- No. 80, 1974 (6) Nothing in this Act shall be construed as operating to affect the law from time to time in force with respect to the navigation of the waters referred to in paragraph (b) of the definition of "Crown lands" in subsection (1).

PART II.

ADMINISTRATION.

DIVISION 1.—National Parks and Wildlife Service.

The Service.

6. There shall be a National Parks and Wildlife Service, which shall be constituted by—

- (a) the Director;
- (b) the officers and employees, referred to in section 10, for the time being engaged in the administration of this Act; and
- (c) the persons in respect of whom any arrangements under section 11 are for the time being in force.

Director.

7. (1) The Governor may appoint a Director of National Parks and Wildlife.

(2) Schedule 4 has effect.

Miscellaneous powers and functions
of Director.

8. (1) The Director shall consider and may investigate proposals for the addition of areas to any national park, historic site, nature reserve or Aboriginal area or for the reservation of any new national park or historic site or for the dedication of any new nature reserve or Aboriginal area.

(2)

National Parks and Wildlife.

(2) For the purpose of any such proposals as are No. 80, 1974 referred to in subsection (1), the Director shall have regard to the following principles :—

- (a) the areas to be reserved as national parks are spacious areas containing unique or outstanding scenery or natural phenomena;
- (b) the areas to be reserved as historic sites are areas that are the sites of buildings, objects, monuments or events of national significance or areas in which relics, or Aboriginal places, of special significance are situated;
- (c) the areas to be dedicated as nature reserves are areas of special scientific interest containing wildlife or natural environments or natural phenomena; and
- (d) the areas to be dedicated as Aboriginal areas are areas in which relics, or Aboriginal places, of significance are situated.

(3) The Director shall in the case of every nature reserve and Aboriginal area and any national park or historic site the care, control and management of which have been vested in him and may in the case of any other national park or historic site—

- (a) promote such educational activities as he considers necessary in respect thereof;
- (b) arrange for the carrying out of such works as he considers necessary for or in connection with the management and maintenance thereof; and
- (c) undertake such scientific research as he considers necessary for or in connection with the preservation, protection, management and use thereof.

(4) The Director may promote such educational activities, and undertake such scientific research, in respect of relics and Aboriginal places as he thinks fit, either separately or in conjunction with other persons or bodies.

(5)

National Parks and Wildlife.

No. 80, 1974

(5) As soon as practicable after a relic is discovered in a national park, historic site, nature reserve or Aboriginal area, the Director shall, after such consultation with The Trustees of the Australian Museum as he thinks necessary or expedient, assess the scientific importance of the relic.

(6) The Director may consider and investigate proposals in relation to existing or proposed Aboriginal places, wilderness areas, protected archaeological areas, wildlife districts, wildlife refuges and game reserves.

(7) The Director—

- (a) may promote such educational activities as he considers necessary to awaken and maintain an appreciation of the value of animal and plant life;
- (b) may enter into arrangements for the carrying out of such works as he considers necessary for or in connection with the protection and care of fauna and the protection of native plants;
- (c) may undertake such scientific research as he considers necessary for or in connection with the preservation, protection and care of fauna and the protection of native plants and other flora, either separately or in conjunction with other persons or bodies; and
- (d) shall co-operate with the trustees of any lands dedicated or reserved under the Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, or the Closer Settlement Acts, in connection with—
 - (i) the preservation of, the protection and care of, and the promotion of the study of, fauna; and
 - (ii) the protection of, and the promotion of the study of, native plants and other flora, and generally shall co-operate with any other persons or bodies in the establishment, care and development of areas of lands set apart for the conservation and preservation of wildlife.

(8)

National Parks and Wildlife.

(8) The Director may promote such educational activities as he considers necessary for the instruction and training of ex-officio rangers, honorary rangers and prospective honorary rangers. No. 80, 1974

(9) Without affecting the generality of any other provision of this Act conferring powers on the Director, he may make and enter into contracts with any person for the carrying out of works or the performance of services or the supply of goods or materials in connection with the exercise or performance by the Director or the Service of his or its responsibilities, powers, authorities, duties or functions conferred or imposed by or under this Act.

(10) The Director shall, in the exercise and discharge of his powers, authorities, duties and functions under this Act, the regulations and the by-laws, be subject to the control and direction of the Minister.

9. (1) The Minister may, by writing under his hand, appoint any officer referred to in section 6 (b) as Acting Director to act in the office of the Director while the Director is absent from his office through illness or any other cause or where the Director is deemed to have vacated his office, and the person so appointed, while so acting, shall have and may exercise or perform the powers, authorities, duties and functions of the Director vested in the Director by or under this or any other Act, and shall be subject to the control and direction of the Minister. Acting Director.

(2) No person shall be concerned to inquire whether or not any occasion has arisen requiring or authorising the Acting Director to act in the office of the Director and all acts or things done or omitted by the Acting Director while so acting shall be as valid and effectual and shall have the same consequences as if they had been done or omitted by the Director.

10. The Governor may, under and subject to the Public Service Act, 1902, appoint and employ such officers and employees as may be necessary for the administration of this Act. Officers and employees.

11.

National Parks and Wildlife.

No. 80, 1974 11. (1) For the purposes of this Act, the Minister or the Director may, with the approval of the Minister administering the Department concerned, on such terms as may be arranged, make use of the services of any of the officers or employees of any Government Department.

Use of services of officers, etc., of Departments, etc.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, the Minister or the Director may, with the approval of the statutory corporation or council concerned, on such terms as may be arranged, make use of the services of any of the officers, employees or servants of a statutory corporation or of the council of an area or county district under the Local Government Act, 1919.

(3) For the purposes of this Act, the Minister or the Director may, with the approval of the trustees of any national park or historic site named in Schedule 5, on such terms as may be arranged, make use of the services of any of the officers, employees or servants of those trustees.

Powers and functions of Service.

12. The Service shall carry out such works and activities as the Minister may direct either generally or in any particular case, for the preservation and protection of national parks and historic sites, for the conservation and protection of nature reserves and wildlife, for the preservation and protection of, and prevention of damage to, relics and Aboriginal places in national parks, historic sites, nature reserves, Aboriginal areas and protected archaeological areas and for the exploration of lands with the object of discovering relics.

DIVISION 2.—Trustees of certain areas.

Trustees of national parks and historic sites named in Schedule 5.

13. (1) The persons who, immediately before the commencement day, held office as trustees of lands comprised in a national park or historic site named in Column 1 of Schedule 5 shall, subject to this Act, hold office as trustees of the national park or historic site.

(2) Schedule 6 has effect.

Powers and functions of trustees.

14. The powers, authorities, duties and functions of the trustees of a national park or historic site shall be those conferred or imposed by or under this Act.

15.

National Parks and Wildlife.

15. (1) Where the trustees of lands comprised in a national park or historic site named in Column 1 of Schedule 5 were constituted a body corporate under section 18 (2) of the Act of 1967, the body corporate continues in existence and its members are the trustees for the time being of the national park or historic site.

No. 80, 1974
Corporate nature of trustees.

(2) The powers, authorities, duties and functions of the trustees of a national park or historic site shall be deemed to be conferred or imposed on the body corporate constituted in relation to those trustees.

(3) Section 38 (subsection (II) excepted) of the Interpretation Act, 1897, applies to and in respect of a body corporate referred to in subsection (1) in the same way as it would have applied had the body corporate been constituted by this Act, but section 38 (I) (d) of that Act does not so apply in relation to real property or leasehold interests.

(4) The corporate name of a body corporate constituted in relation to the trustees of a national park or historic site shall be the name specified in Column 2 of Schedule 5 opposite the name of the park or site.

(5) The Governor may, from time to time, by order published in the Gazette, amend Schedule 5 by omitting from Column 2 the corporate name of a body corporate opposite the name of a national park or historic site and by inserting instead a new corporate name for the body corporate.

(6) The common seal of a body corporate constituted in relation to the trustees of a national park or historic site shall, except in so far as the by-laws applicable to the national park or historic site otherwise provide, be kept by such trustee or officer of the trustees as the trustees from time to time determine.

(7) No matter or thing done, and no contract entered into, by the trustees of a national park or historic site in their corporate capacity, and no matter or thing done by a trustee or by any other person acting under the direction of the trustees in their corporate capacity, shall, if the matter or thing was done, or the contract was entered into, bona fide for

National Parks and Wildlife.

No. 80, 1974 for the purpose of executing this or any other Act in so far as it confers or imposes powers, authorities, duties or functions on the trustees, subject a trustee, or other person so acting, personally to any action, liability, claim or demand.

(8) Where a notification relating to a national park or historic site is published under section 32, the body corporate constituted in relation to the trustees of the park or site is dissolved on the date stated, under section 32 (3) (a), in the notification.

DIVISION 3.—Ex-officio and honorary rangers.

Ex-officio rangers.

16. (1) Unless removed from office under this Division, each member of the police force and each inspector within the meaning of the Fisheries and Oyster Farms Act, 1935, shall, by virtue of his office, be a ranger.

(2) Unless removed from office under this Division, each officer or employee of the Forestry Commission who belongs to a class or description prescribed for the purposes of this subsection shall, by virtue of his office, be a ranger.

Honorary rangers.

17. (1) The Director may, by instrument in writing, appoint honorary rangers.

(2) Where the term for which an honorary ranger is to hold office is specified in the instrument of his appointment, he shall, unless he is sooner removed from office under this Division, cease to hold office upon the expiration of that term.

(3) An honorary ranger shall, unless he is sooner removed from office under this Division, cease to hold office if he resigns his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Director.

Removal or suspension of ex-officio and honorary rangers.

18. (1) The Director may, by instrument in writing, remove or suspend from office any ex-officio ranger or honorary ranger.

(2) An ex-officio ranger or honorary ranger who is suspended from office under this section shall not exercise any of the powers, authorities, duties and functions of an ex-officio ranger or honorary ranger, as the case may be, during the period of his suspension.

(3) The Director may, by instrument in writing, reinstate any ex-officio ranger or honorary ranger suspended from office under this section.

19.

National Parks and Wildlife.

19. (1) In addition to any other powers, authorities, No. 80, 1974 duties and functions conferred or imposed upon him by or under this or any other Act, an ex-officio ranger shall have Powers and functions of ex-officio rangers. and may exercise and perform such of the powers, authorities, duties and functions as are conferred or imposed by or under this Act on officers of the Service and as are specified or described in the regulations or the by-laws for the purposes of this subsection, but subject to such limitations and restrictions (if any) as are specified or described therein.

(2) Without affecting the generality of section 156 (2), a regulation or by-law made in relation to any matter referred to in subsection (1) may apply generally or to any ex-officio ranger or class of ex-officio rangers specified or described therein.

20. In addition to any other powers, authorities, duties Powers and functions of honorary rangers. and functions conferred or imposed upon him by or under this or any other Act, an honorary ranger shall have and may exercise and perform such of the powers, authorities, duties and functions as are conferred or imposed by or under this Act on officers of the Service and as are specified or described in the instrument of his appointment, but subject to such limitations and restrictions (if any) as are specified or described therein.

DIVISION 4.—Delegation.

- 21. (1) Subject to this section— Delegation.
- (a) the Minister may, by instrument in writing, delegate to—
- (i) the Director;
 - (ii) any other officer of the Service;
 - (iii) the holder of any office in the Service; and
- (b) the Director, with the approval of the Minister, may, by instrument in writing, delegate to—
- (i) any officer of the Service; or
 - (ii) the holder of any office in the Service, any

No. 80, 1974 any power (other than this power of delegation), authority, duty or function conferred or imposed on him by this Act, the regulations, the by-laws or any other instrument under this Act.

(2) The exercise of any such delegation shall be subject to such limitations and conditions as may be specified in the instrument of delegation.

(3) Any act or thing done or suffered by the delegate, when acting in the exercise of any such delegation and within the terms of the delegation, shall be as effective as if the act or thing had been done or suffered by the person making the delegation.

(4) Any delegation under this section shall remain in force notwithstanding that the person who made or approved of the delegation has ceased to hold office as Minister or Director, as the case may be.

(5) The person for the time being occupying the office of Minister or Director, as the case may be, may revoke either wholly or in part any such delegation of powers, authorities, duties or functions, whether made by him or by a predecessor in that office, but no act or thing done or suffered by the delegate within the terms of any such delegation during the period in which the delegation was in force shall be invalidated by reason of that revocation.

(6) Subject to any stipulation to the contrary contained in the instrument, any instrument of delegation made under this section shall, so far as concerns any act or thing done or suffered thereunder in good faith, operate and continue in force until notice of the revocation thereof has been received by the delegate.

(7) Every act or thing within the scope of the delegation done or suffered in good faith by the delegate after revocation of the delegation and before notice thereof has been received by him shall be as effectual in all respects as if that revocation had not been made.

(8) A statutory declaration by the delegate, stating that he has not received notice of the revocation of the delegation at the time when any such act or thing was done or suffered

(a) any by-laws or rules and regulations that, immediately before that publication, applied to all of the described lands and not to any other lands—

(i) shall continue to apply to the described lands; and

(ii) shall be deemed to be by-laws made under this Act and may be amended or repealed accordingly; and

(b) any by-laws or rules and regulations that, immediately before that publication, applied to—

(i) part only of the described lands; or

(ii) all of the described lands and also to any other lands, shall cease to apply to the described lands.

(6) Upon the publication of a proclamation under subsection (3) effecting the reservation, as part of a particular national park or historic site, of any lands described in the proclamation (which lands are in this subsection referred to as "the described lands")—

(a) any by-laws or rules and regulations that, immediately before that publication, applied to that national park or historic site shall apply to the described lands; and

(b) any by-laws or rules and regulations that, immediately before that publication, applied to all or any part of the described lands shall cease to apply to the described lands.

(7) For the purposes of section 43 of the Interpretation Act, 1897, any by-laws or rules and regulations that cease to apply to any lands by virtue of subsection (5) or (6) shall, in so far as they applied to those lands, be deemed to have been repealed.

(8)

National Parks and Wildlife.

(8) To the extent to which a dedication, reservation No. 80, 1974 (other than a reservation under this Division), Crown grant or vesting affects lands described in a proclamation published under subsection (2) or (3), the publication revokes the dedication, reservation, grant or vesting, and the deeds of grant (if any) shall be surrendered for cancellation.

(9) A proclamation under subsection (2) or (3) may be made in relation to—

- (a) one or more national parks or one or more historic sites; or
- (b) one or more national parks and one or more historic sites.

(10) In this section, a reference to by-laws does not include a reference to by-laws under the Metropolitan Water, Sewerage, and Drainage Act, 1924, or the Hunter District Water, Sewerage and Drainage Act, 1938.

34. (1) Notwithstanding section 33, no lands that are Crown lands within the meaning of paragraph (b) of the definition of "Crown lands" in section 5 (1) shall be reserved under section 33 (2) or (3) without the concurrence in writing of the Minister administering the Fisheries and Oyster Farms Act, 1935. Limitations on power to reserve under s. 33.

(2) Notwithstanding section 33, no lands that are lands of the Crown shall be reserved under section 33 (2) or (3) without the concurrence in writing of the Minister or public authority in whom they were vested immediately before the reservation.

35. (1) In this section, "prescribed time", in relation to a House of Parliament, means fourteen sitting days of that House, whether or not they occur during the same session. Tabling of proclamation of reservation, and disallowance.

(2) A copy of a proclamation published under section 33 (2) or (3) shall be laid before each House of Parliament within the prescribed time after publication thereof.

No. 80, 1974

(3) Where a House of Parliament passes a resolution of which notice has been given within fifteen sitting days of that House after a copy of a proclamation has been laid before it under subsection (2) (whether or not those sitting days occur during the same session) and the resolution disallows the reservation effected by the proclamation of any lands as, or as part of, a particular national park or historic site—

- (a) the reservation thereupon ceases to have effect; and
- (b) those lands cease to be, or to be part of, a national park or historic site.

(4) Notwithstanding section 31, where any lands cease to be, or to be part of, a national park or historic site by virtue of the disallowance of a reservation under this Division—

- (a) any person holding office as trustee thereof immediately before the disallowance shall cease to be trustee thereof and shall cease to have the care, control and management thereof;
- (b) where the Director had the care, control and management thereof immediately before the disallowance, he shall cease to have the care, control and management thereof;
- (c) any by-laws applicable thereto immediately before the disallowance shall cease to apply to those lands;
- (d) those lands may, except in the case of lands acquired under section 147 or 148, be dealt with as if they had been acquired under the Closer Settlement Acts or as Crown lands; and
- (e) in the case of lands acquired under section 147 or 148, the lands shall vest in the Minister for the estate or interest held by him immediately before the reservation.

(5) For the purposes of section 43 of the Interpretation Act, 1897, any by-laws that cease to apply to any lands by virtue of subsection (4) shall, in so far as they applied to those lands, be deemed to have been repealed.

*National Parks and Wildlife.36. The Governor—

No. 80, 1974

- (a) by a proclamation published under section 33 (2) or (3) or by another proclamation published in the Gazette, may assign a name to a national park or historic site; and
- (b) by proclamation published in the Gazette, may from time to time—
- (i) alter the name of a national park or historic site; and
 - (ii) in the case of a national park or historic site named in Column 1 of Schedule 5— amend that Schedule by omitting from Column 1 the name of that park or site, as so appearing, and by inserting instead the name as altered in pursuance of subparagraph (i).

Name of park or site.

37. (1) Notwithstanding anything in any Act—

- (a) the reservation of lands as, or as part of, a national park or historic site shall not be revoked; or
- (b) lands within a national park or historic site shall not be appropriated or resumed,

Revocation, resumption or appropriation of park or site.

except by an Act of Parliament.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) prevents the withdrawal of land from or the termination of any lease, licence or occupancy in accordance with the terms and conditions thereof.

38. The word “national” shall not be used either alone or in conjunction with other words as the name of a park within New South Wales unless the park is a national park under this Act.

Limitation on use of name “national park”.

39.

National Parks and Wildlife.

No. 80, 1974 39. (1) In this section, "existing interest" means any authority, authorisation, permit, lease, licence or occupancy.

Existing interests.

(2) Except as provided in this Act, the reservation of lands as, or as part of, a national park or historic site does not affect—

(a) the terms and conditions of any existing interest in respect of those lands from the Crown or the trustees, current and in force at the time of the reservation; or

(b) the use permitted of those lands under the interest.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), no such interest shall be renewed nor shall the term of any such interest be extended except with the approval of the Minister and subject to such conditions as the Minister determines.

(4) The provisions of subsection (3) do not apply to any authority, authorisation, lease or licence under the Mining Act, 1973, the Coal Mining Act, 1973, the Fisheries and Oyster Farms Act, 1935, or the Petroleum Act, 1955, or any permit or licence under the Petroleum (Submerged Lands) Act, 1967.

(5) Upon the termination, surrender, forfeiture or determination of any existing interest (otherwise than for the purpose of renewing it or extending its term) referred to in subsection (2), the lands the subject of the interest are, to the extent to which they would not, but for this subsection, be lands reserved as part of the national park or historic site within which they are situated, hereby so reserved.

40. (1) Notwithstanding anything in the Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, or any other Act, no lands within a national park or historic site shall be sold, leased or otherwise dealt with except as provided in this Act or in the Snowy Mountains Hydro-electric Agreements Act, 1958.

National Parks and Wildlife.

(2) No permit to graze over any part of a travelling stock reserve or camping reserve under the control of a pastures protection board, which reserve is situated within the external boundaries of a national park or historic site, shall be granted except with the concurrence in writing of the Minister.

(3) A permit referred to in subsection (2) may be granted subject to such conditions as the Minister determines.

41. (1) In this section, "mining interest" means—
- (a) any authority (other than an exploration licence) under the Mining Act, 1973;
 - (b) any authorisation or any coal lease under the Coal Mining Act, 1973; or
 - (c) any lease under the Petroleum Act, 1955.

Provisions relating to mining.

(2) Subject to this section, the Mining Act, 1973, the Coal Mining Act, 1973, and the Petroleum Act, 1955, apply, at any time, to lands within a national park or historic site to the extent to which those Acts are in force at that time.

(3) A mining interest granted in respect of lands within a national park or historic site granted after the commencement day shall have no force or effect unless, before the interest was granted, notice of the application therefor was laid before both Houses of Parliament and—

- (a) no notice was given in either House of Parliament within fifteen sitting days of that House after notice of the application was laid before it (whether or not those sitting days occurred during the same session) of a motion that the application be refused; or
- (b) where notice of such a motion was so given, the motion pursuant thereto was withdrawn or defeated or lapsed.

(4)

National Parks and Wildlife.

No. 80, 1974

(4) A renewal of, or extension of the term of, a mining interest in respect of lands within a national park or historic site (other than a mining interest current and in force at the time of the reservation of the park or site) shall not be granted under the Mining Act, 1973, the Coal Mining Act, 1973, or the Petroleum Act, 1955, without the concurrence in writing of the Minister.

(5) A certificate by the Minister to the effect that the requirements of this section have been complied with in respect of a mining interest specified in the certificate shall be conclusive evidence of compliance with those requirements.

(6) Except as provided in this section, nothing in this Act affects the right, title or interest of any person (other than a person who is or was trustee of the lands comprised in a national park or historic site) in respect of minerals in any such lands.

(7) A claim shall not be registered under Part IV of the Mining Act, 1973, over any lands within a national park or historic site.

Application
of Forestry
Act, 1916.

42. (1) The Forestry Act, 1916, does not apply to or in respect of lands within a national park or historic site.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (1), all licences and permits under the Forestry Act, 1916, affecting lands within a national park or historic site shall, unless sooner cancelled under that Act, continue in force until the expiration of the respective terms for which they were granted, and that Act shall continue to apply to and in respect of those licences and permits until they respectively expire or are cancelled.

43.

National Parks and Wildlife.

43. The Soil Conservation Act, 1938, applies to and in respect of lands within a national park or historic site, but any experimental or research work conducted pursuant to section 6 of that Act upon those lands shall be undertaken only with the concurrence of the Director and subject to such conditions and restrictions as he may impose.

No. 80, 1974

Application
of Soil Conservation Act,

and sites.

(2) A person who commits an offence arising under subsection (1) is liable to the penalty prescribed by section 175 for an offence against this Act or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or both.

(3) A person shall not be convicted of an offence arising under subsection (1) if he proves that the act constituting the offence was done—

- (a) under and in accordance with or by virtue of the authority conferred by a general licence under section 120, an occupier's licence under section 121 or a trapper's licence under section 123; or

(b)

National Parks and Wildlife.

No. 80, 1974 (b) in pursuance of a duty imposed on him by or under any Act.

(4) A person, being a lessee or occupier of any lands within a national park or historic site, or a person authorised by him in that behalf, shall not be convicted of an offence arising under subsection (1) in respect of the taking or killing of any animal that is within those lands, other than fauna.

(5) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to exempting, subject to the prescribed conditions and restrictions (if any), any person or class or description of persons from the provisions of subsection (1).

Transfer of rights, liabilities
and property.

46. (1) Where upon the taking effect of a notification under section 32 or a proclamation under section 33 any persons cease to hold office as trustees of lands reserved as, or as part of, a national park or historic site and the care, control and management of the park or site are vested in the Director, the following provisions have effect:—

- (a) all property and all right and interest therein (in this section referred to as “the trust property”) and all management and control of any thing which immediately before that notification or proclamation took effect was vested in or belonged to the trustees and was held or used by them for or in connection with the park or site shall vest in and belong to the Director;
- (b) all money and liquidated and unliquidated claims that, immediately before that notification or proclamation took effect, were payable to or recoverable by the trustees or their predecessors in relation to the park or site or the trust property or any part thereof shall be money and liquidated and unliquidated claims payable to or recoverable by the Director;

(c)

National Parks and Wildlife.

- (c) all proceedings pending immediately before that notification or proclamation took effect at the suit of the trustees in relation to the park or site or the trust property or any part thereof shall be deemed to be proceedings pending at the suit of the Director and all proceedings so pending at the suit of any person against the trustees shall be deemed to be proceedings pending at the suit of that person against the Director;
- (d) all contracts, agreements, arrangements and undertakings entered into with, and all securities lawfully given to or by, the trustees or their predecessors in relation to the park or site or the trust property or any part thereof, and in force immediately before that notification or proclamation took effect, shall be deemed to be contracts, agreements, arrangements and undertakings entered into with, and securities given to or by, the Director;
- (e) the Director may, in addition to pursuing any other remedies or exercising any other powers that may be available to him, pursue the same remedies for the recovery of money and claims referred to in this subsection and for the prosecution of proceedings so referred to as the trustees or their predecessors might have done had they continued to be trustees of the park or site after that notification or proclamation took effect;
- (f) the Director may enforce and realise any security or charge existing immediately before that notification or proclamation took effect in favour of the trustees in connection with the care, control and management of the park or site, and may exercise any powers thereby conferred on the trustees as if the security or charge were a security or charge in favour of the Director;

(g)

No. 80, 1974

- (g) all debts, money and claims, liquidated and unliquidated, that, immediately before that notification or proclamation took effect, were due or payable by, or recoverable against, the trustees or their predecessors in connection with the care, control and management of the park or site or the trust property or any part thereof shall be debts due and money payable by, and claims recoverable against, the Director; and
- (h) all liquidated and unliquidated claims in connection with the care, control and management of the park or site for which the trustees would, but for the notification or proclamation, have been liable shall be liquidated and unliquidated claims for which the Director shall be liable.

(2) Where part only of the lands vested in trustees is, by a proclamation under section 33, reserved as, or as part of, a national park or historic site and the care, control and management of the park or site are vested in the Director, the Director and the trustees shall, as soon as practicable after publication of that proclamation, arrange and agree upon a division of the assets, debts and liabilities of the trustees, so that the assets, debts and liabilities appropriate to the park or site and to the lands retained by the trustees may be determined, and if any difference arises between the Director and the trustees, the difference shall be determined in such manner as the Minister may direct.

(3) The provisions of subsections (1) and (2) apply also where, upon the publication of a proclamation under section 33, the care, control and management of lands are vested in the trustees of a national park or historic site named in Column 1 of Schedule 5 and so apply as if references in those provisions to the Director were references to those trustees.

National Parks and Wildlife.

47. (1) Where any lands are reserved as, or as part of, a national park or historic site and the care, control and management of the park or site are vested in the Director, every person who, immediately before the vesting in the Director, was an employee, other than a casual employee, of the trustees of those lands, and was employed by them solely in connection with those lands, shall upon the vesting in the Director become and be an employee under the Public Service Act, 1902.

No. 80, 1974
Transfer of employees.

(2) The following provisions apply to a person referred to in subsection (1) :—

- (a) that person shall, unless the Public Service Board approves of employment on some other basis, be employed under section 44 of the Public Service Act, 1902;
- (b) notwithstanding anything in that Act, the Public Service Board's approval to employ that person otherwise than under section 44 of that Act may be given before he becomes an employee of the Public Service or at any time while he remains an employee and the Board may impose such conditions relating to his employment as it thinks fit provided those conditions are not inconsistent with this section;
- (c) the period of service with the trustees or their predecessors of that person shall be deemed to be service in the Public Service for the purposes of annual leave, sick leave or extended leave, but, unless the Public Service Board otherwise approves, the leave allowable under this paragraph in respect of service with the trustees or their predecessors shall not exceed the leave which would have been allowed if that person had continued to be an employee of the trustees or their predecessors;

No. 80, 1974

- (d) that person shall be paid a salary or wages at a rate not less than the rate that was payable to him immediately before he became so employed, subject to any adjustment necessary to give effect to any fluctuation in the basic wage for adult males, or adult females, as the case may be, for the time being in force within the meaning of Part V of the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1940, until that salary or those wages is or are varied or altered under the Public Service Act, 1902, or pursuant to the award of a competent tribunal or an industrial agreement;
- (e) where any condition of employment of that person was, immediately before his becoming an employee of the Public Service, regulated by an award or industrial agreement, that condition shall continue to be so regulated until a determination in relation to that condition is made by the Public Service Board in pursuance of the Public Service Act, 1902, or until an award regulating that condition is made by a competent tribunal or that condition is regulated by an industrial agreement;
- (f) if that person does not become a contributor to the State Superannuation Fund constituted under the Superannuation Act, 1916, the Minister shall continue to pay the share of any premium contributed by the trustees on an insurance policy for that person upon the same terms and subject to the same conditions as it was paid by the trustees; and
- (g) if that person, while employed in the Public Service, becomes a contributor to the State Superannuation Fund as so constituted, any responsibility of the Minister to continue to pay the share of any premium contributed by the trustees on an insurance policy for that person shall cease, but that person may elect to continue the policy on his own account or to cancel the policy and receive any money refunded by the insurer.

DIVISION

*National Parks and Wildlife.*DIVISION 2.—Nature reserves.

No. 80, 1974

48. The care, control and management of such lands as are, on the commencement day, comprised in a nature reserve are vested in the Director.

Care, control and management of existing nature reserves.

49. (1) Subject to this Act, the Governor may, by proclamation published in the Gazette, dedicate, as a nature reserve—

(3) A person, being an owner, lessee or occupier of any lands within a wildlife refuge, or a person authorised by him in that behalf, shall not be convicted of an offence arising under subsection (1) in respect of the picking or the possession of a native plant that is or was growing within those lands.

(4) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to exempting, subject to the prescribed conditions and restrictions (if any), any person or class or description of persons from the provisions of subsection (1).

PART V.

PLANS OF MANAGEMENT.

72. (1) The Director—

- (a) shall cause a plan of management to be prepared for each national park and historic site in existence on the commencement day, as soon as practicable after that day, unless a plan of management was adopted with respect thereto under the Act of 1967;

Plans of management.

(b)

National Parks and Wildlife.

No. 80, 1974

- (b) shall cause a plan of management to be prepared for each nature reserve in existence on the commencement day, as soon as practicable after that day, unless a scheme of operations was approved with respect thereto under the Fauna Protection Act, 1948;
- (c) shall cause a plan of management to be prepared for each national park or historic site reserved, or nature reserve dedicated, after the commencement day, as soon as practicable after the reservation or dedication, as the case may require; and
- (d) may from time to time cause a plan of management to be prepared for any Aboriginal area, wildlife refuge or game reserve.

(2) The plan of management for a national park, historic site, nature reserve, Aboriginal area, wildlife refuge or game reserve shall contain a written scheme of the operations which it is proposed to undertake therein or in relation thereto to carry out the purpose and objects of this Act.

(3) The plan of management for a national park, historic site or nature reserve may relate to lands acquired or occupied, or proposed to be acquired or occupied, pursuant to section 145, 146 or 147.

(4) In the preparation of a plan of management referred to in this section, regard shall be had to the following objectives :—

- (a) the conservation of wildlife;
- (b) the preservation of each national park, nature reserve, wildlife refuge or game reserve and the protection of the special features of the park, reserve or refuge;
- (c) the prohibition of the execution of any works adversely affecting the natural condition or special features of each national park or nature reserve;

(d)

National Parks and Wildlife.

- (d) the preservation of each historic site and the preservation of any historic structure or object or any relic or Aboriginal place on each national park, historic site, nature reserve, Aboriginal area, wildlife refuge or game reserve; No. 80, 1974
 - (e) the encouragement and regulation of the appropriate use, understanding and enjoyment of each national park and historic site by the public;
 - (f) the regulation of the appropriate use of each nature reserve and Aboriginal area;
 - (g) the appropriate use of each national park, historic site or nature reserve by any lessee, licensee or occupant of land therein;
 - (h) the preservation of each national park, historic site or nature reserve as a catchment area;
 - (i) the protection of each national park, historic site, nature reserve or Aboriginal area against fire and erosion;
 - (j) the setting apart of the whole or part of a national park or nature reserve as a wilderness area; and
 - (k) the utilisation of land acquired or occupied, or proposed to be acquired or occupied, pursuant to section 145, 146 or 147.

(5) This section does not apply to or in respect of a wildlife refuge or game reserve that is comprised wholly or partly of lands within a State forest.

73. (1) The Director may, from time to time, with the concurrence in writing of the Forestry Commission, cause a plan of management to be prepared for any State forest.

(2) The plan of management for a State forest shall contain a written scheme of operations which it is proposed to undertake in or in relation to that forest, consistent with the purpose and objects of this Act and the Forestry Act, 1916.

(3)

National Parks and Wildlife.

No. 80, 1974

(3) This section applies to and in respect of a State forest that is comprised wholly or partly of lands within a wildlife refuge or game reserve or that is not comprised of any such lands.

Catchment areas.

74. Where any lands reserved as a national park or historic site or dedicated as a nature reserve or Aboriginal area are wholly or partly within a catchment area of The Metropolitan Water Sewerage and Drainage Board, The Hunter District Water Board or The Broken Hill Water Board, or where the waters from any lands so reserved or so dedicated drain into a catchment area or structure of any of those Boards—

- (a) the Director shall, before submitting a plan of management for that national park, historic site, nature reserve or Aboriginal area to the Minister, refer it to the Board responsible for that catchment area or structure for its information; and
- (b) the Minister shall before adopting that plan of management consider any representations made by the Board responsible for that catchment area or structure.

Adoption, etc., of plan of management for national park or historic site.

75. (1) Where a plan of management has been prepared for a national park or historic site, the Director shall give notice as prescribed that the plan of management has been prepared and shall, in that notice—

- (a) specify the address of the place at which copies of the plan of management may be inspected; and
- (b) specify the address to which representations in connection with the plan of management may be forwarded.

(2) Any person interested may, within one month or such longer period as may be specified in the notice, make representations to the Director in connection with the plan of management.

(3)

National Parks and Wildlife.

(3) The Director shall, upon the expiration of the period referred to in subsection (2), refer the plan of management, and any representations forwarded to him, to the Council for its consideration and advice. No. 80, 1974

(4) The Director shall thereupon submit the plan of management to the Minister together with any comments or suggestions of the Council.

(5) The Minister shall, before adopting the plan of management, consider the comments and suggestions of the Council.

(6) The Minister may adopt the plan of management without alteration or with such alterations as he may think fit or may refer it back to the Director and the Council for further consideration.

(7) The Minister may—

- (a) amend or alter a plan of management for a national park or historic site from time to time; or
- (b) cancel the plan and substitute a new plan.

(8) Where the Minister proposes to amend or alter a plan of management for a national park or historic site or to cancel a plan of management for a national park or historic site and substitute a new plan of management, he shall instruct the Director to cause the amendment or alteration or the new plan of management to be prepared, and the Director shall proceed to do so as soon as practicable after being so instructed.

(9) The provisions of sections 72 (2), (3) and (4) and 74 and subsections (1) to (6), inclusive, apply to and in respect of an amendment or alteration referred to in subsection (8) in the same way as they apply to and in respect of a plan of management for a national park or historic site, as the case may require.

76. (1) Where a plan of management has been prepared for a nature reserve, the Director shall refer the plan to the Council for its consideration and advice.

(2) The Director shall thereupon submit the plan of management to the Minister together with any comments or suggestions of the Council.

(3) The Minister shall, before adopting the plan of management, consider the comments and suggestions of the Council.

(4) The Minister may adopt the plan of management without alteration or with such alterations as he may think fit or may refer it back to the Director and the Council for further consideration.

(5) Where the Minister refers a plan of management for a nature reserve back to the Director and the Council for further consideration, the Director shall resubmit the plan to the Minister together with any further comments and suggestions of the Council.

(6) The Minister may—

- (a) amend or alter a plan of management for a nature reserve from time to time; or
- (b) cancel the plan and substitute a new plan.

(7) The provisions of sections 72 (2), (3) and (4) and 74 and subsections (1) to (5), inclusive, apply to and in respect of an amendment or alteration referred to in subsection (6) in the same way as they apply to and in respect of a plan of management for a nature reserve.

No. 80, 1974

(2) The Minister—

- (a) may, on the recommendation of the Director and with the concurrence in writing of the Forestry Commission—
- (i) amend or alter a plan of management for a State forest from time to time;
 - (ii) cancel the plan; or
 - (iii) cancel the plan and substitute a new plan; or
- (b) shall, at the request in writing of the Forestry Commission, cancel the plan.

Lands submerged by water.

80. (1) Where lands submerged by water are lands that are the subject of any part of a plan of management for a national park, historic site, nature reserve or Aboriginal area, the Director shall, before submitting to the Minister for adoption by him the plan of management, refer it to the Minister administering the Fisheries and Oyster Farms Act, 1935.

(1)— (2) A plan of management referred to in subsection

- (a) shall not be adopted, amended, altered or cancelled by the Minister in so far as it relates to Crown lands within the meaning of paragraph (a) of the definition of "Crown lands" in section 5 (1), until he has considered any representations made with respect to the plan of management by the Minister administering the Fisheries and Oyster Farms Act, 1935; and
- (b) shall not be adopted, amended, altered or cancelled by the Minister in so far as it relates to Crown lands within the meaning of paragraph (b) of the definition of "Crown lands" in section 5 (1), without the concurrence in writing of the Minister administering the Fisheries and Oyster Farms Act, 1935.

National Parks and Wildlife.

81. (1) Where the Minister has adopted a plan of management for a national park or historic site, it shall, subject to subsection (5), be carried out and given effect to by the trustees of the park or site or by the Director where the care, control and management thereof have been vested in the Director. PART VI.

RELICS AND ABORIGINAL PLACES.

Certain
relics to be Crown
property.

83. (1) Subject to this section—

- (a) a relic that was, immediately before the commencement day, deemed to be the property of the Crown by virtue of section 33D of the Act of 1967; and
- (b) a relic that is abandoned on or after that day by a person other than the Crown, shall be, and shall be deemed always to have been, the property of the Crown.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be construed as restricting the lawful use of land or as authorising the disturbance or excavation of any land.

(3) No compensation is payable in respect of the vesting of a relic by this section or section 33D of the Act of 1967.

Aboriginal places.

84. The Minister may, by order published in the Gazette, declare any place specified or described in the order, being a place that, in the opinion of the Minister, is or was of special significance with respect to Aboriginal culture, to be an Aboriginal place for the purposes of this Act.

Protection
of certain relics and restoration of certain areas.

85. The Director shall be responsible—

- (a) for the proper care, preservation and protection of any relic or Aboriginal place in a national park, historic site, nature reserve or Aboriginal area; and

(b)

National Parks and Wildlife.

- (b) subject to section 87, for the proper restoration of a national park, historic site, nature reserve or Aboriginal area that has been disturbed or excavated for the purpose of discovering a relic. No. 80, 1974

86. A person, other than the Director or a person authorised by him in that behalf, who— Offences relating to relics.

- (a) disturbs or excavates any land, or causes any land to be disturbed or excavated, for the purpose of discovering a relic;
- (b) disturbs or moves on any land a relic that is the property of the Crown, other than a relic that is in the custody or under the control of The Trustees of the Australian Museum;
- (c) takes possession of a relic that is in a national park, historic site, nature reserve or Aboriginal area;
- (d) removes a relic from a national park, historic site, nature reserve or Aboriginal area; or
- (e) erects or maintains, in a national park, historic site, nature reserve or Aboriginal area, a building or structure for the safe custody, storage or exhibition of any relic, except in accordance with the terms and conditions of an unrevoked permit issued to him under section 87, being terms and conditions having force and effect at the time the act or thing to which the permit relates is done, is guilty of an offence against this Act.

87. (1) Subject to section 88, the Director may, upon such terms and conditions as he thinks fit, issue a permit to do any act or thing referred to in section 86 (a), (b), (c), (d) or (e). Permits relating to relics.

(2) Terms and conditions imposed by the Director under subsection (1) may include terms and conditions relating to the proper restoration of land disturbed or excavated.

(3)

National Parks and Wildlife.

No. 80, 1974 (3) A failure to comply with a term or condition authorised by subsection (2) shall be deemed to be a contravention of section 86.

(4) The Director may, at any time—

- (a) revoke a permit issued under this section; or
- (b) vary the terms and conditions of such a permit.

The Trustees of the Australian Museum to have custody of certain relics.

88. (1) Nothing in section 87 shall be construed as authorising the Director to permit a relic to be removed from a national park, historic site, nature reserve or Aboriginal area to the custody or control of a person other than The Trustees of the Australian Museum, except where—

- (a) the relic remains in the custody or under the control of the Director; or
- (b) the relic is being moved from a national park, historic site, nature reserve or Aboriginal area to any or any other national park, historic site, nature reserve or Aboriginal area.

(2) A relic that is the property of the Crown, other than a relic—

- (a) in a national park, historic site, nature reserve or Aboriginal area;
- (b) being moved from a national park, historic site, nature reserve or Aboriginal area to any or any other national park, historic site, nature reserve or Aboriginal area;
- (c) in the custody or under the control of the Director; or
- (d) acquired by the Minister or the Director pursuant to section 89 or by the Minister pursuant to Part XI, shall be deemed not to be in the possession of the Crown unless it is in the custody or under the control of The Trustees of the Australian Museum.

(3)

National Parks and Wildlife.

(3) The Director may arrange with The Trustees No. 80, 1974 of the Australian Museum for the deposit or exhibition of a relic in a building or structure in a national park, historic site, nature reserve or Aboriginal area and, where a relic is so deposited or exhibited, section 86 does not apply to The Trustees of the Australian Museum in relation to that relic.

(4) Nothing in this Act shall be construed as affecting the powers, authorities, duties or functions conferred or imposed on The Trustees of the Australian Museum by the Australian Museum Act, 1902.

89. (1) Subject to this section, the Minister or the Director may, by agreement with a person having the ownership or possession of—

Preservation or exhibition of certain relics.

- (a) a relic that is not the property of the Crown; or
- (b) an Aboriginal place, acquire the relic or take such other action as he thinks is practicable for the preservation or exhibition of the relic or Aboriginal place.

(2) A relic acquired under this section shall be the property of the Crown.

(3) A relic that is real property shall not be acquired under this section, but nothing in this section affects anything contained in Part XI.

(4) Any relic acquired by the Minister or the Director prior to the commencement day shall be deemed to have been acquired under this section.

90. (1) A person who, without first obtaining the written consent of the Director, knowingly destroys, defaces or damages a relic or Aboriginal place is guilty of an offence against this Act.

Destruction, etc., of relics or Aboriginal places.

Penalty : $1,000 or imprisonment for six months or both, and, in addition, $100 for each day during which the offence continues.

No. 80, 1974 (2) The Director may give his consent for the purposes of subsection (1) subject to such conditions and restrictions as are specified therein.

(3) A person whose application for consent is refused, or who is dissatisfied with any condition or restriction subject to which the consent is given, may appeal to the Minister.

(4) The Minister—

- (a) may refuse to grant the appeal; or
- (b) may grant the appeal wholly or in part, and may give such directions in the matter as seem proper.

(5) The decision of the Minister on the appeal is final and is binding on the Director and the appellant, and shall be carried into effect accordingly.

(6) Where the regulations prescribe—

- (a) the manner in which an appeal is to be made under this section—the appeal shall be made in that manner; or
- (b) the period within which an appeal is to be made under this section—the appeal shall be made within that period.

(7) Where the Director fails to grant an application for his consent, the application shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to be refused upon the expiration of—

- (a) subject to paragraph (b)—seven days after the application was received by the Director; or
- (b) where the regulations prescribe some other period—that other period.

National Parks and Wildlife.

91. A person who is aware of the location of a relic that is the property of the Crown or, not being the property of the Crown, is real property, and does not, in the prescribed manner, notify the Director thereof within a reasonable time after he first becomes aware of that location is guilty of an offence against this Act unless he believes on reasonable grounds that the Director is aware of the location of that relic.

(b)

National Parks and Wildlife.

No. 80, 1974

(b) any such licence shall cease to be operative while it relates to any protected native plant.

(2) Where, in the opinion of the Forestry Commission, any protected native plant, if not removed, would be damaged or destroyed in the taking of timber, products or forest materials under, or in the carrying on of any activity authorised by, the Forestry Act, 1916, subsection (1) does not operate to prevent the Forestry Commission from issuing a licence authorising removal of the native plant or from reinstating, to the extent necessary to authorise removal of the native plant, a licence that has, pursuant to that subsection, ceased to be operative.

Restriction on picking or possession
of native plant.

117. (1) A person shall not pick or have in his possession a protected native plant.

(2) Without affecting the operation of section 57 or 71, subsection (1) does not apply in relation to the picking or possession of a protected native plant in a nature reserve or wildlife refuge.

(3) A person shall not be convicted of an offence arising under subsection (1) if he proves that—

(a) the protected native plant was grown upon private land and was picked by or with the consent of the owner, lessee or occupier of that land; or

(b) the protected native plant was picked by him—

(i) under and in accordance with or by virtue of the authority conferred by a licence issued under section 131 or a licence issued under the Forestry Act, 1916; or

(ii)

National Parks and Wildlife.

(ii) in pursuance of a duty imposed on him by No. 80, 1974 or under any Act, or was in his possession after having been so picked.

(4) In any prosecution for an offence arising under subsection (1), proof that a protected native plant was found in the possession of the defendant shall be prima facie evidence that the defendant picked the native plant or had the native plant in his possession in contravention of this section and the onus of proof to the contrary shall be upon the defendant.

(5) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to exempting, subject to the prescribed conditions and restrictions (if any), any person or class or description of persons from the provisions of subsection (1).

(6) A reference in this section to a person's having a protected native plant in his possession includes a reference to his having a protected native plant in a vehicle, building, lodging, apartment, field or other place whether belonging to or occupied by him, and whether the plant is then had or placed for his own use or the use of another.

118. (1) A person shall not sell a protected native plant. Restriction on selling of native plant.

(2) A person shall not be convicted of an offence arising under subsection (1) in respect of—

- (a) Christmas Bush that has been grown on private land and picked by or with the consent of the owner or lessee of that land;
- (b) any protected native plant that has been picked for commercial purposes in pursuance of a licence issued under section 131; or
- (c) any protected native plant that has been grown in pursuance of a licence issued under section 132 and picked by or with the consent of the holder of the licence.

PART

No. 80, 1974

PART IX.

LICENSING, ETC., IN RESPECT OF FAUNA AND NATIVE PLANTS.DIVISION 1.—*Preliminary.*Interpretation: Pt. IX.119. In this Part—

“authorised officer” means—

- (a) the Director; or
 - (b) in relation to a provision of this Part—
 - (i) an officer of the Service, or any other person, duly authorised by the Director; or
 - (ii) any person holding an office, position or rank prescribed,
- for the purposes of that provision;

“private land” includes land leased from the Crown, or which is in the course of alienation by the Crown under any Act.

DIVISION 2.—*Fauna.*General licence.

120. (1) An authorised officer may issue a licence (in this Act referred to as a “general licence”), authorising a person to do any or all of the following :—

- (a) to take or kill or obtain any protected fauna—
 - (i) for the purpose of providing specimens of natural history for any scientific institution or museum;
 - (ii) for the purpose of carrying on any scientific investigation;
 - (iii) for the purpose of exhibiting the fauna; or
 - (iv) for any other specified purpose;

(b)

National Parks and Wildlife.

- (b) to exhibit protected fauna; No. 80, 1974
- (c) to dispose of, whether by sale or otherwise, any fauna taken or killed, obtained or exhibited under the authority of the licence;
- (d) to sell any fauna in his lawful possession, otherwise than as a fauna dealer or skin dealer.

(2) A general licence does not, except in so far as the terms of the licence otherwise expressly provide, authorise the taking or killing of fauna in a national park, historic site, nature reserve, wildlife district, wildlife refuge or game reserve.

121. (1) An authorised officer may issue a licence (in this Act referred to as an "occupier's licence"), authorising an owner or occupier of specified lands—

- (a) to take or kill; or
- (b) to permit a person, holding a general licence issued to him under section 120 or a trapper's licence issued to him under section 123, to take or kill, a specified number of fauna of a specified class found on those lands and the licence may authorise the disposal, whether by sale or otherwise, of fauna taken or killed under the authority of the licence.

(2) An occupier's licence shall not be issued unless the licensee has been supplied by the Service with labels, tags, slips or other objects sufficient in number to affix or attach, in compliance with any condition of the licence, to the skin or carcass of fauna taken or killed under the authority of the licence.

(3) An occupier's licence shall not be issued with respect to endangered fauna.

National Parks and Wildlife.

No. 80, 1974 122. (1) An authorised officer may issue a licence (in this Act referred to as a "game licence"), authorising a person—

Game licence.

- (a) to take or kill any protected fauna of the species named in an order declaring an open season, under section 95, in the whole of New South Wales or the part of New South Wales or the locality referred to in the order, subject to the conditions and restrictions (if any) prescribed in the order; or
- (b) to take or kill any fauna of the species specified in a proclamation under section 67 or 69 in a wildlife district or game reserve to which the proclamation relates, subject to the conditions and restrictions (if any) prescribed in the proclamation.

(2) A game licence does not authorise a person—

- (a) to take or kill any endangered fauna;
- (b) to take or kill any fauna in a national park, historic site, nature reserve or wildlife refuge; or
- (c) to take or kill any fauna for the purpose of sale.

Trapper's licence.

123. (1) An authorised officer may issue a licence (in this Act referred to as a "trapper's licence"), authorising a person to take or kill fauna of a species named therein for the purposes of sale.

(2) A trapper's licence does not, except in so far as the terms of the licence otherwise expressly provide, authorise the taking or killing of fauna in a national park, historic site, nature reserve, wildlife district, wildlife refuge or game reserve.

Fauna dealer's licence.

124. (1) An authorised officer may issue a licence (in this Act referred to as a "fauna dealer's licence"), authorising a person to buy or sell fauna as a fauna dealer and otherwise to exercise or carry on the business of a fauna dealer.

(2)

National Parks and Wildlife.

(2) A person licensed under subsection (1) shall ^{No. 80, 1974} not exercise or carry on business as a fauna dealer in New South Wales at or on any premises that are not registered under this section.

(3) An authorised officer may issue registration certificates in respect of each of the premises at or on which a person licensed under subsection (1) exercises or carries on business as a fauna dealer in New South Wales.

125. (1) An authorised officer may issue a licence (in this Act referred to as a "skin dealer's licence"), authorising a person to buy or sell skins as a skin dealer and otherwise to exercise or carry on the business of a skin dealer. ^{Skin dealer's licence.}

(2) A person licensed under subsection (1) shall not exercise or carry on business as a skin dealer in New South Wales at or on any premises that are not registered under this section.

(3) An authorised officer may issue registration certificates in respect of each of the premises at or on which a person licensed under subsection (1) exercises or carries on business as a skin dealer in New South Wales.

126. (1) An authorised officer may issue a licence (in this Act referred to as an "import licence"), authorising a person to import protected fauna into New South Wales. ^{Import and export licences.}

(2) An authorised officer may issue a licence (in this Act referred to as an "export licence"), authorising a person to export protected fauna from New South Wales.

(3) Where an application for an import licence or an export licence has been made in accordance with the regulations, the application shall not be refused except on one or more of such grounds (if any) as are prescribed for the purposes of this subsection.

National Parks and Wildlife.

No. 80, 1974 127. An authorised officer may issue a licence authorising a person to liberate, in New South Wales, fauna not native to New South Wales.

Licence to liberate fauna.

Aviary registration certificates. 128. (1) An authorised officer may issue to any person a certificate (in this Act referred to as an "aviary registration certificate") in respect of specified premises.

(2) An aviary registration certificate authorises the person to whom it is issued—

- (a) to sell any bird, being protected fauna, to a prescribed person; or
- (b) to buy any bird, being protected fauna, from a prescribed person.

(3) In subsection (2), "prescribed person" means a person who—

- (a) is licensed to exercise or carry on the business of a fauna dealer under section 124; or
- (b) is the holder of an aviary registration certificate issued to him under this section.

Certain licences authorise shooting, etc., in national parks, etc.

129. Except in so far as the conditions and restrictions attaching thereto otherwise provide—

- (a) a licence, being a general licence under section 120, an occupier's licence under section 121 or a trapper's licence under section 123, that authorises a person to take or kill any animal in a national park, historic site or nature reserve, also authorises that person to do, in connection with the taking or killing of any such animal, any act referred to in section 45 (1) or 56 (1); and
- (b) a licence, being a general licence under section 120, an occupier's licence under section 121, a game licence under section 122 or a trapper's licence

under

National Parks and Wildlife.

under section 123, that authorises a person to take or kill any fauna in a wildlife district, wildlife refuge or game reserve, also authorises that person to do, in connection with the taking or killing of any such fauna, any act referred to in section 70 (1) or (2). No. 80, 1974

130. Except in so far as the licence or certificate otherwise provides, a licence or certificate under this Division that authorises a person to take or kill or to obtain any fauna also authorises him to keep and have the fauna in his possession. Certain licences and certificates deemed to authorise possession.

DIVISION 3.—Native plants.

131. An authorised officer may issue a licence authorising a person to pick the protected native plants specified therein for scientific or commercial purposes. Licence to pick native plants for scientific or commercial purposes.

132. An authorised officer may issue a licence authorising an owner or occupier of private land to grow upon that private land, or part thereof specified in the licence, protected native plants for the purposes of sale. Licence to grow native plants for sale.

DIVISION 4.—General.

133. (1) A licence or certificate issued under this Part shall be subject to such conditions and restrictions (if any) as are for the time being prescribed in relation to licences or certificates of the class to which the licence or certificate belongs. Conditions and restrictions attaching to licences and certificates and variation of licences and certificates.

(2) An authorised officer may, if he thinks fit, attach any conditions or restrictions to a licence or certificate upon its issue.

(3) An authorised officer may, by notice in writing served on the holder of a licence or certificate—

(a) attach any conditions or restrictions to the licence or certificate after its issue;

(b)

No. 80, 1974

(b) vary or remove any conditions or restrictions attached by any authorised officer to the licence or certificate; or

(c) otherwise vary the licence or certificate.

(4) The holder of a licence or certificate shall not contravene or fail to comply with any condition or restriction attached to the licence or certificate.

(5) Subsections (2) and (3) do not apply to an import licence or export licence under section 126.

Cancellation of licence or certificate.

134. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a licence or certificate issued under this Part may be cancelled by the Minister or the Director.

(2) An import licence or export licence under section 126 shall not be cancelled under this section except on one or more of such grounds (if any) as are prescribed for the purposes of this subsection.

Appeal.

135. (1) A person whose application for a licence or certificate under this Part is refused, or whose licence or certificate has been cancelled by the Director, or who is dissatisfied with any condition or restriction which an authorised officer has attached to his licence or certificate, may appeal to the Minister.

(2) The Minister—

(a) may refuse to grant the appeal; or

(b) may grant the appeal wholly or in part, and may give such directions in the matter as seem proper.

(3) The decision of the Minister on the appeal is final and is binding on the Director and the appellant, and shall be carried into effect accordingly.

(4)

National Parks and Wildlife.

(4) Where the regulations prescribe—

No. 80, 1974

- (a) the manner in which an appeal is to be made under this section—the appeal shall be made in that manner; or
- (b) the period within which an appeal is to be made under this section—the appeal shall be made within that period.

(5) Where the Director fails to grant an application for a licence or certificate under this Part, the application shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to be refused upon the expiration of—

- (a) subject to paragraph (b)—one month after the application was received by the Director; or
- (b) where the regulations prescribe some other period—that other period.

136. Where, had this Act not been enacted—

- (a) the consent or permission of any person would have been required for entering any lands or doing any act on or in respect of any lands, the issue of a licence under this Part does not authorise the entering of those lands, or the doing of that act on those lands, without that consent or permission; or
- (b) the doing of an act on or in respect of any lands would have been unlawful, the issue of a licence under this Part does not authorise the doing of that act.

National Parks and Wildlife.

- (xi) policies of insurance under which money is ^{No. 80, 1974} paid to the Minister or the Director with respect to any national park, historic site, nature reserve or Aboriginal area, or any property in the custody or under the control of the Director;
- (c) any money acquired by the Minister pursuant to section 148;
- (d) any money received by the Minister pursuant to section 149;
- (e) any other money received in connection with any national park, historic site, nature reserve or Aboriginal area or any proposed national park, historic site, nature reserve or Aboriginal area;
- (f) any money received in connection with any wildlife refuge or game reserve; and
- (g) any other money received in connection with the administration of this Act, other than money received in the prescribed circumstances (if any).

(2) Where any money acquired by the Minister pursuant to section 148 is subject to any condition to which the Minister has agreed, the money shall be carried to a separate account in the Fund and shall be applied in accordance with the condition.

(3) Any money referred to in subsection (2) may, pending application in accordance with the condition so referred to, be invested by the Minister with the Treasurer or in any manner in which trustees are for the time being authorised to invest trust funds.

National Parks and Wildlife.

No. 80, 1974 139. (1) No money shall be paid out of the Fund except under the authority of this Act.

Payments out of the Fund.

(2) There may be paid out of the Fund—

- (a) all charges, costs and expenses incurred by the Minister or the Director in exercising and performing his powers, authorities, duties and functions under this Act;
- (b) all money allocated by the Minister for expenditure by trustees on any national park or historic site;
- (c) the fees and travelling and other expenses payable to the members of the Council or any committee under this Act;
- (d) the cost of acquiring land for national parks, historic sites or nature reserves;
- (e) the cost of improvement of any land adjoining or in the vicinity of a national park, historic site, nature reserve or Aboriginal area, where in the opinion of the Minister this is desirable to provide or improve access to the park, site, reserve or area, or to provide or improve facilities or amenities for persons visiting the park, site, reserve or area;
- (f) all money which the Minister directs shall be set aside to provide a reserve for insurance;
- (g) all money allocated by the Minister for expenditure on Aboriginal areas;
- (h) the cost of acquiring relics or land in which relics or Aboriginal places are situated;
- (i) the cost of erecting and maintaining buildings or structures for the safe custody, storage or exhibition of any relic;
- (j) the cost of entering into, and giving effect to, agreements under sections 145 and 146;
- (k) the cost of carrying out the purposes for which land is acquired or occupied under section 146;

(1)

National Parks and Wildlife.

(l) all costs incurred under sections 147 and 149; No. 80, 1974

(m) all money allocated by the Minister for use in connection with a wildlife refuge or game reserve; and

(n) all money to be paid to a pastures protection board under section 141.

(3) Any money set aside, as referred to in subsection (2) (f), may be invested by the Minister with the Treasurer or in any manner in which trustees are for the time being authorised to invest trust funds.

(4) Where—

(a) any lands are purchased under section 147 out of money wholly or partly provided by Parliament; and

(b) those lands, or any part thereof, are sold under section 149, there shall be paid from the Fund to the Treasurer, out of the proceeds of the sale referred to in paragraph (b), such amount as the Treasurer may determine.

140. (1) The Director shall from time to time assess the amount of the contribution to be paid by the holder of a lease of or licence to occupy or use lands within a national park, historic site or nature reserve for the cost of providing or maintaining any community service in the park, site or reserve. Community
contribution.

(2) The amount of the contribution shall be due and payable to and recoverable by the Director on the expiration of three months from the service of a notice of the amount of the contribution on the holder of the lease or licence.

(3)

No. 80, 1974

(3) If the contribution is not paid by the due date the amount due shall be increased by an amount calculated at the rate of nine per centum per annum simple interest until it has been paid.

(4) The Minister, on the recommendation of the Director, may for any reason which to him seems sufficient exempt any such holder from the payment of such a contribution or part thereof or the payment of any such interest or part thereof.

Payment

protection
boards in Western Division.

141. (1) In this section, "board" means a pastures protection board for a pastures protection district within the Western Division within the meaning of the Pastures Protection Act, 1934.

(2) There shall, subject to this section, be payable to a board an amount equal to the amount that would have been payable to the board under Part III of the Pastures Protection Act, 1934, by way of rates for any period, in respect of all lands within its district reserved as national parks or historic sites or dedicated as nature reserves, had those lands been ratable lands under that Act at all relevant times after they were so reserved or dedicated.

(3) No amount is payable under subsection (2) except upon an application—

- (a) made to the Director in the prescribed manner and within the prescribed time; and
- (b) containing the prescribed particulars.

(4) Any dispute between the Director and a board with respect to the particulars contained in an application or the amount payable under this section shall be determined in accordance with such directions as the Minister, after consultation with the Minister for Agriculture, may give.

(5) Nothing in this section requires or authorises the payment of an amount in relation to any period before the commencement day.

under this Act or in connection with any national park, historic site, nature reserve or Aboriginal area, he may make, demand, levy and recover such charges and fees as may be prescribed or where no charge or fee is prescribed such charges and fees as may be fixed by him, subject to the maximum (if any) prescribed.

144. Lands within a national park, historic site or nature reserve shall be exempt from rates under the Local Government Act, 1919, and that exemption shall not be affected by any lease, licence, occupancy or use of the lands. Exemption from rates.

PART

ACQUISITION AND DISPOSAL OF PROPERTY.

Acquisition
of lands
for national park, etc.

145. Where the Minister is of the opinion that it is desirable to acquire any lands—

- (a) for reservation as, or as part of, a national park or historic site;
- (b) for dedication as, or as part of, a nature reserve; or
- (c) for the purpose of preserving, protecting and preventing damage to relics or Aboriginal places therein, he may, on behalf of Her Majesty, enter into and give effect to an agreement for the vesting in, or surrender to, Her Majesty of the lands.

Acquisition
or occupation of lands for certain purposes.

146. (1) For the purpose of—

- (a) improving access to a national park, historic site or nature reserve;
- (b) the management, maintenance or improvement of a national park, historic site or nature reserve; or
- (c) carrying out works for any of those purposes,

the Minister may, on behalf of Her Majesty, enter into, and give effect to, an agreement for the vesting in, surrender to, or leasing to, Her Majesty, or for the occupation under licence, of any lands adjoining or in the vicinity of the national park, historic site or nature reserve.

(2) The Minister may, on behalf of Her Majesty, enter into, and give effect to, an agreement for the vesting in, surrender to, or leasing to, Her Majesty, or for the occupation under licence, of any lands for use in connection with the administration of this Act.

National Parks and Wildlife.

147. Without affecting the powers of the Minister under section 145 or 146, where the Minister is, for any of the purposes referred to in either of those sections, empowered to take action under either of those sections with respect to any lands, he may, where he considers it appropriate to do so, instead of taking that action, himself acquire those lands, by purchase or exchange, for that purpose.

No. 80, 1974

Power of Minister to acquire.

148. (1) The Minister may acquire, by gift inter vivos, devise or bequest, any property for the purposes of this Act and may agree to the condition of any such gift, devise or bequest.

Power of Minister to accept gifts, etc.

(2) The rule of law against remoteness of vesting shall not apply to any such condition to which the Minister has agreed.

(3) Where the Minister acquires property under subsection (1)—

- (a) neither an instrument that effects the acquisition nor any agreement pursuant to which the property is acquired is chargeable with duty under the Stamp Duties Act, 1920; and
- (b) the property, or the value of property, shall not be included in the dutiable estate of the donor or testator for the purposes of assessing death duty under that Act.

(4) Notwithstanding anything in Part IV, lands acquired under this section shall not be—

- (a) reserved as, or as part of, a national park or historic site; or
 - (b) dedicated as, or as part of, a nature reserve,
- in contravention of any such condition to which the Minister has agreed.

 of lands,
 gifts, etc.

149. Except where the Minister has otherwise agreed, the Minister may sell, grant leases of, dispose of or otherwise deal with any lands or other property acquired under section 147 or 148, or any interest therein, but nothing in this section applies to or in respect of lands while—

- (a) reserved as, or as part of, a national park or historic site; or
- (b) dedicated as, or as part of, a nature reserve.

Minister
 to be corporation sole for certain purposes.

150. (1) For the purposes of the exercise and performance of his authorities, duties and functions under sections 147, 148 and 149, the Minister is hereby constituted a corporation sole under the name of "Minister administering the National Parks and Wildlife Act, 1974".

(2) The corporation sole constituted by this section—

- (a) has perpetual succession;
- (b) shall have an official seal;
- (c) may take proceedings and be proceeded against in the corporate name;
- (d) may, in accordance with this Act, purchase, exchange, hold, dispose of and otherwise deal with property; and
- (e) may do and suffer all other things that a body corporate generally may, by law, do and suffer and that are necessary for or incidental to the purposes for which the corporation sole is constituted.

(3) The seal of the corporation sole so constituted shall not be affixed to any instrument or document except in the presence of the Minister, and he shall attest by his signature the fact and date of the affixing of the seal.

(4)

National Parks and Wildlife.

(4) All courts and persons acting judicially— No. 80, 1974

- (a) shall take judicial notice of the seal of the corporation sole so constituted that has been affixed to any instrument or document; and
- (b) shall until the contrary is proved presume that the seal was properly affixed.

PART XII.

LEASES, LICENCES, EASEMENTS, ETC.

151. (1) The Minister may—
- (a) grant leases of land within a national park or historic site for the purpose of—
 - (i) the erection thereon of accommodation hotels or accommodation houses; or
 - (ii) the provision thereon of facilities and amenities for tourists and visitors;
 - (b) grant leases of lands within a national park or historic site on which accommodation hotels or accommodation houses have been erected or facilities and amenities for tourists and visitors have been provided;
 - (c) grant leases of lands within a national park or historic site for—
 - (i) the erection of buildings thereon; or
 - (ii) the occupation or the use of buildings erected thereon, for use in connection with—
 - (iii) the protection or preservation of the park or site from fire;

- (iv) the provision of services relating to the work of rendering first aid to, and the transport of, sick and injured persons;
 - (v) a surf life-saving club; or
 - (vi) any purpose of a like nature;
- (d) grant leases of lands within a nature reserve for—
- (i) the erection of buildings thereon; or
 - (ii) the occupation or the use of buildings erected thereon,
- for any of the purposes specified in section 49;
- (e) grant leases of lands within a national park, historic site or nature reserve on which buildings have been erected for residential occupation; or
- (f) grant licences to occupy or use lands within a national park, historic site or nature reserve.

(2) The Minister may—

- (a) for any purpose specified in section 146 (1) (a), (b) or (c) grant a lease of, or a licence with respect to, lands acquired or occupied under section 146 (1); or
- (b) for use in connection with the administration of this Act grant a lease of, or a licence with respect to, lands referred to in section 146 (2).

(3) Nothing in this section affects the powers of the Minister under section 149 with respect to lands referred to in that section.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), any lease or licence granted under this section or section 149 shall be subject to such terms and conditions as the Minister may determine.

(5)

National Parks and Wildlife.

(5) Where any term or condition of a lease or licence granted under this section purports to affect lands within a national park, historic site or nature reserve that are lands submerged by water and the term or condition is inconsistent with a plan of management in force for the park, site or reserve, the term or condition shall, to the extent of the inconsistency, have no force or effect. No. 80, 1974

152. (1) The Director may grant licences to carry on trades, businesses or occupations within a national park or historic site. Trade within a national park or historic site.

(2) Subject to any by-laws, the Minister may prohibit the carrying on of any trade, business or occupation within a national park or historic site otherwise than by some person licensed by the Director.

(3) The Minister may grant a franchise to any person, on such terms and conditions as the Minister may determine, for the sale of goods and services, the provision of public transportation or the supply of other facilities and amenities within a national park or historic site.

(4) Any franchise granted by the trustees of the whole or part of lands reserved after the commencement day as a national park or historic site, and in force immediately before the lands were so reserved, shall be deemed to be a franchise granted by the Minister under this section and to be as valid and effectual as it would have been if this Act had been in force when the franchise was granted.

153. (1) The Minister may upon such terms and conditions as he thinks fit grant for joint or several use easements or rights of way through, upon or in a national park, historic site or nature reserve for the purpose of providing access to any area included in any lease or licence within the park, site Easements.

National Parks and Wildlife.

No. 80, 1974 (2) A regulation or by-law may be made so as to apply differently according to such factors as may be specified therein.

(3) A regulation or by-law may be made so as to apply to or in respect of—

- (a) any matter, or all matters, or any class of matters specified or described therein; or
- (b) all matters, or any class of matters, so specified or described other than—
 - (i) any matter so specified or described that is expressed to be excluded; or
 - (ii) any class of matters so specified or described that is expressed to be excluded.

(4) A regulation or by-law may authorise any matter or thing to be from time to time determined, applied or regulated by any person or body specified therein.

PART XIV.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Requirement to state name and address.

157. (1) The Director or any officer of the Service may require a person whom he suspects on reasonable grounds to be offending against this Act, the regulations or the by-laws to state his full name and his place of abode.

(2) The Director, or any other officer of the Service duly authorised by the Director in that behalf, may require the driver of a motor vehicle in a national park, historic site, nature reserve or Aboriginal area to produce his driver's licence and to state his full name and his place of abode.

(3)

National Parks and Wildlife.

(3) A person shall not—

No. 80, 1974

- (a) fail or refuse to comply with a requirement under subsection (1) or (2); or
- (b) in purported compliance with such a requirement, state a name that is not his name or a place of abode that is not his place of abode.

Penalty for an offence against this subsection : $200.

158. (1) Where the driver of a motor vehicle is alleged to be guilty of an offence against this Act, the regulations or the by-laws, the Director or any other officer of the Service may—

Requirement for owner of motor vehicle and others to give information.

- (a) require the owner of the vehicle, or the person in whose name it is registered, or the person having the custody of the vehicle, to give forthwith information (which shall, if so required, be given in the form of a statement in writing, signed by that owner or person) as to the name and place of abode of the driver; or
- (b) require any other person to give any information which it is in his power to give and which may lead to the identification of the driver.

(2) A person shall not—

- (a) fail or refuse to comply with a requirement under subsection (1); or
- (b) in purported compliance with such a requirement, give any information that is false or misleading in a material particular.

Penalty : $200.

No. 80, 1974

(3) In a prosecution for an offence in respect of a failure or refusal to comply with a requirement under subsection (1) (a), it is a defence if the defendant proves to the satisfaction of the court that he did not know and could not with reasonable diligence have ascertained the name or place of abode of the driver concerned or both, as the case may require.

(4) Where a statement in writing purporting to be furnished under subsection (1) (a) and to contain particulars of the name and place of abode of the driver of a motor vehicle at the time of commission of an alleged offence against this Act, the regulations or the by-laws is produced in any court in proceedings against the person named therein as the driver for the offence, the statement shall, if that person does not appear before the court, be evidence without proof of signature that he was the driver of the vehicle at that time.

Liability of vehicle owner for parking offences.

159. (1) In this section—

“owner”, in relation to a vehicle, includes—

- (a) a person who is the owner or joint owner or part owner of the vehicle and any person, other than the lessor under a hire-purchase agreement relating to the vehicle, who has the use of the vehicle under such an agreement; and
- (b) in the case of a vehicle that is a motor vehicle—

- (i) the person in whose name the vehicle is registered under the regulations made under the Motor Traffic Act, 1909, except where that person has sold or otherwise disposed of the vehicle and has complied with the provisions of those regulations applicable to him with respect to that sale or disposal; or

(ii)

National Parks and Wildlife.

- (ii) where the vehicle has affixed to it a trader's plate issued under that Act for use as prescribed by those regulations—the person to whom that trader's plate is on issue;

“parking offence” means the offence committed by a person who, in contravention of the regulations or by-laws made under this Act—

- (a) moors or parks a vehicle; or
- (b) causes or permits a vehicle to be moored or parked or to stand or wait.

(2) Where a parking offence occurs, the person who, at the time of the occurrence of the offence, is the owner of the vehicle to which the offence relates is, by virtue of this section, guilty of an offence under the regulation or by-law relating to the parking offence in all respects as if he were the actual offender guilty of the parking offence unless—

- (a) in any case where the parking offence is dealt with under section 160, the owner satisfies the prescribed person referred to in that section that the vehicle was, at the relevant time, a stolen vehicle or a vehicle illegally taken or used; or
- (b) in any other case, the court is satisfied that the vehicle was, at the relevant time, a stolen vehicle or a vehicle illegally taken or used.

(3) Nothing in this section affects the liability of an actual offender in respect of a parking offence but, where a penalty has been imposed on, or recovered from, any person in relation to any parking offence, no further penalty shall be imposed on or recovered from any other person in relation thereto.

No. 80, 1974

(4) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (2) or (3), no owner of a vehicle is, by virtue of this section, guilty of an offence if—

(a) in any case where the offence is dealt with under section 160, he—

(i) within twenty-one days after service on him of a notice under that section alleging that he has been guilty of that offence, supplies by statutory declaration to the prescribed person referred to in that section the name and address of the person who was in charge of the vehicle at all relevant times relating to the parking offence concerned; or

(ii) satisfies the prescribed person so referred to that he does not know, and cannot with reasonable diligence ascertain, that name and address; or

(b) in any other case, he—

(i) within twenty-one days after service on him of a summons in respect of that offence, supplies by statutory declaration to the informant the name and address of the person who was in charge of the vehicle at all relevant times relating to the parking offence concerned; or

(ii) satisfies the court that he did not know and could not with reasonable diligence have ascertained that name and address.

(5) A statutory declaration that relates to more than one parking offence shall be deemed not to be a statutory declaration supplying a name and address for the purposes of subsection (4).

National Parks and Wildlife.

(6) Where a statutory declaration supplying the name and address of a person for the purposes of subsection (4) is produced in any proceedings against that person in respect of the parking offence to which the statutory declaration relates, the statutory declaration is prima facie evidence that that person was, at all relevant times relating to that parking offence, in charge of the vehicle to which the parking offence relates. No. 80, 1974

(7) The provisions of this section shall be construed as supplementing, and not as derogating from, any other provision of this Act, the regulations or the by-laws or any other Act or regulation, by-law or ordinance under any other Act.

160. (1) In this section, "owner" and "parking offence" have the meanings respectively ascribed thereto in section 159. Penalty notice for certain offences.

(2) Where it appears to a prescribed person that another person is, by virtue of section 159, guilty of an offence, the prescribed person may serve a notice on that other person to the effect that, if that other person does not desire to have the matter determined by a court he may, within a time specified in the notice, pay to a person so specified the amount of penalty prescribed for the offence if dealt with under this section.

(3) A notice under subsection (2)—

- (a) may be served as provided by section 174; or
- (b) may be addressed to the owner of the vehicle to which the parking offence relates without naming him or stating his address and may be served by leaving it on, or attaching it to, the vehicle.

No. 80, 1974

(4) A person alleged to have committed an offence referred to in subsection (2) shall not be dealt with under this section if he declines so to be dealt with and, if any such person fails within the time specified in a notice given to him under subsection (2) (or within such further time as, in his case, may have been allowed) to pay the penalty so specified he shall be deemed to have declined to be dealt with under this section.

(5) Where the penalty for an offence dealt with under this section is paid pursuant to this section in respect of an alleged offence—

- (a) no person may be proceeded against for the alleged offence; and
- (b) the payment shall not be construed as an admission of liability for the purpose of, nor in any way affect or prejudice, any civil claim, action or proceeding arising out of the facts constituting the alleged offence.

(6) The penalty prescribed for an offence dealt with under this section shall not exceed the maximum penalty that might be imposed by a court if the offence were dealt with otherwise than under this section.

(7) This section shall be construed as supplementing, and not as derogating from, any other Act in relation to proceedings that may be taken in respect of offences.

Seizure
of motor vehicles.

161. (1) An officer of the Service duly authorised by the Director in that behalf may seize and take charge of and remove or tow away, or cause to be removed or towed away, any motor vehicle which he believes on reasonable grounds—

- (a) to be a danger or unreasonable obstruction to traffic; or
- (b) to be unattended and to have been abandoned, in a national park, historic site, nature reserve or Aboriginal area.

(2)

National Parks and Wildlife.

(2) Any motor vehicle so removed or towed away No. 80, 1974 may be kept or impounded at any place appointed or set apart by the Director for the purpose.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (1), before seizure of a motor vehicle under this section, the officer referred to in that subsection shall—

(a) if no person is in charge of the motor vehicle—

(i) make reasonable inquiry for the purpose of locating the owner or driver of the vehicle; and

(ii) if upon inquiry under subparagraph (i) the owner or driver of the vehicle is located, request him to remove the vehicle or cause it to be removed forthwith and afford him a reasonable opportunity to comply with the request; or

(b) if any person is in charge of the vehicle, request him to remove the vehicle or cause it to be removed forthwith and afford him a reasonable opportunity to comply with the request.

(4) The inquiry referred to in subsection (3) (a) shall be made in the vicinity of the place where the vehicle is found.

(5) Upon seizure of a motor vehicle under this section the Director shall—

(a) where the name and address of the owner of the vehicle are recorded at the office of the Commissioner for Motor Transport in respect of the registration (if any) of the vehicle, within a period of fourteen days after the seizure send or cause to be sent to the owner a notice setting out particulars of the time, date and place of the seizure and the place where the vehicle is kept or impounded; or

(b)

National Parks and Wildlife.

No. 80, 1974

(b) where the name and address of the owner of the vehicle are not so recorded—

(i) within a period of fourteen days after the seizure send or cause to be sent to the owner if he can, after reasonable inquiry, be located a notice setting out the particulars referred to in paragraph (a); or

(ii) if the owner cannot, after reasonable inquiry, be located, cause a notice setting out the particulars to be published in a newspaper circulating in the area in which the vehicle was seized.

(6) Except in the case of a motor vehicle which is dealt with under the provisions of subsection (7), the following conditions shall be observed before the release of a motor vehicle kept or impounded under this section :—

(a) the application for the release shall be made by the owner of the vehicle or by a person acting for and on behalf of the owner to an officer-in-charge of the place at which the vehicle is kept or impounded (in this subsection referred to as the "officer-in-charge");

(b) the applicant shall furnish evidence as to the ownership of the vehicle to the satisfaction of the officer-in-charge; and

(c) the vehicle shall not be released from custody unless—

(i) the officer-in-charge is satisfied that the applicant is the owner of the vehicle or that he possesses authority to act for and on behalf of the owner;

(ii)

National Parks and Wildlife.

- (ii) the appropriate amount fixed by the Minister as the amount payable in respect of the seizure, taking charge of, removal, towing away, keeping, impounding or releasing of the vehicle has been paid to the officer-in-charge; and
- (iii) the applicant has signed a receipt for the delivery of the vehicle on a form supplied to him by the officer-in-charge.

(7) If within a period of three months after the date upon which the motor vehicle has been seized the owner has failed to claim the vehicle and to pay the amount referred to in subsection (6) (c) (ii), the vehicle may, after the expiration of that period, be disposed of or destroyed in accordance with the directions of the Director.

(8) In this section, "motor vehicle" includes a trailer or caravan designed or adapted to be towed by a motor vehicle (as defined in section 5 (1)), whether or not the trailer or caravan is in the course of being towed.

162. (1) Subject to this section, the Director shall have and may exercise and discharge, in respect of a national park, historic site, nature reserve or Aboriginal area, the same powers, authorities, duties and functions in relation to pounds, impounding and related matters as are conferred or imposed on a council in respect of lands under its control in its local government area by the Local Government Act, 1919, and the provisions of Part XVIII of that Act shall, with such modifications as are necessary, apply to and in respect of pounds opened, established, managed and maintained, and impoundings effected, pursuant to those powers, authorities, duties and functions and to and in respect of matters related to those pounds and impoundings.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), Part XVIII of the Local Government Act, 1919, shall be read and construed as if—

- (a) sections 423, 425A, 426 (2) and (3), 427, 428, 429, 430 (2), 431 (1), (2) and (4), 439, 441 and 442 had been omitted therefrom;

(b)

National Parks and Wildlife.

- No. 80, 1974
- (b) the words "at large in any public place or" had been omitted from section 426 (1);
 - (c) "animal" meant any cattle, horse, ass, mule, sheep, goat, swine or dog;
 - (d) "prescribed" meant prescribed by, or by by-laws made under, this Act;
 - (e) a reference to the mayor or president of a council were a reference to the Director; and
 - (f) a direction for the payment of money to a council, or to the General Fund of a council, were a direction for payment of the money to the National Parks and Wildlife Fund.

(3) A pound opened, established, managed and maintained by the Director shall be used exclusively for impounding animals found trespassing in a national park, historic site, nature reserve or Aboriginal area.

(4) The Director, in relation to a national park, historic site, nature reserve or Aboriginal area, shall have and may exercise the powers conferred by the provisions of section 15 of the Impounding Act, 1898, and section 429 (1) of the Local Government Act, 1919, on an occupant in relation to his lands, but may, instead of demanding and being paid, or recovering, the fees and charges referred to in those provisions, demand and be paid, or recover, in the manner provided by those provisions, deterrent fees and driving charges as prescribed.

(5) A person authorised by the Director for the purpose shall have, in relation to a national park, historic site, nature reserve or Aboriginal area the same powers as are conferred by section 438 of the Local Government Act, 1919, on an occupant in relation to the lands occupied by him.

National Parks and Wildlife.

(6) The Director may, with the approval of the Minister, contribute towards the cost of opening, enlarging or maintaining any public pound in the vicinity of any national park, historic site, nature reserve or Aboriginal area, being a pound that will be available for use for impounding animals trespassing on a national park, historic site, nature reserve or Aboriginal area. No. 80, 1974

(7) Where an animal trespassing on a national park, historic site, nature reserve or Aboriginal area is impounded in a pound opened, established, managed and maintained under the Impounding Act, 1898, or the Local Government Act, 1919, the fees and charges payable in respect thereof shall be those payable in respect of an impounding by an occupant and, for that purpose, the Director shall be deemed to be the occupant who impounded the animal.

(8) In subsection (6), "public pound" includes a place referred to in section 23 (b) of the Dog Act, 1966.

163. (1) In this section, "area", "council" and "dog" have the meanings respectively ascribed thereto in section 4 (1) of the Dog Act, 1966. Application of Dog
Act, 1966.

(2) Part III of the Dog Act, 1966, does not apply to or in respect of the seizure of a dog in a national park, historic site, nature reserve or Aboriginal area by an officer of the Service, but if he causes the dog to be delivered to any duly authorised servant or agent of the council of the area in which the dog was seized at a place provided for the purpose in accordance with section 23 (b) of that Act, section 11 of that Act applies to and in respect of that dog as if it had been seized under section 10 of that Act.

(3) Nothing in this section applies with respect to the seizure of a dog with respect to which Part III of the Dog Act, 1966, would not have applied had this Part not been enacted.

164.

National Parks and Wildlife.

No. 80, 1974 164. (1) The Director or an officer of the Service duly authorised by the Director in that behalf—

Powers of entry
and seizure.

(a) may at all times, if he suspects on reasonable grounds that an offence against any of the provisions of this Act, the regulations or the by-laws has been committed and that any animal, native plant, relic or article in respect of which the suspected offence has been committed or which has been used in connection with the suspected offence is likely to be in or upon any premises or vehicle, on production of the prescribed evidence of his authority—

(i) stop any such vehicle;

(ii) enter and search any such premises or vehicle; and

(iii) subject to his giving a receipt in the prescribed form seize any such animal, native plant, relic (not being real property) or article found therein or thereon together with any books, papers or records relating to the suspected offence and make copies of, or take extracts from, any such papers, books or records;

(b) may at all times, on production of the prescribed evidence of his authority, enter any premises or vehicle for the purpose of—

(i) inspecting any premises registered under section 124, 125 or 128;

(ii) inspecting any premises in which fauna are housed or caged under the authority of a general licence under section 120;

(iii) inspecting any lands on which protected native plants are grown under the authority of a licence under section 132; or

- (c) may, for the enforcement of the provisions of this Act, the regulations or the by-laws, exercise the powers and authority of a constable.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not—
- (a) apply in relation to an offence of a class or description prescribed for the purposes of this subsection;
- (b) authorise the seizure of a vehicle within the meaning of paragraph (a), (b), (c) or (e) of the definition of “vehicle” in section 5 (1) or any prescribed article; or
- (c) authorise any person to enter in or upon that portion of a building that is used for residential purposes except under written authority given by the Minister.
- (c)—
- (3) An authority referred to in subsection (2)
- (a) may be general in its application or may be limited to specified premises;
- (b) subject to paragraph (c), shall remain in force for the specified period; and
- (c) may be revoked at any time by the Minister.
- (4) The power of seizure under subsection (1)
- (a) may be exercised without exercising any of the other powers under subsection (1) (a).

(5)

National Parks and Wildlife.

No. 80, 1974

(5) Where the Director, or an officer of the Service duly authorised by the Director in that behalf, complains on oath that he has reason to suspect, and believes, that an offence against any of the provisions of this Act, the regulations or the by-laws has been committed and that there may be an animal, native plant, relic or article, in respect of which the suspected offence has been committed or which has been used in connection with the suspected offence, on specified premises or on a specified vehicle, a stipendiary magistrate may, by warrant under his hand, authorise the complainant to enter and search those premises or that vehicle.

(6) A person authorised under subsection (5) to enter premises or a vehicle may use force, whether by breaking open doors or otherwise, for the purpose of entering the premises and may—

- (a) execute the warrant; and
- (b) exercise the power of seizure under subsection (1) (a),

with the aid of such assistants as he deems necessary.

(7) A warrant may be issued under subsection (5) authorising a person to enter in or upon that portion of a building that is used for residential purposes notwithstanding that a written authority referred to in subsection (2) (c) has not been given authorising that person to make that entry.

Persons to deliver up fauna, etc., when required.

165. (1) Where the Director, or an officer of the Service duly authorised by the Director in that behalf, suspects on reasonable grounds any person to be committing an offence against any of the provisions of this Act, the regulations or the by-laws, he may, on production of the prescribed evidence of his authority, require that person to deliver up any animal, native plant, relic (not being real property) or article in his possession in respect of which the suspected offence is being committed or which is being used in connection with the suspected offence.

or delivered up under section 165 is fauna or is perishable, it may forthwith be disposed of, by way of sale or otherwise, by the Director or an officer of the Service duly authorised by the Director in that behalf.

(2) The proceeds of any sale under subsection (1) shall be paid into the Fund.

(3) The payment to a person from the Fund of an amount equal to the proceeds of the sale of any property under subsection (1) operates as a discharge of any obligation to deliver up that property to that person and such a payment in discharge of any such obligation imposed by an order of the court prescribed in relation to the property under section 168 is hereby authorised.

168. (1) Subject to this section, where— Disposal of property

- (c) any person applies to the court prescribed in relation to the property for an order that the property be delivered to a specified person, that court may, whether or not it is the court making the conviction, make such an order.

(2) Subject to this section, where—

- (a) property has been seized under section 164 or delivered up under section 165; and
- (b) an information for an offence (being an offence on or after a conviction for which an order could be made under subsection (1) in respect of the property) has not been laid within six months after the seizure or delivering up of the property.

the court prescribed in relation to the property may, on the application of any person, order that the property be delivered to a specified person.

(3) An application for an order under subsection (1) may be made at the time of the conviction referred to in that subsection if the court making the conviction is the court prescribed in relation to the property to which the application relates.

(4) An application for an order under subsection (1) or (2) may not be made—

- (a) in the case of an application for an order under subsection (1)—later than one month after the conviction referred to in that subsection; or
- (b) in the case of an application for an order under subsection (2)—later than three months after the expiration of the period of six months referred to in that subsection.

(5)

National Parks and Wildlife.

(5) Where property has been seized under section No. 80, 1974 164 or delivered up under section 165 and—

- (a) no application for an order under subsection (1) or (2) has been duly made; or
- (b) such an application has been duly made and such an order has been refused, the property the subject of the application and, where the property has been sold under section 167, the proceeds of the sale, shall be deemed to have been forfeited.

(6) For the purposes of this section—

- (a) the value of any property sold under section 167 is an amount equal to the amount of the net proceeds of sale; and
- (b) the court prescribed in relation to any property is—
 - (i) where the value of the property does not exceed $500—the court of petty sessions for the district in which the property was seized;
 - (ii) where the value of the property exceeds $500 but does not exceed $10,000—the District Court of New South Wales; and
 - (iii) where the value of the property exceeds $10,000—the Supreme Court of New South Wales.

169. (1) A person shall not impersonate the Director, any other officer of the Service, an ex-officio ranger or an honorary ranger.

SAVINGS, TRANSITIONAL AND OTHER PROVISIONS.

Interpretation.

1. In this Schedule—

“repealed enactments” means the enactments repealed by this Act;

“state park” means a state park within the meaning of the Act of 1967.

The Director.

2. (1) The person holding office as Director of National Parks and Wildlife under the Act of 1967 immediately before the commencement day shall be deemed to have been appointed Director under this Act, and he shall, subject to this Act, hold office for the remainder of the period specified in the instrument of his appointment under the Act of 1967.

(2) All acts, matters and things done or omitted by, or done or suffered in relation to, the Director of National Parks and Wildlife appointed under the Act of 1967 before the commencement day shall, on and from that day, have the same force and effect as if they had been done or omitted by, or done or suffered in relation to, the Director appointed under this Act.

(3) Without affecting the generality of Schedule 4, clauses 10 and 11 of that Schedule apply to and in respect of the person holding office as Director immediately before the commencement day as if this Act had been in force at the time when he was appointed Director under the Act of 1967.

Advisory committees.

3. The members of an advisory committee constituted for any lands under the Act of 1967 and holding office immediately before the commencement day shall be deemed to be members of an advisory committee constituted for those lands under this Act as if this Act had been in force at the time of the constitution of the committee.

Relics Committee.

4. A person holding office as a member of the Aboriginal Relics Advisory Committee under section 33A of the Act of 1967 immediately before the commencement day shall be deemed to have been appointed a member of the Relics Committee under this Act, and he shall, subject to this Act, hold office for the remainder of the period specified in the instrument of his appointment under the Act of 1967.

Architects Committee.

SCHEDULE 4.

THE DIRECTOR.

- Interpretation.
- Declaration of statutory bodies.
- Term of office.
- Salary.
- Application
of Public Service
Act, 1902.
- Ineligibility
by reason of age.
- Director
attaining 65
years of age.
1. In this Schedule, "statutory body" means any body declared under clause 2 to be a statutory body for the purposes of this Schedule.
2. The Governor may, by proclamation published in the Gazette, declare any body constituted by or under any Act to be a statutory body for the purposes of the definition of "statutory body" in clause 1.
3. The Director shall, subject to this Schedule, hold office for such period as may be specified in the instrument of his appointment, and is, if otherwise qualified, eligible for reappointment from time to time for such further period or periods as the Governor may appoint.
4. The salary of the Director shall be as fixed by the Governor from time to time.
5. The Public Service Act, 1902, shall not apply to or in respect of the appointment of the Director and the Director shall not as such be subject to that Act during his term of office.
6. A person who is of or above the age of sixty-five years is not eligible for appointment as Director.
7. The Director shall cease to hold office on the day on which he attains the age of sixty-five years.

8.

National Parks and Wildlife.

8. The Governor may for any cause which to him seems sufficient No. 80, 1974 remove the Director from office.

Removal
from office.

9. The Director shall be deemed to have vacated his office if he—

Vacation
of office.

- (a) dies;
- (b) resigns his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Minister;
- (c) becomes a temporary patient, a continued treatment patient, a protected person or an incapable person within the meaning of the Mental Health Act, 1958, or a person under detention under Part VII of that Act; or
- (d) is removed from office by the Governor.

10. (1) In this clause, "superannuation scheme" means a scheme, fund or arrangement under which any superannuation or retirement benefits are provided and which is established by or under any Act.

Preservation of certain rights of Director if previously public servant, etc.

(2) Subject to subclause (3) and to the terms of his appointment, where the Director was, immediately before his appointment as Director—

- (a) an officer of the Public Service;
- (b) a contributor to a superannuation scheme;
- (c) an officer employed by any statutory body; or
- (d) a person in respect of whom provision was made by an Act that he retain any rights accrued or accruing to him as an officer or employee,

he—

- (e) shall retain any rights accrued or accruing to him as such an officer, contributor or person;
- (f) may continue to contribute to any superannuation scheme to which he was a contributor immediately before his appointment as Director; and
- (g) shall be entitled to receive any deferred or extended leave and any payment, pension or gratuity, as if he had continued to be such an officer, contributor or person during his service as Director, and—

- (h) his service as Director shall be deemed to be service as an officer or employee for the purpose of any law under which those rights accrued or were accruing, under which he continues to contribute or by which that entitlement is conferred; and
- (i) he shall be deemed to be an officer or employee, and the Government of New South Wales shall be deemed to be his employer, for the purpose of the superannuation scheme to which he is entitled to contribute under this subclause.

(3)

National Parks and Wildlife.

No. 80, 1974

(3) Where the Director would, but for this subclause, be entitled under subclause (2) to contribute to a superannuation scheme or to receive any payment, pension or gratuity under that scheme, he shall not be so entitled upon his becoming (whether upon his appointment as Director or at any later time while he holds office as Director) a contributor to any other superannuation scheme, and the provisions of subclause (2) (i) cease to apply to or in respect of him and the Government of New South Wales in any case where he becomes a contributor to such another superannuation scheme.

(4) Subclause (3) does not prevent the payment to the Director upon his ceasing to be a contributor to a superannuation scheme of such amount as would have been payable to him if he had ceased, by reason of resignation, to be an officer or employee for the purposes of that scheme.

(5) The Director shall not, in respect of the same period of service, be entitled to claim a benefit under this Act and another Act.

Director entitled to reappointment in former employment in certain cases.

11. (1) In this clause, "retiring age" means—

- (a) in relation to a person who was, immediately before his appointment as Director, an officer of the Public Service—the age of sixty years; and
- (b) in relation to a person who was, immediately before his appointment as Director, an officer or employee of a statutory body—the age at which officers or employees (being officers or employees of the class to which that person belonged immediately before his appointment as Director), as the case may be, of that statutory body are entitled to retire.

(2) Where a person ceases to be Director, otherwise than pursuant to clause 9 (paragraph (b) excepted), he shall, if he has not attained the retiring age, be entitled to be appointed, where, immediately before his appointment as Director, he was—

- (a) an officer of the Public Service—to some office in the Public Service; or
- (b) an officer or employee of a statutory body—to some office in the service of that statutory body, not lower in classification and salary than that which he held immediately before his appointment as Director.
