area, the provisions of this Act relating to a poll as to the basis of a local rate shall apply.

(4) Where the special Act makes express provision as to who shall be liable to pay the rate, such provision shall have effect, notwithstanding anything in this Act; but this subsection shall not apply to any general incorporation by the special Act of provisions of the Municipalities Act, 1897, relating to the making, levying, or recovery of rates under that Act.

(5) Where the special Act provides a limit beyond which the rate on the assessed annual value shall

Acts.

George V. shall not be levied, the limit for the purposes of this
No. 41. section shall be found by calculating the yield of the limit rate under the special Act on the assessed annual value at the time when the rate under this section is made and the rate under this section shall not be levied so as to yield a greater total amount.

Limit of rates.

Limit in municipalities.

129. Subject to the provisions of this Act, a municipal council shall not levy as rates an amount exceeding—

cf. L.G. Act,
(6).

(a) for the total of the general rate alone—a sum ascertained by adding together the calculated yield of twopence in the pound on the unimproved capital value, and eighteen pence in the pound on the assessed annual value, of all ratable land in the municipality;

cf. L.G. Act,
1906-S, s. 157.

(b) for the total of all rates taken together (other than water and sewerage local rates)—a sum ascertained by adding together the calculated
 yield of twopence in the pound on the unimproved capital value, and twenty-four pence in
 the pound on the assessed annual value, of all
 ratable land in the municipality;

cf. C.T. W. &
S. Amendment Act,
1905, s. 38 (1).

(c) for the total of the water local rate alone—a sum ascertained by calculating the yield of twenty-four pence in the pound on the assessed annual value of all land ratable to the water
 local rate;

cf. Ibid.,
s. 38 (2).

(d) for the total of the sewerage local rate alone—a sum ascertained by calculating the yield of twenty-four pence in the pound on the assessed annual value of all land ratable to the sewerage local rate:

- (c) for the total of the water local rate alone—a sum ascertained by calculating the yield of twenty-four pence in the pound on the assessed annual value of all land ratable to the water local rate ;
- (d) for the total of the sewerage local rate alone—a sum ascertained by calculating the yield of twenty-four pence in the pound on the assessed annual value of all land ratable to the sewerage local rate.

131. In any case where, after inquiry made on the application of a council, it appears that the limit of any rate hereinbefore provided is less than is needed to provide for the purposes of that rate, and that the council should be permitted to levy rates beyond the limits prescribed, the Governor may, by proclamation, grant such permission, and may, in the proclamation, specify new limits accordingly. Alteration of
special cases.

Ratable land.

132. (1) All land in a municipality or shire (whether the property of the Crown or not) shall be ratable except— Definition of
ratable land.
cf. L.G. Acts,
1906-8, s. 131.

- (a) land which is vested in the Crown or in a public body or in trustees and is used for a public cemetery ; and
- (b) land which is vested in the Crown or in a public body or in trustees and is used for a common ; and

No. 41.

- (c) land which is vested in the Crown or in a public body or in trustees and is used for a public reserve; and
- (d) land which belongs to any public hospital, public benevolent institution, or public charity, and is used or occupied by the hospital institution or charity as the case may be solely for the purposes thereof; and
- (e) land which is vested in the Crown or in a public body or in trustees and is used solely for the purposes of a free public library; and
- (f) land which is vested in the University of Sydney or in a college thereof and is used or occupied by the University or college as the case may be solely for the purposes thereof; and
- (g) land (other than land which is dedicated as a State forest or reserved for the growth of timber) which is the property of the Crown and is not occupied or is occupied only by public works which are in course of construction by or for the Crown; and
- (h) land which is occupied by and is used directly in connection with a church or other building which is used or occupied solely for public worship; and
- (i) land which is a public place.

Lands vested in Railway Commissioners and Sydney
Harbour Trust.

(2) All land in a municipality or shire, being land vested in the Railway Commissioners for New South Wales, or in the Sydney Harbour Trust Commissioners, shall also be ratable.

Abolition of certain
exemptions.

(3) For the purposes of any rate under this Act all exemptions which but for this Act might have been in force under any other Act, and in particular the exemptions under section thirty-nine of the Sydney Harbour Trust Act, 1900, and under section twelve of the Government Railways Act, 1912, are hereby repealed and excluded.

Appeal on question whether land is ratable.
cf. L.G. Acts,
1906-S, s. 138.

133. (1) This section shall not apply in any area until valuations are furnished to the council of that area under the Valuation of Land Act, 1916.

(2) Within thirty days after the prescribed notice to pay any rate on any land has been served in accordance with this Act any person holding any estate or interest in the land may appeal against the levying of the rate thereon, on the ground that the land is not ratable or that it is not ratable to any particular rate. George V,
No. 41.

(3) The appeal may where the valuation of the unimproved capital value of the land does not exceed ten thousand pounds be made to the nearest court of petty sessions, and where the valuation does exceed the said sum may be made to the nearest district court.

(4) Where an appeal is so made to the district court the person appealing may also appeal to the said court in respect of any other lands in which he holds any estate or interest, although the valuation thereof does not exceed ten thousand pounds.

(5) Such court may hear and determine the question.

(6) Any appellant may appear at the hearing of an appeal under this section by his counsel, solicitor, or agent, provided that such agent is authorised by the appellant in writing. cf. District Courts Act,
1902, s. 142.
cf. Justices
Act, 1902,
s. 112.

(7) Any person dissatisfied with the decision of any such court as being erroneous in point of law may appeal therefrom to the Supreme Court in the manner provided for appeals from the district court or from the determinations of justices in the exercise of their summary jurisdiction, as the case may be.

Values and valuation.

134. (1) For the purposes and subject to the provisions of this Act— Valuation as basis of rate.

- (a) the unimproved capital value, and
- (b) the improved capital value, and
- (c) the assessed annual value of ratable land shall respectively be the unimproved value, the improved value, and the assessed annual value of the land as determined in accordance with Part V of the Valuation of Land Act, 1916.

(2)

George V,
No. 41.

(2) This section shall be deemed to extend to all ratable land, including land owned by the Crown and land held under lease from the Crown.

Separate
valuations.

(3) Any parcel of land separately valued under the Valuation of Land Act, 1916, shall be a separate parcel for the purposes of this Act.

Amendment of Valuation of Land Act, 1916.

135. The Valuation of Land Act, 1916, is hereby amended as follows:—

- (a) The definition of "Minister" in subsection one of section four is amended by the omission of the words "Local Government Act, 1906," and the insertion of the words "Local Government Act, 1919."
- (b) Section forty-six is amended by the omission of the word "appeals" and the insertion of the word "objections."
- (c) Section forty-eight is amended by the omission of the words "and at least once in every three years after such commencement," and by the insertion at the end of the section of the following words:—"A valuation list shall also be furnished at least once in every three years after a list is first furnished hereunder."
- (d) Subsection two of section fifty is amended by the omission of the word "examiner" and the insertion of the word "inspector."
- (e) Section fifty-seven is amended by the omission from the second line of the words "or appeal," and by the omission at the end of the section of the words "and in the case of a decision on objection, whether it is being appealed against."
- (f) Subsection one of section fifty-eight is amended by the omission of the words "Local Government Act, 1906," and by the insertion in lieu thereof of the words "Local Government Act, 1919."
- (g) Section fifty-eight is amended by the addition of the following new subsection, viz. :—

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section the unimproved capital value of a mine for the purposes of the Local Government Act, Act, 1919, and the Fire Brigades Act, 1909, shall be determined by the Valuer-General in accordance with the provisions in that behalf of the Local Government Act, 1919. George V.

No. 41.

- (h) Section fifty-nine is amended by the omission of the words "Local Government Act, 1906," and by the insertion in lieu thereof of the words "Local Government Act, 1919."
- (i) Section sixty is amended by the omission of the words "Local Government Act, 1906," and by the insertion in lieu thereof of the words "Local Government Act, 1919."
- (j) Section sixty-two is amended by the omission of the words "or on an appeal against the decision of the valuation court respecting such an objection."
- (k) Section sixty-three is omitted.
- (l) Section sixty-four is omitted.
- (m) Section sixty-eight is amended by the omission of the words "Local Government Act, 1906," and the insertion in lieu thereof of the words "Local Government Act, 1919."

136. (1) The valuation book of the council shall be constituted by a valuation list, or by a valuation list together with any supplementary list, as the case may be, furnished or supplied to the council by the Valuer-General in accordance with the provisions of the Valuation of Land Act, 1916. Valuation book.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, any particulars in the valuation book may be entered in the rate book.

137. (1) The provisions contained in Schedule III shall come into force at the commencement of this Act, and shall be in force temporarily as provided in this section. Temporary provisions.

(2) So long as the provisions of the Schedule are in force any provisions of this Act inconsistent therewith shall to the extent of the inconsistency be deemed to be suspended. Schedule III.
cf. L.G. Acts, 1906-8,
ss. 132-140.

(3) Upon being satisfied that a valuation list has been furnished to the council by the Valuer-General in

George V, in accordance with the Valuation of Land Act, 1916,
No. 41. the Governor shall proclaim that a valuation list has been so furnished, and thereupon the provisions of the Schedule shall cease to be in force with respect to that council.

Making and levying rates.

Estimates.

cf. L.G. Act,
1906, ss. 142,
143.

138. (1) Before making any rate a council shall make and shall advertise in a newspaper estimates of the income and expenditure of the fund to which the rate belongs.

(2) The rate shall not be made until at least ten days after the advertisement.

(3) Non-compliance with this section shall not invalidate any rate otherwise lawful.

Making and levying.

cf. L.G. Act,
1906, s. 150
(3).

139. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act every rate shall be made and levied for one year commencing on the first day of January next preceding the making thereof.

Mode of making and levying.

cf. L.G. Act,
1906, s. 135
(5).

(2) Every rate shall—

(a) be made by resolution of the council; and

(b) be levied by the service of a rate notice:

Provided that where the lessee of private land is liable for rates, such liability shall not (unless the name of the lessee is on the roll of ratepayers) be affected by reason only of the fact that notice has not been given to the lessee.

Land rated--- separate parcels.

cf. L.G. Act,
1906, s. 136.

(3) Every rate shall be levied in respect of a separate parcel of land, but any rate in respect thereof may be included in the same rate notice with any rate in respect of the same or different land:

Provided that where the Crown is the ratable person the council shall comply with any request of the Treasurer for the grouping or separation of rates on rate notices.

Person rated.

(4) Subject to the provisions of this Act every rate in respect of any land shall be levied upon the person ratable in respect of the land, that is to say—

(a) upon the owner, in any case where this Act provides that the rate shall be paid to the council by the owner; and

(b) upon the holder of a lease, in any case where this Act provides that the rate shall be paid to the council by the holder of the lease.

(5) In any case where more than one person is an owner or holder of the land within the meaning of this Act, the rate may be levied upon any one or more of such persons, and the council may recover the rate as against any person upon whom the rate is so levied :

George V,
No. 41.

Provided that nothing in this subsection shall entitle the council to recover more than the full amount of the rate.

(6) In any case where the name of any owner liable to pay the rate is not known to the council, it shall be sufficient to rate such owner by the designation of "owner" without stating his name.

cf. L.G. Act,
1906, s. 135
(6); No. 1893,
s. 298
(Victoria).

(7) Where land which was not ratable has become ratable the rate thereon shall be proportionate to the portion of the year during which the land is ratable ; and in any such case the first valuation made of the land after it becomes ratable shall be deemed to have come into force concurrently with the land becoming ratable.

cf. L.G. Act,
1906, s. 135,
and Act No.
28, 1908,
s. 23.

(8) Where land which was ratable has not been valued because of omission from the valuation book the first valuation thereof after discovery of the omission shall come into force as from the first day of January of the then current year ; and the rate may be levied accordingly.

140. If for any reason any rate is not made within or by the time prescribed by or under this Act, or if any irregularity in making or levying any rate affects or may be considered to affect the validity of any rate, the Governor may extend the time for the making of the rate and may authorise the doing by the council of such acts as may be necessary to cure the irregularity and to validate the rate.

Irregularities,
cf. Sydney
Corporation
Act, 1902,
s. 207.

141. (1) Where any rate is levied upon the unimproved capital value of land which is held for pastoral or agricultural purposes under lease from the Crown under any Act dealing with Crown lands (including homestead selections) or under the Hay Irrigation Act, 1902, or the Wentworth Irrigation Act, 1890, the unimproved capital value for the purposes of such rate shall, leases from the Crown.

cf. L.G. Acts,
s. 132 (3).

George V, shall, subject to this Act, be a sum ascertained by
 No. 41. calculation as follows:—

- (a) In the case of leases which carry no right of conversion ultimately into a freehold tenure—twenty times the amount of the rent payable to the Crown under the lease during the year next preceding that in which the calculation is made; and
- (b) In the case of all other leases—during the first ten years of the lease dating from the grant thereof by the Crown—twenty times the amount of the rent payable to the Crown under the lease during the year next preceding that in which the calculation is made; and during the remainder of the lease—thirty times the amount of such rent.

(2) The lessee of any such land may, before the expiration of three months after the commencement of this Act, elect that instead of the rate being levied on the unimproved capital value ascertained as set out in the preceding subsection, it shall be levied on the unimproved capital value of land valued in accordance with the law as if the holder of the lease or homestead selection were the owner of the fee simple:

Provided that upon any election being duly made by a lessee under this section such election shall be binding upon him for a period of five years; at the expiration of which he may again elect, and so on continuously at intervals of five years:

Provided further that, in any case where an election is duly made under this section, the council shall, in levying any rate on the unimproved capital value, give effect to such election.

Rate-book.

Entries. 142. (1) Every rate shall be entered in a rate-book which shall be in the prescribed form.

 2.
 Alteration or
 amendment.
 f. No. 1893, 300
 (Victoria).

(2) An alteration or amendment in the rate-book may be made in respect of any rate by—

- (a) inserting the name of any person claiming and entitled to have his name inserted as owner or as holder of a lease, as the case may be;

(b)

- (b) inserting the name of any person who ought to have been rated or who has since the making of the rate become liable to be rated ;
- (c) striking out the name of any person who ought not to have been rated ;
- (d) raising or reducing the sum at which any person has been rated, if it appears to the council that owing to any error in entering the rate in any rate notice or in the rate-book or in transcribing any figures from any valuation book the person has been under-rated or over-rated ;
- (e) inserting any land which ought to have been rated and the necessary particulars in respect thereof ;
- (f) making such other alterations or amendments as will make the rate conformable to this Act or to any ordinance.

(3) Any such alteration or amendment shall not be held to avoid the rate.

(4) An alteration or amendment in the rate-book made under this section shall have effect upon adoption by the council as though made when the rate was made.

(5) An alteration or amendment in the rate-book made in conformity with the resolution of the council shall be initialled by the town or shire clerk, and a reference to the minute of the council's resolution shall be inserted in the rate-book.

(6) Notice of any alteration or amendment in the rate-book shall be given as in the case of a notice of valuation, and every person aggrieved by any alteration or amendment which affects the ratability of the land concerned shall have the same right of appeal therefrom as he would have had if the alteration or amendment were a valuation, and as if the notice of the alteration or amendment were a notice of valuation.

(7) Every person whose rate is altered or amended or who by any alteration or amendment has become rated in respect of any land shall be entitled to receive one month's notice of the alteration or amendment before the rate shall be due and payable by him.

(8)

George V,
No. 41. (8) Nothing in this section shall affect any alteration or amendment made on an objection or appeal from any valuation.

Liability for rates.

Due date.
cf. L.G. Acts, 1906-8,
s. 144 (3). 143. Every rate shall be due and payable to and recoverable by the council on the expiration of one month after service of the rate notice.

Liability of owner. 144. Every rate shall, except where this Act otherwise expressly provides, be paid to the council by the owner of the land in respect of which the rate is levied.

Land owned by the Crown. 145. (1) Where the land is owned by the Crown and is not held by any person under a lease therefrom, the rate shall be paid to the council by the Crown from the Consolidated Revenue Fund, or if a statutory body representing the Crown is concerned, then from the Consolidated Revenue Fund or from moneys of the statutory body as the Governor may determine.

(2) Where the land is owned by the Crown and is held by any person under a lease therefrom, the rate shall be paid to the council by the holder of the lease :

Provided that where a Crown lease is transferred by way of mortgage the council may not recover from the mortgagee unless and until it has failed to recover from the mortgagor.

cf. Housing
Act, 1912,
s. 8 (b). (3) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this section, where any land owned by the Crown is subject to the provisions of the Housing Act, 1912, or of the Daceyville Extension Act, 1914, the rate shall be paid to the council by the Crown in accordance with the provisions of subsection one of this section, whether the land is or is not held by any person under a lease from the Crown.

(4) Where the land is held under a lease from the Crown by two or more persons successively in the same year, whether with or without any interval between their holding, the council may, if it thinks fit—

- (a) make such adjustment (if any) of the rate whether paid or unpaid as it thinks proper between such persons;
- (b)

- (b) recover from each of such persons his proportion of the rate as fixed by the adjustment; George V,
No. 41.
- (c) make any refund in accordance with the adjustment;
- (d) write off any amount in respect of the interval between the holding of such persons.

146. (1) Where the land is owned by the council the rate shall, unless it is paid to the council by a person liable therefor, be paid by transfers from and to the appropriate fund under this Act. Land owned
council.

(2) Where the land is owned by the council and is held therefrom by any person under a lease granted by the council for a term of not less than one year, the rate shall, if the lease contains an agreement by the lessee to pay municipal or local government rates, whether under those designations or under any words of description which would include municipal or local government rates, or to pay any equivalent sum expressly fixed by reference thereto, be paid to the council by the holder of the lease. Lease granted
council.

147. (1) Where the land is owned or held jointly by two or more ratable persons, such persons shall be jointly and severally liable to the council for the rate, but as between themselves each shall only be liable for such part of the rate as is proportionate to his interest in the land and in the improvements thereon. Liability where land is owned or held jointly.
cf. L.G. Act, 1906,
s. 144 (4).

(2) If any of such persons pays to the council more than his proportionate part, he may recover the excess by way of contribution from the others.

148. (1) Where a ratable person disposes of his estate or interest in the land, he shall nevertheless be a ratable person and liable to the council for the rate to the same extent as if he had not disposed of his estate or interest, provided that the rate is levied either— Liability

(10).

- (a) before he disposes of his estate or interest; or
- (b) before the prescribed notice of transfer is given to the council.

(2) If any ratable person, who disposes of his estate or interest in the land, pays to the council any rate in respect thereof which is levied after he disposes of his estate or interest and before the prescribed notice of

George V, of transfer is given to the council, he may recover the
No. 41. amount from the person to whom he disposes of his estate or interest.

Apportionment.
See s. 164.

(3) As between a ratable person and any other person from or to whom he derives or disposes of his estate or interest in the land every rate shall be considered as accruing from day to day and shall be apportionable in respect of time accordingly.

Liability
where a person becomes entitled to an estate or interest.

149. (1) Where a person by becoming entitled to an estate or interest in the land becomes a ratable person, he shall be liable to the council for the rate, notwithstanding the fact that he became entitled to the estate or interest after the rate was levied.

(2) If any ratable person who becomes entitled to an estate or interest in the land pays to the council any rate in respect thereof which was levied before he became entitled to the estate or interest, he may recover a proportion of the amount from the person who was liable to the council for the rate at the time when the rate was levied.

(3) Nothing in this section shall affect or extend to any person who is the holder of a lease from the Crown or from the council, where the lease is granted after the rate is levied, whether the land has been previously held under a lease from the Crown or from the council or not.

(4) The proviso to subsection one of section one hundred and fifty-two of this Act relating to a charge for rates shall apply mutatis mutandis to the liability for rates under this section.

Liability of person in occupation.
cf. L.G. Acts,
1906-8, s. 145.

150. (1) Where the ratable person—

- (a) is a resident outside New South Wales; or
- (b) is unknown to the council; or
- (c) has not after reasonable efforts by or on behalf of the council to effect service been served in any legal proceedings for the recovery of the rate; or
- (d) is a bankrupt; or
- (e) dies; or
- (f) has had a verdict or judgment given against him for the amount of the rate, the

the council may serve upon any person in occupation of the land a notice of the amount of the rate or of such verdict or judgment and a demand that any rent then due or thereafter to become due by such person in respect of the land be paid by him as it falls due to the council in liquidation of the amount of the rate, or verdict, or judgment.

George V,
No. 41.

(2) In default of payment of rent as aforesaid, the council may recover the amount of the demand, or any outstanding portion thereof, as a debt.

(3) Any payment to the council under this section shall be a valid discharge to the payer for such rent as against all other persons whomsoever.

(4) Nothing in this section shall apply to a person who is in occupation for or on behalf or as the servant of the Crown or of any council.

151. (1) Where the land is held under a lease in any case to which this section applies, the liability for the general rate shall be subject to the provisions of this section.

Existing agreements to pay rates.
cf. Sydney
Corporation
(Amendment)
Act, 1908,
s. 11 (2).

(2) This section shall apply to any case where a lessee has agreed with the owner, or with the mesne lessee from whom he immediately holds, to pay municipal or local government rates whether under those designations or under any words of description which would include municipal or local government rates: Provided that the agreement was made before the relevant date, that is to say—

cf. L. G. Act,
(6).
cf. Land Tax (Leases) Act, 1902,
s. 4.

(a) the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and eight—in the case of land within any municipality;

cf. L.G. Acts, 1906-8,
s. 144 (6).

(b) the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and seven—in the case of land within any shire.

(3) During the currency of the agreement and notwithstanding the agreement the owner and all lessees (including mesne lessees) shall as between themselves be liable for their respective proportions of so much of the general rate as is equal to the amount of one penny in the pound on the unimproved capital value of the land.

(4)

George V,
No. 41.

(4) The respective proportions shall, on the application of any person interested, be determined by the Valuer-General, who shall make a fair and equitable adjustment between the owner and the lessees (including mesne lessees) according to their respective interests in the land as unimproved, and after the first adjustment shall make a readjustment at every subsequent period of valuation.

(5) If before the general rate becomes due and payable the council has not received written notice of the terms of the agreement from any person interested therein, the rate shall be paid to the council by the owner.

(6) If before the general rate becomes due and payable the council has received written notice of the terms of the agreement from any person interested therein, the rate shall be paid to the council by the lessee who is the last lessee within the knowledge of the council bound by the agreement, and such lessee shall be ratable as the holder of the lease accordingly :

Provided that if in any legal proceedings against such lessee the council fails to obtain payment from him, the council shall next proceed for the recovery of the rate from the lessor from whom he immediately holds ; and if in any legal proceedings against a lessor, who is himself a mesne lessee, the council fails to obtain payment from him, the council shall next proceed for the recovery of the rate from the lessor from whom he immediately holds ; and so on up to and including the owner.

(7) Any lessee or mesne lessee who has paid the rate, and any mesne lessee who has suffered a deduction as hereinafter provided under this section, may—

- (a) recover as a debt from the lessor from whom he immediately holds a sum equal to the total of the amounts determined by the Valuer-General to be the respective proportions of all the persons under whom he derives title ; or
- (b) may deduct such sum from any moneys due or to become due by him to the lessor from whom he immediately holds.

(8) Any lessor who has made any payment to the council or to his immediate lessor in respect of the rate may recover as a debt from any lessee under him such portion thereof as such lessee is liable for under the terms of this section.

George V,
No. 41.

(9) The council the Valuer-General and any authorised servant of the council or of the Valuer-General may—

- (a) require any person having the custody or control of the agreement to produce the same within a reasonable time ;
- (b) require any person in occupation of the land or in receipt of the rent of the land to answer any question relating to matters affected by this section.

(10) If the person duly required as aforesaid does not produce the agreement or answer the question, or if he wilfully makes a false answer to the question, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds.

(11) Every adjustment by the Valuer-General under this section shall be final and conclusive, and shall not be subject to appeal.

(12) A certificate of the adjustment purporting to be signed by the Valuer-General or his deputy shall be prima facie evidence of the adjustment.

(13) In this section the word “lessor” shall include his successors in title.

Existing
leases.

(14) In addition to any case where an agreement has been made as to the payment of rates as provided in this section, this section shall apply to any case where the land is held by a person as lessee or sub-lessee under a lease granted, before the relevant date specified in this section, for a term of not less than ninety-nine years without any stipulation as to the payment of rates as provided in this section :

Provided that for the purposes of this subsection any reference in this section to an agreement shall be deemed to be a reference to the lease or sublease, as the case may be.

Charge

George V.
No. 41.

Charge of rates on land.

Charge of rates on land,
cf. L.G. Act,
1906, s. 144
(7).

152. (1) Every rate under this Act and any costs awarded to the council by any court in proceedings for the recovery of the rate shall, except where this Act otherwise expressly provides, be a charge on the land in respect of which the rate is levied, in priority to all sales conveyances transfers mortgages charges liens and encumbrances whatsoever :

Provided that—

cf. Land Tax
Assessment
Act, 1910-
1914, s. 56(1)
(Commonwealth).

- (a) no such charge for any rate or costs shall be of any effect as against a bona fide purchaser for value who at the time of purchase made due inquiry but had no notice of the liability ; and
- (b) a purchaser shall be deemed to have made due inquiry who has obtained a certificate of the town or shire clerk as to the amount (if any) due in respect of rates and costs.

(2) Where the land is owned by the Crown the charge shall not affect or extend to—

- (a) the estate or interest of the Crown in the land ;
or
- (b) the estate or interest of any person holding under a lease from the Crown where the lease is granted after the rate is levied, whether the land has been previously held under a lease from the Crown or not.

(3) The charge shall rank pari passu with any charge on the land under any other Act.

Mines—Valuations and rates.

Unimproved
capital value,
cf. L.G. Act,
s. 132 (2).

153. (1) In the case of every mine the unimproved capital value thereof for the purposes of this Act shall be ascertained by one or other of the following methods of valuation as the council, either generally or for some period or mine only, may direct, or, in default of direction from the council, as the Valuer-General may decide, that is to say—

- (a) by valuation of the unimproved value in accordance with section six of the Valuation of Land Act, 1916 ; or
- (b) by valuation based on output in accordance with this section ; or
- (c)

- (c) in the case of an undeveloped mine, or of a mine which is idle or partially idle, by multiplying the annual rent (if any) of the mine by twenty.

George V,
No. 41.

(2) In the case of a coal or shale mine the unimproved capital value thereof ascertained by valuation based on output shall be a sum equal to three shillings per ton of large coal or shale, and one shilling and sixpence per ton of small coal, on the average annual output from the mine during the three years next preceding the year in which the valuation is made, or during such part of that time as the mine has been worked.

s. 132 (2) (a).

(3) In the case of a mine other than a coal or shale mine the unimproved capital value thereof ascertained by valuation based on output shall be a sum equal to twenty per centum of the average annual saleable value to the mine-owner of the ore or mineral won from the mine or of the product derived from such ore or mineral during the three years next preceding the year in which the valuation is made, or during such part of that time as the mine has been worked, such value to be determined as such ore, mineral or product leaves the area within which such mine is situate.

s. 132 (2) (b).

(4) Where a valuation is being made, under paragraph (a) of subsection one of this section, of land other than Crown land, the presence of any mineral or mine which is held with the land by the owner of the land and is not being worked as a mine shall be taken into account in the valuation.

154. Where any mine is situated partly in one area and partly in another, the mine shall be valued as a whole, and the unimproved capital value, improved capital value, and assessed annual value shall be apportioned between the areas as the Valuer-General may direct. Objection may be made under the Valuation of Land Act, 1916, against any such apportionment.

Mine in two or more areas.
cf. L. G. Acts, 1906-8,
ss. 132 (2) (e), 137 (1).

155. Where any part of a mine is under the sea or under the tidal waters of any estuary or harbour, such part shall be valued with and as part of the mine, notwithstanding that the overlying land and water are not within the boundaries of any area.

Mine under sea.

Surface of a mine.
cf. Ibid.,
s. 136.

156. Where any part of a mine is separately let or sublet to or occupied by any person for residential, business, grazing, or agricultural purposes, such part shall be deemed to be distinct from the mine, and shall be valued and rated accordingly. The area or boundaries of each separate parcel of land let, or sublet to, or occupied by any person for any of the aforesaid purposes, where not determined by fence or some other definite boundary, shall be determined in the manner prescribed.

Mine lessees and licensees —division of
liability.
cf. L. G. Acts, 1906-8,
s. 144 (2).

157. (1) Where a mine is subject to any lease the owner and every lessee shall be jointly and severally liable to the council for any rate in respect of the mine; but, as between themselves, each shall only be liable for such part of the rate as is proportionate to his interest in the mine.

Special
agreements.
cf. s. 147,
ante.

(2) If any of such persons pays to the council more than his proportionate part he may recover the excess by way of contribution from the others.

(3) Such liability shall be subject to any special agreement between the owner and the lessee made (if the mine in respect of which the agreement is made is situated in a shire) after the commencement of the Local Government (Shires) Act, 1905, or (if such mine is situated in a municipality) after the commencement of the Local Government Act, 1906; but shall not be subject to or affected by any such agreement made before such commencement as aforesaid, and such agreement so made shall, so far as it is inconsistent with the provisions of this section, be null and void.

cf. L. G. Act,
1906, s. 136, ■■
amended by L. G.
Amend. Act,
1908, s. 24.

(4) This section shall not apply to a portion of a mine leased for residential business grazing or agricultural purposes.

Miscellaneous.

Overdue rates—extra charge.

158. (1) Overdue rates shall be increased in accordance with this section.

(2) If the rates are unpaid at the expiration of three months from the due date, the amount due shall be increased by a sum calculated at the rate of seven per centum per annum, and the increase shall be deemed to be part of the rates.

(3)

(3) The calculation under the last preceding subsection shall be made in respect only of as many complete months as have expired between the due date and the date of payment, excluding any remaining portion of a month. George V,
No. 41.

(4) If in any case the percentage is less than threepence, the increase shall be threepence.

(5) This section shall apply as from the commencement of this Act to rates levied under the Acts hereby repealed.

(6) The provisions of this section shall not apply to rates owing by ratable persons who are soldiers or sailors until six months after their return to Australia or six months after the commencement of this Act whichever shall last happen.

(7) The charge under this section shall continue to apply to all unpaid rates notwithstanding that judgment may have been obtained in any court, including the District Court.

159. A council may add to the amount of any rate any reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in tracing the person liable to pay the rate; and such expenses may be recovered as rates and at the same time as any rates, but without the necessity to give any notice thereof. Expenses of tracing person liable.

160. (1) Any person may apply for a certificate under this section as to the amount (if any) due or payable to the council for rates or otherwise in respect of any land. Certificate as to amount due.
cf. No. 2016,
s. 334
(Victoria).

(2) Application for the certificate shall be made in writing, and shall state the name and address of the applicant, and the particulars of the land in respect of which the information is required.

(3) The council shall upon payment of a fee of two shillings and sixpence for each certificate having reference to a parcel of land separately assessed forthwith give or post to the applicant a certificate in writing signed by the town or shire clerk and stating what (if any) rates charges or sums of money are due or payable to the council in respect of the land with

George V, with the particulars thereof and when the same became
No. 41. due or payable, or that no such rates or charges or sums are then due or payable, as the case may be.

(4) The production of the certificate shall for all purposes be deemed conclusive proof in favour of a bona fide purchaser for value that at the date thereof no rates charges or sums other than those stated in the certificate were due or payable to the council in respect of the land.

(5) For the purposes of this section rates charges or sums of money shall be deemed to be due or payable, notwithstanding that the requisite period after service of any notice may not have expired.

Abandonment of rates.

161. Subject to the provisions of this Act rates shall not be abandoned or written off the books of account of the council unless proceedings for the recovery thereof have failed, or the approval of the Minister to the abandonment or writing off has been obtained.

Appropriation of payments.
cf. L.G. Acts, 1906-8, s. 149.

162. Where money is paid to a council in respect of any rates due on any land, the council shall notwithstanding any direction to the contrary apply the money for or towards the rates due on the land in the order in which they became due.

Notice of transfer.
cf. L.G. Acts, 1906-1908, s. 144(10); Sydney Corporation Act, 1902, s. 131.

163. (1) If a ratable person transfers his estate or interest in the land, the ratable person and the transferee shall (except as provided in this section) within one month of such transfer give notice thereof to the council.

(2) It shall not be necessary to give notice under this section of any mortgage nor of the discharge of any mortgage.

Ultimate liability.
cf. L. G. Act, 1906, s. 144 (5).

164. (1) Nothing in this Act shall, except where this Act otherwise expressly provides, affect any private agreement or any rule of law or equity with respect to the ultimate liability for any rate charge or fee.

Apportionment.
cf. The Apportionment Act, 1905, s. 4.
See ss. 148 (3), 301.

(2) As between a tenant for life and any person entitled to the land in remainder or reversion, every rate shall be considered as accruing from day to day, and shall be apportionable in respect of time accordingly.

(3) The provisions of subsection two of this section shall mutatis mutandis apply to any rental charge or to any charge or fee in respect of any service for the removal of nightsoil garbage or trade refuse. George V,
No. 41.

Ordinances.

165. Ordinances may be made for carrying this Division into effect, and in particular for and with respect to— Ordinances.

- (a) the preparation sealing keeping and inspection of the valuation book and rate book or any combination of them, the entries which are to be made therein, and the alteration of minor errors not affecting the amount at which the land is valued ; cf. L.G. Acts, 1906-1908,
s. 135 (5).
- (b) the time within which rates may be made, and all other matters incidental to the regulation of rating. cf. Ibid.,
s. 135 (7).

DIVISION 3.—Charges and fees.

166. For the purposes and subject to the provisions of this Act the council may fix make demand levy and recover charges and fees in accordance with this Division. Right to charges and fees.

167. (1) In the following cases, that is to say, in any case where under the provisions of any Act ordinance regulation or by-law the council— Charges and fees fixed by ordinance or resolution.
cf. L.G. Acts,
1906-8, s. 103.

- (a) supplies any service product or commodity ; or
- (b) makes any registration ; or
- (c) grants any license ; or
- (d) gives any permission ; or
- (e) furnishes any information, or
- (f) admits to any building or enclosure,

the charge or fee may be fixed by ordinance or where there is no ordinance by resolution of the council.

(2) In any such ordinance or resolution provision may be made requiring a deposit or prepayment in respect of such charge or fee.

(3)

George V,
No. 41.

(3) This section shall be deemed to include the supply of any service product or commodity to the Crown.

(4) Nothing in this section shall authorise any charge or fee contrary to the provisions of any Act ordinance regulation or by-law.

(5) Where the charge or fee in respect of any service for the removal of nightsoil or garbage is payable by the person for the time being ratable in respect of the land, and is fixed on a yearly basis, it may be added to the rate notice in respect of the land.

Liability for charges and fees in respect of nightsoil or garbage removal service.

cf. L.G. Acts,
1906-8, s. 103.

168. (1) Where the charge is in respect of any service for the removal of nightsoil or garbage in connection with any ratable land the charge shall be paid to the council by the person for the time being ratable in respect of the land.

(2) Except as provided in subsection one of this section, the charge in respect of any service for the removal of nightsoil or garbage shall be paid to the council by the person to whom or at whose request the service is supplied.

(3) In any case where the Crown is liable under this section, the charge shall be paid to the council in accordance with the provisions of this Act relating to the payment of rates by the Crown.

(4) In the following cases, that is to say—

- (a) if in the case of a service for the removal of nightsoil any occupied premises are within a nightsoil scavenging district and there is on the premises any privy not connected with a sewer of the council or of any statutory body representing the Crown, and not connected with any septic tank or other system of sewerage approved by the council; or
- (b) if in the case of a service for the removal of garbage any occupied premises are within a garbage removal district, the service shall be deemed to be supplied if any servant or person on behalf of the council attends at the premises for the purpose of supplying the service, and if such attendance is at a time when the service may reasonably be expected to be required.

169. Where the charge or fee is in respect of any service (except so far as is otherwise provided in the case of a service for the removal of nightsoil garbage or trade refuse) or is in respect of any product commodity registration license permission or information, the charge or fee shall be paid to the council by the person to whom or at whose request the service product or commodity is supplied, or the registration license permission or information is made granted given or furnished, as the case may be.

George V,
No. 41.

Liability for charges and fees for other services, &c.

170. Where the service product or commodity supplied by the council is supplied for the council's own purposes, the charge or fee shall be paid by transfers to and from the appropriate fund under this Act.

Supply of service product or commodity for the council's own purpose.

171. (1) In any case where before or after the commencement of this Act any rail, pipe, wire, pole, cable, tunnel, or structure, has (whether under the authority of any statute or otherwise) been laid, erected, suspended, constructed, or placed upon, under, or over any public place, in any area, the council may make a fair annual charge upon the person for the time being in possession, occupation, or enjoyment of such rail, pipe, wire, pole, cable, tunnel, or structure, in respect thereof. Such annual charge may be made, levied, and recovered in accordance with the provisions of this Act relating to the making, levying, and recovery of rates.

&c.

cf. L.G. Act,
1906, s. 209.
cf. L.G.
(Amending)
Act, 1917,
s. 2.

(2) The fair annual charge shall be based upon the nature and extent of the benefit enjoyed by the person concerned.

(3) If any person is aggrieved by the amount of such annual charge he may appeal therefrom to the district court or the court of petty sessions for the district in which the council's office is situated, and such court shall determine the amount of such annual charge.

(4) Any person dissatisfied with the decision of any such court as being erroneous in point of law may appeal therefrom to the Supreme Court in the manner

George V, manner provided for appeals from the district court or
 No. 41. from the determination of justices in the exercise of their summary jurisdiction as the case may be.

(5) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to apply to the Crown.

Appropriation of payments.

cf. L.G. Acts, 1906-8, s. 149.

172. Where money is paid to a council in respect of any charges or fees the council shall notwithstanding any direction to the contrary apply the money for or towards the charges or fees due to the council in the order in which they became due.

DIVISION 4.—Loans.

Purposes and ways of borrowing.

Minister's or Governor's consent to loans.
 cf. L.G. Acts, 1906-8, s. 176n.

173. (1) Except as provided by this or any other Act, a council shall not borrow for any purpose or in any way whatever.

(2) A council shall not borrow unless the loan has previously been authorised, that is to say, unless the Minister's certificate in respect of a limited overdraft or the approval of the Governor in respect of any other method of borrowing has been obtained. Application for the Minister's certificate or Governor's approval shall be made by the council in the prescribed manner.

Kinds of loans.

(3) There shall be four methods only in which a council may borrow. These methods are by way of—limited overdraft, renewal loan,
 ordinary loan,
 special loan.

Municipal and shire loans.

(4) Subject to the provisions of this Act, a council may borrow by any of the methods named.

Limited overdrafts.

Purpose of overdraft.

174. (1) A loan by way of limited overdraft may be obtained for any purpose upon which the council is authorised to create or expend any fund (other than a trust fund).

(2) On application by the council the Minister George V. may issue a certificate of limit of overdraft in which No. 41. shall be named the fund in respect of which the loan ^{Issue of} may be obtained, and the limit of amount to be borrowed ^{certificate.} thereunder.

(3) The council may borrow and re-borrow ^{Continuance} from time to time upon the certificate within the limit ^{of overdraft.} named therein so long as it remains in force.

(4) The sum to be stated in the certificate as the limit of overdraft shall be in the discretion of the Minister, but shall not exceed one-half of the income of the fund, that is to say—

- (a) one-half of the income as shown by the latest year's accounts ; or
- (b) if the fund was not in existence for the whole of the preceding year, one-half of the income as estimated in the published estimates of the council for the year in which the certificate is issued.

(5) In any certificate the Minister may increase the limit of overdraft by the amount of any sum at fixed deposit to the credit of the fund named in the certificate (except a fixed deposit which is part of a reserve for loan repayment). In this case recourse may be had against the fixed deposit as security or part security for the overdraft.

(6) A certificate may be cancelled or the limit ^{Cancellation} named therein increased or reduced at any time by notice ^{or variation} issued by the Minister to the bank and the council. ^{of certificate.} Such cancellation or alteration shall not prejudice any rights already accrued to the bank.

(7) Upon any cancellation or reduction the council shall proceed as soon as practicable to repay the overdraft, or, as the case may be, reduce it in accordance with the reduction of the limit by the Minister.

175. (1) Money borrowed by way of limited over ^{Security of} draft shall be deemed to be secured upon the income of ^{overdraft.} the fund in respect of which the certificate of limit of overdraft is issued.

George V.
No. 41.

(2) For the purposes of the security the certificate shall be conclusive evidence that the provisions of this Act with respect to the issue of the certificate have been duly complied with.

(3) It shall not be necessary to levy a loan rate in respect of a loan by way of limited overdraft.

Renewal loans.

Purpose of renewal loan.

176. (1) A loan for the purpose of repaying or renewing any other loan and for paying the expenses incidental thereto shall be a renewal loan.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, it shall not be necessary to levy a loan rate in respect of a renewal loan except in those cases where the loan which is to be repaid or replaced by the renewal loan is subject to a loan rate or where the loan is a special loan for the purpose of repaying an overdraft.

Ordinary loans.

ordinary loans.

177. A loan for any of the following purposes shall be an ordinary loan—

- (a) carrying out any order of the Governor as to boundary works, or discharging any liability under such order; or
- (b) establishing or extending a service for the removal and disposal of nightsoil or garbage or both, and the acquisition of land, buildings, and plant therefor; or
- (c) making sewerage connections for householders on conditions providing for repayment by periodical instalments; or
- (d) discharging any liability arising under any verdict or order of a court of law or equity; or
- (e) the purchase and establishment of machinery and equipment for the making of roads and bridges or for the breaking of stone and the like purposes; or

(f)

- (f) the establishment of road-punts and road-ferries and the approaches thereto; or George V,
No. 41.
- (g) meeting any liabilities transferred to the council consequent upon alteration of boundaries; See sec. 21-1 (n). or
- (h) the payment of expenses incidental to any of the above purposes or to the raising of the loan.

178. (1) An ordinary loan shall be arranged on terms providing for the payment of principal and interest in yearly or half-yearly instalments, spread over a term of years. Where the loan is required for the first construction or extension (not being renewals or repairs) of any boundary work or any garbage destructor, the Governor in his approval may fix the term of years on the basis of three-fourths of the estimated probable life of such work. In all other cases the term shall not exceed ten years. Terms of loan.

(2) A loan rate shall be levied in respect of an ordinary loan, except a loan for the purposes of paragraph (c) of the last preceding section.

(3) Where an ordinary loan is for the purpose of establishing or extending a service for the removal and disposal of nightsoil or garbage, or both, the loan rate shall be levied on the ratable lands within the nightsoil scavenging district, the garbage removal district, or both, as the case may be. Sanitary and garbage services.
Loan rate.
See s. 283 post
re districts.

(4) An ordinary loan may be obtained, notwithstanding that thereby the total indebtedness of the council will exceed the limit elsewhere in this Act prescribed, but if as a result of the loan the limit of indebtedness be exceeded, it shall not be lawful for the council of the area to borrow by way of special loan until the total amount owing by the council has fallen below such limit. Loan may exceed limit.

Special loans.

179. (1) A loan for the purpose of any work or service or any object which the council is authorised by law to construct, carry on, or effect shall be a special loan. Purpose of special loans.

George V, No. 41. loan unless under the powers hereinbefore given the loan is raised as a limited overdraft, renewal loan, or ordinary loan.

(2) The payment of expenses incidental to the purpose of the loan or to the raising of the loan may be included in the purposes for which the money is borrowed.

Shire special loans.
cf. L.G.
(Shire Loans)
Act, 1914.

180. (1) Where a shire council proposes to raise a special loan it shall notify reasonable particulars of the proposal and allow one month in which any number not less than twenty-five per centum of the ratepayers may petition the council to take a poll of ratepayers, either as to whether the ratepayers approve of the loan or as to whether the loan rate (if any) shall be on the unimproved capital value or improved capital value, or on both questions.

(2) Where such a petition is lodged within the prescribed time the council shall take a poll accordingly.

(3) The questions to be submitted at the poll shall be in such form as may be prescribed.

(4) Where the shire special loan is proposed to be raised for the benefit of part only of the shire, and where on that account the council proposes to levy a local loan rate upon that part of the shire for the purpose of paying the interest and repaying the principal of the loan, the word ratepayers in this section shall mean only the ratepayers of that part of the shire. In that case, if the loan is ultimately raised the council shall levy the loan rate in accordance with its proposal:

Provided that this subsection shall not operate in a case where the council proposes to contribute from the general fund a portion being not less than one-third of the sum necessary to pay the interest on and repay the principal of the loan.

(5) If the result of the poll be against the loan the council shall not proceed with the proposal either then or at any time within twelve months after the poll.

(6) If a poll be not demanded, or if the result of the poll be in favour of the loan, the council may apply

apply for and the Governor may, after such inquiry as the Minister deems sufficient, grant approval to the council's application with such modifications (if any) as he may direct.

George V,
No. 41.

(7) Where a shire council raises a special loan the loan shall be arranged upon terms which—

- (a) shall provide for the repayment of principal and interest in yearly or half-yearly instalments, spread over a term of years to be fixed by the Governor; and
- (b) may provide for the repayment at any yearly or half-yearly rest of the balance then remaining unpaid.

(8) Shire special loans may be secured and charged upon the income of the general fund of the shire.

(9) Any loans obtained under this section and under the Local Government (Shire Loans) Act, 1914, shall not exceed in the aggregate a sum equal to thrice the amount of the income of the shire as shown by the last year's accounts.

(10) It shall not be compulsory to levy a loan rate in respect of a shire special loan.

(11) Where a shire council has the right of repaying any special loan before the due date the council may raise the money needed for that purpose by a renewal loan repayable (in accordance with this section) within the remainder of the term which was fixed for the original loan.

181. (1) Where a municipal council proposes to raise a special loan it shall notify reasonable particulars of the proposal and allow one month in which any number not less than twenty-five per centum of the ratepayers may petition the council to take a poll of ratepayers either as to whether the ratepayers approve of the loan or as to whether the loan rate shall be on the unimproved capital value or improved capital value or on both questions:

Municipal
special loans.
cf. L.G. Act,
1906, s. 171.

Provided that—

- (a) if the council proposes that the loan rate shall be levied on the whole area the petition shall be

No. 41.

be informal if not signed by at least twenty-five per centum in number of the ratepayers of the area ;

- (b) if the council proposes that the loan rate shall be levied on part only of the area, the petition shall be informal if not signed by at least twenty-five per centum of the ratepayers enrolled in respect of that part.

(2) If a formal petition is lodged within the prescribed time the council shall forthwith arrange for and take a poll of the ratepayers of the area or of the ratepayers enrolled in respect of the part aforesaid, as the case may be.

(3) The questions to be submitted at the poll shall be as prescribed.

(4) If the decision of the poll is against the proposal it shall not be submitted to the Governor for his approval.

(5) If the decision of the poll is in favour of the proposal, or if a petition asking for a poll (as to whether the ratepayers approve of the loan) is not duly lodged, the proposal shall be submitted to the Governor through the Minister.

(6) The proposal so submitted shall contain such details as may be prescribed by ordinance, or in the absence of ordinance, as the council may determine, showing—

- (a) the purpose of the loan ;
- (b) the amount of the loan and the rate of interest thereon ;
- (c) the terms of repayment of the loan (including the scheme, if any, for repayment by instalments) ;
- (d) the loan rate which the council estimates will be needed to comply with this Act, stating the rate which will be required if levied on the unimproved capital value and if levied on the improved capital value ;
- (e) whether the council proposes to levy the loan rate on the whole of its area or on part only, and if on part only, what part ;

(f)

- (f) the total number of ratepayers on the roll for the area, or enrolled in respect of the aforesaid part of the area, as the case may be. George V,
No. 41.

(7) The Minister shall cause a report to be made on the proposal by such person as he may appoint.

(8) The Minister may recommend the council to modify the proposal by restricting, extending, or altering it in any way, and if the council adopts the recommendation, the proposal shall be the proposal as so modified.

(9) The Governor may, if satisfied that the provisions of this section have been complied with, approve of the proposal.

(10) A loan rate shall be levied in respect of a municipal special loan.

(11) The council shall, if the loan is obtained, give effect to the decision of the poll as to the basis of rating.

Security for loans.

182. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, renewal ordinary or special loans shall be deemed to be secured— Security for special ordinary and renewal loans.

- (a) firstly, upon the income of that fund of the council to which the loan belongs ; and cf. Sydney
Corporation
Amendment
Act, 1905,
s. 23 : L.G.
Act, 1906,
s. 169.
- (b) secondly, upon the income of the council from whatever source arising.

(2) This section shall not affect the order of priority of loans in respect of the same or any other fund.

(3) For the purposes of any security for loans under this Act the approval of the Governor shall be conclusive evidence that the provisions of this Act with respect to the proposal for the loan have been duly complied with.

Use of loan moneys.

183. (1) All moneys borrowed by way of renewal ordinary or special loan shall be lodged to the credit of a separate bank account in respect of each loan in its appropriate fund. Separate bank account.
cf. L.G. Act,
1906, s. 182.
See also s. 114.

(2)

George V,
No. 41.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the separate bank account in respect of a renewal, ordinary, or special loan shall not be drawn upon except for—

(a) the specific purposes for which the loan was obtained, as set out in the approval of the Governor; or

(b) the purpose of repaying the principal of the loan.

(3) In any case where the council proposes to borrow for any purpose, and where pending such borrowing, the council lawfully uses any of its moneys for the same purpose, the loan, when obtained, may be used to recoup the appropriate fund for moneys so used.

(4) Where, after any loan has been obtained, it is found insufficient to carry out the whole of the work or purpose for which it was raised, it may be applied to such work or purpose so far as is practicable, or the work or purpose may be modified in such manner as the Minister may approve.

(5) Where, after the works for which any loan has been obtained have been completed, it is found that there remains any portion of the loan unexpended, the council may, if the Minister approve, expend the remainder upon further works of the same kind.

Limits of borrowing.

borrowing.

184. Subject to the provisions of this Act—

(a) the council of a municipality shall not borrow any moneys which, added to any other amounts then owing by the council in respect of loans, will cause the total amount of loans owing to exceed twenty per centum of the unimproved capital value of all ratable land in the area;

(b) if the borrowings of any existing municipality as defined in the Local Government Act, 1906, or of any council of a municipality, comprising the whole or part of any such existing municipality, at the time of the commencement of this Act or at the time of its constitution under this Act as the case may be, exceed the limit ties in excess of limit.

cf. L.G. Acts,
s. 169 (3).

limit of borrowing prescribed in this Act, it shall not be lawful for the council of such municipality to raise any special loan until the total amount owing by it has fallen below such limit.

Repayment.

185. Subject to the provisions of this Act, every renewal or ordinary or special loan shall be raised on such terms of repayment (whether under a scheme for repayment by instalments or otherwise, or partly in the one way and partly in the other) as the Governor may approve.

Reserves for loan repayment.

186. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, there shall be one reserve for loan repayment in every fund in respect of which any renewal or ordinary or special loan or any part thereof has been raised by a council under this or any other Act.

(2) This section shall apply to loans with respect to which in its application for approval the council intimated that it proposed to set apart a sum periodically for loan repayment purposes or as a "sinking fund," except loans raised under a scheme for repayment by instalments at intervals of one year or less. The council may apply this section to loans excepted by the preceding provisions of this subsection.

(3) All sinking funds or other like provision for repayment of loans in existence at the commencement of this Act shall be transferred to and form part of the appropriate reserve for loan repayment under this Act.

(4) The council shall during each year transfer to the reserve for loan repayment from the moneys of the appropriate fund a sum not less than the council, in its application for approval of the loan, intimated that it proposed to set apart as aforesaid.

(5) Where a loan rate is levied such sum shall be set apart out of the proceeds of such rate.

(6) Where any land or property of any other kind which has been provided out of loan moneys is sold

George V, No. 41. sold before the loan has been wholly repaid the proceeds of such sale shall be added to the reserve for loan repayment in the appropriate fund, or repaid directly to the lender, or used for the provision or purchase of other land or property chargeable upon the fund to which such proceeds belong.

Bank account for loan repayment. (7) All moneys directed by this Act to be paid into a reserve for loan repayment shall be paid to the credit of a separate account in such bank as the council may arrange.

(8) Such moneys may be invested in Government securities of the State of New South Wales or in such other securities as the Governor may approve in each individual case or such securities as may be prescribed.

(9) Any interest or profits realised on such investments shall be added to and form part of the reserve for loan repayment.

(10) Investments hereunder may be realised at any time and the proceeds reinvested or kept at call.

Application of moneys in loan repayment reserve. (11) All moneys paid into the reserve for loan repayment in any fund may be applied in or towards the repayment of any renewal or ordinary or special loan raised in respect of the same fund, but except where this Act otherwise provides may not be applied for any other purpose.

Withdrawal of surplus from loan repayment reserve. (12) If, after all the loans raised in respect of any fund have been repaid, there remains in any reserve for loan repayment any balance, such balance may be transferred to the current account of that fund.

(13) The reserve for loan repayment shall not be subject to seizure in satisfaction of any debt other than for loans primarily chargeable on the income of the fund in which such reserve is provided.

Loans under other Acts. 187. Where, under any other Act, a council is empowered to borrow, the provisions of this Act relating to—

- (a) funds ;
- (b) separate bank accounts ;
- (c) use of loan moneys ;
- (d) reserves for loan repayment ;
- (e) the discontinuance, suspension, reduction, or increase of any loan rate ;
- (f)

- (f) the keeping of accounts; George V,
No. 41.
 (g) audit and inspection of accounts and sur-
 charges; and
 (h) matters incidental to the foregoing, shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to any such borrowing as though it were a borrowing under this Act.

Debentures, &c.

188. (1) For securing the repayment of the principal and interest of any moneys borrowed in pursuance of this Act, a council may, in the prescribed manner, issue debentures, mortgage-deeds, or bonds in or to the effect of forms to be prescribed. Security for loans.
s. 171 (1).

(2) All such debentures, mortgage-deeds or bonds shall, notwithstanding the provisions of any other Act, have priority as between the respective holders thereof according to their respective dates of execution. Priority.

(3) The holders of debentures by which the same loan was raised shall as between themselves rank pari passu.

189. Every debenture issued under the provisions of this Act, and every coupon originally annexed to the debenture, and whether separated therefrom or not, may be transferred by simple delivery. Transfer of debentures and coupons.
cf. Sydney Corporation Amendment Act, 1905,
s. 23 (d).

190. (1) The holder of any debenture issued under the provisions of this Act shall be entitled to receive payment from the council of the principal sum therein stated upon presentation of the debenture on or after the date when and at the place where the same is payable. Payment of debentures and coupons.
cf. Sydney
Corporation
Amendment
Act, 1905,
s. 24.

(2) The holder of any coupon originally annexed to the debenture, and whether separated therefrom or not, shall be entitled to receive payment from the council of the interest mentioned in the coupon upon presentation of the same on or after the date when and at the place where the interest is payable.

191. (1) Any trustee unless expressly forbidden by the instrument (if any) creating the trust may invest any trust moneys in his hands in any debentures issued under this Act, and the investment shall be deemed to be an investment authorised by the Trustee Act, 1898. Investment by trustees,
&c.
cf. No. 1421,
s. 22
(Victoria).

George V,
No. 41.

(2) Any debentures issued under this Act shall be a lawful investment for any moneys which any company or body corporate incorporated by any Act of the Parliament of New South Wales is authorised or directed to invest in addition to any other investments expressly provided for the investment of such moneys.

(3) No notice of any trust expressed implied or constructive shall be received by the council or by any servant of the same in relation to any debenture or coupon issued under this Act.

Lost debentures.

cf. No. 2159,
s. 4 (Victoria).

192. (1) If any debenture issued under this Act is lost or accidentally burnt or otherwise destroyed before the same has been paid off, the council may subject to the provisions of this section issue a new debenture in lieu thereof.

(2) The new debenture with interest coupons annexed shall bear the same date number principal sum and rate of interest as the lost or destroyed debenture.

(3) The new debenture shall not be issued unless and until—

- (a) a judge of the Supreme Court has been satisfied by affidavit of the person entitled to the lost or destroyed debenture or of some person approved by the judge that the same has been lost or accidentally burnt or otherwise destroyed before it has been paid off;
- (b) such advertisements as the judge may direct have been published;
- (c) six months have elapsed since the publication of the last of the advertisements; and
- (d) sufficient security has been given to the council to indemnify the council against any double payment if the missing debenture is at any time thereafter presented for payment.

Receivers.

Appointment.
cf. Sydney
Corporation
Amendment
Act, 1905,
s. 25.
cf. L. G. Acts,
1906-8, s. 177.

193. (1) If for six months default is made by the council in making any payment whether of principal or interest to the holder of any debenture, coupon, mortgage-deed, or bond issued under the provisions of this Act the holder may apply to the Supreme Court in its equitable jurisdiction for the appointment of a receiver of the rates and other income of the council. (2)

(2) A receiver may be appointed in respect of the rates and other income of the council either generally or as regards specified rates and other income. George V,
No. 41.

(3) The court may make such orders and give such directions as it may deem proper for and with respect to—

- (a) the appointment of a receiver ;
- (b) the removal of a receiver ;
- (c) the appointment of a receiver in place of a receiver previously appointed.

(4) A receiver shall be deemed to be an officer of the court, and shall act under its directions.

Officer of the court.
cf. Sydney Corporation Amendment Act, 1905.
cf. L.G. Acts, 1903-4, s. 178.
cf. C.T.W. & S. Act, 1880, s. 125.

194. (1) The receiver shall have power to make levy and collect all income and in particular all rates payable to the council for or in respect of which he has been appointed receiver, but the rates so made and levied shall not exceed the maximum limits permitted under the law in force for the time being, or where there is no maximum limit, such limit as the court may fix, and for the purposes of this subsection the receiver shall be deemed the council and may exercise all the powers thereof. Powers and duties.
cf. Syd. Corporation Amendment Act, 1905, s. 25.

(2) The receiver shall discharge such duties of the council and of the mayor or president and of any servant of the council as may be prescribed by ordinance.

195. The receiver shall be entitled to such commission as remuneration for his services as the court may order, and the commission shall be payable out of the rates or income for or in respect of which he has been appointed receiver. Commission.
cf. Ibid. s. 25.

196. The receiver shall subject to any order of the court pay and apply all the money received by him in the following order, that is to say— Application of moneys received.
cf. Conveyancing and Law of Property Act, 1888, s. 133.

- (a) firstly in payment of the costs charges and expenses of collection and of his commission ;
- (b)

George V,
No. 41.

- (b) secondly in payment of the amount due and payable to the holder of the debenture, coupon, mortgage-deed, or bond;
- (c) thirdly in payment of all the residue of the money to the council.

Protection of investors.

Application
of moneys
by council.
cf. No. 1421,
s. 133 (Victoria).

197. A person advancing money to a council shall not be bound to inquire into the application of the money advanced or be in any way responsible for the non-application or misapplication thereof.

Illegal borrowing.

Liability for illegal borrowing.
cf. L.G. Act,
1906, s. 175.

198. (1) If any council borrows any money which as the body corporate it is not legally bound to repay all persons who while holding or acting in a civic office have knowingly and wilfully or for any personal benefit or advantage consented to the borrowing shall be jointly and severally liable to repay to the lender the money so borrowed and all interest thereon.

(2) Proceedings to enforce the liability imposed by this section may be taken in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Liability for illegal payments.
cf. L.G. Act,
1906, s. 175.

199. (1) If any money of the council is appropriated for the repayment of the moneys so borrowed or for the payment of interest thereon, all persons who while holding or acting in a civic office have consented to the appropriation shall be jointly and severally liable to refund to the council the money so appropriated and interest thereon at four per centum per annum.

(2) Proceedings to enforce the liability imposed by this section may be taken in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(3) The proceedings may be taken—

- (a) by the council ; or
- (b) by any elector of the area ; or
- (c) by any creditor of the council ; or
- (d) by the Attorney-General :

Provided that the proceedings shall not be taken by any person other than the Attorney-General or the council without the written consent of the Attorney-General.

200. If the council borrows any money which as George V, the body corporate it is not legally bound to repay, No. 41. every person who while holding or acting in a civic ^{Penalty for illegal borrowing.} office has knowingly and wilfully or for any personal benefit or advantage consented to the borrowing shall, in ^{cf. L.G. Act, 1903, s. 414 (Victoria).} addition to any liability to repay the money so borrowed, be liable to pay the sum of two hundred pounds to any person who sues for it in any court of competent jurisdiction :

Provided that the proceedings shall not be taken without the written consent of the Attorney-General.

DIVISION 5.—Endowment.

General endowment.

201. All municipalities shall preserve the right to ^{Unexpired endowments under Municipalities Act, 1897.} endowment they now enjoy by virtue of any Act repealed by this Act or by the Local Government Act, 1906.

202. (1) There shall be payable in the year one ^{cf. L.G. Acts, 1906-8, s. 162.} thousand nine hundred and twenty, and in each year ^{Shire—General endowment.} thereafter out of the Consolidated Revenue for the endowment of shires a sum not less than one hundred ^{cf. L.G. Acts 1906-8, s. 161 (2).} and fifty thousand pounds, to be appropriated by Parliament for such purpose and paid to the shire councils.

(2) Such endowment shall be distributed ^{Apportionment of endowment.} among the shires according to an apportionment which shall be made by the Governor.

(3) In making such apportionment the Governor shall take into account in respect of each shire—

- (a) the non-ratable land which is the property of the Crown (exclusive of lands vested in public bodies for public use, recreation, or enjoyment), and the extent to which the council undertakes to execute works of construction or of maintenance on roads on or in the vicinity of such land ;
- (b) the necessity for aid in the development of new districts ; the extent to which the council undertakes to construct works for this purpose ; and the extent to which the people of the locality specially interested within the shire undertake to share the cost by means of a local rate ;
- (c)

George V,
No. 41.

- (c) the amount which the council has spent in the past three years on main roads in addition to any Government grant therefor ;
- (d) the special needs of the shire, and the difficulty or otherwise of constructing and maintaining roads therein ;
- (e) whether the road works constructed by the council are generally substantially constructed and properly maintained ;
- (f) any special matter which has arisen during the past three years indicating good or bad administration on the part of the council ;
- (g) the rate levied by the council, and its relation to the maximum rate ;
- (h) whether the valuations of ratable land are of recent date and are reasonably correct.

(4) Such apportionment shall be made by the Governor on or before the thirty-first day of December, one thousand nine hundred and twenty, and on or before the thirty-first day of December in every third year thereafter.

(5) For the triennial period ending on the thirty-first day of December, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one, shire endowment shall, subject to the provisions of the next following section, be payable on the basis of the classification made during the year one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, under the Local Government Act, 1906.

No endowment to shire which levies less than $1\frac{1}{2}$ d. in £.

203. After the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty endowment shall not be paid in any year to any shire which in the preceding year has not levied a general rate of at least three half-pence in the pound.

Miscellaneous.

Treasurer to pay endowments.
cf. L.G. Acts, 1906-8, s. 164.

204. (1) Upon receipt of a certificate signed as prescribed of the amount of endowment of an area under this Act, the Treasurer may, subject to this Act, pay such amount from the Consolidated Revenue Fund to the council of such area.

(2) The Treasurer shall, from time to time, be allowed credit for any sums of money so paid by him. George V. No. 41.

(3) The receipt of the mayor or president, under his hand and the seal of the area, countersigned by the town or shire clerk, shall be a sufficient discharge to the Treasurer.

205. (1) The Minister may withhold the payment of the endowment, main road grants, and any other moneys, in respect of any area—

- (a) if the council neglect or refuse to transmit to the prescribed person such information, statistics, returns, and accounts as may be prescribed;
- (b) if the council neglect to appoint a certificated clerk or engineer as prescribed;
- (c) if the council neglect to take steps to enforce the payment of rates;
- (d) if the books and accounts of the council have been negligently or improperly kept or wilfully falsified.

(2) The Minister may release any endowment grant or money so withheld.

(3) If in accordance with any provision of this Act any endowment or part of an endowment is withheld for a period exceeding two years, such endowment or such part of endowment shall be forfeited.

DIVISION 6.—Accounts and audit.

Keeping accounts.

206. (1) The council shall cause books to be provided and kept, and true and regular accounts to be entered therein in respect of each fund, so as to show—

- (a) the assets liabilities income and expenditure in respect of the fund; and
- (b) the sources of income and purposes of expenditure in respect of the fund.

(2) The accounts of all councils shall—

- (a) be kept according to uniform principles and methods as prescribed by or under this Act; and

(b)

George V.
No. 41.

- (b) be kept in uniform forms of books, except where variation of forms is provided for by or under this Act.

Accounts in respect of various trusts, &c.

207. (1) This Act shall apply to the accounts in connection with—

- (a) any reserve or cemetery or land vested in a council or placed under the care control or management of a council whether under any statute or proclamation notification or deed of trust or howsoever; and
- (b) any undertaking work or function performed or managed by a council either as local authority council or trustee under any Act proclamation notification regulation ordinance or by-law, or in any capacity whatsoever.

(2) The provisions of any Act regulations or by-laws (other than the Commons Regulation Act, 1898) repugnant to the provisions of this section are to that extent repealed.

(3) Accounts under this section shall be allocated to and included in the appropriate funds of the council.

Charges against income and capital.

Charging expenditure
generally.
cf. L.G. Act, 1906, regulation 6.

Charging
expenditure of a trading fund.

repayment may be invested.

Interim and annual statements.

209. (1) The council shall cause interim and annual Interim and annual statements.
statements of accounts to be prepared and entered in forms provided by the Minister.

(2) Such statements shall comprise statements of each fund separately and of the aggregate of all the funds taken together.

(3)

George V.
No. 41. (3) The annual statements in respect of an aggregate of funds shall comprise the following, that is to say—

- (a) an income and expenditure account for the year ending on the thirty-first day of December;
- (b) if so prescribed, a net income account for the year ending on the thirty-first day of December;
- (c) a balance-sheet of assets and liabilities as at the thirty-first day of December.

(4) The statements shall be prepared and entered in each year as soon as possible after the expiration of the period concerned.

Audit and inspection.

Auditors.
cf. L.G. Acts,
1960-8, s. 184. 210. The accounts shall be audited by an auditor or auditors at the times and in the manner prescribed.

Appointment and duties of auditors. 211. (1) Auditors shall be appointed by the council.

(2) If a council fails to appoint an auditor within the prescribed time the Governor may appoint an auditor without nomination by the council.

(3) The appointment shall be for a term of one year, but may be cancelled by the Governor at any time and an appointment may be made for the unexpired portion of the one year's term.

(4) Where an auditor's appointment has been cancelled under this section, the same auditor shall not be reappointed without the Governor's approval.

(5) The remuneration of an auditor shall be fixed and paid by the council.

(6) A person shall not be eligible to be appointed as auditor unless he holds the certificate prescribed.

(7) Where two persons are holders of the prescribed auditors' certificates hereunder they shall not be eligible to be appointed to audit each other's accounts.

(8) An auditor shall make a full and complete audit of all the accounts.

(9) An auditor shall certify whether or not—

- (a) the accounts are in order;

(b)

- (b) separate funds and accounts have been kept as prescribed by or under this Act;
- (c) the charges with which the several operations accounts and funds of the council ought to be debited have been duly debited;
- (d) the statements of accounts present a full and true view of all transactions for the period under investigation;
- (e) due provision has been made for the repayment of loans;
- (f) all items of income and expenditure and all known assets and liabilities have been brought into account;
- (g) the value of assets has (so far as the auditor can judge) been in all cases fairly stated;
- (h) the provisions made by or under this Act with respect to the funds and accounts have been duly carried out;
- (i) due diligence and care have been shown in the collection and banking of income;
- (j) the expenditure incurred has been duly authorised, vouched, and supervised;
- (k) proper account has been kept of plant, stores, and materials;
- (l) any of the moneys or other property of the council have been misappropriated or improperly or irregularly dealt with.

(10) An auditor shall report to the council and to the Minister as to any matters which in his judgment call for special notice or which are prescribed.

212. (1) The Governor may appoint inspectors of local government accounts. Inspectors of accounts.

(2) An inspector of local government accounts may inspect the accounts of councils and the internal organisation and management of the council's offices. cf. L.G. Acts, 1906-8, s. 185.

(3) An inspector of local government accounts shall report to the Minister and to the council any irregularity, dishonesty, or breach of law revealed by the inspection, and may report as to any matters which in his judgment call for special notice or which are prescribed.

George V. 213. (1) An inspector of local government accounts may disallow any expenditure, transfer, or entry in the books or accounts of the council which has been incurred or made in contravention of any Act or any ordinance, regulation, or bylaw.

(2) The inspector shall surcharge the amount of any such disallowance upon the members or servants of the council by whom the expenditure, transfer, or entry was incurred or made or ordered to be incurred or made.

cf. Poor Law
Amdt. Act, 1844 (Eng.),
s. 32.

(3) An inspector of local government accounts may surcharge on any member or servant of the council the amount of any deficiency or loss incurred by the culpable negligence or misconduct of such member or servant, or of any sum which ought to have been but is not brought into account by such member or servant.

cf. Poor Law
Audit Act, 1848 (Eng.),
s. 8.

(4) Before surcharging the amount of any such disallowance on any person the inspector of local government accounts shall, if practicable, extend to the person upon whom he proposes to make the surcharge an opportunity to advance any reasons why such surcharge should not be made.

cf. Poor Law
Amdt. Act,
1844 (Eng.),
s. 32.

(5) An inspector of local government accounts may certify in the manner prescribed on the face of every account examined by him any money, books, deeds, papers, goods, or chattels found by him to be due from any person.

Regulation 8
under L.G.
Act, 1906.

(6) Immediately upon surcharging any sum on any person the inspector shall give notice in the form prescribed to the person concerned.

cf. L.G. Act,
1906, s. 185.

(7) Any person upon whom a surcharge is made may, within one month after service upon him of the notice referred to in the preceding paragraph, appeal to the Minister, whose decision shall be final.

cf. Ibid.

(8) The Minister shall, in the manner prescribed, inform the council of which the appellant is or was a member or servant, of his decision thereon, and the council shall thereupon give effect to the decision.

cf. The Local Authorities
Act, 1902-1910 (Qsld.),
s. 258 (4).

(9) If the person concerned do not within one month appeal, or if on appeal the decision of the Minister be against such person, the council, the Minister, or any

any ratepayer or creditor of the council may recover in a court of competent jurisdiction the amount of the surcharge (or any deficiency which may remain after the appropriation of any moneys in the possession of the council the property of such person); and the money so recovered shall be paid into the appropriate fund of the council.

George V,
No. 41.

(10) If there are any moneys in the possession of the council the property of such person, the council may appropriate so much of them as may be necessary to satisfy the amount surcharged.

(11) If any surcharge on any person be not within six months after it is made satisfied by payment or annulled on appeal to the Minister, as hereinbefore provided, such person shall, during such further time as the amount of the surcharge remains unpaid, be thereby disqualified for civic office.

(12) For the purpose of this section a “sur-charge” shall be an entry in an account of the council made or caused to be made by an inspector of local government accounts, and purporting to show the amount surcharged as an amount due by the person surcharged.

Definition.

(13) Nothing in this or any other Act shall preclude any disallowance or surcharge being made, or the amount thereof being recovered or deducted before or after the expiration of six months from the time when the matter of the disallowance or surcharge arose.

214. (1) For the purpose of any audit or inspection of accounts, an auditor or inspector of local government accounts may take evidence upon oath or affirmation (which oath or affirmation he is hereby empowered to administer), and may, by summons under his hand, require such persons as he thinks fit to appear personally before him, at a time and place to be fixed in and by such summons, and to produce to him such books and papers as appear necessary for such audit or inspection, and may examine such witnesses as he thinks fit.

- (a) neglects or refuses to comply with such summons; or
- (b) refuses to be examined on oath or affirmation, or to take an oath or affirmation; or
- (c) refuses to answer such lawful questions as are put to him, shall be liable to a term of imprisonment not exceeding twelve months, or a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

Right to inspect and make objections.

Right to inspect books of account. 215. Any elector may at the council's office inspect the books of account and the report of the auditor or of an inspector of local government accounts without fee as prescribed :
cf. L.G. Act, 1906, s. 183 (3).

Provided that the council may fix and collect a fee from any person who desires to inspect in the valuation book of the council the entries relating to any land other than—

- (a) land in respect of which he is the owner lessee or occupier or the agent authorised in writing by the owner; or
- (b) land adjoining thereto.

Right to make objections before auditors. 216. Any elector may make any objection to the accounts before the mayor or president and the auditor. The auditor shall report on such objection to the council and the Minister.
cf. L.G. Act, 1888 (England), s. 71; Public Health Act, 1875 (England), s. 247.

Penalty. 217. Any member or servant of the council who does not permit any elector to make any inspection authorised by or under this Act shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

PART VIII.

DEFAULTING AREAS.

Definition of a defaulting
area.
cf. L.G. Acts, 1906-8,
s. 168 (1).
As to quorum,
see s. 47 ante.

219. (1) A municipality or shire may, for the purposes of this Act, be declared by proclamation to be a defaulting area—

- (a) if there are not sufficient members of the council to form a quorum of the council; or
- (b) if the requirements of this Act as to the making and levying of a general rate have not been duly carried out within the area; or
- (c) if the council has ceased for six months to exercise its functions.

Appointment of administrator for defaulting
area.
cf. L.G. Acts
1906-8, s. 168 (2).

(2) The Governor may at any time, by proclamation, appoint an administrator for a defaulting area, and may in like manner at any time remove him :

Governor
may authorise an election or appoint aldermen or councillors.
cf. L.G. Acts,
s. 168 (4).

Provided that in case of a default described in paragraph (a) of subsection one of this section, the Governor, instead of appointing such administrator, may at any time by proclamation authorise an election of or appoint the requisite number of aldermen or councillors.

(3) An administrator shall have the powers, duties, and liabilities of the council, and shall be paid out of the general fund of the area such salary as the Governor may determine.

Servants to cease to hold office.
cf. L.G. Acts,
s. 168 (3).

(4) When an administrator is so appointed, the servants (unless specifically retained by the administrator) and the officers in the area shall thereupon cease to hold office.

Election of new council.
cf. L.G. Acts,
s. 168 (5).

(5) At any time after the appointment of an administrator as aforesaid the Governor may, by proclamation, authorise the election of a new council on a day appointed in such proclamation. If at such election members of the council are elected sufficient to form a quorum, the powers and duties of the administrator shall cease, and the Governor may appoint aldermen or councillors to fill any vacancies on the council, but if sufficient members to form a quorum are not elected such election shall be of no effect.

(6) Where an area becomes a defaulting area, the mayor or president, or if there is no mayor or president, the clerk, shall, until an administrator is appointed, or until a council is appointed or elected, have power to act temporarily as administrator for the purpose of carrying on works and services already commenced, paying accounts due, supervising and paying the servants of the council, performing administrative acts except the incurring of new expenditure, and, if the Minister's approval be obtained beforehand, incurring new expenditure.

PART IX.

PUBLIC ROADS.

DIVISION 1.—Application of this Part.

220. Subject to the provisions of this Act— Application.

- (a) this Part shall apply to municipalities and shires; and
- (b) the powers and duties conferred and imposed upon a council under this Part shall apply in respect of each area to the council of the area.

221. Unless otherwise expressly provided, this Part shall not apply to a national work nor to any public road which is by law vested in any public body other than the council. National works—Roads vested in statutory bodies.
See ss. 225, 269,
271 post.

222. This Act shall apply to a public road notwithstanding that it may not at the commencement of this Act have been approved, accepted, and taken over by or been placed or taken under the care, control, and management of a council under the Local Government Act, 1906, or any Act repealed by that Act. Application to roads not hitherto taken over by councils.
post.

223. Subject to the provisions of this Act, this Part shall apply to every present or future public road, but shall not apply to lands defined, reserved or left before or after the passing of this Act in any subdivision of Crown lands, or on the measurement or granting of Crown lands as indicated upon the official plans of the same, and not being notified, proclaimed or dedicated before or after the passing of this Act as a public thoroughfare or way. Present or future roads.

DIVISION

George V,
No. 41.

DIVISION 2.—Status of roads.

Settling status of roads.
cf. L.G. Acts,
1906-8, s. 73 (3).

224. (1) Any road left in subdivision of Crown lands or in use over Crown lands shall be and become a public road under the control of and vested in the council on publication of a notification to that effect in the Gazette.

(2) Such notification may be given by the Minister for Lands after due inquiry and the prescribed notice to the occupier, if any.

(3) Where any road has been left in subdivision of private lands before the commencement of the Local Government Act, 1906, and there exists any doubt as to whether or not it is a public road—

- (a) the council may serve on the owner of the land comprising the road notice of intention to take over the road ;
- (b) if the owner has any objection he may within thirty days after such service appeal to a district court judge having jurisdiction within the area ;
- (c) such judge may hear and determine the appeal and make such order as he thinks fit ;
- (d) if the owner does not appeal, or if on appeal the judge so orders, the council may notify in the Gazette that such road is a public road, and thereupon the road shall be a public road and shall vest in the council.

(4) This section shall be in aid of and not in derogation from any other provision of either common or statute law relating to the dedication of roads.

Certain
public lands.

225. Where any land vested in the Sydney Harbour Trust Commissioners or in the Railway Commissioners for New South Wales or in any other statutory body representing the Crown, is used by the public as a road, the Governor, upon the request of the Council, may, notwithstanding the provisions of any other Act, after considering the report of the statutory body affected, proclaim the land to be a public road.

DIVISION

DIVISION 3.—*Classification and width of roads.*George V,
No. 41.

226. (1) Public roads may be classified in relation to the use which they are intended or calculated to serve. Classification of roads.

(2) The classification shall be as follows, that is to say—

- (a) main roads, being roads proclaimed as main roads ;
- (b) secondary roads, being roads for general local traffic ;
- (c) residential roads, being roads primarily for access to residences ;
- (d) pathways, being roads exclusively for foot-passengers and such classes of vehicles propelled by foot-passengers as may be prescribed ;
- (e) lanes, being roads primarily for access to the back of premises.

(3) The classification shall be made by the council except in respect of main roads.

(4) The classification shall be fixed and take effect upon notification in the Gazette. It shall also be notified in a newspaper.

(5) Subject to the provisions of this Act and until roads are classified hereunder— Tentative classification.

- (a) all public roads which are sixty-six feet wide or over (other than main roads) shall be deemed to be secondary roads ;
- (b) all public roads which are more than twenty feet and less than sixty-six feet wide (other than main roads) shall be deemed to be residential roads ;
- (c) all public roads which are more than twelve feet and not more than twenty feet wide shall be deemed to be lanes ;
- (d) all public roads which are not more than twelve feet wide shall be deemed to be pathways.

(6) The provisions of this Act with respect to classification of roads shall, unless inconsistent with the context, be deemed to include alteration of classification and re-classification. Re-classification.

227. (1) There shall be a standard width for each class of public roads, that is to say— Standard widths.

- (a) for a main road not less than eighty feet ;

(b)

George V,
No. 41.

- (b) for a secondary road—sixty-six feet ;
- (c) for a residential road—sixty-six feet ;
- (d) for a pathway—twelve feet ;
- (e) for a lane—twenty feet ;

cf. Width of Streets and Lanes Act, 1902;
Syd. Corp. Act,
1902, s. 76.

(2) In the case of a public road in existence at the commencement of this Act the fact that the road is less than the standard width for a particular class shall not preclude it from being assigned to that class.

(3) The Width of Streets and Lanes Act, 1902, shall not apply to a municipality or shire.

Measurement of width.

228. The width of a road shall be ascertained by measuring at right angles to the course thereof from the alignment on each side of the road.

Width of new roads.
See s. 308
post.

229. (1) Subject to this Act every new public road shall—

- (a) be classified before it is opened ; and
- (b) be opened to or beyond the standard width for its class.

(2) In the case of a new residential road the council may on such terms as it deems proper permit the opening of a residential road of less than the standard width :

Provided that any such residential road shall not have less space than three feet for a footway on each side and fourteen feet between the footways for carriage way, tree-planting, and the like, together with such turning and passing places of additional width for vehicles as the council may require.

DIVISION 4.—Road map and register.

Map and register.
cf. N.Z.
Municipal Corporations
Act, 1908,
ss. 184-190.

230. (1) The council shall cause to be prepared a road map and road register of the area.

(2) The map shall show—

- (a) every public road which has been either classified, or aligned, or the levels of which have been fixed ; and
- (b) the classification of the roads classified.

(3) The register shall show—

- (a) every public road which has been either classified, or aligned, or the levels of which have been fixed ;
- (b)

- (b) particulars of the classification, alignment, and levels as fixed from time to time, together with reference to the authority for the fixing; and
- (c) such additional information as may be prescribed.

George V.
No. 41.

(4) The map and register may contain such other particulars as may be prescribed, or as the council may determine.

(5) From time to time as new public roads are opened, or as roads are classified, or as unaligned roads are aligned, or as levels are fixed, these facts shall be shown and entered upon the map and register.

(6) Any person may inspect the road map and register without fee as prescribed.

(7) Upon application and payment of the prescribed fee, any person may obtain from the council a copy or extract from the map or register, or a certificate under the hand of the proper servant of the council as to the classification, alignment, or levels of any road, or as to the fact that the classification alignment or levels has or have not been fixed.

231. (1) The classification, alignment, and levels of any public road may be proved by the production of—Evidence.

- (a) the notification in the Gazette; or
- (b) the road register; or
- (c) a certificate under the hand of the proper servant of the council as to the classification, alignment, or levels.

(2) The fact that the classification, alignment, or levels of any public road has or have not been fixed may be proved by the production of—

- (a) the road register showing the fact; or
- (b) a certificate under the hand of the proper servant of the council as to the fact.

(3) A certificate purporting to be made for the purposes of this section and to be signed by a servant of the council shall, unless the contrary is proved, be deemed to be a certificate under the hand of the proper servant of the council within the meaning of this section.

See also
s. 338.

232. (1) Except where otherwise expressly provided, every public road, and the soil thereof, and all materials of which the road is composed, shall by virtue of this Act vest in fee-simple in the council, and the council, if it so desire, shall by virtue of this Act be entitled to be registered as the proprietor of the road under the provisions of the Real Property Act, 1900.

(2) The vesting in fee-simple under this section shall be deemed to be not merely as regards so much of the soil below and of the air above as may be necessary for the ordinary use of the road as a road, but so as to confer on the council subject to the provisions of this Act the same estate and rights in and with respect to the site of the road as a private person would have if he were entitled to the site as private land held in fee-simple with full rights both as to the soil below and to the air above.

(3) Unless otherwise expressly provided nothing in this section shall be deemed—

- (a) to affect any express or implied dedication to the public;
- (b) to affect any existing right of the Crown or of any person in respect of any easement or under the provisions of any Act, except in so far as the council is authorised by or under this Act to control and regulate the digging up of public roads;
- (c) to affect any right of the Crown or of any person in respect of any minerals below the surface of any road;
- (d) to authorise the council to grant, demise, dispose of, or alienate the road or the soil or materials thereof;
- (e) to impose on the council any liability in respect of any rate under any Act or in respect of any dividing fence under the Dividing Fences Act, 1902, or any liability in any case where the council would not be subject to the liability if this Act conferred on the council the care,

(2) All materials placed or laid on the road in order to be used for the purposes thereof, including paving, guttering, kerbing, gutter-bridges, tree-guards, handrails, and the like, placed or laid by any person before or after the commencement of this Act, shall be the property of the council, and may at any time be removed by the council.

Materials.

(3) All trees, shrubs, plants, and the like, grown or growing in the road (other than a road within the boundaries of a State forest), including trees, shrubs, plants, and the like, planted by any person before or after the commencement of this Act, shall be the property of the council, and may, subject to any ordinance, at any time be removed by the council.

(4) The council shall, in respect of any land alleged to be or to form part of a public road, have the right to lodge a caveat against the bringing of the land or any part thereof under the provisions of the Real Property Act, 1900.

Caveats—
vide L.G.
Acts, 1906-8,

tion in land.

(4)

George V,
No. 41.

(4) Upon the closing of any road by the Minister for Lands under the provisions of the Public Roads Act, 1902, the fee-simple of so much of the land on which such road is situate as is vested in the council shall pass to the Crown, and such lands shall be Crown lands and may be dealt with under the said Act.

Permission to enter in anticipation.

239. Where a council deems it a matter of urgency and in the public interest, the council may use its funds for executing and maintaining works on a road diversion or new road prior to such road diversion or new road being dedicated a public road, but this provision shall not be deemed to confer any power of entry, nor to relieve a council of its obligations with respect to any expenditure required to complete and effect the dedication of such road diversion or new road.

DIVISION 7.—Construction improvement and use of roads.

Power to construct and improve roads.

240. The council may construct improve maintain protect repair drain and cleanse any public road, and in particular and without limitation of any other power conferred by this Act the council may in respect of any public road—

George V,
No. 41.

For compensation see
s. 581.

Provided also that any person interested in the land shall have a claim against the council for compensation for any loss or damage directly caused to him by the exercise of this power.

Power to make drains on public or private lands. cf. L.G. Acts, 1906-8, s. 76.

241. (1) For the purpose of draining or protecting any public road the council may in and through any land of the Crown or of any public body or any person make open cleanse and keep open any ditch gutter tunnel drain or watercourse.

See also
s. 501 post.

(2) This section shall not apply to lands vested in the Railway Commissioners for New South Wales.

For compensation see
s. 581 post.

(3) If the property of the Crown or public body or person is damaged by the exercise of this power, the Crown or public body or person, as the case may be, shall have a claim against the council for the damage so sustained :

Provided that in the case of unoccupied Crown land the Crown shall not have a claim against the council for any damage.

(4) So far as is necessary for the purposes of this section the power conferred by it shall be deemed to extend to land outside the area.

(5) Whether the land is inside or outside the area the council may exercise the power conferred by this section either alone or in co-operation with any other council :

Provided that if the councils do not agree, as they are hereby authorized to do, as to construction maintenance expense liability for damage or any matter incidental to the exercise of the power, the Minister may at the request of either council make such order with respect thereto as he may deem proper, and the councils shall comply with the order.

(6) For the purpose of preventing obstruction to the free flow of surface drainage in any watercourse across or from any public road the council may require the owner of land abutting upon such road to alter any fence (including a rabbit-proof fence erected under the Pastures

Pastures Protection Act, 1902) on such land, or to provide flood gates therein, in such manner as the council may specify, and for the like purpose may require the owner or occupier of such land to keep such fence or gate in good order.

George V,
No. 41.

(7) Any open surface drain which is hereafter constructed by a council across the carriageway of a public road shall be so constructed that there shall be a distance of approximately ten feet of level roadway at the bottom of the drain in the case of a main road and four feet in the case of any other public road, with slopes on each side leading from the bottom of the drain up to the level of the ordinary surface of the carriageway, and such slopes shall be of a grade not steeper than one in fifteen.

242. A council shall not be liable for any damage caused by tar while in a moist or liquid state which shall have been applied to a road for the purpose of constructing, improving, maintaining, or repairing the same if, before applying the said tar, the council shall have first closed to vehicular traffic the portion of the road to be tarred, and shall have kept the said road so closed for a reasonable period after it has been tarred and shall have sanded the tarred portion thereof.

liable for damage caused by tar.

243. (1) Where the council constructs or paves any footway or constructs kerbing or guttering in any public road, the council may recover in any court of competent jurisdiction from the owner for the time being of the land on the same side of the road as and adjacent to the work an amount to be fixed by the council not exceeding one-half the cost of so much of the work (and any other work incidental thereto) as is opposite and adjacent to the land.

Cost of paving, kerbing and guttering footways.
cf. L.G. Act,
1906, s. 81.

(2) This section shall not apply to any renewal or repair of any paving kerbing or guttering in respect of which a contribution has previously been paid.

(3) The provisions of this Act with respect to—

(a) the charge of a rate under this Act on the land in respect of which it is levied; and

(b)

George V,
No. 41. (b) the time within which proceedings for the recovery of the rate may be taken,
shall mutatis mutandis apply to any judgment recovered under this section by the council and recorded in the books thereof, as if the amount of the judgment and of any costs awarded to the council in respect of its claim were a rate levied under this Act in respect of the land concerned.

Crown bound. (4) This section shall bind the Crown—
(a) except in respect of public reserves; and
(b) except as provided in subsection three of this section.

Cost of special crossings. 244. (1) Where the council constructs or repairs a special crossing over a footway in any public road for the traffic of vehicles across the footway to or from any land, the council may recover in any court of competent jurisdiction the cost of the construction and repairs as a debt from the owner or occupier for the time being of the land thereby served.

(2) This section shall bind the Crown.

Extra-ordinary traffic.
cf. Municipal Corporations Act, 1908, s. 192, N.Z. 245. Where the council incurs extraordinary expenses in repairing a public road by reason of the damage caused by excessive weight passing along the road, or extraordinary traffic thereon, or any other unreasonable use thereof whether of the same or a different kind, the council may recover such expenses as a debt from any person by or in consequence of whose order such weight or traffic or use has been conducted.

Use of roads. 246. The council may in respect of any public road—

(a) use portion of the width of the road for the storage of plant and materials for use in connection with any work of the council in such manner as in the opinion of the council will not unduly interfere with public convenience or with access to private premises;

cf. L.G. Acts, 1906-8, s. 75. (b) use the road and the soil thereof in the exercise of any power conferred on the council.

Power to lay pipes and charge cost. 247. (1) Where the council proposes to construct, reconstruct, remetal, or repave the carriageway of any public public road the council may before doing so make such provision (by laying conduits across the road at suitable intervals) as will enable gas and water service pipes to be laid to connect the mains with neighbouring land without digging up the constructed carriageway of the road.

George V,
No. 41.

(2) Before laying any such conduits the council shall seek the advice of the persons or bodies engaged in supplying gas and water in the area as to the most suitable form of conduit, the method of laying it, and incidental matters.

(3) When the person or body engaged in supplying gas or water requires to lay any service pipe to connect any land with the mains that person or body shall lay such service pipes through such conduit, and each shall when first laying a pipe through the conduit pay to the council one half of the cost of the laying of the conduit.

(4) Where service pipes are already laid in a road at the time of construction of the conduit the person or body aforesaid may continue to enjoy their use but when such service pipe requires attention it shall be relaid through the conduit or a new service pipe shall be so laid.

(5) This section shall apply to pipes laid under the Metropolitan Water and Sewerage Act of 1880, the Hunter District Water Supply and Sewerage Act of 1892 or under any statute or under any permission granted by the council.

248. Notwithstanding anything contained in section twenty-four of the Government Railways Act, 1912, the Railway Commissioners for New South Wales may charge councils a reduced rate in respect of goods (or carriages for such goods) conveyed over a railway line or portion of a railway line where such goods are to be used or adapted to be used by the council in the construction and maintenance of public roads or for carrying out the powers conferred upon a council by this Act.

(2) Any sum so paid shall be added to the cost of the railway or tramway as the case may be.

Damage to roads.

256. (1) The council may by resolution prohibit the doing of any act upon a public road if that act would be likely to inflict upon the road damage to an extent in excess of the ordinary wear and tear which would be caused by the ordinary and reasonable use of the road for the passage of foot and wheeled traffic.

(2) Notice of such resolution shall be advertised in a newspaper.

(3) Any person who disregards such prohibition shall be guilty of an offence.

Certain Acts not to apply to public roads.
Vide L.G. Acts,
1906-8, s. 111.
Schedule One.

257. Subject to this Act, the Acts mentioned in Schedule One shall not apply to public roads which are under the care, control, and management of the council.

DIVISION

DIVISION 9.—*Alignment of roads.*George V,
No. 41.

258. The council may cause the alignment of any public road to be set out and marked under the Public Roads Act, 1902, and any such alignment shall be an alignment under this Act.

Alignment
under Public Roads Act,
1902.

259. The provisions of this Act with respect to alignment of roads shall, unless inconsistent with the context, be deemed to include alteration of alignment and re-alignment.

Alteration of
alignment.

260. (1) In the case of every public road, any alignment for the time being in existence fixed before or after the commencement of this Act in accordance with the provisions of this or any other Act, shall be deemed to be an alignment for the purposes of this Act.

Existing
alignments.

(2) Where before or after the commencement of this Act the carriage-way or footway of any public road has been set out, defined, aligned, marked, re-marked, or altered under the Police Offences Act, 1901, or the Public Roads Act, 1902, the boundary line between the road and any land abutting thereon as fixed by or in relation to such setting out, defining, aligning, marking, re-marking, or altering of the carriage-way or footway, shall be deemed to be the alignment of the road for the purposes of this Act.

No. 41.

so far as the same is at a specified height or depth above or below the level of the new footway, and subject to the right of the council to make such structural alterations as may be required ;

- (b) a right to erect any building in accordance with the provisions of this Act at a specified height above the level of the new footway, and to own possess occupy and use the same ;
- (c) a right of support for any building coming within clause (a) or clause (b) of this subsection.

Realignment. 262. (1) The council may cause any aligned public road to be realigned under the Public Roads Act, 1902, in order to widen the road.

(2) Any realignment under this section may be carried into effect by the acquisition under this Act of the necessary land, or under the succeeding provisions of this section relating to the realignment method of acquiring land, or by a combination of these methods.

(3) Where the council proposes to apply the realignment method of acquisition to any lands affected by a realignment it shall serve notice accordingly upon the owners of lands affected ; and until such notice is served the interests of such owners shall not be affected by the realignment.

Compensation.

For settlement of compensation see s. 581.

(4) Under the realignment method compensation for any injurious effects suffered by reason of such realignment may be claimed but shall be limited to payment of the value of the land taken from any owner by reason of the realignment, and such value shall be ascertained and such compensation shall be payable as at the date when such land is cleared of buildings and obstructions by the owner or lessee whether for the purpose of rebuilding to the new alignment or not, and from that date the land shall vest in the council for a public road.

Prohibition of construction or substantial repair of buildings and works.

(5) Where any public road is realigned, and where the realignment method is applied, the owner of any land or building or work affected by such realignment shall not construct, build, place, reconstruct, rebuild portion of a building or work standing upon the land No. 41.

 between the old alignment and the new :

Provided that the council may approve the execution of minor and not substantial repairs in order to permit of the reasonable preservation of any existing building or work, but not so as to violate the intention of this section.

(6) Whether or not the council has elected to apply the realignment method it may, at any time, and notwithstanding any such election, decide to purchase or resume any or all of the lands affected by the realignment under the provisions of this Act relating to the purchase or resumption of land. Power to purchase or resume for realignment.

(7) Notwithstanding the provisions of the Public Roads Act, 1902, the land between the old alignment and the new shall not form part of the road until the council has acquired title to such land, or a dedication thereof as a public road has been effected. When the land forms part of the road.

DIVISION 11.—Levels of roads.

263. (1) In the case of every public road, any level for the time being in existence fixed before or after the commencement of this Act in accordance with the provisions of this or any other Act shall be deemed to be a level for the purposes of this Act. Existing levels.

(2) In the following cases, that is to say, where at the commencement of this Act any public road is constructed of macadam or otherwise in a permanent manner, the levels of the road shall be deemed to have been fixed by and in accordance with such construction and to be levels for the purposes of this Act.

264. (1) The council may fix the levels of any public road. Power to fix levels.

(2) Before so doing the council shall—

- (a) cause a plan of the proposed levels to be exhibited for public information at some convenient office of the council ; cf. Municipal Corporations Act, 1908, ss. 184, 190, N.Z.
- (b) cause a notice to be published in the Gazette and a newspaper indicating the proposal and calling

George V,
No. 41.

calling upon all persons interested to set forth in writing addressed to the town or shire clerk within one month from the date of the notice any objection to the proposal, and also in the case of any original fixing of levels a claim for the provision of reasonable means of access to the property in which they are interested, and in the case of any refixing of levels a claim for compensation for any loss or damage which they may sustain by reason of the property being directly affected in any injurious manner by reason of the refixing ;

(c) cause a copy of the notice to be exhibited in some conspicuous manner in or near the road.

(2) After considering the objections the council may approve the plan with or without alteration, and thereupon the levels shall be in accordance with the plan as approved.

(3) The levels shall be fixed and take effect upon the approval of the council being notified in the Gazette.

(4) If in the case of any original fixing of levels the access to the premises of any person is thereby directly affected in an injurious manner, the council shall provide reasonable means of access to the premises.

(5) If in the case of any refixing of levels the land in which any person is interested is thereby directly affected in an injurious manner, the person shall have a claim against the council for compensation for any loss or damage which he may sustain by reason of the land being so affected.

DIVISION 12.—Obstructions and encroachments on roads.

267. (1) The council may order that any obstruction or encroachment upon a public road be removed therefrom.

Removal of obstructions,
cf. L.G. Act,
1906, s. 82.

(2) The order shall—

- (a) be directed to the person causing the obstruction or encroachment or the owner of the land or premises to which such obstruction or encroachment appertains or adjoins so as to be used or to be able to be used in connection therewith;
- (b) be served on such person or owner; and
- (c) be placed upon the obstruction or encroachment or on the land immediately adjoining the same.

(3) If the obstruction or encroachment came into existence before the alignment of the road, or if the road has not been aligned, the order shall allow sixty days or such longer period as the council may decide for the removal.

(4) If the obstruction or encroachment came into existence after the alignment of the road and before the commencement of this Act the order shall allow seven days or such longer period as the council may decide for the removal.

(5) If the obstruction or encroachment come into existence after the commencement of this Act the order may allow such time as the council shall think fit for the removal.

George V,
No. 41.

(6) In the following cases, that is to say, where the obstruction or encroachment came into existence before the alignment and before the commencement of the Local Government Act, 1906, the council shall, subject to the provisions of this section, pay reasonable compensation for the removal.

(7) Compensation shall not be paid where an agreement to that effect is made nor in the case of an obstruction or encroachment of the following description, that is to say : hedge, fence, wall in the nature of a fence, post, steps, tree, awning, verandah, post supporting an awning or verandah, drain, watercourse, and any structure of wood, iron, bark, ruberoid, canvas, or other like material.

(8) The preceding provisions of this section shall not apply to obstructions or encroachments placed on any road by virtue of any statute.

(9) Where, by virtue of any statute, any obstruction or encroachment (and particularly any obstruction or encroachment such as an embankment, railway or tramway rails sewer man-hole covers, and the like) has been placed upon any public road by any statutory body or by any person, the body or person having the charge, use, or enjoyment of the object which is or causes the obstruction or encroachment shall maintain it in good order and repair in such state as to permit and promote the free use and passage of the public upon the public road ; and shall construct and maintain the road surface within and for a reasonable distance in all directions (beyond the obstruction or encroachment) at the same height as the obstruction or encroachment (and thence a reasonable slope not steeper than one in fifteen to the level of the road) for the purpose of providing for the smooth passage of wheeled vehicles.

Sand.

cf. L.G. Acts,
1906-8, s. 98.

268. Where any land is in such a condition that sand blown or falling from it causes obstruction to any public road, the council may order the owner thereof to do all things necessary to remove and prevent the recurrence of the obstruction.

DIVISION 13.—*Traffic.*George V,
No. 41.

269. (1) The council may regulate traffic in public places. Regulation of traffic.

(2) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Act, this section shall apply to public places which are national works; but shall not authorise any interference with the powers of the Minister for Public Works in carrying out necessary repairs or alterations to such national works, or in regulating the weight of loads or classes of traffic permitted to cross national bridges. cf. L.G. Acts, 1906-8, s. 73 (1).

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of the Metropolitan Traffic Act, 1900, the council may serve notice upon any person conducting any class of unusual or heavy traffic that such traffic must not use any residential road except in a case where its destination lies in that residential road, or where it is impracticable to reach the destination otherwise than by using a residential road, and that in the latter case the traffic shall use only such residential roads as it is necessary to use.

Metropolitan Traffic Act.

270. (1) The provisions of the Metropolitan Traffic Act, 1900, relating to roads shall, where that Act is in operation, apply to pathways as defined by this Act. Metropolitan Traffic Act, 1900. Vide L.G. Acts, 1906-8, s. 90.

(2) The Metropolitan Traffic Act, 1900, shall not, except as hereinafter provided, apply to a shire.

(3) Where, at the commencement of this Act, the aforesaid Act applies to a shire or part thereof, it shall be deemed to have been so applied under this Act.

(4) At the request of the council of a shire, the whole or part of which is within the county of Cumberland, the Governor may, by proclamation, apply that Act to the shire or to part thereof.

DIVISION 14.—Provisions as to particular roads.

271. (1) Where any work constructed or controlled by or for a trust constituted under the Water Act, 1912, is upon a road controlled by a council, and the trust neglects Works on roads—under Water Act, 1912.

George V, No. 41. neglects to maintain the work in proper order and condition, the council may, if the trust fail to effect the necessary repairs to the work within one month after receiving notice from the council, effect such repairs, and may recover the cost so incurred from the trust.

(2) Where the council considers it necessary to construct any crossing or culvert over a drain or work controlled under the said Act by a trust the council may recover the cost so incurred from the trust.

Roads or drains outside area.
cf. N.Z. Municipal Corporations Act, 1908, s. 159.

272. If in the opinion of a council it is necessary or advisable that a road or drain outside its area should be opened, made, or repaired for the purposes of carrying on any work or service by the council or for the convenience or use of the people in the area the council may by agreement with the council of the area in which the road or drain is or will be situated open, make, or repair the road or drain or contribute a sum to the council last mentioned for the purpose of opening, making, or repairing the road or drain.

Roads over land of statutory bodies representing the Crown.

273. (1) The council may by arrangement with any statutory body representing the Crown contribute to the expenses of the statutory body in constructing or maintaining a way of access across any land or works under the control of the statutory body.

(2) Subject to the powers of the statutory body, any way of access so constructed or maintained shall be deemed to be a public road within the meaning of this Act:

Provided that the provisions of this Act vesting the fee-simple of a road in the council or conferring any right in the nature of a proprietary right on the council shall not apply to such way of access.

Railway crossings.

(3) Where it becomes necessary in the opinion of the council that a road should be provided across any railway line under the control of the Railway Commissioners for New South Wales, and the council fails to secure an agreement under this section, the council may (if it also fails to secure an agreement to refer the matter in dispute to the Minister as elsewhere provided in this Act) apply to a judge of the Supreme Court for an order directing the Commissioners to provide such road.

(4)

(4) Such judge shall hear and determine the matter, having due regard to the public interest and safety, and to the requirements of the locality and of the railway service, and may make such order as he may deem fit with respect to the provision and maintenance of the road, the bearing of the expenses thereof by either or both the parties, and any other matters in connection therewith.

George V,
No. 41.

(5) Where such judge orders that a road be provided, he shall permit the Commissioners to select the site within such limits as he may deem reasonable, and to decide whether the road shall cross the railway by level crossing, by subway, or by overhead bridge.

(6) Any road constructed under this section shall be constructed and controlled by the statutory body concerned.

274. In the Public Roads Act, 1902—

Adaptation of Public Roads Act, 1902.

- (a) any references to a municipality shall be deemed to refer also to a shire;
- (b) any references to the council of a municipality shall be deemed to refer also to the council of a shire;
- (c) any references to the Municipalities Act, 1897, shall be deemed to refer also to this Act; and
- (d) any references to the Commissioner for Roads shall be deemed to refer also to the council of a municipality or of a shire.

275. (1) For the purpose of this Part the council and its servants shall have the powers relating to public roads conferred by the Police Offences Act, 1901, on any person therein mentioned, and may enforce any provision in that behalf contained in that Act.

Powers contained in Police Offences Act, 1901.
cf. Sydney Corporation Act,
1902, s. 213.

(2) The provisions of Part III of the Police Offences Act, 1901, or any part thereof, may, on the application of the council, be extended by proclamation to the whole or any part of the area of the council: Provided that, on such extension, the council may, in its discretion, postpone from time to time the compliance with the requirements of section forty-eight of the said Act.

Extension of Part III to shires and municipalities.

PART XII.

TOWN PLANNING.

DIVISION 1.—General powers.

Application
of this Part.

320. Subject to the provisions of this Act—

- (a) this Part shall apply to municipalities and shires; and
- (b) the powers and duties conferred and imposed upon a council under this Part shall apply in respect of each area to the council of the area.

Power to pre-plan and to re-plan.

321. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the council may control and regulate, and may undertake—

- (a) the planning of new roads and subdivisions;
- (b) the rearrangement of existing roads and of parcels of land;
- (c) the demolition, rearrangement, and reconstruction of buildings and works; and
- (d) the improvement and embellishment of the area.

Power of reconstruction.
cf. Sydney
Corporation
Amendment
Act, 1905,
s. 22, as amended by Act No. 16,
1906.

322. The council may purchase or resume, as elsewhere in this Act provided, any land, and may thereupon do all or any of the following things—

- (a) demolish or repair any building or erection thereon;
- (b) construct new buildings or erections thereon;
- (c) alter, widen, or extend any existing public road adjacent to such land;
- (d) close any existing public road through such land;
- (e) construct and open any new public road thereon;
- (f) alter the levels of such land, and alter existing drains, and construct new drains and storm-water channels thereon;
- (g) generally alter, remodel, and improve such land and buildings in such manner as the council may think fit;
- (h) sell or lease the whole or any portion of such land, in one or more lots, as elsewhere in this Act provided.

DIVISION

DIVISION 2.—*New roads and subdivisions.*George V,
No. 41.

323. A public road shall not be opened and land shall not be subdivided except in accordance with the provisions of this Act. New roads and subdivisions.

324. (1) A road other than a pathway shall not be opened as a blind road— Provisions respecting blind roads.

- (a) unless there is also provided at least one pathway to give access from the blind end into a main, secondary, or residential road ; or
- (b) unless such road gives access at its blind end to a railway station, wharf, public reserve, river bank, lake, sea beach, or the shore of any tidal water ; or
- (c) except where, in view of exceptional circumstances, the council approves.

(2) A pathway shall not be opened as a blind road unless one end communicates with a main, or secondary, or residential road, and the blind end gives access to a railway station, public wharf, public reserve, river bank, lake, sea beach, or the shore of any tidal water.

(3) For the purposes of this section any road which does not give access at both ends to either a main, secondary, or residential road shall be deemed to be a blind road.

325. At any junction or intersection made by opening any road, the person opening the road shall make provision for the planning of the corners formed at such junction or intersection to the satisfaction of the council in such manner as will facilitate the flow of traffic. Treatment of corners.

326. (1) The council may, with respect to any residential district, fix the number of houses per acre which shall be the standard number permitted in any future subdivision of land within the district. Residential districts—density of houses and allotments.

(2) In ascertaining the area for the purpose of applying such standard the whole area of the land proposed to be subdivided, including any proposed roads, public reserves, open spaces, and the like, shall be embraced.

(3)

George V,
No. 41.

(3) In any subdivision made after a standard number of houses per acre has been fixed there shall not be a greater number of separate parcels per acre than the standard number so fixed.

(4) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this section the council may—

- (a) fix building units not exceeding five acres in extent, within which the number of houses and separate parcels of land per acre may be varied above and below the standard number, provided that the total number of the houses and separate parcels of land for any unit shall not exceed the total found by multiplying the number of acres in the unit by the standard number ;
- (b) vary the standard number in the case of any subdivision in which by agreement with the council special provision is made for roads, public reserves, open spaces, and the like.

Conditions to be observed before opening new roads or subdivisions.

Act, 1902,
ss. 77-79.

For limitation in shires see proviso to
s. 334.

327. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act a public road shall not be opened, and in a case where a subdivision provides for the opening of a public road land shall not be subdivided until—

- (a) an application in respect thereof accompanied by plans and specifications thereof has been approved under this Act ; and
- (b) the roads have been constructed and drained to the satisfaction of the council in accordance with the approved application, plans, and specifications, and with any conditions attached to any such approval ; and
- (c) the applicant has placed in the road permanent survey marks in the position and manner and of the character prescribed ; and
- (d) the town or shire clerk has certified to the applicant that the requirements of this Act, other than the requirement for the registration of plans, have been complied with ; and
- (e) a plan of the road or of any subdivision containing the road (such plan bearing the signatures of all necessary parties, a statement containing containing such particulars as may be necessary to identify the title to the land comprised in such plan, and a notation of approval under the seal of the council and being accompanied by the aforesaid certificate) has been registered in the office of the Registrar-General.

George V,
No. 41.

(2) In a case where a subdivision does not provide for the opening of a public road, land shall not be subdivided until—

- (a) an application in respect thereof, accompanied by plans, has been approved under this Act; and
- (b) the town or shire clerk has certified to the applicant that the requirements of this Act other than the requirement for the registration of plans have been complied with; and
- (c) a plan of the subdivision (such plan bearing the signatures of all necessary parties, a statement containing such particulars as may be necessary to identify the title to the land comprised in such plan, and a notation of approval under the seal of the council and being accompanied by the aforesaid certificate) has been registered in the office of the Registrar-General:

Provided that nothing in this subsection shall apply where none of the parts into which the land is subdivided contains less than twenty acres.

Limit,
20 acres.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to render any agreement to sell, let, or otherwise dispose of any land illegal or void by reason merely that it is entered into before an application in respect of the subdivision has been approved by the council, but the agreement shall be deemed to be made subject to such approval being obtained.

Saving.

328. Any applicant, instead of executing the work of constructing and draining the roads, as hereinbefore provided, may either—

329. Where approval has been given as aforesaid, the town or shire clerk may give his certificate that the requirements of this Act have been complied with in respect of any separate part of any proposed road or subdivision, if the work of construction and draining to be executed upon such part has been done to the satisfaction of the council, and if the applicant has, with regard to the remainder of such work, either made payment as aforesaid or given security as aforesaid.

Exceptional case of subdivision.

330. Where, after the erection of a building on land the property of one owner, it is found that such building encroaches upon land the property of another owner to the extent of not more than three feet, and where the encroaching owner desires to purchase the land upon which the encroachment stands, the council shall, upon the application of the owner of the land which is encroached upon, and upon satisfying itself that there has not been collusion, but that everything has been done in good faith without intention to evade the law, approve of the necessary subdivision.

Decisions on applications, and notices
to applicants.

331. (1) Applications under this Division shall be submitted to the council.

(2) The council may approve of any such application, or approve subject to conditions, or disapprove.

(3) The council shall cause notice to be given to the applicant of its decision.

(4) In the case of an approval given subject to conditions or of a disapproval, the reasons therefor shall be indicated in the notice.

As to classification of roads, see
s. 226 ante.

(5) In any decision under this Division with respect to a proposed road the council shall classify such road if it be not already classified by the council.

332.

332. In respect of any application for approval of the opening of a road the council shall take into consideration—

334. (1) The council may, when giving its approval for the opening of any new road, specify in the approval and cause to be indicated on the plan the position in which water and gas mains shall be placed when laid in the road, and the position where the gutters or road drains are to be constructed. The council shall before fixing the position of mains as aforesaid seek the advice of the persons or bodies engaged in the supply of water and gas.

(2) When water or gas mains are thereafter laid in such road by any person, whether under the authority of any statute or otherwise, they shall unless the council otherwise permit be laid in the positions so indicated.

(3) Where any person opens a new road or subdivides any land fronting any existing public road which is not yet constructed in some permanent manner, the council may require such person to make such provision (by laying conduits across the road at suitable intervals) as will enable gas and water service pipes to be laid to connect the mains with the various parcels of land fronting the road and owned by that person without digging up the constructed carriage-way of the road. Any such conduits shall be laid in such manner as the council may require, provided that before specifying its requirements requirements under this subsection the council shall seek the advice of the persons or bodies engaged in supplying gas and water in the area as to the most suitable form of conduit, the method of laying it, and incidental matters. George V,

No. 41.

(4) The laying of pipes hereunder shall be deemed to be a portion of the work of the construction and drainage of a new road under this Part, and the other provisions of this Part shall apply thereto accordingly.

(5) Subsections three and four of this section shall not come into force until so proclaimed by the Governor, and such proclamation shall not be issued before the expiration of six months after the declaration of peace between Great Britain and Germany.

(6) Nothing in this section shall apply— Limitation.

- (a) in a municipality unless there is a water or gas supply for the municipality at the time of the proposed subdivision; or
- (b) in a shire, unless the land is within a village, town, or urban area, and there is a water or gas supply for the village, town, or urban area at the time of the proposed subdivision.

335. (1) Any approval given under this Part shall lapse at the end of two years from the date thereof, or such longer period as may be fixed in the approval, if the requirements of this Part have not been complied with in respect of— Lapsing of approval.

- (a) the construction and draining of roads; and
- (b) the giving of security; and
- (c) the making of payments to the council in respect of the making, draining, and marking of roads.

(2) The council may if good cause be shown grant an extension or renewal of such approval beyond such period.

(3) Subsections one and two of this section shall apply to any extension or renewal under this section as if such extension or renewal were an original approval.

(4) Such approval may also be cancelled by the council upon application by the holder of the approval Cancellation by request.

George V. approval at any time before the plan of the road or sub-
No. 41. division is registered in the office of the Registrar-General.

(5) On such lapse or cancellation the council shall refund any unexpended balance of moneys paid to the council in respect of the execution of works in connection with such approval.

Registration of plan.

See also s. 237
ante.

336. (1) As soon as the plan of any road or of any subdivision containing a road has been registered in the office of the Registrar-General as prescribed, the road shall be deemed to be opened as a public road and thereby to be dedicated accordingly.

(2) Such plan shall show the positions of the permanent marks placed in the road in accordance with this Act; and the person opening the road shall at the same time lodge with the Surveyor-General a copy of such plan.

Fee-simple.

(3) Any road so dedicated shall vest in the council in fee-simple by virtue of such registration and of this Act.

See also
s. 232 ante.

(4) The provisions elsewhere contained in this Act relating to the vesting of a road in the council in fee-simple shall mutatis mutandis apply to any road vested in accordance with this section.

Limitation.

(5) Nothing in this section shall affect or prejudice any estate, right, title or interest of any person who is not a party to the opening and dedication of the road unless the opening and dedication might have been lawfully made by the parties thereto without his concurrence.

Savings as to roads.

337. (1) Nothing in this Division shall preclude the opening of any road in accordance with any approval which was before the commencement of this Act given under the Local Government Act, 1906.

(2) Nothing in this Division shall preclude the subdivision of any land in accordance with any approval which was before the commencement of this Act given under the Local Government Act, 1906.

commencement of this Act of land under the Real Property Act, 1900, the Registrar-General shall not number any plan under that Act which is not substantially in accordance with an approved plan accompanied by the prescribed certificate under this Part, and he may refuse to register a transfer of any land which in his opinion forms part of a subdivision not complying with the requirements of this Act.

339. Any person who opens any road or subdivides Penalty.
any land otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this Act, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred pounds.

- (a) to erect any building,
- (b) to open any new public road,
- (c) to subdivide any land,

Town planing appeals.

may

George V. may appeal to a District Court judge having jurisdiction within the area against the decision of the council or any neglect or delay of the council to give within forty days after service of his application a decision with respect thereto.

(2) Such judge may summon witnesses, hear evidence, and determine the matter, having regard to this Act, the ordinances, the circumstances of the case, and the public interest.

(3) The decision of such judge upon any such appeal shall be final, and shall be binding upon the council and the appellant, and for the purposes of this Act shall be deemed to be the final decision of the council.

(4) If in any decision under this section costs are awarded, such costs may be enforced and recovered in like manner to costs awarded in a judgment of the district court.

DIVISION 4.—Ordinances.

Ordinances.

342. Ordinances may be made for carrying this Part into effect, and in particular for and with respect to—

- (a) the number of copies of plans, sections, and specifications of new roads and subdivisions to be submitted with applications;
- (b) the retention in the records of the council of a copy of all plans, sections, and specifications of new roads and subdivisions;
- (c) any of the matters which under this Part a council shall take into consideration in respect of any application for approval of the opening of a road or the subdivision of land;
- (d) the vesting in the Surveyor-General of the care, control, and maintenance of the permanent marks placed in roads under this Act, and providing for the preservation of such marks from damage or removal;
- (e) appeals against the decisions of the council on applications for approval to the opening of a new road, the subdivision of any land or the erection of any building.

PART XIV.

George V,
No. 41.

WATER, SEWERAGE, DRAINAGE, OR ELECTRICITY WORKS.

DIVISION 1.—Application of Part—Repeals.

368. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act the powers and duties conferred and imposed upon a council under this Part shall apply in respect of each area to the council of the area. Application

(2) The provisions of this Part in relation to water supply or sewerage shall not apply to municipalities and shires which are supplied with water or sewerage as the case may be by the Board of Water Supply and Sewerage or by the Hunter District Water Supply and Sewerage Board under the provisions of the Metropolitan Water and Sewerage Act of 1880, or the Hunter District Water Supply and Sewerage Act of 1892 : Limitation.

Provided that where portion only of a shire is so supplied the Governor may proclaim that this Part, or certain of the provisions of this Part, shall apply to any other portion of that shire.

(3) Except where the context clearly requires the contrary, the provisions of this Part shall apply to works of water supply or sewerage or drainage or electricity supply constructed under the Acts repealed by the Local Government Act, 1906, or by this Act, and to works not constructed under such Acts which are controlled by councils. Works constructed under repealed Acts.

(4) The expenditure of the sum of three thousand pounds by the Minister for Public Works upon works of electricity supply in connection with sewerage works for the municipality of Albury— Validation.

(a) is hereby validated; and

(b) shall be deemed to have been expenditure under and in accordance with the provisions of the Acts repealed by this Part; and this Part shall apply thereto, and to such works of electricity supply accordingly.

Repeal and savings.

369. (1) The following Acts are hereby repealed Acts repealed. namely—the Country Towns Water and Sewerage Act of 1880; the

George V,
No. 41.

the Country Towns Water and Sewerage Act Extension Act of 1887; the unrepealed portion of the Country Towns and Hunter District Water Supply and Sewerage Acts Amendment Act of 1894; and the Country Towns Water and Sewerage (Amendment) Act, 1905.

(2) Such repeal shall not affect any liability of the council to the Government.

Saving as to
by-laws.

(3) Notwithstanding such repeal, all by-laws in force under the Acts repealed by this Part, except such as are inconsistent with the provisions of this Part, shall continue in force until repealed by ordinances made under this Act; and this Act shall apply to all such by-laws as if they were ordinances.

DIVISION 2.—Financial adjustments in respect of existing works.

Oower to remove charge from revenues.
cf. C.T.W.
and S.
(Amendment)
Act, 1905,
s. 50.

370. (1) In respect of any water, sewerage, or drainage works constructed under the Acts hereby repealed, the Treasurer may, by notification, declare that the income derived from any specified rate or service or undertaking of the council shall not be charged or chargeable with any debt (whether incurred before or after the said notification) payable to him, and charged or chargeable under the said Acts, upon the revenues of the council.

(2) Thereupon the said debt shall cease to be so charged or chargeable.

(3) The Treasurer may, by a similar notification, revoke or vary any such declaration as aforesaid.

Dates of payment of instalments.

371. (1) In respect of any water, sewerage, or drainage works constructed under the Acts hereby repealed, the Treasurer may declare that the dates of payment of principal and interest shall be the thirtieth day of June and the thirty-first day of December in each year.

(2) Where any council owes to the Treasurer various sums of money repayable at the same or different times by varying instalments and bearing the same or different rates of interest, the Governor may, on the recommendation of the Treasurer, adjust and consolidate some some or all of these various debts into one debt bearing one rate of interest, and may make consequential adjustments of the instalments and dates of repayment and of the period during which the repayment is to be made. George V, No. 41.

(3) For the purposes of this section the Treasurer may make any necessary adjustment of the interest and of the instalments.

(4) Any such declaration, adjustment, or consolidation shall be notified by the Treasurer.

372. In any case where a council has, prior to the passing of this Act, agreed by resolution to pay interest at the rate of five pounds per centum per annum on the cost of any work to be constructed or provided by the Governor under the provisions of the Country Towns Water and Sewerage Acts, 1880-1905, and notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the said Acts, such agreement is hereby validated and such council shall be liable to pay interest at the rate aforesaid on the whole amount expended on such works calculated from the time the sums making up such amount were expended until repayment thereof. Validation of payment of interest at 5 per cent.

DIVISION 3.—Construction of works by Government.

373. (1) The Minister for Public Works may, under the Public Works Act, 1912, on the application of the council, construct out of moneys voted therefor by Parliament— Power to construct water, sewerage, drainage, or electricity works.

(a) works of water supply or sewerage or drainage and any works incidental thereto for any municipality or shire or part thereof or for any two or more areas or parts thereof; and cf. C.T.W. and S. Act, 1880, s. 124.

(b) works in connection therewith or separate therefrom for the supply of electricity. cf. C.T.W. & S. (Amendment) Act, 1905, s. 17.

(2) Any works under this Part may be within or outside the area of the council. In or outside area.

(3) This section shall apply to the completion of works commenced by the Governor or the said Minister under the Acts hereby repealed. Completion.

(4) The Minister for Public Works may arrange, by agreement with the council, for the construction out of the moneys aforesaid of any or all such works Construction by council.

Notification transferring works to care of council.
cf. C.T. and H.D.W.S. and S. Acts Amendment Act, 1894, s. 2.

374. (1) Upon completion of such water, sewerage, drainage, or electricity works, the Governor shall notify—

- (a) that such works are complete; and
- (b) that the council is charged with the care and management of such works (or, if more than one council be affected, that each council is charged with the care and management of that portion of such works allotted by the Governor to such council under the notification, or that the councils are jointly charged with the care and management of portion of the whole of such works).

(2) Such notification shall from the date of the publication thereof in the Government Gazette operate to charge the respective councils named therein with the care and management of such works as are therein stated.

Completion—certificate of cost.

cf. C.T.W. and S. Act, 1880, s. 125, and C.T.W. and S. (Amendment Act, 1905, s. 51).

(3) As soon as possible after the completion of such water, sewerage, drainage, or electricity works the whole amount expended upon such works, together with interest at a rate per annum to be fixed by the Governor from time to time, calculated from the time of the expenditure of each sum included in such amount up to the time of the notification hereinafter provided, shall be certified by the Minister for Public Works.

Remission of cost.

(4) The Minister for Public Works may recommend to the Governor and the Governor may approve such partial remission of such amount as he may think just under any special circumstances.

Inclusion of subsidiary works.

(5) In any such certificate relating to works of water supply the said Minister may include the cost, or such proportion of the cost as may be determined by the Governor, of any locks, dams, weirs, cuttings, channels, conduits, tunnels, wells, borings, and other works for or in

in connection with the improvement of any source of water supply, whether such were constructed before or after the commencement of this Act, and whether carried out by the Governor or by the Minister for Public Works or by the council.

George V,
No. 41.

(6) The amount of such certificate, subject to any such partial remission as aforesaid, shall when notified as prescribed be the capital debt which shall be owing by the council to the Treasurer.

(7) The Governor shall notify—

- (a) the capital debt of the council or the capital joint debt of any two or more councils, for water, sewerage, drainage, or electricity works, stated separately; and
- (b) the period, or periods, not in any case exceeding one hundred years, fixed by the Governor for the repayment of the whole or any specified portion of such capital debt, such period or periods being fixed with due regard to the nature and durability of such works, or the specified portion thereof; and
- (c) the instalment which shall be paid by each council during the period between the notification and the end of the then current half year, and also during each half-year thereafter, in order to repay such debt, with interest, within such period or periods aforesaid; and
- (d) the division of each instalment into principal and interest; and
- (e) in the case of water, sewerage, or drainage works, the minimum local rate in the pound which the council shall levy in respect of the maintenance and management and repayment of cost of such works until such capital debt is repaid.

375. (1) All repayments of capital debt hereunder shall be carried by the Treasurer to a loan trust fund, and all payments of interest on such capital debt shall be carried by him to the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

(2) Where the administration and management of any water, sewerage, drainage, or electricity works have been handed over to any council under the Acts hereby repealed, and the council makes default in the payment of the sums required by such Acts, or this Act, to be paid, the Governor may notify the minimum local rate in the pound which such council shall make and levy in respect of the maintenance and management of and repayment of capital debt on such works.

(3) Where the Governor is satisfied that the council cannot both maintain any water, sewerage, drainage, or electricity works, and pay such instalment aforesaid, he may, in his discretion, from time to time notify that such instalment is reduced for a stated period of years to a sum stated in the notification, and may in each such case notify the minimum local rate in the pound which the council shall make and levy in respect of the maintenance and management of, and repayment of capital debt on, such works.

(4) Where any capital debt is owing to the Treasurer on any waterworks the Governor may where he deems it necessary notify that the council shall make and levy a specified charge by measure for all water supplied above the quantity which the amount of rate levied on each separate parcel would purchase according to such charge.

(5) Where any instalment has been reduced under this Act or the Acts hereby repealed, the Governor may at any subsequent date notify that such instalment shall be increased to a sum stated in the notification, and may in each such case notify the minimum rate in the pound which the council shall make and levy as aforesaid.

Receiver's
powers.

(3) A receiver shall apply the moneys received by him, after meeting the necessary expenses, towards the payment of any instalments due by the council, and if at any time there be any balance in hand over and above the amount due and payable in respect of such instalments, shall pay such balance to the council.

Duty of receiver.

Handing over before completion.

377. (1) When any work partly constructed under this Part or under the Acts repealed hereby, by the Minister for Public Works, but not completed, is, in the opinion of such Minister, so far constructed as to be of use to the council, he may report that fact to the Governor. The Governor may thereupon notify that the council shall take over such partly constructed work and the care and management thereof.

DIVISION 4.—Rates and charges.

Rates.

Council shall levy a sufficient sum. 378. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the council shall levy by rates or by rates and charges a sum sufficient to provide for the maintenance and management of, and for payment of the instalments of capital debt and interest on, all works of water supply, sewerage, drainage, or electricity with respect to which any debt is owing to the Treasurer. Such rates and charges shall not be less than the rates and charges notified as aforesaid. Rates levied under this subsection shall—

cf. C.T.W. and S. (Amendment) Act, 1905, ss. 26, 54.

- (a) in respect of water, sewerage, and drainage works be “local” rates; and
- (b) in respect of electricity works be “loan” or “local loan” rates, as the case may be.

Charge

*Charge in addition to rates for excess water.*George V,
No. 41.

(2) Where so directed by notification as aforesaid the council shall, and where not so directed the council may, in addition to levying rates as aforesaid, make and levy a charge by measure for all excess water, that is to say for all water supplied above the quantity which the amount of rate levied on each separate parcel would purchase according to such charge.

 S. (Amendment)
 Act, 1905,
 ss. 30-31.

379. (1) Water supply local rates may be levied upon—

(a) land whether the property of the Crown or not which is supplied with water from any water-pipe of the council (notwithstanding that such land is elsewhere in this or any other Act exempted from rates), including land which is vested in the Railway Commissioners for New South Wales and is used in connection with buildings or premises which are supplied with water from any water-pipe of the council;

Ratable land.
 (As to ratable land, see s. 132
 ante.)
 cf. C.T.W. and S.
 (Amendment)
 Act, 1905, s. 30.

(b) All ratable land (as elsewhere defined in this Act) which is situated within two hundred and fifty yards of a water pipe of the council measured in a direction at right angles to such water pipe whether such land has a frontage or not to the public road (if any) in which such water pipe is laid, and although the land is not actually supplied with water from any water pipe of the council :

Proviso.

Provided that such rates may not be levied upon land unless water could be supplied to some part thereof from a standpipe at least three feet in height from the ground level, if such pipe were laid and connected to the council's mains.

For sewerage.

All land.
 cf. C.T.W. and
 S. (Amendment)
 Act, 1905,
 ss. 26, 30.

(2) Sewerage local rates may be levied upon all land whether the property of the Crown or not (notwithstanding that such land is elsewhere in this or any other Act exempted from rates) except—

Exemptions.

(a) land which is distant more than two hundred and fifty feet from any sewer of the council and is not connected thereto ;
 (b) land from which sewage could not be drained into any sewer of the council. (3)

(3) Sewerage local rates may be levied upon land which is vested in the Railway Commissioners for New South Wales if—

- (a) The quantity to be supplied free of charge shall be fifty gallons per day for every person resident in a public hospital, and thirty gallons per day for every person resident in a public charitable institution: Provided that the council may by resolution increase the quantity of water which may be supplied as aforesaid to the hospital or institution.
- (b) For the purposes of this section an inmate shall be deemed to be resident, and the number of persons resident shall be the average number of persons so resident during the year last preceding the period in respect of which charges would be payable; and the clerk may at any reasonable time demand the production of the books of such hospital or institution to verify such average number.
- (c)

George V.
No. 41.

- (c) The supply shall in each case be through a meter, and any quantity of water in excess of that which may be supplied free of charge shall be paid for according to the charge fixed by the council as elsewhere provided for excess water.

Any such exemption may be revoked or altered by the council.

Exemptions—Water, sewerage, and drainage rates.

- (6) The council may exempt from the payment of water and sewerage local rates land which is occupied by and used directly in connection with a church, or other building which is used or occupied solely for public worship, and from the payment of water rates only land which is occupied by and used directly in connection with any building which is used or occupied solely as a Sunday school, and may revoke or alter any exemption so granted.

- (7) The council may exempt from water and sewerage local rates any public reserve.

DIVISION 5.—Joint works.

Water.

Council in charge of headworks shall supply other councils.

- 380. (1) Where waterworks have been constructed to serve the areas of two or more councils, and where the capital cost thereof has not been notified as a joint debt, that council which has control of the catchment area or source of supply and of the storage works shall sell and deliver water at the boundary of its area or at any other convenient point which may be mutually agreed upon to the other councils for which such waterworks have been constructed, at such charge by measure as it may agree upon with each of such other councils separately, or, in case of failure to agree, at such charge as the Governor shall from time to time notify.

Sewerage

*Sewerage.*George V,
No. 41.

(2) Where sewerage works have been constructed to serve the areas of two or more councils, and where the capital cost thereof has not been notified as a joint debt, that council which has control of sewers through which the sewage from another council's sewers must flow shall permit such sewage so to flow, and may make such charge for such permission, and for pumping and for treatment at its sewage disposal depot, as it may agree upon with each of such other councils separately, or, in case of failure to agree, such charge as the Governor shall from time to time notify.

Council in charge of outfall shall accept and convey sewage from other council's sewers. cf. C.T.W. and S. Act, 1880, s. 90.

Joint debt works.

(3) Where any water or sewerage works have been constructed and the capital debt thereof has been notified as a joint debt of any two or more councils as hereinbefore provided, the following provisions shall have effect:—

Allocation of responsibility.

- (a) The Governor may divide such works into principal works and subsidiary works; may charge each council with the care and management of such portion of the subsidiary works as he may notify; and may charge with the care and management of the principal works such council as he may from time to time notify.
- (b) The Governor may notify and from time to time by notification vary the sum which each council shall pay to the Treasurer as its proportion of the instalments for which it is liable jointly with the other council or councils.
- (c) Each council shall make and levy a rate sufficient to yield such sum after allowing for rates not immediately collectable, and in any case not less than such rate in the pound on the unimproved capital value as the Governor may notify.

Contracts

George V,
No. 41.

Contracts with adjoining councils for water and sewerage.

contract.
cf. C.T.W.
and S.
Act, 1880,
s. 90.

381. A council may contract with any other council to supply water at the boundary of their areas or at any other convenient point which may be mutually agreed upon or to receive at such boundary or point, and to pump and dispose of, sewage.

DIVISION 6.—Construction and maintenance of works—Powers of council.

council.

382. (1) The council may construct, extend, protect, maintain, control, and manage—

- (a) works of water supply or sewerage or drainage and any works incidental thereto; and
- (b) works in connection therewith or separate therefrom for the supply of electricity.

See s. 506
post.

(2) Such works may be within or outside the area, but the council shall not supply water or sewerage or electricity outside the area except as provided elsewhere in this Act.

Dams, tanks,
&c.

(3) The council may provide reservoirs tanks dams and the like for the conservation of water for public use, and may control and regulate the use thereof.

Entering land—Compensation.

Powers under Public Works
Act, 1912.
cf. C.T.W.
and S. Act,
1880, ss. 16,
21, 63, 64, 65.

383. (1) For the purpose of investigating, preparing for, constructing, extending, protecting, or maintaining any works under this Part, and for the purpose of repairing any damage caused thereby, the council shall have the powers conferred by Division Six of Part VI of the Public Works Act, 1912, upon a constructing authority in addition to the powers conferred by this Act.

Right to subterranean
water.

(2) Where the council obtains a water supply from under the surface of lands the property of the Crown or lands vested in the council, compensation shall not be payable to any private owner or lessee or occupier of any land by reason of any alleged damage caused by the lowering of the water level thereunder.

(3)

(3) Where land has no frontage to a public road along which a water or sewerage pipe of the council is laid, and the owner or occupier is not able to obtain the consent of the owner and occupier of the land intervening between his land and the water or sewerage pipe to the laying of a water or sewerage pipe through such land to his land, or to necessary repairs or alterations to or the removal of a water or sewerage pipe laid through such intervening land, the council may, upon the application of such first-named owner or occupier, enter such intervening land and carry out the work on his behalf and at his cost; but any amount paid by or recovered from the council for compensation payable under the Public Works Act, 1912, shall not be recoverable from the applicant.

Taking land on lease.

384. (1) For the purpose of investigating, preparing for, constructing, extending, protecting, or maintaining any works under this Part, the council may enter any lands whatsoever, and may take such lands on lease with or without the right of purchase.

Power to take land on lease.
cf. C.T.W. and S. Act, 1880, s. 95, et seq.
cf. C.T.W. and S. (Amendment) Act, 1905, ss. 13, 14, 16-20.

(2) If the council and the owner of such lands cannot agree within ninety days from the date of entry by the council as to the term of or the rent to be reserved upon such lease, or the amount of purchase-money to be paid in case a right of purchase is therein stipulated for, or any other terms or conditions to be therein contained, either party may refer the matter to the Chief Judge in Equity, and such judge may summon witnesses, hear evidence, and determine the matter, and make such order with respect thereto and to the costs of such reference as having regard to the circumstances of the case he thinks just. The order of such judge shall be final, shall be binding on both parties, and on all persons claiming through or under them, and may be enforced in every respect as an order of the Supreme Court.

Settlement of disputes.

(3) For the like purpose, the council may make and enter into contracts and agreements with any person for the acquisition by purchase or otherwise of any rights to be exercised on or over any land.

Contracts and agreements.

Alterations of works.
cf. C.T.W.
and S.
(Amendment)
Act, 1905,
s. 16.

385. (1) It shall be lawful for the Minister for Public Works, subject to the Public Works Act, 1912, or the council, to carry out such alterations, modifications, and extensions of and additions to any works under this Part as he or it thinks desirable, whether such works have been constructed by the Governor or such Minister, and notified as complete or not so notified, or constructed by the council :

Provided that, where there is money owing to the Treasurer by the council in respect of those works, the council shall not make additions to or extensions of the works without obtaining the consent of the Minister for Public Works beforehand.

Alterations to be taken over and paid for.

(2) Such alterations, modifications, extensions, and additions, if constructed by such Minister, shall be taken over by the council or councils, paid for, and otherwise dealt with in the same way as works constructed by the Minister for Public Works as hereinbefore in this Part provided.

Temporary roads, &c.

Temporary
roads.
cf. C.T.W. and
S. (Amendment)
Act, 1905, s. 20.

386. Where any work under this Part occupies the site of, or is constructed on or along any portion of a public road it shall be lawful for the Minister for Public Works or the council, as the case may be, to make in sections, as the work proceeds, a road or roads sufficient for the traffic, in substitution of any such first-mentioned road.

Maps.

Maps.
cf. C.T.W.
and S. Act,
1880, s. 63.

387. (1) The council shall, before or within a reasonable time after the construction of any water, sewerage, or drainage works, cause to be prepared a map thereof and of the surrounding lands liable to be rated therefor, and shall from time to time, as such works are extended, cause such map to be added to so that it shall at all times show such lands.

Levels and
be shown.

(2) Such map shall also show the levels of all such works at the road frontages of all such lands,
and

and, so far as is reasonably practicable, the distances from such works of the nearest boundaries of such lands and the situation of the buildings on such lands. George V,
No. 41.

(3) Such map shall within the office hours of the council be open to the inspection of the owners or occupiers of such lands and of licensed plumbers and drainers. Inspection of map.

Special powers of Minister and Governor.

388. (1) The Minister shall from time to time cause inspection to be made by the Minister for Public Works of any water, sewerage, or drainage works of a council where there is money owing to the Treasurer by the council in respect of those works. If upon any such inspection he is of opinion that such works are not properly constructed or not kept in repair or not kept in efficient working order, the Minister may cause such repairs or alterations as he may think necessary to be made by the council or by the Minister for Public Works, and for the purpose of effecting those repairs or alterations the Minister for Public Works shall have the powers of the council in that behalf. Repair and renewal of works.
cf. C.T.W.
and S.
(Amendment)
Act, 1905,
ss. 54-55.
See also
s. 396 (2)
post.

(2) The costs and expenses incurred or paid in the effecting of such repairs or alterations shall be charged to the council, and if the council do not pay the same within twenty-one days after demand made by the Minister, he may recover the same as a debt. Recovering cost.
cf. C.T.W.
and S.
(Amendment)
Act, 1905,
s. 55.

(3) In respect of any water, sewerage, drainage, or electricity works constructed by the Minister for Public Works for any council, the Governor may, by notification, direct what sum shall be set aside by such council out of the revenue derived from such works as a reserve for the purpose of effecting renewals or repairs thereto. Such sum shall be paid into the trust fund of the council, and shall not be drawn upon except with the approval of the Minister and for the purpose of effecting renewals or repairs to the said works. In case any doubt arises as to the necessity for such renewals or repairs the question shall be decided by the Minister, whose decision shall be final. Renewals—fund for.

(Amendment)
Act, 1905, s. 15.

(4) For the purposes of investigating, preparing for, constructing, extending, protecting, maintaining, or inspecting any works under this Part the Minister (or the Minister for Public Works) or any person authorised by him shall have the powers of a council under this Act.

Actions against Minister.
cf. C.T.W.
and S. Act,
1880, s. 133.

(5) Any action brought against the Minister or the Minister for Public Works in respect of any loss or injury arising in connection with the exercise of his powers under this Part shall be subject mutatis mutandis to the provisions of this Act relating to actions against a council for loss or injury.

(6) Nothing in this Act shall limit the power of the Minister for Public Works to cause inspection to be made of any works in respect of which there is any debt due to the Crown.

Provisions respecting water works.

Use and sale of water.

Purposes for which water may be supplied.
cf. C.T.W.
and S.
Act, 1880,
ss. 35, 38.

389. (1) The water available from any waterworks constructed under this Act, or under the Acts hereby repealed, shall be primarily used and equitably distributed for domestic purposes, street watering, sewer flushing, and the maintenance of a suitable pressure for fire extinguishing. After the demands for these purposes have been met the council may distribute the balance available to any applicants in accordance with the importance to the people of the district of the purposes for which the water is applied. In cases where the water supply works are specially constructed to supply water for purposes other than for human consumption, and where the water supplied is unfit for human consumption, there shall be no such restriction.

Power to sell

(2) Subject to the preceding subsection, the council may sell water on such terms as it may fix.

Standpipe water supplies.

Local rating for standpipe supplies.
cf. C.T.W.
and S.
(Amendment)
Act, 1905,
s. 22.

390. (1) Where in the opinion of the Minister for Public Works, or the council constructing any works of water supply, it is not necessary to lay reticulation pipes, it shall be lawful for such Minister or council to construct construct and fix in place of such reticulation pipes a standpipe or standpipes for the supply of water, and in such case the council, upon taking over or constructing the works, may (in lieu of making and levying rates as elsewhere in this Part provided, but nevertheless subject to the provisions of this Part as to minimum rates) make and levy local rates in respect of such ratable land in the neighbourhood of such standpipes as in the opinion of the council would derive special benefit from such standpipe water supplies.

George V,
No. 41.

(2) Such rates may be made and levied differentially, as the council may determine, according to the distance from any such standpipe of the land so rated.

Rates may be differential.

(3) The payment of such rate in respect of any land shall entitle the owner or occupier of the same to take water for domestic purposes from any such standpipe to the value of the amount of the rate so paid, calculated at such charge by measure as may be fixed by the council as hereinbefore provided.

Supply of water.

Cutting off supply.

391. (1) The council may cut off the supply of water to any land—

Power to cut off supply.

S. (Amendment) Act,
1905, ss. 34,
47.

- (a) if any meter used to measure such supply is out of repair or in the opinion of the council incorrectly registers the supply of water, and may cease to supply water until the meter registers correctly; or
- (b) if any rates or charges in respect of the water supplied to such land are unpaid, and may cease to supply water until such rates or charges are paid; or
- (c) if in the opinion of the council such course is necessary owing to unusual drought or other unavoidable cause or any accident; or
- (d) if the owner or occupier or person requiring a supply of water neglects to comply with the lawful requirements of the council as to the installing of meters or instruments for measuring the quantity of water supplied; or

(e)

George V,
No. 41.

- (c) if the owner or occupier or person requiring a supply of water neglects to comply with any lawful requirement of a council to repair or alter water connections, pipes, fittings, or appliances, connected to the council's water supply.

(2) The cutting off of the supply of water under the authority of this section shall not affect the liability of the ratable person in respect of rates on the land.

Meters.

Council may

—hire.

f. C.T.W. and
S. Act, 1880,
s. 25, et seq.
cf. C.T.W. and S.
(Amendment)
Act, 1905, s. 6.

392. (1) The council may instal and charge hire for—

- (a) meters or instruments for measuring the quantity of water supplied; and
(b) pipes and apparatus for the conveyance, reception, and storage of water.

Hire.

(2) Such hire may be recovered as rates.

Meters, &c., not subject to distrain.

cf. C.T.W. &
S. Act, 1880,
s. 26.

(3) Such meters, instruments, pipes, and apparatus shall not be subject to distress for rent of the premises where used, nor to be attached or taken in execution under any process of any court of law or equity, or under or in pursuance of any sequestration or other legal proceedings against or affecting the consumer of the water, or the owner or occupier of the premises, or other person in whose possession or care such meters, instruments, pipes, or apparatus may be.

Owner required to supply.
cf. C.T.W. &
S. Act, 1880,
ss. 27, 32.

(4) In lieu of installing any such meters, instruments, pipes, and apparatus, the council may require the owner or occupier or person requiring a supply of water to instal the same. All meters, instruments, pipes, and apparatus so installed shall be in accordance with the requirements of the council, and shall be maintained in good working condition.

Minister's power to order installation of meters.

(5) Where there is in the opinion of the Minister excessive consumption of water in any town or district, he may by written order direct the council to exercise its powers to have meters installed and to charge for excess water by measure.

No. 41.

393. Where in the opinion of the council greater expense would be incurred in causing the sewers or drains of two or more separate portions of land to empty into an existing sewer or drain than in constructing a new sewer or drain and causing such sewers and drains to empty therein, the council may construct such new sewer or drain, and by notice as aforesaid order the owners or occupiers of such separate portions of land to cause their sewers or drains to empty therein. The council shall apportion as it deems just the expenses of the construction of such new sewer or drain among the owners of the several portions of land, and may recover the sums so apportioned from such owners as debts.

Construction of new sewer where less costly than connecting to existing sewer.
cf. C.T.W. and S. (Amendment) Act, 1905, s. 12.

394. The council may, upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon, enter into a contract with any person who is not liable for payment of sewerage rates upon any lands for the discharge of the sewage from such lands into the sewers of the council.

Contract to sewer land not subject to sewerage rate.

Sewers and drains not to be a nuisance.

395. The council shall cause all sewerage and drainage works to be constructed, maintained, kept, cleansed, and emptied with due regard for the health and convenience of the public, and shall exercise in and about the same every proper precaution against the spread of disease.

Sewers and drains to be properly kept.
cf. C.T.W. and S. Act, 1880, ss. 70, 73, 91.

Discharge of sewage.

396. (1) The council may cause the sewage from its area to be discharged at such place within or without its area and to be treated in such works or supplied to any persons and on such terms as it may decide, subject in every case to the council's first obtaining the written approval of the Minister.

Disposal of sewage.
cf. C.T.W. and S. Act, 1880, ss. 89-94.

(2) The Minister shall cause inspection to be made by the Minister for Public Works of any sewage disposal or treatment works and may give directions as to their proper maintenance and working in order that their efficiency may be maintained and that nuisance therefrom may be prevented. Such directions shall

397. (1) The Governor may by proclamation direct that any drains therein mentioned or any improvements thereto constructed by him or by the Minister for Public Works with or without his authority before or after the commencement of this Act, together with any lands and buildings used in connection therewith, shall be taken over by the council upon such terms and conditions as the Governor may in any case appoint.

(2) Thereupon the council shall be charged with the care and management of such drains or improvements, subject to the terms and conditions aforesaid.

Drainage reserves vested in
councils.

398. Where, in the subdivision of any land, there has been provision made for a drainage reserve (whether by agreement between the owner and the council or between the vendor and any purchaser, or by the marking on any plan exhibited to the public or lodged with the Registrar-General of words indicating the reservation of land for drainage) the land so provided for a drainage reserve is hereby vested in the council in fee-simple for drainage purposes.

Treasurer may lend money.

399. (1) Where under this Act or the ordinances any person is liable or has been required by the council to construct any works of water supply or sewerage, the council may agree to construct such works for such person on a system of deferred payment for a specified sum, and if such sum exceeds five pounds the Treasurer may, on the application of the council, advance the amount of such sum to the council from the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

(2) Such amount shall be repaid by the council at any time or times, and by any instalments agreed upon between the council and the said Treasurer, with interest at such rate as the Treasurer may fix, but so that the amount of the advance, with interest as aforesaid, shall be repaid within five years from the completion of the works.

(2) In respect of any such catchment district, ordinances may be made applicable to such council and to such catchment district, whether the catchment district or any part thereof be within or outside the area of such council. Such ordinances may relate to the following matters:—

(a) The marking of the boundaries of the catchment district.

(b)

George V,
No. 41.

- (b) The protection of the catchment district, or any watercourse therein, from pollution, and the protection of any property of the council on such catchment district.
- (c) The inspection of land and buildings upon such catchment district.
- (d) The prohibition of burials on the catchment district.
- (e) The authorising of the carrying out by the council of any structural alteration of buildings to prevent or minimise the danger of pollution of any catchment district.
- (f) Requiring, subject to payment of compensation, the removal of buildings on the catchment district.
- (g) The regulation or prevention of the keeping of animals on the catchment district.
- (h) Preventing the diversion of or the taking of water from any natural or artificial watercourse the water of which flows into the council's works except by or under the authority of the council or of any statute.

Compensation.
See sec. 584
as to compensation.

(3) Where any person suffers injury by the operation of ordinances made under this section he may claim compensation from the council.

DIVISION 8.—Control and management by Government.

Works may be taken from care of council and placed in care of Minister.

402. (1) The Governor may proclaim that the Minister or the Minister for Public Works shall be charged with the care and management of any water sewerage or drainage works constructed under this Part or under the Acts repealed by this Part, or constructed by the Minister for Public Works, whether the council has or has not been charged with the care and management of such works.

Minister substituted for
council.

(2) Thereupon with respect to such works this Part shall be read and construed as if the Minister or the Minister for Public Works were substituted for the council.

Works may be handed back to council.

(3) The Governor may at any time revoke such proclamation and charge the council with the care and and management of such works and thereupon the provisions of this Part shall apply, mutatis mutandis, as in the case of works newly constructed under this Part. George V,

No. 41.

DIVISION 9.—Drainage.

403. The council may control and regulate the draining of any lands or premises. Regulation of drainage of all premises.

404. (1) The council may control, regulate, or prohibit the discharging upon any public road or any land vested in or under the control of the council of any drainage (other than surface waters or the soakage thereof). Drainage from private lands
over footways (other than surface waters).

(2) This section shall apply to lands the property of the Crown or of any statutory body.

405. (1) Subject to the provisions of the Metropolitan Water and Sewerage Act of 1880, or of the Hunter District Water Supply and Sewerage Act of 1892, the council may construct, control, and manage stormwater drains. Stormwater drains.

(2) The expenses incurred by the council in and in relation to the construction of such drains may be recovered by the council by the making and levying for such term of years as the council may fix of a local rate upon the ratable land which is within the basin served by the drainage works. Local rate.
cf. s. 379
ante.

Flood prevention and drainage of swamps.

406. Where any council proposes to carry out works on any river or on the banks thereof for the prevention of the flooding of private lands or for the draining and reclamation of swampy or low-lying land the following provisions shall apply:— Flood prevention and the draining of swamps.

s. 494 re
floods.

(1) Where the works proposed are estimated to cost more than five hundred pounds, and are (whether wholly situated in the area of one council or not) for the benefit of more than one area—

- (a) such works shall not be commenced until the approval of the Minister for Public Works has been obtained; and
- (b)

George V,
No. 41.

See s. 521
post, as to joint action.

- (b) the councils of the areas affected may carry out the works jointly under the provisions of this Act as to joint action by councils, or one council may contribute towards the cost of the work, such work being carried out by the other council ; and
 - (c) a council may contribute towards the cost of the work notwithstanding that such work is situated outside the area of the council.
- (2) Where the works proposed are for the benefit of one area only but are situated outside the boundaries of that area—
- (a) the council of the area for whose benefit the works are proposed shall obtain the consent of the council in whose area such works will be situate ; and if such consent be refused the dispute may be dealt with as elsewhere provided in this Act ; and
 - (b) if the works proposed to be constructed outside the area taken together with any works for the same purpose proposed to be constructed within the area (if any) are estimated to cost more than five hundred pounds, such works shall not be commenced until the approval of the Minister for Public Works has been obtained ; and
 - (c) thereupon such works may be constructed by a council notwithstanding that they or any part thereof are situated outside the council's area.
- (3) If any such works as aforesaid are constructed out of borrowed money any loan rate in connection therewith shall be levied as a local loan rate on the lands benefited by such works.

See s. 654
post,
re disputes.

DIVISION 10.—*Ordinances.*George V,
No. 41.

407. Ordinances may be made for carrying this Part into effect, and in particular for and with respect to—

- (1) preventing the waste or misuse or the unlawful taking of water of the council ;
- (2) preventing the diversion of or the taking of water from any natural or artificial watercourse, the water of which flows into the council's works, except by or under the authority of the council or of any statute ;
- (3) protecting the council's water supply from pollution ;
- (4) preventing the use of water for purposes other than those for which it is supplied ;
- (5) preventing the use, directly or indirectly, by persons unauthorised by the council, of water supplied by the council ;
- (6) the fixing of fire hydrants and fire hydrant notices in public roads ;
- (7) authorising and regulating the examination of gas-pipes owned by any person, to ascertain whether the council's water supply is fouled by gas therefrom, and the examination of water-pipes, drains, and sewers owned by any person to ascertain whether water, drainage, or sewerage escapes therefrom, and providing for payment of expenses by such person, if such be found to be the case ;
- (8) the regulation or prevention of the discharge of roof waters and other surface waters into the sewers of the council ;
- (9) the regulation of the conditions to be observed with regard to liquid trade or factory wastes, or chemical or other impurities, before they are discharged into the council's sewers or drains, or the prevention of such discharge ;

Powers of council's servants.

(3) A council, or any agent or servant of a council, shall have full power to order and direct and do all things necessary in relation to—

- (a) the control of the berthing and removal of any vessel (except in the Port of Sydney) ;
- (b) the discharging and loading of cargo ;
- (c) the storage and removal of goods ; and
- (d) generally in relation to the control of the use of such wharf and any appliances connected therewith.

PART XVII.

TRADING.

DIVISION 1.—Application.

Application
of Part.

416. Subject to the provisions of this Act—

- (a) this Part shall apply to municipalities and shires ;
- (b) the powers and duties conferred and imposed upon a council under this Part shall apply in respect of each area to the council of the area.

DIVISION

DIVISION 2.—*Trading by councils.*George V,
No. 41.

417. Subject to the provisions of this Act a council may establish, acquire, and conduct trading undertakings.

Powers of council to establish trading undertakings.

418. (1) The following shall be trading undertakings within the meaning of this Part, that is to say—

What is a trading undertaking.
cf. L.G. Acts, 1906-8, s. 100 (xx, xxi, xxii, liii).

- (a) the supply of electricity and the supply and installing of electrical fittings and appliances ;
- (b) the supply of gas, and the supply and installing of gasfittings and appliances ;
- (c) the supply of hydraulic power, and the supply and installing of hydraulic fittings and appliances ;
- (d) the business of a ferry service (other than for a road-ferry) on waters within or adjacent to the area ;
- (e) the business of a motor 'bus service for the conveyance of passengers for hire ;
- (f) the business of the conveyance of goods or merchandise for hire by locomotive and transport appliances with animal or mechanical motive power and the letting of such appliances for hire ;
- (g) the supply of stone, broken stone, clay, sand, or gravel from the council's quarries or pits or land ;
- (h) the supply of pipes, flagstones, and kerbing and guttering ;
- (i) supply of ice :

Provided that the power to trade in electrical gas or hydraulic fittings and appliances shall not apply except in cases where the council is engaged in the supply of electricity, gas, or hydraulic power, as the case may be.

(2) The power to trade in any article or commodity (including the supply of power) shall include the power to purchase, generate, manufacture, or obtain the article or commodity for the purpose of sale or hire.

(3)

George V.
No. 41.

(3) The Governor may, by ordinance, prescribe—

(a) what shall be deemed to be a separate trading undertaking; and

(b) that any undertaking of the council within the powers granted by this Act shall be a trading undertaking.

Extending outside boundaries.

(4) The council may extend any of its trading undertakings mentioned in paragraphs (a) (b) (c) (d) (e) and (f) of subsection one of this section, into any other area, if the consent of the council of that area is obtained to such extension and subject to such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon.

Land for trading undertakings.

(5) The council may acquire or use land outside the area for the purposes of this Part.

Validating
agreements.

(6) Any agreement made before the commencement of this Act and relating to any trading undertaking within the meaning of this section may, after alterations have been made therein if necessary to comply with the requirements of this section, be approved by the Governor and thereupon this section shall apply to that agreement and such agreement (if previously invalid) shall be valid.

Principles of trading by
councils.

419. Subject to the provisions of this Act, and in particular to making proper provision for depreciation and obsolescence of assets, and for reserves and for the payment of principal, interest, and expenses in respect of moneys borrowed for the purposes of the undertaking, the council shall endeavour so to conduct each trading undertaking that without any loss being incurred the service, product, or commodity of the undertaking may be supplied to the consumer as cheaply as possible.

DIVISION 3.—Trading franchises.

Council may grant
"franchises" limited by conditions.

420. (1) The council may grant permission to any person not authorised by statute or otherwise—

(a) to supply gas or electric current to the public, and for such purposes to lay or erect pipes, wires, poles, and other apparatus on, under, or over any public place; or

(b)

- (b) to lay rails in any public place, and run cars thereon drawn by animal or mechanical power for the purposes of any business, other than the carriage of goods or passengers for hire.

George V.
No. 41.

(2) In any such case the council shall enter into an agreement with such person, which shall contain articles dealing with the following subjects :—

Conditions of "franchise."

- (i) The term of years for which permission is given.
- (ii) The consideration to be paid to the council for such permission.
- (iii) Whether the council is to have an option of purchase ; if so, when, for what sum, and on what terms.
- (iv) The consideration to be paid by the council if it exercise its option of purchase before the expiration of the term of years for which the permission is given.
- (v) The regulation of the charges to be made to the public for commodities supplied or for services rendered.
- (vi) The provision to be made for the repair of any damage resulting from the exercise of the powers conferred under any such agreement, and the securing of the public safety.
- (vii) The removal of all pipes, wires, rails, poles, or other works or appliances on the expiration of the agreement, if not sold to the council.
- (viii) The indemnifying of the council against damage.
- (ix) The full protection of the rights of the public to free passage upon public places.
- (x) The maintenance of the efficiency of the service, the plant and machinery, and the testing thereof.
- (xi) Such other subjects as the council may deem necessary in the public interest, or as may be prescribed.

George V,
No. 41.

"Franchise" useless until approved by Governor.

(3) Any such agreement shall not be binding upon either of the parties thereto or have any force or effect in law or equity, unless and until the approval of the Governor has been signified in writing upon such agreement or a certified copy thereof.

Approval of Parliament.

(4) Before the approval of the Governor is given under this section, the agreement, or a certified copy thereof, shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament, and if either House pass a resolution (of which notice has been given at any time within fifteen sitting days after such agreement or a certified copy thereof has been so laid before Parliament) disallowing the agreement or any part thereof, the agreement or part thereof, as the case may be, shall be disallowed.

No compensation for goodwill.

Compare ss. 2,
and 3 of Electric Lighting Act
(England), 1888.

(5) Except as provided in such agreement made after the commencement of this Act compensation shall not be paid to any person in respect of goodwill or of any profits which may (or might) have been (or be) made from the undertaking or of any similar considerations.

(6) Any agreement made before the commencement of this Act may, after alterations have been made therein if necessary to comply with the requirements of this section, be approved by the Governor, and thereupon this section shall apply to that agreement, and the agreement (if previously invalid) shall be valid.

(7) Where the council declines to grant any application for permission under subsection one hereof the applicant may appeal to the Minister, who may cause a public inquiry to be held, and thereupon the Governor may, after considering the report of the inquiry, order the council to grant permission and enter into an agreement under this section. Any such order shall not be made in a case where—

- (a) the council itself is engaged in supplying a service similar to that to which the application relates ; or
- (b) the council gives a satisfactory undertaking that it will within two years supply such a service.

421. (1) The council may, for any purpose other than those specifically named in subsection one of the last preceding section, and other than the carriage of goods or passengers for hire, and subject to such conditions as it may impose, grant permission to any person to construct, lay, suspend, or otherwise place any rails, pipes, wires, cables, tunnels, or structures of any sort whatsoever upon or under or over any public place, and may make a charge for any damage to the public place resulting from the construction or placing thereof.

George V,
No. 41.
Pipes, wires,
&c., under or over public places.

(2) Any such permission granted shall not authorise permanent obstruction of the ordinary and reasonable user of such public place.

(3) A person shall not construct, lay, suspend, or otherwise place any rails, pipes, wires, cables, tunnels, or structures of any sort whatsoever upon or under or over any public place without having obtained the permission of the council.

Permission of
council.

(4) Where, in the council's opinion the existence of any rails, pipes, wires, cables, tunnels, or structures aforesaid causes damage to a public place, the council may require that the damage be made good by the person entitled to the use and benefit of such rails, pipes, wires, cables, tunnels, or structures.

(5) Where any rails, pipes, wires, cables, tunnels, or structures aforesaid have not been in regular use for a period of twelve months the council may order the removal thereof, and may order the repair of any damage to any public place resulting from such removal. The person entitled to the use and benefit of the rails, pipes, wires, cables, tunnels, or structures, shall comply with the order.

(6) This section shall apply to rails, pipes, wires, cables, tunnels, and structures laid suspended or placed upon or under or over any public place before or after the commencement of this Act except where such things are so placed under the authority of any statute, in which case this section shall not apply.

Repairs.

422. (1) The council may, at any time, when in its opinion any rails, pipes, wires, cables, tunnels, or structures, laid suspended or placed upon under or over any public place, require repair in the interests of public safety or convenience, order that such repairs as it may deem necessary be effected.

(2) In default of such repairs being effected the council may remove or fill in such rails, pipes, wires, cables, tunnels, or structures, or any part thereof, and recover the cost of so doing as a debt from the person to whom permission has been granted under this Division or his successors in title.

Council not actionable.

(3) An action shall not be brought against a council for any loss or damage which any person may suffer by reason of anything done or omitted under or in pursuance of any permission granted by the council under this Division, or for any loss or damage which any person has suffered or may suffer before or after the commencement of this Act, by reason of anything done or omitted to be done under or in pursuance of any permission granted before the commencement of this Act by any council to the Pacific Cable Board constituted under the Imperial Act, 1 Edward VII (1901) ch. 31.

Exemption of certain
works.

(4) This section shall not apply to the Crown, nor to any works constructed or to be constructed by a statutory body under any statute, but shall apply to any person other than the Crown or such statutory body, and shall apply to rails, pipes, wires, cables, tunnels, and structures laid, suspended, or placed upon, under, or over any public place before or after the commencement of this Act, including any such things so placed under the authority of any statute.

PART XXII.

NOXIOUS PLANTS AND ANIMALS.

DIVISION 1.—Application and interpretation.

Application
of this Part.

466. Subject to the provisions of this Act—

- (a) this Part shall apply to municipalities and shires ;
- (b) the powers and duties conferred and imposed upon a council under this Part shall apply in respect of each area to the council of the area ;
- (c) this Part shall not apply to animals which are for the time being noxious animals within the meaning of the Pastures Protection Act, 1912 ;
- (d) any plant or animal declared to be a noxious plant or animal under the Local Government Act, 1906, in respect of an area shall be deemed to have been so declared under this Act ; and
- (e) this Part shall not apply to the Crown, but shall apply to lessees of Crown lands.

Interpretation.

467. In this Part—

“ Noxious plant and animal ” means noxious plant and noxious animal.

“ Within land ” and any like expression mean on or below the land.

DIVISION 2.—Declaration of noxious plants and animals.

Declaring plants
and animals noxious in all areas.

468. (1) The Governor may, by proclamation, declare any plant or animal to be a noxious plant or animal in all municipalities and shires.

(2) On the application of the majority of the councils of the areas situated wholly or partly within the district drained by any river, the Governor may by proclamation declare any plant or animal to be a noxious plant or animal in that district.

Declaring plants
and animals
noxious in particular areas.
cf. L.G. Acts,
1906-8, s. 112.

469. The council may, by notification in the Gazette, declare any plant or animal to be a noxious plant or animal within the area.

DIVISION

DIVISION 3.—Destruction of noxious plants and animals. George V,
No. 41.
Private lands.

470. (1) Where any plant or animal has been declared to be a noxious plant or animal— Duty of occupiers to destroy.

- (a) the council may give notice to owners and occupiers of land by advertisement in newspapers as prescribed, and a copy of this section shall be included in or printed on the notice ; cf. L.G. Acts, 1906-8, s. 112.
- (b) the council shall also in each year thereafter publish advertisements in newspapers as prescribed drawing attention to this section and to the notice aforesaid ; and
- (c) all occupiers of land in the area shall destroy such plants and animals, and shall thereafter keep the land free therefrom.

(2) After the expiration of two months from the publication of the notice aforesaid, if the occupier of any land has not in the opinion of the council taken reasonable steps to comply with the requirements of this section the council may subject to the provisions of this Act—

- (a) recover from such occupier, whether he be the owner or not, a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds upon proving that any noxious plant or animal named in such notice has been found after the said two months within the land ; and
- (b) also cause all noxious plants and animals within the land to be destroyed, and may recover from the occupier as a debt any reasonable expense thereby incurred.

471. (1) Where any plant or animal has been declared to be a noxious plant or animal— Duty of owners to destroy.

- (a) the council may serve upon the owner of any land notice requiring him within a reasonable period, not less than two months, stated in the notice to destroy all noxious plants and animals within the land ; and requiring him to keep such land free thereafter from such plants and animals ; cf. L.G. Acts, 1906-8, s. 112.
- (b) the owner of land so served with notice shall comply therewith, and shall thereafter keep the land free from such plants and animals.

(2)

George V,
No. 41.

(2) After the expiration of the aforesaid period if the owner of any land has not in the opinion of the council taken reasonable steps to comply with the requirements of this section the council may, subject to the provisions of this Act—

- (a) recover from such owner a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds upon proving that any noxious plant or animal named in such notice has been found after the said two months within the land; and
- (b) also cause all noxious plants and animals within the land to be destroyed and may recover from the owner as a debt any reasonable expense thereby incurred.

(3) The owner of private land with respect to which there was at the commencement of this Act a lease in force shall not be liable to any action under this section until such lease expires, or until the land is abandoned by the lessee (whichever first happens) if—

- (a) within one month after the notice aforesaid is served upon him he serves upon the council a written claim for exemption under this subsection; and
- (b) produces the lease on demand of the council for inspection.

(4) Where the council is of opinion that the introduction or the spread after introduction of any noxious plant or animal on any land is not due to the neglect of the owner or occupier the council may destroy the plant or animal and charge the cost to the appropriate fund.

Birds, flying foxes, and the like.

472. Where it becomes the duty of any person by virtue of a notice under this Part to destroy flying animals within any land and an animal of the kind referred to in the notice is found within the land after the expiration of the prescribed period, it shall be a good defence to any action for the recovery of a penalty under this Part in respect of such animals if it be proved that such person has diligently employed all practicable methods for the destruction of such animals.

Public

*Public lands.*George V, No. 41.473. (1) The council—Duty and power of the council in relation to public lands.

- (a) shall destroy all noxious plants and animals within any land vested in or leased by it, and within any public place or public reserve under its care or management; and
- (b) may destroy them upon or in any river, water-course, or inland water, tidal or non-tidal, which is not privately owned or occupied; and
- (c) may extirpate and destroy all noxious plants and animals within any unoccupied Crown lands, travelling stock routes, or any lands which are the property of the Crown and are reserved from sale, but are not vested in trustees.

Travelling
stock routes, Crown
lands, &c.

(2) Notwithstanding the preceding subsection the council of any shire may resolve, and may notify by advertisement, that the duty to destroy noxious plants and animals which is laid by this Part upon any person other than the council shall extend and apply not only to lands owned, occupied, or vested in such person, but also to any road which intersects those lands, and to that one-half of the width of any road bounding the lands which abuts upon those lands: thereupon the duty aforesaid shall extend and apply accordingly: Provided that this subsection shall apply only to roads whether dedicated or undedicated which are enclosed by gates, fences, or otherwise in such manner as to be used with the lands aforesaid, and shall not apply to dedicated roads which are separated from such lands by fences and are used as public thoroughfares.

(3) The provisions of this Division relating to private lands shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to land which is owned and occupied or held by the Crown or by any statutory body for any of the following purposes, that is to say, sites for government buildings, police paddocks, experimental farms, aborigines' reserves, and railways and purposes incidental thereto:

Provided

George V. Provided that where lands under the control of the
No. 41. Railway Commissioners for New South Wales are occupied for other than railway purposes the liability to comply with the provisions of this Part shall apply to the occupier in all respects as if such lands were private lands.

Creeks and watercourses.

474. (1) For the purpose of deciding the person charged with the destruction of noxious plants and animals under this Part the provisions of this section shall have effect.

Lands on opposite sides of watercourses &c.—one owner or occupier. (2) Where lands are situated on opposite sides of any watercourse, river, or inland water, tidal or non-tidal, and are owned or occupied by the same person, the land between those lands shall be deemed to be owned or occupied by him.

Lands on opposite sides of watercourses—different owners or occupiers. Give-and-take fences. (3) Where lands are situated on opposite sides of any watercourse, river, or inland water, tidal or non-tidal, and are owned or occupied by different persons—

(i) where what is known as a “give-and-take” fence is erected to define a convenient boundary between such lands such fence shall be deemed to mark the line of ownership or occupation respectively whether such lands immediately adjoin or not; and

Other fences. (ii) where there is no fence, or where there is any fence other than a “give-and-take” fence, erected on or between such lands, the middle line of the watercourse, river, or inland water shall be deemed to mark the line of ownership or occupation respectively whether such lands immediately adjoin or not.

Exemption. (4) Where the depth or width of such watercourse, river, or inland water (taken in conjunction with all the surrounding circumstances) is such that in the council’s opinion the application of the preceding subsections of this section would be unreasonable, the council may exempt any watercourse, river, or inland water or part thereof from the application of those subsections, and may undertake the destruction of noxious weeds and animals therein.

DIVISION

DIVISION 4.—*Destruction in adjoining areas.*George V.
No. 41.

475. (1) Any council which is exercising or has exercised the powers of this Act, and the ordinances applicable thereto, in relation to any particular kind of noxious plant or animal, may require the council of any adjoining area to exercise the like powers in a similar way with respect to that portion of the adjoining area situated within a distance of forty chains of the common boundary of their areas.

Compulsory exercise of power by council of adjoining
area.

(2) Thereupon this Part shall apply to such portion of the adjoining area and the council of the adjoining area as if the plant or animal referred to had been declared a noxious plant or animal in such adjoining area.

(3) The council of the adjoining area so required shall, notwithstanding anything elsewhere contained in this Act, comply with such requirement.

(4) In case of default or non-compliance with the requirements of this section such first-mentioned council may recover from the council making default, or not complying, a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds for every week during which such neglect continues, and the time when such neglect commences shall be determined by the court awarding the penalty.

PART XXIII.

494. (1) The council may make provision—

- (a) for the prevention or mitigation of bush fires (including the organisation of bush-fire brigades); and
- (b) for the prevention or mitigation of menace to the safety of life or property from floods (including the provision of flood boats and the organisation of flood brigades).

(2) The council may provide, establish and manage brigades, stations, and appliances for extinguishing fires, and saving life and property therefrom.

Fire-breaks.

495. (1) Where, on any land, the presence of living or dead vegetation, which is less than one hundred feet from any building, standing crops, or orchard, situated on adjoining land which is owned or occupied separately from the first-mentioned land, constitutes, in the opinion of the council, a danger to such building, crops, or orchard, because of the probability of the spread of fire from such vegetation, the council may order order the owner or occupier of such first-mentioned land, and the owner or occupier of the adjoining land, to make and keep on the lands respectively owned or occupied by them a fire-break of such dimensions as may be specified in the order. George V,

No. 41.

(2) The provisions of this section shall be in addition to and not in substitution for, the provisions of the Careless Use of Fire Act, 1912, and shall not apply to the Crown.

496. (1) The council may erect dwellings, shops, and other buildings, sell such dwellings, shops, and buildings on extended terms of payment, or lease such dwellings, shops, and buildings. Housing.

(2) It shall be a condition of every sale or lease of a dwelling and its site under this section that any disposition of the premises by a purchaser shall be of no effect unless and until the written consent of the council is given thereto.

(3) Subject to this Act the council shall not arbitrarily or unreasonably refuse its consent, but in giving or withholding its consent shall be guided by the need to provide and protect homes for workers and their families, and especially workers who do not already own a home. Before giving its consent in any case where the whole of the purchase money has not been paid the council shall see that money or money's worth is not being paid for "goodwill." Workers'
Dwellings
Act, 1919
(N.Z.), s. 15.

(4) Instead of giving its consent to any disposition of the premises under the preceding provisions of this section the council may, within one month after application for consent is lodged, decide to purchase the premises or the lease thereof for a price or consideration equivalent to the price or consideration involved in the proposed disposition; and thereupon the council shall notify the owner of the premises or the lease and shall complete the purchase within one month. Workers'
Homes Act, 1912 (W.A.),
s. 19.

(5) For the purposes of this section "disposition" includes sale, assignment, lease, and mortgage, whether made before or after the issue of a certificate of title for the premises.

ing places.
 cf. L.G.
 Acts, 1906-8, s. 73 (ix). (2) The powers and duties conferred and imposed on the Governor and the Minister by sections six, seven, eight, nine, and ten of the aforesaid Act shall be transferred to and shall be exercised and discharged by the council.

(3) A person duly authorised by the council shall have the powers conferred by sections eleven and seventeen of the aforesaid Act on a person duly authorised by the Minister.

(4) Section sixteen of the aforesaid Act and the regulations made thereunder are hereby repealed within municipalities and shires.

(5) Notwithstanding anything in the aforesaid Act, a council may let any public watering place on lease for a term not exceeding ten years, and may grant an extension of any lease for a term not exceeding five years at the same or an increased rental without calling for public tenders where the council considers such extension is justified by the nature of the improvements made by the lessee.

Land for
 P.W.P's. (6) The council may acquire land for the purpose of a public watering place, and the Governor may proclaim such land a public watering place within the meaning of the Public Watering-places Act, 1900.

Hiring out plant. 498. The council may let on hire any of the council's machinery and appliances.

Work for
 other councils or bodies. 499. The council may within or outside its area carry out work of any character for any other council or any public body or institution at the cost of that council, body, or institution.

Work on private land. 500. (1) The council may carry out tarpaving, kerbing, guttering, road-making, draining, tree-planting, and gardening work on any land other than land of the council if the cost thereof be paid to the council in advance.

(2) The council may on the application of the owner or occupier of any premises, and at the expense of the applicant, carry out the connection of premises with water, gas, electricity, or sewerage mains.

501.

501. (1) Where it becomes necessary in the opinion of the council for the purposes of any work, service, or trading undertaking of the council to lay pipes, wires or sewers, or construct drains across lands vested in the Railway Commissioners for New South Wales, the Commissioners shall permit such laying or construction at some suitable place and on such conditions as shall be agreed upon by them and the council.

s. 241 (3).

(2) The Commissioners may decide to carry out any work under this section on behalf of the council.

(3) The council shall pay any reasonable expense to which the Commissioners may be put under this section and shall agree to do such things as the Commissioners may reasonably require to provide for present or future railway requirements.

(4) The Commissioners shall not be liable for any claims arising out of the exercise of the rights conferred on a council by this section.

502. (1) Where it becomes necessary in the opinion of the council for the purposes of any work or service or trading undertaking of the council to lay pipes, wires, or sewers, or to construct drains or level crossings, or to construct bridges across private railway lines constructed by authority of any statute on lands vested in any person, firm, or company other than the Railway Commissioners for New South Wales such person, firm, or company shall permit such laying or construction at some suitable place and on such conditions as shall be agreed upon by him and the council.

(2) Where such person and the council cannot come to an agreement within three months after either of them has served on the other a written proposal for an agreement under this section the difference between them shall be settled in the same manner as is provided by this Act for the settlement of a difference between a council and the said Railway Commissioners.

(3) Such person may decide to carry out any work under this section on behalf of and to the satisfaction of the council.

(4)

George V,
No. 41.

(4) Where pipes, wires, sewers, or drains are laid or constructed under this section the council shall pay any reasonable expense to which such person may be put under this section.

(5) Where a bridge or level crossing is, in the opinion of the council, required and the same is constructed under this section to connect roads on opposite sides of the railway line, such person, firm, or company and the council shall, unless it be otherwise provided that the person, firm, or company bear the whole of the cost of construction, defray the cost of construction of such crossing or bridge in such proportions as they shall agree upon, and thereafter such crossing or bridge shall be maintained in good order and condition by such person, firm, or company. Any difference between the council and such person, firm or company under this subsection may be determined in like manner to a difference under subsection two of this section.

War expenditure.

503. (1) The Minister may authorise any council for such time and on such conditions as he may decide—

- (a) to expend its corporate funds to promote or assist recruiting for active military service; or
- (b) to keep open the positions of servants who enlist in the Australian Imperial Expeditionary Forces for active military service; or
- (c) to pay to such servants who so enlist the difference between civil and military pay (or, alternatively, to make provision for the dependants of such servants); or
- (d) to organise and contribute towards various funds for war purposes, and for the relief of suffering caused by war;
- (e) to write off rates due by any person who is or has been actively engaged in the naval or military forces of His Majesty if the land on which the rates are due is or has been unproductive by reason of his being so engaged, or if the enforcement of the payment of such rates would cause hardship to such person;
- (f) to write off interest (on rates) which has accrued during the years one thousand nine hundred hundred and fourteen to one thousand nine hundred and nineteen inclusive on any land, and has not been paid by reason of the owner thereof being actively engaged as aforesaid ;

- (g) to expend a portion of its corporate funds in the celebration of the signing of peace.

(2) This section may be applied by the Minister to things done before the commencement of this Act.

504. (1) Subject to this Act the council may expend for purposes not authorised but not expressly prohibited by law a sum not exceeding in any one year one per centum of the general rate levied in that year.

(2) If in any year one per centum of such general rate does not amount to one hundred pounds, the council may in that year expend one hundred pounds under this section.

(3) In all such cases the council shall obtain the approval of the Minister before incurring the expenditure.

505. A council may vote money from any appropriate fund as a grant to another council in aid of the carrying out in the area of such other council of any local government work or service for the benefit of the residents of the area of the council making the grant.

*Works or services
outside area.*

506. (1) Where a council has works for the supply of water, gas, or electricity, or sewerage works, or telephone lines, or any works, services, or undertakings which it is authorised under this or any other Act to carry on or perform, such council may, notwithstanding the provisions of this or any other Act to the contrary, supply water, gas, or electricity, or connect its sewers, or extend its telephone lines, or extend its works, services, or undertakings, to any place situated outside its area.

(2) Where such place is within another area the consent of the council of that area, subject to such conditions as may be agreed upon, shall be obtained before this section shall be acted upon.

(3) Where a council exercises the powers given by this section, such council shall not levy any rate on any land outside its area, but may, with respect to water,

water,

George V, water, gas, electricity, or sewers, or telephone lines, or
No. 41. any works, services, or undertakings, make agreements for payment of charges in connection therewith.

Vehicles. 507. (1) A vehicle shall not be plied as a public vehicle unless—

- (a) it is licensed under this Act; and
- (b) it is in charge of a driver licensed under this Act.

(2) (a) Licenses under this section may be issued by the council of any area in which the Metropolitan Traffic Act is not in force in respect of vehicles intended to be plied within or both within and outside the area.

(b) Such licenses shall be valid in the areas of all councils in which that Act is not in force:

Provided that where a public vehicle is licensed to ply upon a specified route such license shall be valid with respect to that route only.

(3) A council may refuse a license, or may suspend or cancel a license if in its opinion the granting or continuing of the same is not in the public interest.

(4) Where any council is of opinion that a license issued by another council in pursuance of this section should be cancelled, it shall give notice to the council issuing the license and to the licensee, and if such last-mentioned council declines to cancel the license the question of the cancellation of the license may be referred by either council to a court of petty sessions, which shall determine the matter, having regard to the circumstances of the case and to the public interest. The decision of such court shall be final, and the court may direct the council to cancel a license in accordance with such decision.

(5) Each license shall be in, or to the effect of, the form prescribed, and shall state the number to be placed upon the vehicle. The name of the area, the letters "P.V." and such number shall be placed on each public vehicle as prescribed before the license is issued: Provided, however, that where any public vehicle is registered under the Motor Traffic Act, 1909, it shall not be necessary for any number to be placed upon such vehicle in pursuance of this section. (6)

(6) The provisions of any ordinance relating to public vehicles in force in an area shall apply to all public vehicles and the drivers thereof while in that area, whether such vehicles or drivers are licensed by the council of that area or not. George V,
No. 41.

(7) Any person who owns a public vehicle shall—

- (a) keep the vehicle in a clean and sanitary condition ;
- (b) provide efficient brakes therefor ;
- (c) keep it in such repair as to ensure the safety of the public.

(8) Any person who owns or drives a public vehicle shall comply with the provisions of any ordinances which may be made to regulate public vehicles, the drivers thereof, and the stands on public roads for public vehicles, the order of public vehicles standing upon and leaving such stands, the scale of fares to be charged for the use of the vehicles, and the orderly traffic of public vehicles on the public roads.

(9) The Stage Carriages Acts, 1899 and 1903, shall not apply within municipalities and shires.

(10) The council may charge fees not exceeding one pound for a license for a public vehicle, not exceeding five shillings for a license for the driver of a public vehicle, and not exceeding five shillings for each half-yearly inspection of a public vehicle.

(11) (a) The council shall cause each public vehicle to be inspected regularly each half year and a report upon the condition of the vehicle to be laid before the council.

(b) The council may cause additional inspections to be made at any time as it may see fit.

(12) The council may regulate and prevent the overcrowding with passengers of public vehicles and of other hired vehicles. Overcrowding of hired vehicles.

508. (1) The council may establish and conduct an employment registry. Employment registry.

(2) The council may provide, control, and manage tanks and all things necessary for the dipping of sheep and cattle for the destruction of parasites infesting them. Sheep dips.

No. 41.

Medical attendance in sparsely settled districts.

509. (1) If in any shire or any defined part thereof there be not a resident and legally qualified medical practitioner the council may take a poll of the electors of the shire, or of such part, as the case may be, on the question whether the council shall enter into an arrangement whereby such a practitioner shall become resident in such shire or part or in the neighbourhood thereof. If the decision of the poll is in the affirmative the council may enter into an agreement whereby such practitioner shall reside and engage in the practice of his profession within such shire or part or in the neighbourhood thereof in consideration of the council guaranteeing that his gross income per annum shall be a sum stated in such agreement, and whereby the council shall undertake to pay to such practitioner the amount by which his actual income falls short of such stated sum.

(2) If any sum become due to be paid by the council under any such agreement such sum may be paid from the general fund of the shire; and if the agreement relate to a part only of the shire, the council shall in the same or the next succeeding year levy within such part a local rate for the purpose of repaying to the general fund the amount so paid.

(3) Any such agreement shall contain provisions for the inspection by the council or its auditor of such practitioner's accounts on the making of any claim, and may contain such other conditions as may be agreed between the council and such practitioner.

Nurse.

(4) A council may in like manner enter into an arrangement whereby a duly trained nurse shall become resident in the shire or part thereof or in the neighbourhood thereof: and for that purpose the provisions of this section shall apply mutatis mutandis, and such arrangement may be with any association or public body approved of by the Minister.

Advertisements.

510. (1) The council may regulate advertisements and structures used or to be used for the display of advertisements.

(2) For the purposes of this section the word "advertisements" shall include any sign, notice, device, or representation in the nature of an advertisement visible from any public place or public reserve or from any navigable water.

511.

511. Monuments shall not be erected in public places or public reserves unless and until the design and situation thereof shall have been approved by the Minister.

George V.
No. 41.
Monuments.

512. (1) Where there are any works vested in any person and placed on, under, or over any public road, the council may by notice in writing require such person to alter such works in such manner as the council may in the public interest direct.

& S. Act,
1880, s. 69.
of C.T.W.
& S. (Amendment) Act,
1965, s. 19.

(2) This section shall apply to any such works whether placed under the authority of any statute or by any statutory body or with or without the permission of the council, and whether so placed before or after the commencement of this Act.

(3) If the alteration be not made with all reasonable speed the council may make the same as it thinks fit.

(4) Where the council alters any main works under this section it shall forthwith make the necessary alterations of all branch works connected therewith.

(5) An alteration shall not be made in such manner as to injure permanently any such works or prejudicially affect their use.

(6) Except where otherwise agreed or otherwise provided by statute, the cost of the alteration shall be borne by the council.

(7) The expression "works" in this section includes any water-pipe, gas-pipe, sewer, drain, tunnel, wire, cable, rail, or structure.

(8) Where the Minister for Public Works is carrying out any work under the provisions of Part XIV of this Act the provisions of this section shall apply mutatis mutandis to the said Minister as though the said Minister were the council.

DIVISION 3.—Ordinances.

513. Ordinances may be made for carrying this Part into effect, and in particular for and with respect to—

Ordinances.

- (a) authorising the seizure and destruction of goats found at large in any public place;
- (b)

George V,
No. 41.

- (b) regulating the days and times when the offices of the council shall be open for the transaction of business with the public ;
- (c) regulating the use of buildings provided by the council for public meetings, drill halls, and other public purposes ;
- (d) regulating the use of night shelters ;
- (e) the licensing control and regulation of seamen's boarding-houses and of persons engaged in supplying seamen ;
- (f) regulating the stacking or storing of timber, firewood, casks, or barrels ;
- (g) defining and regulating public rights to water and pasturage on public watering places ;
- (h) the installation and distribution of electric light or power wires and appliances ;
- (i) the regulation or prevention of the storage and use of explosives for blasting purposes ;
- (j) regulating or prohibiting the use of any prescribed description of vehicle in any prescribed roads of a municipality or town in a shire during prescribed hours ;
- (k) regulating, and if necessary, restricting the carrying on vehicles upon any road of long, large, heavy or projecting goods ;
- (l) the licensing of vehicles to be used for the carrying or hauling of two tons or over of timber with teams, consisting of not more than twelve bullocks or six horses ; the licensing of similar vehicles with teams of more than twelve bullocks or six horses ; the prevention of the use of unlicensed vehicles, or of vehicles having larger teams than those covered by the license or of the practice of the aiding of one team by another or part of another, or of the use of tackle for the pulling of a load greater than can be pulled by the team alone ; the licensing of the drivers of such vehicles ; the suspension and cancellation of licenses of vehicles or drivers or both for practices likely to cause to the roads damage other than fair wear and tear

Vide L.G. Acts,
1906-8, s. 87 (2).

517. The council may agree to pay for any purchase lawfully made, or for the performance of any work which it might lawfully undertake, by instalments extending over a period of years.

DIVISION 3.—Sale and lease.

Power to sell or exchange property.

cf. L.G. Act,
1906, ss.
85, 104.

cf. C.T.W. &
S. Act, 1889,
s. 91.

518. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act the council may sell or exchange any land or building or other real or personal property vested in or belonging to the council or under its care, control, and management.

(2) Unless otherwise expressly provided, nothing in this Division shall be deemed—

(a) to authorise any sale or exchange of any land, unless the approval of the Governor has been first obtained;

(b) to authorise the sale or exchange of any public reserve, public place, or cemetery, or any land subject to a trust.

cf. Sydney
Corporation
Act, 1902,
s. 75.

See also
ss. 235, 238,

(3) In any case where the council may open, alter, widen, divert, extend, or close any public road or any portion thereof, the council may, with the approval of the Governor, exchange any portion of a public road vested vested in the council for land required for the purpose George V.

of opening, altering, widening, diverting, extending, or No. 41.
closing a public road or portion thereof.

(4) Where the council diverts or alters the ^{See also} course of any public road, and the diversion or alteration ^{s. 276.} is completed and opened for public use, the council may, if it obtains the consent of all persons having any estate or interest in land abutting upon any portion of the old road rendered unnecessary by the diverting or altering, and if the Governor approves, cancel the dedication of and close that portion, and may hold or sell and transfer or convey the land therein, or may transfer or convey it in compensation, or part compensation, for any other land.

519. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act the ^{Power to let} council may, in such manner as it thinks fit, let by way ^{property.}
of lease any land or building or other real or personal property vested in or belonging to the council.

(2) Except as elsewhere provided or as ^{pre-See s. 533,} scribed by ordinance the council shall not without the ^{power.} approval of the Governor enter into any lease for a term exceeding two years.

520. In any approval under this Division the ^{Public} Governor may direct that the sale or lease in pursuance ^{action.}
of such approval shall be by public auction.

DIVISION 4.—Joint action.

Joint undertakings—Agreements.

521. (1) The councils of adjoining areas may enter ^{Joint action} into agreements for the carrying out jointly of works or ^{by councils.} undertakings authorised by any Act, or for the joint ^{Vide L. G.}
performance of duties or exercise of powers under any ^{Acts, 1906-8,} Act, for the mutual benefit of their areas. ^{s. 109 (xxxvi).}

(2) Such agreements may provide for the con- ^{Agreements} trol, regulation, maintenance, and management of such ^{re joint} works and undertakings, or for the control, regulation, ^{action.}
and management of the performance of such duties or exercise of such powers, either by the councils themselves jointly, or by a joint committee composed of members of the councils. (3)

George V,
No. 41.

(3) The councils may in such agreements delegate to such committee such of their powers as are specifically mentioned therein.

Boundary

bridges, and ferries to be maintained at joint expense of adjoining areas.

Vide L.G.
Acts, 1906-8,
s. 106.

522. (1) Where one side of a public road or one bank of a river, watercourse, or inland water, tidal or non-tidal, lies in one area, and the other side of the public road or the other bank lies in another adjoining area, or where the middle line or one side of a public road, river, watercourse or inland water, tidal or non-tidal, forms a common boundary of the areas, the councils of such areas shall unite in making or repairing such public road, and in building, providing, maintaining, and managing necessary bridges, ferries, and other works over or upon such river, watercourse, or inland water, so far as the same follows the boundaries or the common boundary of the respective areas.

(2) Where drainage or the natural soakage from land flows or should if not obstructed flow from one area to another the councils may unite in the construction of any works needed to deal therewith.

(3) Where any watercourse lies near to the boundary between two or more areas the councils may unite in the construction and maintenance of any works thereon such as road crossings, ferries, causeways, bridges, drains, and the like, and any works incidental thereto.

Agreements
by councils.
Differences.
See s. 654.

(4) Either of the councils may request the other to enter into an agreement with it for the above purpose, and on failure to agree, a difference under this Act shall be deemed to have arisen.

Application
of section.

(5) This section shall apply—

City of Sydney.

- (a) to municipalities and shires;
- (b) to the city of Sydney, and for that purpose the word "area" includes the city of Sydney; and
- (c) to the Western Division, and for that purpose the word "area" includes the "Western Division," and the word "council" includes the Minister for Public Works.

(6) This section shall apply to things constructed or done at the time of any difference with respect thereto arising, as well as to things to be constructed or done.

523.

523. Any expenditure incurred by a council in George V, pursuance of any agreement or order under this Division No. 41. of this Part shall be lawful expenditure, notwithstanding that the work or object of expenditure may not be within the area of the council.

Expenditure outside boundary legalised.

DIVISION 3.—Power of entry.

524. (1) For the purposes and subject to the provisions of this Act and the ordinances the council and any person authorised by it may—

Entry and other powers. cf. L.G. Act, 1906, s. 105.

- (a) enter upon any land or building at all reasonable hours in the daytime and at any hour during which business is in progress or is usually carried on in the premises ;

Bill, 1915,
s. 448 (2).

(3) In the exercise of any power conferred by this section the council shall—

- (a) do as little damage as possible;
- (b) provide where necessary other means of access or works of accommodation in place of any taken away or interrupted by it.

Holes and pits.

cf. Ibid.,
s. 449.

(4) If in the exercise of any power conferred by this section any pit or hole is made, the council shall if the owner or occupier of the land so requires—

- (a) cause the same to be fenced and kept securely fenced so long as it remains open or not sufficiently sloped down; and

(b)

- (b) without unnecessary delay cause the same to be filled up or levelled or to be sufficiently sloped down. George V,
No. 41.

(5) In respect of any damage under this section, other than damage arising from work done for the purpose of an inspection, the council shall make compensation to all parties interested. Compensation.
cf. Ibid.,
s. 448 (3).
Secs. 581.

(6) In the case of land of which temporary possession has been taken or use made the compensation may be a gross sum or a rent. cf. Ibid.

(7) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this section, materials shall not be removed from land which has been dedicated a State forest under the Forestry Act, 1909 or 1916, except with the consent of the Forestry Commission. State forests excepted.

NATIONAL WORKS.

537. (1) The Governor may by proclamation declare any road, bridge, ferry, wharf, public reserve, or public work of whatever character in any area to be a national work. Miscellaneous public works. Vide L.G. Acts, 1906-8, s. 128.

(2) Thereupon such work, if a new work, shall be constructed subject to the provisions of the Public Works Act, 1912; and such work, whether it be a new work or already in existence, shall be maintained, managed, and administered by the Minister for Public Works.

(3) Any such work may at any later time by proclamation be handed over, either temporarily or permanently, to the council, and shall thereupon be maintained, managed, and administered by the council, and shall cease either temporarily or permanently to be a national work.

(4) Any work in any area which is a national work within the meaning of the Local Government Act, 1906, at the commencement of this Act, shall be a national work within the meaning of this Act.

(5) The Minister for Public Works may appoint any council to be his agent for the care control and management of any national work, and for the enforcement of any ordinance relating thereto, and the council may act upon such appointment notwithstanding that the work may be partly outside the council's area. A council acting upon any such appointment may take legal proceedings in its own name to recover penalties prescribed by or under this Act.

(C) Ordinances may be made for or with respect to the control, management, maintenance, and discontinuance of national works.

538. Where by reason of a large area of Crown lands being thrown open to sale or lease in any area it is necessary to construct new public roads to give access to such lands, and the council shows that the cost of constructing such roads would be largely beyond its financial ability the Minister for Lands may (if the construction Closer settlement roads. cf. money for works.

539. (1) The Minister for Public Works may, at the request of the Minister, construct for a council any work which the council might lawfully construct.

(2) The Minister may, from moneys provided by Parliament for the purpose, make advances to councils for the construction of works.

(3) Before any such work is constructed, or any such advance is made, the Minister may require the council to enter into a contract conditioned to secure the payment by it of annual instalments for defraying—

(a) the cost of the work or the refund of the money advanced or a portion of such cost or money; and

(b) interest on such cost or money at such rate as the Minister may decide.

(4) If any such instalment be not paid on the due date there shall be added thereto a sum equal to ten per centum thereof; and such instalment, together with such additional sum, may be recovered by the Minister.

(5) The provisions of this or any other Act relating to moneys borrowed by councils shall not apply to advances made under this section.

(6) Where before the commencement of this Act the Minister or any other Minister of the Crown has—

(a) expended any public moneys in or for the construction of works for a council; or

(b) made advances of public moneys to a council for the construction of any works; or

(c) in connection with such expenditure or advances entered into any contract or agreement with a council, such expenditure and such advances shall be deemed to have been lawfully made, and such contract or agreement shall be deemed to have been lawfully entered into.

PART XXVII.

George V,
No. 41.

URBAN AREAS.

DIVISION 1.—*Application of this Part.540. Subject to the provisions of this Act—

Application.

- (a) this Part shall apply only to shires and urban areas created or declared therein;
- (b) the powers and duties conferred and imposed upon a council under this Part shall apply in respect of each shire to the council thereof;
- (c) the powers and duties conferred and imposed upon an urban committee shall apply in respect of each urban area to the committee thereof.

DIVISION 2.—Creation and dissolution.

541. (1) An urban area shall be a part of a shire declared by the Governor by proclamation to be an urban area.

Declaration of
urban areas.
cf. L.G. Acts, 1906-8,
s. 108.

(2) The Governor may declare urban areas—

- (a) on the application of the council; or
- (b) if requested so to do by a poll of electors as hereinafter provided.

(3) Urban areas declared under the Acts repealed by this Act shall be urban areas under this Act.

542. (1) Any number of electors may by petition request the council to make application for the declaration of an urban area.

Petitions for.

(2) If the council declines to make application as requested any number of electors of the shire, not less than one hundred, may petition the Minister to hold a public inquiry and to order the taking of a poll.

543. (1) Where the council applies for the declaration of an urban area, and where the Minister proposes to recommend the Governor to grant the application, he shall give notice as prescribed.

against. (2) Within the period specified in the aforesaid notice any number (not less than one hundred) of the electors enrolled in respect of that part of the shire which it is proposed to declare an urban area may petition the Minister to hold a public inquiry and to order the taking of a poll.

Inquiries and polls. 544. (1) Where a petition is made to the Minister as aforesaid the Minister may cause an inquiry to be held, and may grant or refuse the request for the taking of a poll.

(2) Where the Minister grants the request in that behalf he may direct the council to take a poll of the electors enrolled in respect of that part of the shire which, as the result of the inquiry, appears to him to be suitable to declare as an urban area.

(3) The council shall, within six weeks thereafter, take the poll accordingly, and convey to the Minister the result thereof.

(4) The question to be submitted at the poll shall be as to whether the electors are in favour of requesting the Governor to declare the part of the shire aforesaid to be an urban area.

See s. 87. (5) If the decision of the poll be in the affirmative the Minister shall convey the request to the Governor.

Dissolution. 545. (1) The Governor may dissolve urban areas, in accordance with procedure which may be prescribed by ordinance.

(2) Such procedure shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be similar, mutatis mutandis, to the procedure of this Division for the creation or declaration of urban areas.

Various
powers. 546. (1) The Governor may after consultation with the shire council by proclamation—

- (a) give names to urban areas ;
- (b) alter the names so given.

(2) The provisions of sections sixteen and twenty-one of this Act, so far as applicable, shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to urban areas as though they were areas, and to urban committees as though they were councils.

DIVISION 3.—*Powers of the council.*George V.
No. 41.

547. (1) The council of the shire shall have with respect to an urban area all the powers of the council of a municipality with respect to its area. Functions of council.

(2) The proceeds of any local rate levied only in the urban area shall be paid into a separate fund as prescribed, and shall be used only for purposes for the benefit of the urban area.

(3) This section shall be subject to the provisions of Division 4 of this Part.

DIVISION 4.—Urban committees.Establishment.

548. (1) The Governor may proclaim that an urban committee shall be established in respect of an urban area (whether such urban area was created or declared before or after the passing of this Act) — Power to establish.

- (a) on the application of the council; or
- (b) if requested so to do by a poll of electors.

(2) The procedure prescribed in respect of the creation or declaration of urban areas in Division 2 of this Part shall mutatis mutandis apply to the establishment of urban committees.

(3) Ordinances may be made setting out such procedure.

(4) Applications, petitions, inquiries, and polls in respect of the establishment of urban committees may be embodied in and held in conjunction with applications, petitions, inquiries, and polls in respect of the creation or declaration of urban areas, or subsequently to and separately therefrom.

(5) This section shall not apply to the shires of Hornsby, Sutherland, Ku-ring-gai, and Warringah.

549. (1) Where the Governor proclaims that an urban committee shall be established the provisions of this section shall have effect. Election, &c.

(2)

George V,
No. 41.

(2) Within a reasonable time after such proclamation the council shall—

- (a) cause urban area rolls of electors to be compiled by transcribing from the shire rolls the names of persons appearing thereon in respect of the urban area; and
- (b) arrange for and hold an election of an urban committee by the electors of the urban area.

Vide s. 30,
ante et seq.

(3) The provisions of Divisions 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10 of Part IV, and the provisions of Part V of this Act, applicable to areas and to councillors, shall, subject to such modifications as may be prescribed by ordinance or necessarily implied, apply mutatis mutandis to urban areas, and to urban committeemen; but urban areas shall not be divided into wards:

Provided that a shire councillor shall not be qualified to be elected nor to act as committeeman of any urban area within the shire of which he is a councillor.

(4) An urban committee shall consist of three committeemen.

(5) Such committee may elect one of its members to be its chairman.

(6) Subject to the provisions of this Act, an urban committee shall retire from office at the time prescribed for the general retirement of councillors; and the succeeding committee shall be elected at the time of election of the council.

(7) Allowances or travelling expenses shall not be paid by the committee or by the shire council to any urban committeeman.

Powers of urban committees.

Urban committee to fix certain rates, and shire council
to levy.

550. (1) The urban committee shall, at such time in each year as the council may fix, make an estimate of the sum or sums required for the purposes of this Act within the urban area, and make a written request to the shire council for such sum or sums to be raised by a local rate upon lands within the urban area.

(2) Thereupon the council may, in accordance with the provisions of this Act relating to such rate, make and levy such rate.

(3) The moneys collected in respect of any such rate, less an amount not exceeding five per centum of such moneys which may be deducted by the council for administrative expenses, shall each month be paid into appropriate accounts in the name of the urban committee at some bank named by such committee.

George V,
No. 41.

(4) Money raised by a local rate may be expended by the urban committee only for the purposes for which such rate is levied.

(5) Where an urban committee is established the council shall not levy any local rate which is confined to land in the urban area except upon the request of the committee.

(6) Where part or the whole of the moneys of any fund (other than moneys which by this section are required to be paid to the credit of the urban committee) is applicable to works within the urban area the council may vote from such fund moneys to be expended within the urban area by the committee on any works or services chargeable to such fund, or may carry out such works independently of the urban committee.

Shire council
may hand

mittee portion of other funds.

551. (1) Where it is proposed to borrow money, the urban committee shall apply to the council, and the council shall, if it approve, proceed to obtain such loan as elsewhere in this Act provided.

Loans.

(2) Any loan obtained only for the benefit of an urban area shall be secured only upon the credit of a local loan rate which the council shall levy in such area as elsewhere in this Act provided.

Security.

(3) The securities shall be given by the council in accordance with this Act.

(4) Where in case of default a receiver is appointed in respect of any such loan he shall exercise his powers only in respect of the urban area.

Receiver.

(5) The proceeds of any such loan shall be paid by the council to a separate bank account in the name of the urban committee, and shall be applied by the committee as provided in this Act with respect to loan moneys.

Loan
proceeds.

(6) The proceeds of any local rate levied in connection with a loan under this section shall be paid by

George V,
No. 41. by the council to the appropriate fund, and applied as elsewhere in this Act provided with respect to loan rates.

General powers of urban committee.

552. (1) The council may delegate and confer upon the committee any power of the council which it may exercise in the urban area.

(2) The committee shall, without any such delegation, have the powers of the council for the carrying out of—

- (a) the purposes for which any local rate is levied by the council at the request of the committee;
- (b) the purposes for which any moneys are granted by the council for expenditure by the committee;
- (c) the purposes for which any loan is obtained under this Part; and
- (d) nightsoil or garbage removal, or both.

(3) The council may revoke any delegation.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be held to relieve the council of its responsibility or obligation in respect of the exercise of any power or performance of any duty.

Limitation of expenditure.

553. An urban committee shall not (except with the written consent of the council) incur any liability for expenditure in excess of the cash in the bank to its credit.

Suing.

554. (1) An urban committee may not sue or be sued.

(2) Any legal proceedings which but for this section would be brought by or against such urban committee shall be brought by or against the shire council.

DIVISION 5.—Ordinances.

Ordinances.

555. (1) Ordinances may be made for carrying this Part into effect, and in particular for and with respect to—

- (a) meetings of an urban committee;
- (b) the keeping and furnishing of accounts;
- (c) the signing of cheques;
- (d) the powers of the chairman of an urban committee;
- (e)

- (e) the circumstances under which the chairman of an urban committee may give a casting vote in addition to an original vote ;
- (f) the cases in which urban committeemen shall not vote, by reason of pecuniary interest or the interest of their relations ;
- (g) the undertaking and supervision by the shire engineer of work for an urban committee ; and requiring such committee to avail itself of the engineer's services ;
- (h) applying mutatis mutandis to urban committees (subject to the provisions of this Part) any of the provisions of this Act relating to councils.

(2) The provisions of Part XXX relating to the making, alteration, rescission, and enforcement of ordinances shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to this Part and to urban areas as if they were shires.

PART XXVIII.

AQUATIC PESTS.

DIVISION 1.—Application.

556. Subject to the provisions of this Act—

- (a) this Part shall apply to municipalities and shires ; and
- (b) the powers and duties conferred and imposed upon a council under this Part shall apply in respect of each area to the council of the area.

Application
of Part.

DIVISION

George V.
No. 41.

DIVISION 2.—General powers.

Destruction of pests.

557. (1) The council shall have power to destroy aquatic pests, or to remove aquatic pests to and deposit them in any waters which are both tidal and salt within or beyond the area.

Power of entry on land.
Compensation.
See s. 581.

(2) The council may, by itself or its servants, upon any public or private land deposit and destroy any aquatic pest; but shall, in the absence of any agreement with the owner or occupier of any private land, pay fair and reasonable compensation for any damage done by the depositing and destruction on such land of aquatic pests taken from other land.

Navigation.

(3) The council may temporarily obstruct navigation in any waters to a reasonable extent for the purposes of its operations.

See also
s. 466 et seq.

(4) Aquatic pests are hereby declared to be noxious plants in all municipalities and shires for the purposes of this Act without the necessity for any proclamation.

Draining of swamps to destroy aquatic pests.

558. (1) Subject to this Act where a swamp exists on any lands (including Crown lands) the council may, on application by the owner or any one of the owners, and (if objection be lodged as prescribed) after hearing the applicant and objector and any witnesses, drain the swamp for the purpose of destroying or of preventing the growth of any aquatic pest therein.

(2) This section shall apply only where the expenditure in connection with the draining of the swamp will not exceed the sum of five hundred pounds.

(3) The council shall recover the amount of its expenditure in connection with any work carried out under this section together with interest, if any, by a levy upon the persons ratable in respect of the land, in proportion to the quantity of water removed from the land of each, ascertained by survey of the normal level of water in the swamp before it is drained and after.

(4) Such levy shall be made by instalments over a term of not less than five nor more than twenty years, years, shall be paid by the person for the time being ratable in respect of the land, and shall be recoverable as rates. George V.

No. 41.

(5) Where under this section a swamp which is drained is partly situated upon Crown land which is not ratable, the amount of the levy shall be paid by the Crown.

DIVISION 3.—Ordinances.

559. Ordinances may be made for carrying this Part into effect, and in particular for and with respect to— Ordinances.

- (a) requiring the owners or occupiers of any land within a district to destroy aquatic pests on such land;
- (b) specifying the method of destruction to be followed;
- (c) prohibiting the cultivation or transport of aquatic pests, and prohibiting the draining into navigable streams of waters containing aquatic pests except where the approval of the council is obtained to drain such waters into waters which are both tidal and salt.
- (d) requiring persons to destroy or remove trees, scrub, fallen timber, or rubbish in any river, watercourse, or inland waters, tidal or non-tidal, situated on the land owned or occupied by them.

PART XXIX.

COUNTY COUNCILS.

DIVISION 1.—Interpretation.

Definitions. 560. In this Part, unless inconsistent with the context or subject-matter,— “Council concerned” means council whose area is wholly or partly included in a county district.

“Delegation” means delegation of powers from a group of councils of areas to a county council in accordance with this Part.

“District” means a county district constituted under this Act.

DIVISION 2.—County districts.

Constitution
of county
districts.

561. (1) The Governor may, by proclamation, constitute as a county district for local government purposes any groups of wholes and parts of municipalities or shires, or of both municipalities and shires, and may, by proclamation, alter the boundaries of county districts.

(2) Any proclamation hereunder may be rescinded, altered, or varied by the Governor by proclamation.

Naming.

(3) The Governor may, by proclamation, give names to such districts, and may alter such names.

Part III
applied.

(4) The provisions of Part III, so far as applicable, shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to county districts as though they were areas, and to county councils as though they were councils of areas.

DIVISION 3.—County councils.

Constitution
of county
councils.

562. (1) For each county district there shall be a county council composed of the delegates elected as hereinafter provided.

First election of delegates.

(2) On the constitution of a county district the council of each municipality and shire included, or partly included therein, shall forthwith elect one of its members to be a delegate to the county council for such district, and shall inform the Minister of the name and address of such delegate :
Provided

Provided that in any special case where it seems just George V, so to do the Minister may authorise the council of any No. 41.
such municipality or shire to elect more than one delegate:

Provided also that where the number of councils entitled to elect delegates is less than three the Minister may fix the number of delegates to be elected at any number not exceeding seven, and may also fix the number of delegates to be elected by each council.

(3) After each general election of a council of ^{Triennial} a municipality or shire included or partly included in a ^{retirements} district, the council shall forthwith elect one (or such ^{and elections.} other number as the Minister has fixed as aforesaid) of its members to be a delegate, and upon such election the term of office of the delegate theretofore representing such council shall end.

(4) Any delegate may resign his office by letter to the county council. The county council shall thereupon advise the council which elected him.

(5) Where the office of a delegate becomes ^{Filling} vacant, the council by which such delegate was elected ^{vacancies.} shall forthwith elect one of its members to fill the vacancy.

(6) The council shall advise the county ^{Notification.} council of each election of a delegate.

563. (1) A county council shall be a corporate ^{Corporate} body with perpetual succession and a common seal, and ^{body.}

the Minister by letter addressed to each delegate.

(3) The county council shall elect a chairman, ^{Chairman.} who shall preside at its meetings, shall have power to give effect to the resolutions of the county council, and shall have a deliberative vote, and, in case of equal voting, a casting vote. The election of the chairman shall be held—

(a) within one month after the first constitution of the county council; and

(b)

George V.
No. 41.

(b) within the month of January in each year thereafter; and

(c) within one month after the occurrence of a vacancy.

(4) In default of an election within the prescribed time the Governor may appoint a delegate to be the chairman. On the election or appointment of a chairman his predecessor shall cease to hold the office except he be re-elected or appointed.

Minutes.

(5) The county council shall cause minutes to be kept of all resolutions passed at its meetings, and the book containing such minutes shall be open to public inspection at all reasonable times.

Quorum.

(6) A majority in number of the delegates to the county council shall form a quorum; and all meetings duly convened at which a quorum is present shall be competent to transact business.

Procedure.

(7) Meetings of the county council shall be convened and conducted in accordance with the procedure prescribed for meetings of councils of shires so far as the same are applicable.

Meetings.

(8) All meetings of the county council and all its sittings in committee of the whole shall be open to the public.

Annual
report.

(9) The county council shall forward to each shire and municipal council within its district, and to the Minister, a report on its operations and income and expenditure for each year.

Expenses.

See also s. 28.

(10) The county council may, subject to the ordinances in that behalf, pay to its members reasonable allowances towards their expenses in travelling to and from its meetings or on its business.

DIVISION 4.—Functions of county councils.

Powers.

564. (1) A county council may undertake any function delegated to it in accordance with this Act for the joint benefit of the areas included within the county district.

(2) The councils of the municipalities and shires concerned in a district (constituted or proposed) may, by resolution under seal transmitted to the Minister before or after the constitution of the district, request the Governor to delegate to the county council the power to exercise or perform for the benefit of the county district any power or duty which by law those councils or any one of them may exercise or perform; and the delegation may be either particular or general; and in describing any such general power or duty it shall be sufficient to quote the part or section number of the statute prescribing the power or duty.

George V,
No. 41.

Councils may delegate
powers.

(3) Where the request for delegation is made by the majority in number of the councils of the municipalities and shires aforesaid the Governor may proclaim the delegation.

(4) Upon the proclamation of the delegation of powers or duties the county council shall have full power to exercise the powers and shall perform the duties so delegated; and for that purpose it shall have all the powers which by law may be exercised by the council of an area in or in connection with the exercise of the delegated powers and the performance of the delegated duties and the provisions of any laws relating to areas, and their councils shall, mutatis mutandis, apply for the purposes of this Part to county districts and county councils:

Provided that the power to levy rates or the power to borrow shall not be deemed to have been conferred upon a county council unless it is expressly mentioned in the delegation.

Rating and

powers.

(5) Any delegation may be amended or repealed by following, mutatis mutandis, the procedure prescribed for the making of a delegation and a fresh delegation may be made.

565. (1) Before or after the constitution of a county district a majority of the councils concerned therein may, under their common seals, enter into a joint agreement respecting the whole or any part of the powers delegated to the county council, and particularly, in respect of cost.

George V.
No. 41. respect of any matter for which the county council is not authorised to rate, prescribing the manner in which the expenses of the county council are to be met by the municipal and shire councils concerned.

(2) Such joint agreement shall take effect when approved by the Governor after consideration of the fairness of the agreement to the dissenting councils (if any).

(3) The county council shall give effect to any such agreement so approved.

(4) Any such agreement may be amended or repealed by a further agreement made and approved in accordance with this section, and a fresh agreement may in a like manner be made and approved.

See also
s. 567 (2).

(5) In default of any such agreement in respect of any matter for which the county council is not authorised to rate, that council may assess its expenditure upon the municipal and shire councils concerned in like manner to the assessment of cost of destruction of aquatic pests as in this Part provided.

Recovery.

(6) The county council may recover as a debt any sum assessed upon any municipal or shire council in accordance with any such agreement or with this Act and not paid within one month after service of requisition. If any fresh assessment, or correction, or adjustment of assessment be made, then amounts overpaid shall be refunded and amounts short-paid may be recovered.

DIVISION 5.—Aquatic pests destruction—assessment of costs.

Application
of this Division.

566. This division shall apply to a district in which the powers of Part XXVIII of this Act relating to the destruction of aquatic pests have been delegated to the county council.

Estimates.

567. (1) The county council shall, once in each year, prepare estimates in relation to the exercise of such powers, of—

(i) the amount of the proposed expenditure ;

(ii)

- (ii) (a) the amount in hand available for such expenditure ; George V.
No. 41.
- (b) the amount of fines and other revenue likely to be so available ;
- (c) the amount of Government subsidy likely to be so available ;
- (d) the additional amount required to be raised by assessment on the councils concerned for such expenditure.

(2) The county council shall then assess the additional amount required upon the councils concerned in proportion to the unimproved capital value of that portion of the ratable land in each of them which is situated within the district. The estimates and assessment shall be entered in the minutes of the county council. Assessment prc rata according to unimproved
capital value.

(3) The county council shall serve upon each council a copy of the estimates and of the assessment, together with a requisition upon the council for the amount assessed to be paid by it. A copy of such estimates and assessment shall be forwarded by the county council to the Minister. Requisition for payment.

(4) Any council so assessed may make representations in writing to the county council against the estimates and assessment if it consider that the estimates are excessive, or that there has been an error in calculating the assessment ; and the county council may in its discretion thereupon amend its estimates, and make a fresh assessment accordingly, or may correct errors of calculation of assessment, and make a fresh assessment to adjust the errors. Amended assessments.

(5) A council so assessed may pay the amount of the assessment from the appropriate fund, or from the proceeds of a special or local rate for the purpose. Council may pay from general fund.

568. In respect of the destruction of aquatic pests there shall, if funds be voted by Parliament, be payable to the county council six half-yearly subsidies as follows :— Subsidy.

- (a) For the first half-year, that is to say for the period between the constitution of the district and the end of the half-year in which the constitution

- (b) For the second half-year, a subsidy at the rate of twenty shillings as aforesaid.
- (c) For the third and fourth half-years respectively a subsidy at the rate of fifteen shillings as aforesaid.
- (d) For the fifth and sixth half-years respectively a subsidy at the rate of ten shillings as aforesaid.

Validation—Richmond River County
Council.

569. (1) For the purposes of this section this Part of this Act shall be deemed to have come into force on the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen.

(2) The body known as the Richmond River Water Hyacinth Board shall be deemed to have been constituted as the Richmond River County Council in accordance with this Part, and the acts of the said board done after the said date, so far as they are within the provisions of this Act, shall be deemed to have been done by the said county council in pursuance of this Act as if this Act had been in force when they were so done.

(3) The Governor may, by proclamation as hereinbefore provided, constitute a district in respect of the said Richmond River County Council; and such district shall be deemed to have been constituted on and from the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen.

(4) The delegation to the Richmond River County Council of the powers of Part XXVIII of this Act shall be deemed to have been proclaimed on the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen.

(5) The assessments and subsidies paid to the Richmond River Water Hyacinth Board before the commencement of this Act in anticipation of its passing are hereby validated.

(6) If before the commencement of this Act any council or the Treasurer has paid less or more to the funds of the Richmond River County Council than, according according to the provisions of this Act, should have been paid, an adjustment shall be made according to the provisions of this Act, so that surpluses received by the county council shall be credited against future liabilities of the Treasurer or municipal or shire council, as the case may be, and deficiencies may be recovered by the county council as debts.

See also
s. 599 (1) (g).
Proceedings.

597. (1) Proceedings for the recovery of any rate may be by action at law for the amount due in respect of the rate or by suit in equity for the enforcement of the charge on the land.

(2) All rates due and payable by the same person, whether in respect of the same or of different land, may be recovered in one action or suit. cf. L.G. Act,
1906, s. 144
(7).

(3) Where the proceedings are taken in a district court or in a court of petty sessions, the proceedings may be taken in the court for the district in which any of the land is situated, or in the court nearest to the office of the council or to the residence of the defendant as the council may decide, whether the rates are in respect of land in the same or in different districts. cf. Ibid.,
s. 144 (7).

(4) Nothing in this section shall preclude the taking of separate proceedings or the taking of proceedings in any district court or court of petty sessions available

George V, available under the provisions of the District Courts Act, No. 41. 1912, or the Small Debts Recovery Act, 1912.

Plaintiff's case.
cf. L.G. Act,
1906, s. 146.

598. (1) In any proceedings by or on behalf of a council for the recovery of any rate, proof shall not, except as provided in this section, be required of the rate or of the right to the amount claimed in respect thereof.

(2) Where the proceedings are taken within ten years after the year in respect of which the rate is claimed, proof may be required—

- (a) of the amount due in respect of the rate; and
- (b) that the rate notice has been duly served.

(3) Where the proceedings are taken more than ten years after the year in respect of which the rate is claimed, proof may be required of the amount due in respect of the rate.

(4) In order to prove the amount due in respect of the rate it shall be sufficient to prove entries in the rate-book purporting to show the amount debited in respect of the rate.

(5) In order to prove that the rate notice has been duly served it shall be sufficient to prove that the notice was served in any of the modes provided for by this Act; and objection shall not be taken to the notice on the ground of any error or omission therein, if in the opinion of the court the notice sufficiently indicates the land intended to be rated and the person intended to be served.

(6) Unless an appropriate plea notice of defence or statement of defence, as the case may be, is duly filed, proof shall not be required of any of the matters of which proof might otherwise be required under this section.

Defendant's case.
cf. L.G. Act,
1906, s. 146
(3).
NOTE.—As to validity of rates see s. 602.

599. (1) If an appropriate plea notice of defence or statement of defence, as the case may be, is duly filed, the defendant may dispute his liability for the rate or for part thereof, as the case may be, on any one or more of the following grounds, that is to say—

- (a) that the amount debited in the rate-book in respect of the rate has been debited through fraud, erroneous calculation, clerical mistake, or accidental slip;

(b)

- (b) that the rate notice was not duly served ; George V,
No. 41.
- (c) that the defendant is not and was not at any relevant time a ratable person in respect of the rate: Provided that this ground shall not apply where the proceedings are against the defendant as a person who would not be liable except for his occupation of the land ; cf s. 150
ante.
- (d) that the proceedings are against the defendant as a person who would not be liable except for his occupation of the land, and that the conditions (including the occupation and demand for payment) in virtue of which the council is entitled to recover from the person so in occupation have not been fulfilled ; cf s. 150
ante.
- (e) that the proceedings should not under the provisions of this Act have been taken against the defendant unless and until the council had in proceedings against some other specified person failed to obtain payment from such person, and that the council has not so failed ; cf s. 151
ante.
- (f) that the defendant has by payment or otherwise ceased to be liable for the rate ;
- (g) that the liability did not accrue within twenty years before the proceedings were taken.

(2) Except as provided in this section, the defendant shall not be allowed to dispute his liability on any ground whatever.

600. (1) In any proceedings for the recovery of any rate, and subject to the provisions of this section— Evidence.
cf. L.G. Act,
1906, s. 146

- (a) an entry in the rate-book, the entry being one of a series prescribed to be made, shall be evidence of the matters therein recorded ; (2).

- (b) a copy of an entry in the rate-book, the entry being one of a series prescribed to be made, shall be evidence of the entry and of the matters therein recorded. See s. 616 (4) and 622.

(2) The entry shall not be received in evidence under this section, unless the series of which it is one purports to have been sealed with the seal of the council and to have been signed by the mayor or president and countersigned by the town or shire clerk.

George V,
No. 41.

(3) If the entry is one of a series which purports to have been sealed signed and countersigned as aforesaid, the entry shall until the contrary is shown be presumed to be one of a series prescribed to be made, and shall be received in evidence without proof of the seal or of the signatures or official characters of the persons appearing to have signed or countersigned the series.

(4) The copy of an entry shall not be received in evidence under this section unless the copy purports to be certified under the hand of the town or shire clerk as a true copy of an entry in a series prescribed to be made and purporting to have been duly sealed signed and countersigned as aforesaid.

(5) If the copy purports to be certified as aforesaid, the copy shall until the contrary is shown be presumed to be a copy of an admissible entry, and shall be received in evidence without proof of the signature or official character of the person appearing to have certified the same.

601. (1) In any proceedings for the recovery of any rate, objection to the validity of the rate shall not be allowed nor avail to prevent the recovery of the rate.

(2) A jurisdiction otherwise competent shall not be ousted on the ground that the title to the land, or that any annual rent or other matter in which rights in future may be bound, or that any general right or duty, is in question, but the decision in the proceedings shall not be evidence in any other court or in any other proceedings in relation to any such matter.

Sale of land by the Public Trustee.

Application
for sale.
cf. L.G. Act,
1906, s. 148.

602. (1) Where any rate levied in respect of any land before or after the commencement of this Act is overdue for more than seven years, the council may apply to the Public Trustee to sell the land under this Act.

(2) Application for the sale shall —

- (a) be made as prescribed ;
- (b) be accompanied by a certificate in writing signed by the town or shire clerk, stating what rates rates are due or payable to the council in respect of the land, with particulars of the rates, and when the same became due or payable ;

- (c) be supported by such evidence as may be prescribed ; and
- (d) be accompanied by a deposit for expenses of such amount as the Public Trustee may deem reasonable.

603. (1) The Public Trustee shall—

Powers and duties of the Public
Trustee.

- (a) fix a convenient time (being not more than six months and not less than three months from the date of the application) and a convenient place for the sale ;
- (b) give such notice of the sale as he may deem sufficient by advertisement in the Gazette and in a newspaper ; and
- (c) make such searches against the land and give such notice (if any) as he may deem reasonable or practicable to any person who appears from search to be interested in the land.

(2) The Public Trustee may—

- (a) sell the land under such conditions of sale as he may deem proper ;
- (b) employ an auctioneer ; and
- (c) do such other acts as he may deem expedient for selling the land at its full value and for carrying out the sale.

(3) If the land is not sold at the time originally fixed, the Public Trustee may from time to time fix such time and place as he may deem proper, and may in his discretion sell the land by private contract if a satisfactory offer is received in the meantime.

(4) If the land is sold the purchase money shall be paid to the Public Trustee, and his receipt shall be an effectual discharge to the purchaser therefor.

(5) At any sale under this section the council may bid for land and may purchase the fee-simple of the land without obtaining the approval of the Governor to such purchase.

Conveyance or transfer of the land.

cf. Public Works Act,
1912, s. 43.

604. (1) The Public Trustee upon payment to him of the purchase money may convey or transfer the land to the purchaser by virtue of the authority conferred by this Act :

Provided that if the land has only been brought under the provisions of the Real Property Act, 1900, for an estate less than the fee-simple the land shall be conveyed and transferred by two separate instruments, that is to say by a conveyance so far as the estate not under the provisions of that Act is concerned, and by a transfer so far as the estate under the provisions of that Act is concerned.

(2) Any conveyance or transfer by the Public Trustee purporting to be made under this Act shall vest the land in the purchaser for an estate in fee-simple in possession, freed and discharged from all trusts obligations estates interests contracts charges and rates, but subject to any exceptions and reservations in any Crown grant and to any easements restrictive covenants and public rights of way affecting the land :

Provided that where the land has only been brought under the provisions of the Real Property Act, 1900, for an estate less than the fee-simple, the two separate instruments of conveyance and transfer by the Public Trustee purporting to be made under this Act shall be necessary so to vest the land, but shall not operate to bring the fee-simple under the provisions of the Real Property Act, 1900, and the transfer shall for the purposes of that Act pass only the estate already under the provisions thereof :

Provided also that where the land or any estate therein is under the provisions of the Real Property Act, 1900, the Mining Act, 1906, or the Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913—

- (a) the transfer shall by virtue of this Act be registrable under the provisions of the Act concerned, notwithstanding anything in such Act contained ;
- (b) the transfer shall not operate at law until the same is registered under the Act concerned.

(3)

(3) Where the land or any estate therein is under the provisions of the Real Property Act, 1900, the Registrar-General upon the production to him of any transfer made by the Public Trustee and purporting to be made under this Act shall register the transferee as the proprietor of the land or estate as the case may be :

George V,
No. 41.

Provided that—

- (a) the Registrar-General may make such entries notifications and cancellations in the register-book as are required to give effect to the provisions of this section ;
- (b) except as regards such of the following as may immediately before the registration of the transferee as proprietor be notified on the folium of the register-book constituted by the Crown grant or certificate of title, that is to say except as regards any exceptions or reservations in a Crown grant or any easements restrictive covenants and public rights of way affecting the land and so notified, it shall not be necessary for the Registrar-General to make any entries or notifications of any of the same, and it shall be sufficient to notify on the folium of the register-book from time to time constituted by the Crown grant or certificate of title that the proprietor holds subject to the provisions of this section ;
- (c) unless the duplicate Crown grant or certificate of title is presented with the transfer, the Registrar-General shall cancel the folium of the register book constituted by the Crown grant or certificate of title, and shall make out to the transferee a certificate of title ;
- (d) in any case where the duplicate Crown grant or certificate of title is not presented with the transfer, such duplicate shall be deemed to be wrongfully retained within the meaning of subsection one of section one hundred and thirty-six of the Real Property Act, 1900, and the provisions of that Act applicable in respect of a grant certificate or instrument wrongfully retained shall apply in respect of such duplicate ;
- (e)

George V,
No. 41.

- (e) the forms to be used for carrying this section into effect may be prescribed by ordinance ;
- (f) the fees payable to the Registrar-General for the making of any entry, notification, or cancellation or doing any act under the authority of this section may be prescribed by ordinance.

(4) Neither the purchaser nor the Registrar-General nor any official to whom a transfer made by the Public Trustee and purporting to be made under this Act is produced for registration shall be concerned to inquire whether the provisions of this Act in respect of the sale or transfer have been complied with or otherwise into the regularity or validity of the sale or transfer.

The Public
Trustee Act,
1913.

605. (1) Any moneys which come into the hands or under the control of the Public Trustee under this Act shall be deemed to be moneys which come into his hands or under his control within the meaning of the Public Trustee Act, 1913.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act the powers duties and immunities conferred on the Public Trustee by the Public Trustee Act, 1913, shall mutatis mutandis be deemed to be conferred on the Public Trustee in relation to this Act.

Application
of purchase
money.

606. (1) Any purchase money received by the Public Trustee under this Act shall be applied by him to the following purposes and in the following order, that is to say, in or towards the payment of—

- (a) firstly, the fees and expenses of the Public Trustee ;
- (b) secondly, the expenses of the council as assessed by the Public Trustee ;
- (c) thirdly, any rate or charge due to the council ;
- (d) fourthly, any debt (of which the Public Trustee has notice) due to the King ;
- (e) fifthly, any rate or charge (of which the Public Trustee has notice) due to any other rating authority.

(2) Notwithstanding that the amount (if any) paid by the Public Trustee to the council or to any other rating authority in or towards expenses or rates is insufficient insufficient therefor, the council or other rating authority, as the case may be, on receiving the amount (if any) paid as aforesaid or on receiving notice in writing from the Public Trustee that no money is available for the purpose, shall treat the amount due in respect of the expenses or rates as satisfied and discharged, and any deficiency shall be written off the books of account of the council or rating authority accordingly.

George V.
No. 41.

607. Any balance of the purchase money shall subject to the provisions of this Act be held by the Public Trustee in trust for the persons having estates or interests in the land immediately before the sale according to their respective estates and interests.

Balance to be held in trust.

608. (1) Where the balance of the purchase money does not exceed five hundred pounds, the Public Trustee may pay and distribute the balance or any part thereof to or among the persons who are in his opinion clearly entitled thereto, and the receipt of the person to whom any payment or distribution is so made shall be an effectual discharge to the Public Trustee therefor.

Balance not exceeding £500.

(2) If the Public Trustee has any doubt as to the title of any person to the balance or any part thereof, he may pay transfer or deposit the same to or with the Master in Equity under Part III of the Trustee Act, 1898.

609. Where the balance of the purchase money exceeds five hundred pounds, the Public Trustee shall pay the same to the Master in Equity under Part III of the Trustee Act, 1898.

Balance
exceeding £500.

610. (1) For the purposes of sections fifty-nine, sixty-one, and sixty-three of the Trustee Act, 1898—

Part III of the Trustee
Act, 1898.

- (a) the particular trust in the matter of which the balance of the purchase money or any part thereof is paid transferred or deposited by the Public Trustee to or with the Master in Equity may be described as a trust for the persons entitled to the balance of purchase money of land (described so as to be distinguishable) sold by the Public Trustee for rates due to the council;

(b)

George V,
No. 41.

(b) notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this subsection, the Supreme Court in its equitable jurisdiction may in any particular case or by any general rule in that behalf direct in what manner the balance or any part thereof is to be paid transferred or deposited to or with the Master in Equity.

(2) Sections sixty and sixty-two of the Trustee Act, 1898, shall not be deemed to apply to the balance or any part thereof paid transferred or deposited to or with the Master in Equity in pursuance of this Act.

Payment to the council
after twenty years.

611. (1) If the balance of the purchase money or any part thereof has been in the hands or under the control of the Public Trustee for more than twenty years, and he has no information or knowledge of the existence of any person entitled or claiming to be entitled thereto, the Public Trustee shall pay and transfer the same to the council.

(2) If the balance of the purchase money or any part thereof has been paid transferred or deposited to or with the Master in Equity under Part III of the Trustee Act, 1898, and at the expiration of twenty years from such payment transfer or deposit the Master in Equity has no information or knowledge of the existence of any person entitled or claiming to be entitled thereto, the Supreme Court in its equitable jurisdiction on application by the council shall, unless the court deems that there is some special reason to the contrary, order that the balance or any part thereof, as the case may be, be paid transferred and delivered out to the council:

Provided that nothing in this subsection shall preclude the council from making any subsequent application.

(3) Where the balance or any part thereof is paid transferred or delivered out to the council, whether under subsection one or under subsection two of this section, the council shall be deemed to be the person solely entitled thereto, and any title of any other person thereto shall be deemed to be barred and extinguished: Provided that the council may at any time after receiving any balance under this subsection pay the balance to any person who may prove to the council's satisfaction that he would, but for the provisions of this Act, be entitled thereto.

(4) In any case where there has been an alteration of areas affecting the council originally entitled to receive the balance the Public Trustee or the court, as the case may be, may pay such balance to the council which in his or its opinion and under the circumstances of the particular case is entitled to represent such first mentioned council.

George V.
No. 41.

(5) Any balance or part thereof paid transferred or delivered out to the council as aforesaid shall be allocated by the council to such fund as the council may determine.

612. In this Act any reference to the balance of the purchase money of any land sold by the Public Trustee under this Act shall include any investments representing the same and any interest thereon.

References to balance.

613. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, the Public Trustee shall be entitled—

Fees and expenses of the Public
Trustee.

- (a) to retain out of the purchase money of any land sold by him under this Act all proper fees and expenses due to or incurred by him in relation to this Act, and to charge the same to or between the shares of any persons entitled or claiming to be entitled to the balance of the purchase money, as he may deem just ;
- (b) to recover from the council all proper fees and expenses due to or incurred by him in relation to this Act, so far as the same are not retained by him out of any purchase money.

614. Where any council has taken possession of and leased any land under section one hundred and forty-eight of the Local Government Act, 1906, the provisions of this Act in respect to the sale of land by the Public Trustee shall not apply until the expiration of the lease, but if at such expiration any rate levied in respect of the land before or after the commencement of this Act is overdue the rate shall be deemed to be overdue for seven years within the meaning of those provisions and the same shall apply accordingly.

Land seized under repealed Act.

DIVISION 6.—Legal and other proceedings—Recovery of charges, fees, and other debts.

615. (1) If any charge or fee is due and payable to the council for more than six months, proceedings for the recovery thereof shall forthwith be taken.

Proceeding for the recovery of charges and fees.

(2)

George V,
No. 41.

(2) Proceedings for the recovery of the charge or fee may, notwithstanding any statute of limitations or anything contained in this Act, be taken at any time within six years from the date when the same became due and payable.

(3) Any charge or fee may be recovered separately or in the same proceedings with any other charge or fee or with any rate or money and in any competent court : and if it is sought to recover any rate in the same proceedings, the proceedings may be taken in any court in which proceedings for the recovery of the rate may be taken.

cf. Evidence
Act, 1898,
s. 45.
See ss. 601
and 622.

(4) In any proceedings for the recovery of a charge or fee, a copy of an entry in a book of account of the council shall be evidence of the matters therein recorded :

Provided that it be first proved orally or by affidavit—

- (a) that the book was at the time of the making of the entry one of the ordinary books of the council ;
- (b) that the entry was made in the usual and ordinary course of business ;
- (c) that the book is in the custody or control of the council ; and
- (d) that the copy has been examined with the original entry and is correct.

(2) A misnomer or inaccurate description or omission of description in any proclamation or notification under this Act shall not affect the operation of the proclamation or notification.

Public
inquiries.
cf. L.G. Act,
1906, s. 201.

649. (1) The Governor or the Minister may appoint any one or more persons a commissioner to hold a public inquiry and to report to the Governor or the Minister, as the case may be, with respect to—

- (a) any matter relating to the carrying out of the provisions of this or any other Act conferring powers or imposing duties on the council; and
- (b) any act or omission of any member of the council or of any servant of the council or of any person elected or appointed to any office or position under this or any other Act conferring powers or imposing duties on the council—such act or omission having relation to the carrying out of the provisions of the Act referred to, or to the office or position held by the member, servant, or person under the said Act, or to the powers or duties of that office or position.

(2) The provisions of the Royal Commissioners Evidence Act, 1901, and the provisions of section one hundred and fifty-two of the Justices Act, 1902, shall mutatis mutandis apply to any commissioner appointed under this section.

Structures
below high-water mark.

650. (1) The council shall not erect any structure below high-water mark—

- (a) in the port of Sydney, without first obtaining the approval of the Sydney Harbour Trust Commissioners; or

(b)

- (b) elsewhere than in the port of Sydney, without first obtaining the approval of the Minister for Lands. George V,
No. 41.

(2) The expression "the port of Sydney" in this section shall have the same meaning as the expression "the port" in section three of the Sydney Harbour Trust Act, 1900.

651. Unless the contrary is expressly provided by any Act passed after the commencement of this Act, taxes and stamp duties shall not be chargeable or payable under any Act now or hereafter in force upon— Exemption from taxes.

- (a) any land vested in or under the management and control of the council;
- (b) any property or income of the council;
- (c) any receipt or acquittance given by one servant of a council to another in the course of the internal administration of the council's business; and
- (d) any receipt for any money, or for the return of any money deposited by any person with the council in relation to any contract entered into by him with the council, or in relation to any tender made by him for any contract with the council.

(2) This section shall not be deemed to extend to any rate or assessment made or levied by—

- (a) another council;
- (b) the Board of Water Supply and Sewerage;
- (c) the Board of Fire Commissioners of New South Wales.

652. The provisions of this Act shall be read subject to the provisions of the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act. The Commonwealth Constitution.

653. Where the boundary of any area has been described in any proclamation as being high-water mark on the ocean, such area shall, from the commencement of this Act, include the land between high-water mark and low-water mark on the said ocean, and include any river, creek, or inlet of the sea, within a straight line connecting two points at low-water mark opposite the outermost points of the headlands at the entrance of any such river, creek, or inlet of the sea. Extension of boundaries

Disputes

George V,
No. 41.

Disputes between councils, &c., may be submitted to Minister.

Disputes between councils, &c.

654. (1) If any difference, whether arising out of the construction of this Act or not, arise between the councils of any two or more areas, with respect to the carrying out of the provisions of this Act, or with respect to the fulfilment and exercise of the duties, powers, privileges, or authorities of councils under any Act, either council may submit such difference to the Minister, who may refer the matter for inquiry to some person appointed by him in that behalf, or may himself make such inquiry.

(2) The Minister may thereupon make such order as in the public interest and in the circumstances of the case may seem to him just and equitable, and by such order may direct the payment of any costs and expenses incidental to the conduct of the inquiry.

cf. Arbitration Act, 1902, s. 14.

(3) Any such order may, upon the application of the Minister or of either council, by leave of the Supreme Court, or a judge thereof, be enforced in the same manner as a judgment or order of the said court to the same effect. A writ of attachment shall not be issued to enforce payment of any money, costs, or expenses under any such order; but writs of fieri facias or capias ad satisfaciendum, and such other writs as may be necessary, may be issued by order of the court, or of the Judge, and every such order shall have the force and effect of a judgment at law or decree in equity.

Disputes between councils and Government Departments may be submitted to Minister.

(4) If any difference as aforesaid arise between any council and any department of the Government the parties to such dispute may mutually agree to submit the matter in dispute to the Minister, and in any such case the provisions of this section shall apply to the settlement of the dispute as if such dispute were between the councils of any two or more areas.

Meaning of Department.

(5) "Department of the Government" shall for the purposes of this section extend to and include—

- (a) the Railway Commissioners for New South Wales;
- (b) the Sydney Harbour Trust Commissioners;
- (c) the Board of Fire Commissioners of New South Wales;

SCHEDULE THREE.

Temporary provisions until a valuation list is furnished to the council by the Valuer-General in accordance with the Valuation of Land Act, 1916. Vide s. 137, ante

1. For the purposes of this Act the provisions of this Schedule shall apply to all ratable land within the area of a council, including land owned by the Crown and land held under lease from the Crown. Application of Schedule.

2. (1) The unimproved capital value of land shall be the capital sum which the fee-simple of the land might be expected to realise if offered for sale on such reasonable terms and conditions as a bona-fide seller would require, assuming that the improvements, if any, thereon or appertaining thereto, and made or acquired by the owner or his predecessor in title had not been made : Unimproved capital value.
cf. Valuation of Land Act, 1916, ss. 6, 58 (2) (3).

Provided that there shall be a reasonable deduction for profitable expenditure by the owner or occupier on visible and effective improvements (if any) which although not upon the land have been constructed for its drainage, for its protection from inundation, or otherwise for its more beneficial use.

(2) The deduction (if any) under this section shall be noted separately in the valuation book and in the notice of valuation ; and objection may be made thereto under this Schedule. cf. Valuation of Land Act, 1916, s. 53 (3).

(3) This section shall be subject to the special provisions of this Schedule relating to mines.

3. The improved capital value of land shall be the capital sum which the fee-simple of the land might be expected to realise if offered for sale on such reasonable terms and conditions as a bona-fide seller would require. Improved capital value.
cf. Ibid. s. 5.

4. The assessed annual value of land shall be nine-tenths of the fair average annual value of the land, with the improvements (if any) thereon : Assessed annual value.
cf. Ibid. s. 7.

Provided that such assessed annual value shall not be less than five per centum of the improved capital value of the land.

5. A valuation of ratable land may be made or adopted in accordance with the provisions of this Schedule.

Making or adopting valuation.

6. (1) There shall be a valuation of the unimproved capital value of all ratable land in municipalities and shires. Compulsory and optional valuations.

(2)

George V,
No. 41.

cf. L.G. Act,
1906-1908, s. 135
(1).

(2) There shall be a valuation of the improved capital value and assessed annual value of all ratable land within a municipality.

(3) There shall be a valuation of the assessed annual value of all ratable land in urban areas.

(4) There may be a valuation of the improved capital value and the assessed annual value of all ratable land within a shire.

First valuations.

7. (1) In the case of the first valuation of the unimproved capital value improved capital value and assessed annual value under this Schedule, the council may—

(a) adopt (if the Minister's approval is obtained beforehand) any corresponding valuation made or adopted under the Local Government Act, 1906, by any council, if the valuation is in force at the date of the commencement of this Act, or has been made at that date and would but for this Act come into force on the 1st day of January next following that date; or

(b) cause any valuation to be made under this Schedule.

(2) Subject to the provisions made by or under this Act—

(a) The first valuation adopted or made in accordance with this section shall come into force on either the first day of January preceding or the same day following the adoption or making as the council may decide.

(b) Any valuation (after the first) made in accordance with this section shall come into force on the first day of January next following the making.

(c) A valuation adopted or made as aforesaid (together with any amendments made therein in accordance with law) shall remain in force until a fresh valuation comes into force.

cf. L.G. Act,
1906, s. 135 (3).
cf. Act No. 28,
1908, s. 23.

Valuation
periods.

cf. L.G. Act,
1906, s. 135 (1).

8. (1) A valuation of all ratable land shall be made—

(a) once at least in every three years;

(b) for a valuation period, that is to say, for a period not exceeding three years.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act the council may cause any valuation of any ratable land to be made at any time, whether during the currency of any valuation period or otherwise.

Inclusive
valuations.

cf. Valuation of Land Act, 1916,
s. 26.

9. (1) Where several parcels of land adjoin, are owned by the same person, are of the same class of tenure, and no part is let to any person they shall be included in one valuation, unless the council otherwise directs:

Provided that any such parcels of land shall be valued separately if buildings are erected thereon which are obviously adapted to separate occupation.

(2) Where several parcels of land adjoin, are owned by the same person, are of the same class of tenure, and are all let to one person, they shall be included in one valuation, unless the council otherwise directs.

Separate
valuations.

cf. Ibid., s. 27.

10. (1) Where several parcels of land owned by the same person are not of the same class of tenure, or are separately let to different persons, they shall be separately valued.

[(2) Lands which do not adjoin or which are separated by a public road, or are separately owned, shall be separately valued.

)

(3) Where a part of a parcel of land which has been valued is sold conveyed or resumed, fresh valuations shall be made of the portion sold conveyed or resumed and of the part remaining. George V, No. 41.

(4) Where a part only of a parcel of land is subject to a particular rate, the value of such parcel shall be apportioned so as to show separately the value of that part which is subject to the particular rate.

(5) Where a part only of a parcel of land is ratable, the part which is ratable shall be separately valued. cf. Valuation of Land Act, 1916, s. 28.

11. Where any land in respect of which one valuation would otherwise be made under this Schedule is not wholly within the area but extends both inside and outside the area, the part within the area shall be separately valued. Land extending outside the area.

12. (1) In the case of every mine the unimproved capital value thereof shall be ascertained by one or other of the following methods of valuation as the council, either generally or for some period or mine only, may direct, that is to say— Mines - unimproved capital value. cf. L.G. Act, 1906, s. 132 (2). See also s. 153 et seq. of this Act.

(a) by valuation of the unimproved value in accordance with section 2 of this Schedule; or

(b) by valuation based on output in accordance with this section; or

(c) in the case of an undeveloped mine or of a mine which is idle or partially idle by multiplying the annual rent (if any) of the mine by twenty.

(2) In the case of a coal or shale mine the unimproved capital value thereof ascertained by valuation based on output shall be a sum equal to 3s. per ton of large coal or shale, and 1s. 6d. per ton of small coal, on the average annual output from the mine during the three years next preceding the year in which the valuation is made, or during such part of that time as the mine has been worked. cf. L.G. Act, 1906, s. 132 (2) (a).

(3) In the case of a mine other than a coal or shale mine the unimproved capital value thereof ascertained by valuation based on output shall be a sum equal to 20 per centum of the average annual saleable value to the mine-owner of the ore or mineral won from the mine or of the product derived from such ore or mineral during the three years next preceding the year in which the valuation is made, or during such part of that time as the mine has been worked, such value to be determined as such ore, mineral, or product leaves the area within which such mine is situate. cf. Ibid., s. 132 (2) (b).

(4) Where a valuation is being made, under paragraph (a) of subsection one of this section, of land other than Crown land, the presence of any mineral or mine which is held with the land by the owner of the land, and is not being worked as a mine, shall be taken into account in the valuation.

13. (1) Where a mine is situated partly in one area and partly in another or others, the valuers of such areas shall confer and shall jointly value the mine, and shall in like manner agree upon the apportionment of such valuation between the areas in which such mine is situated. Mines in two or more areas— joint valuation. cf. L.G. Act, 1906, s. 132 (2e).

(2) If the valuers cannot agree upon such apportionment or valuation, the question shall, upon the application of either of the valuers, be referred to the nearest court of petty sessions. The decision of that court as to apportionment shall be final. (3)

(4) Where any part of a mine is separately let or sublet to and occupied by any person for residential, business, grazing, or agricultural purposes, such part shall be deemed to be distinct from the mine, and shall be valued and rated accordingly.

14. (1) Every valuation shall be made by one or more competent valuers appointed by the council as prescribed.

(2) Every valuer shall before acting—

(a) make a statutory declaration before a justice of the peace that he will value impartially and truly; and

(b) deliver the declaration to the town or shire clerk.

(3) Where a mine is situated in two or more areas, the council of any one of those areas may at any time require the council of the other areas to appoint valuers for the purpose of making a joint valuation of the mine.

(4) Every valuer may at all times during the day enter on any land for the purposes of this Act; and the owner or occupier or manager thereof shall answer any questions put to him by the valuer, and generally afford all necessary information to enable a correct valuation to be made.

(5) Where a valuation is to be made of a mine the valuer shall have power to call for and inspect the books, accounts, balance-sheets, reports, and transactions in respect of such mine, or certified extracts therefrom, and a statement showing the extent and value of the total output of the mine.

(6) Every person who in any way obstructs or hinders any valuer in the exercise of his functions under this Act, or refuses to answer any relevant question or to afford any information in his power when duly required to do so, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £10.

15. (1) Every valuation shall be entered in a valuation book.

(2) The valuation book shall be kept as prescribed.

(3) Subject to the provisions of this Act any particulars in the valuation book may be entered in the rate book.

16. (1) Alterations may be made in the valuation book by resolution of the council at any time in any case where—

(a) it is found there has been an error as to the area, ownership, or occupation of land;

(b) the valuer certifies in writing that he has made an arithmetical mistake in calculation of values; or

(c) there has been a change of owners or occupiers and it is necessary in consequence to alter the names and other particulars forming part of the entry of the valuation.

(2) Where any land has been subdivided, and a portion sold or let, the valuation of the land and any unpaid rates may be apportioned accordingly by the council on the recommendation of the valuer.

(3) Alterations and apportionments under the preceding subsections of this section shall, for the purposes of notice and of objection, be deemed to be valuations.

(4) Other minor errors in the valuation book not affecting the amount at which the land is valued may be altered as prescribed. George V, No. 41.

(5) An alteration in the valuation book made in conformity with this Schedule shall be initialled by the town or shire clerk ; and, where a resolution of the council is necessary to authorise the alteration, a reference to the minute of the resolution shall be inserted in the valuation book.

17. (1) Notice of valuation shall be given by service of a valuation notice. Notice of valuation, cf. L.G. Act, s. 135 (5).

(2) The notice—

- (a) shall be in or to the effect of the form prescribed ;
- (b) may include any number of separate valuations provided that each valuation shall be separately shown ;
- (c) may be included in a rate notice ;
- (d) may designate any ratable person, whose name is unknown to the council, as “ the owner ” without stating his name ; cf. Ibid. s. 135 (6).
- (e) shall state a time not being less than thirty days after service within which any person ratable in respect of the land may lodge with the clerk a written objection to the valuation ; cf. Valuation of Land Act, 1916, s. 29 (1).
- (f) may be served in any manner provided by this Act for the service of notices by the council ;
- (g) shall be served upon every person ratable in respect of the land :

Provided that where more than one person is ratable in respect of any land, and the notice is served upon one or more of such persons, the omission to serve the notice upon any other ratable person shall not affect the liability of the land or of any ratable person upon whom the notice is served :

Provided also that in the case of the lessee of private land the liability for and the right to recover rates shall not (unless the name of the lessee is on the roll of ratepayers) be affected by reason only of the fact that notice has not been given to the lessee. cf. L.G. Act, 1906, s. 135 (5).

(3) Where the Crown is the ratable person the council shall comply with any request of the Treasurer for the grouping or separation of rates on rate notices.

18. (1) Any ratable person may object to any valuation of any land in respect of which he is ratable. Objections.

(2) The objection shall—

- (a) be in or to the effect of the form prescribed ;
- (b) be lodged with the clerk of the council and with the registrar of the valuation court within the time stated in the valuation notice. Form and time, cf. Valuation of Land Act, 1916, s. 33.

(3) The only grounds upon which objection may be taken under this section shall be— cf. Ibid. s. 29 (3). Grounds, cf. Ibid. s. 34.

- (a) that the values assigned are wrong ;
- (b) that lands which should be included in one valuation have been valued separately ;
- (c) that lands which should be valued separately have been included in one valuation ;
- (d) that any apportionment of the valuation is not correct ;

(e)

George V,
No. 41.

- (e) that the person named in or served with the valuation notice as a ratable person in respect of the land is not such a ratable person ;
- (f) that the land is not ratable or that it is not ratable to any particular rate.

Pendency.

cf. Valuation of Land Act, 1916,
s. 33a

(4) The fact that an objection has been lodged shall not affect the valuation which is objected to, and any rate may be made, levied, and recovered on the valuation as if no objection were pending :

Provided that, if the valuation be altered on objection, a due adjustment shall be made, and any amount paid in excess shall be refunded, and any amount short-paid shall be recoverable as arrears.

Supply of forms.

cf. Ibid. s. 33.

(5) Forms of objection shall on application be supplied by the council free of charge to any person who has the right to object.

Valuation Court.

cf. L.G. Act,
1906, s. 133.

19. (1) The Valuation Court for the purposes of this Schedule shall be—

- (a) the nearest court of petty sessions—where the valuation of the unimproved capital value of the land does not exceed £10,000; and
- (b) the nearest district court—where the valuation of the unimproved capital value of the land does exceed £10,000.

(2) The Valuation Court shall hear and determine all objections duly lodged, and if it upholds any objection it shall make such order as it deems necessary for giving effect thereto, and in particular may—

- (a) alter any valuation to such amount as it deems proper ;
- (b) direct that lands be included in one valuation, and determine the amount of such inclusive valuation, or in lieu thereof direct that an inclusive valuation be made ;
- (c) direct that lands be not included in one valuation, and determine the amount of the separate valuations, or in lieu thereof direct that separate valuations be made ;
- (d) determine the correct apportionment of any valuation ;
- (e) direct that the name of the objector be struck out of any valuation on the ground that he is not a ratable person in respect of the land ;
- (f) direct that the valuation be struck out on the ground that the land is not ratable or declare that the land is not ratable to a particular rate.

cf. Valuation of
Land Act, 1916,
ss. 45, 46.

(3) Except where the unimproved capital value as stated in the valuation notice does not exceed £500, a valuation court may make such order as it thinks fit for the payment of the costs of any objection, and the order shall be enforceable as and be deemed to be a judgment within the meaning of the Districts Courts Act, 1912, or the Small Debts Recovery Act, 1912, as the case may be.

(4) An objector may appear at a valuation court personally or by counsel or solicitor, or by an agent authorised by the objector in writing.

(5) Subject to the provisions of this Act the decision of a valuation court shall be final and conclusive.

Appeals to Supreme Court.
cf. L.G. Act,
1906, s. 140.

20. (1) Any person dissatisfied with the decision of a valuation court as being erroneous in point of law with relation to—

- (a) the principle on which any objection should be determined ; or
- (b) the question whether the objector is a ratable person in respect of the land ; or
- (c)

- (c) the question whether the land is ratable, or whether it is ratable to a particular rate, may within sixteen days after the decision apply in writing to the valuation court to state and sign a case setting forth the facts and grounds of its decision so far as they relate to such principle or questions.
- (2) The Supreme Court shall hear and determine the case, or may cause the case to be sent back for amendment, and thereupon it shall be amended accordingly and the determination of the Supreme Court shall be given after the amendment.
- (3) The Supreme Court may make such order as to the costs of the parties in or in relation to the appeal as it may deem just.
- (4) Any determination or order of the Supreme Court shall be carried out by the valuation court, and shall be final and conclusive.
- (5) The Supreme Court may make rules regulating its practice in proceedings under this section.

George V,
No. 41.

21. Where a valuation court or the Supreme Court makes an order with respect to any valuation, the council shall make such consequential alterations in the valuation book as are necessary in order that the entries may be in conformity with the order.

Consequent alterations.
cf. Valuation of Land Act, 1910,
s. 43.

22. (1) Where any court holds that a valuation is invalid for any reason except that the land is not ratable, the council may cause a fresh valuation to be made in place of the valuation held to be invalid.

Invalid
valuations.
cf. L.G. Act, 1906-1908,
s. 135 (4).

(2) Any valuation so made shall for the purposes of any rate made or to be made be deemed to have come into force at the time when the invalid valuation would if valid have come into force.

23. The Governor may make ordinances for carrying this Schedule into effect, and in particular for and with respect to—

Ordinances.

- (a) the appointment, powers, and duties of valuers ;
- (b) the giving of notice of valuation ;
- (c) the form, preparation, sealing, keeping, and inspection of the valuation-book (whether combined with the rate-book or not) the entries which are to be made therein, the alteration of minor errors not affecting the amount at which the land is valued, and the mode of making and authenticating entries in conformity with the order of a court ;
- (d) the objection to which a valuation in force is to be subject each year ;
- (e) the time and manner of objections to a valuation court, and the duties of the council and its servants in relation thereto ;
- (f) the hearing of objections by a valuation court.
