BANANA INDUSTRY ACT 1987 No. 66

NEW SOUTH WALES

Act No. 66, 1987

An Act to enable the provision of services to the banana industry; to constitute the Banana Industry Committee and to define its functions; to authorise the Committee to determine and fix charges and fees for services; to repeal the Banana Industry Act 1969; to amend the Public Finance and Audit Act 1983; and for other related purposes. [Assented to 3 June 1987]

Banana Industry 1987

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

PART I
PRELIMINARY

Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the "Banana Industry Act 1987".

Interpretation

2. (1) In this Act, except in so far as the context or subject-matter otherwise indicates or requires—

"advertisement" means an advertisement published in the official journal of the Federation;

"banana grower" means a person by whom or on whose behalf bananas are grown on a plantation (whether or not the bananas are grown or produced pursuant to a share-farming agreement or partnership agreement, oral or written), but does not include a person engaged as an employee on wages or salary or at piece-work rates;

"bananas" means bananas growing or grown in New South Wales, and includes banana plants and all parts of banana plants;

"Chairperson" means the Chairperson of the Committee;

"Committee" means the Banana Industry Committee constituted by this Act;

"Federation" means the Banana Growers Federation Co-operative Limited, a society registered under the Co-operation Act 1923;

"marketing", in relation to bananas or banana products, means—

- (a) the harvesting, preparation, processing and packing of bananas or banana products for sale;
- (b) the shipping, transporting, storing, ripening and handling of bananas or banana products for sale;
- (c) the transmission of bananas or banana products from a banana grower to another person;
- (d) the sale of bananas or banana products; and

Banana Industry 1987

(e) all actions or things connected with or incidental to any of the foregoing;

“member” means a member of the Committee;

“plantation” means a parcel of land on which bananas are grown having—

(a) if no minimum area is prescribed under paragraph (b)—a minimum area of 0.5 hectares; or

(b) such minimum area as may be prescribed;

“poll” means a poll taken, in accordance with this Act and the regulations, among banana growers;

“proclamation” means a proclamation published in the Gazette;

“regulation” means a regulation made under this Act;

“sell” includes barter and exchange.

(2) In this Act—

(a) a reference to a function includes a reference to a power, authority and duty; and

(b) a reference to the exercise of a function includes, where the function is a duty, a reference to the performance of the duty.

(3) The Chairperson may be referred to as the Chairman or Chairwoman.

PART 2

BANANA INDUSTRY COMMITTEE

The Committee

3. (1) There is constituted by this Act a corporation under the corporate name of the “Banana Industry Committee”.

(2) The Committee is not, for any purpose, a statutory body representing the Crown.

(3) The Committee shall consist of—

(a) 1 officer of the Public Service appointed by the Minister;

(b) 1 person appointed by the Minister; and

Banana Industry 1987

- (c) the persons for the time being holding office as members of the Board of Directors of the Federation.
- (4) Schedule 1 has effect with respect to the members.
- (5) Schedule 2 has effect with respect to the procedure of the Committee.

Dissolution of Committee

4. (1) If a poll is taken and is in favour of the dissolution of the Committee, the Committee shall, on and from a day appointed by the Governor for the purpose by proclamation, being a day not later than 6 months after the taking of the poll, proceed to be wound up.

(2) The Committee shall wind up its affairs unless, by the same or a subsequent proclamation, the Governor appoints a liquidator to wind up the affairs of the Committee.

(3) Upon the appointment of a liquidator, the members shall cease to act as members and the liquidator may, for the purpose of winding up the affairs of the Committee, in the name and as the act and, where necessary, under the seal of the Committee—

- (a) exercise such of the functions of the Committee;
- (b) bring and defend such proceedings; and
- (c) do and execute such other acts and things,

as the liquidator thinks fit.

(4) A liquidator shall receive such remuneration as the Governor determines.

(5) The Governor may, by proclamation published at any time after the day appointed under subsection (1), declare the Committee to be dissolved.

(6) The dissolution of the Committee shall take effect on the date of publication of the proclamation under subsection (5) or a later date specified in the proclamation.

(7) On the dissolution of the Committee, all money and other assets of the Committee—

- (a) shall vest in Her Majesty; and
 - (b) shall be dealt with and disposed of as the Governor may direct.

FUNCTIONS OF THE COMMITTEE

Functions of the Committee5. The Committee may—

- (a) provide facilities, material or advice to banana growers, wholesalers or retailers relating to the marketing of bananas or banana products;
- (b) establish a system of quality control for bananas;
- (c) regulate and supervise the marketing of bananas;
- (d) regulate the transportation of bananas from a plantation to a railhead or market;
- (e) advertise and promote bananas and banana products;
- (f) control, or develop means for controlling, pests and diseases if there is a likelihood that those pests and diseases may affect the quality or volume of output of bananas;
- (g) carry out research in relation to any matter if, in the Committee's opinion, that research is of advantage to banana growers;
- (h) conduct educational or instructional programmes relating to the production and marketing of bananas;
- (i) develop and expand markets for bananas in New South Wales and elsewhere;
- (j) establish a voluntary insurance scheme for the benefit of banana growers, including insurance relating to crops and equipment;
- (k) undertake and provide banana market forecasting;
- (l) establish systems of inspection of bananas for the purpose of quality control or pest and disease control;
- (m) establish systems to facilitate inspection of the ripening, weighing, grading, packaging and storage of bananas, including weight and uniformity (including uniformity of ripeness) within packages;
- (n) promote or operate schemes which, in the Committee's opinion, will assist the orderly marketing of bananas;
- (o) support, with or without grant of financial aid and whether or not initiated by the Committee, any scheme or activity which, in the Committee's opinion, is capable of assisting in the promotion or sale of bananas;

Banana Industry 1987

- (p) provide such other services as the Minister may authorise or direct; and
- (q) arrange for the provision of any of the services or the exercise of any of the functions referred to in the preceding paragraphs, in whole or part, by any other person.

Further functions of the Committee6. The Committee may—

- (a) buy, acquire, sell or supply bananas, whether grown in New South Wales or elsewhere;
- (b) buy or acquire equipment and supplies to sell or supply to banana growers or other persons for use in relation to the production or marketing of bananas or for associated purposes;
- (c) trade in, for cash or on terms, equipment and supplies for use in relation to the production or marketing of bananas or for associated purposes;
- (d) by its agents and servants, inspect bananas at any stage of their production or marketing, and at any reasonable time on production of the prescribed written evidence of the agent's or servant's authority, enter for that purpose any land (not being a dwelling-house) on which bananas are grown, stored or handled;
- (e) by its agents and servants, treat, withhold, remove, destroy or withdraw from the market bananas which, in the Committee's opinion, are damaged, overripe or otherwise unfit or inappropriate for sale;
- (f) by advertisement, exempt a banana grower in any particular case from any of the provisions of this Act or the regulations on such terms and conditions as it considers appropriate;
- (g) by its agents and servants, spray or otherwise treat bananas;
- (h) by its agents and servants, at any reasonable time on production of the prescribed written evidence of the agent's or servant's authority, inspect ripening rooms and other premises (not being a dwelling-house) which are used for the storage, handling or ripening of bananas;
- (i) by advertisement, declare localities in which bananas are grown;

Banana Industry 1987

- (j) enter into any agreements and give guarantees and indemnities in favour of any person who contracts with the Committee or enters into any agreements at the request of or under the authority or direction of the Committee;
- (k) acquire land, machinery and plant (including refrigerating machinery and plant and machinery and plant suitable for the ripening of bananas), goods, chattels and effects;
- (l) erect, maintain, repair, operate, regulate, use and regulate the use of buildings (including buildings for cold storage and the inspection, sorting and ripening of bananas) and all machinery and plant used in connection therewith;
- (m) subject to sections 7 and 8 in the case of the supply of a service, impose a charge or charge a fee whenever the Committee supplies any service, product or commodity or gives any permission;
- (n) appoint, employ or authorise agents, officers, servants and other persons;
- (o) arrange for financial accommodation with any bank, or with any other institution or person approved by the Governor, and give such securities for any such financial accommodation as may be required;
- (p) make such arrangements as it deems necessary with regard to sales of bananas for export or for consignment to other countries or States for oversea ships' stores; and
- (q) enter into and carry out such contracts and do and suffer such other acts as may be necessary or expedient for the exercise or discharge of its functions under this Act.

Power to impose charges in relation to services

7. (1) The Committee may determine the cost or estimated cost of providing any service which it is authorised by this Act to provide, and, with the approval of the Minister, may impose on banana growers a charge in relation to the provision of any such service.

(2) A charge imposed under this section—

- (a) shall be at the same rate in relation to all banana growers in a particular locality declared under section 6 (i); and
- (b) may be at different rates in relation to banana growers in different localities so declared.

Banana Industry 1987

(3) The Committee shall not impose a charge under this section unless—

- (a) it has given notice by advertisement of its intention to impose the charge and has specified in the advertisement the amount of the proposed charge;
- (b) it has taken a poll of those banana growers on whom it is proposed to impose the charge, if it is requested to do so by a petition, lodged with the Committee within 30 days after the publication of the advertisement, by not less than 100 banana growers;
- (c) the poll is in favour of the imposition of the charge; and
- (d) not earlier than 30 days after the publication of the advertisement, a further advertisement is published identifying (by name or general reference) the banana growers by whom the charge is payable and specifying—
 - (i) the amount of the charge;
 - (ii) the day (being a day not earlier than the day of publication of the further advertisement) on and from which the charge shall be imposed; and
 - (iii) that the requirements of this section have been complied with.

(4) A charge imposed under this section shall become due and payable by a grower not earlier than 14 days after the day on which the grower receives notice, in writing, from the Committee indicating that the charge has been imposed and not later than the date specified in the notice.

(5) The proceeds of a charge imposed under this section by the Committee shall be deposited into a special fund and applied exclusively for the provision of the service in relation to which the charge was imposed.

(6) Nothing in subsection (5) prevents the Committee—

- (a) from allocating from a special fund an amount to be applied in defraying the proper costs and expenses of the Committee incurred—
 - (i) in providing the service in relation to which the charge was imposed; or
 - (ii) in the exercise of the functions conferred or imposed on it by this Act in relation to the provision of the service; or

Banana Industry 1987

- (b) with the approval of the Minister or a person nominated by the Minister, from allocating from a special fund—
- (i) to another special fund; or
 - (ii) to the general fund of the Committee,
- any amount which is no longer required to be applied for the provision of the service in relation to which the charge was imposed.

Charges for services provided at person's request

8. (1) If the Committee provides a service to a person at the person's request, the Committee may determine the amount of the fee to be charged for the provision of the service.

(2) Section 7 does not apply to or in respect of a fee charged under this section.

Power of Committee to issue directions

9. (1) To facilitate the provision under this Act of services to banana growers by the Committee, the Committee may give a direction—

- (a) that all or any of the things included in the marketing of bananas shall be done only by the Committee, its agents and servants, or only by a specified person or specified person or a specified class of persons;
- (b) that all bananas that, during a specified period, are in the possession of or come into the possession of any person in the course, or for the purpose, of marketing—
 - (i) shall be handled and dealt with only under the instructions and with the authority of the Committee; or
 - (ii) shall be consigned or delivered only to a specified person or a specified class, or specified classes, of persons; or
- (c) that bananas shall be treated, handled or packed by a banana grower in such manner as may be specified in the direction.

(2) A direction—

- (a) may be expressed to extend to all bananas or to a specified class, or to specified classes, of bananas;
- (b) may be expressed to extend throughout the State or to any specified part or locality within specified boundaries;

Banana Industry 1987

(c) may be expressed to extend to the marketing of bananas or only to specified aspects of marketing; and

(d) shall specify the length of the period for which the direction is to remain in force.

(3) A direction may specify the circumstances in which, and the terms and conditions on which, the direction shall not apply to or in respect of—

(a) growers of bananas who, in the opinion of the Committee, produce a small quantity of bananas;

(b) sales of bananas direct to local consumers or to retail vendors; or

(c) such other sales, purchases or receipts of bananas as may be specified, and the Committee's decision as to whether any particular person or sale, purchase or receipt of bananas falls within the limits of any such exemption shall be final and without appeal to any court or tribunal.

(4) The Committee may, at any time by notice in writing to a banana grower exempted from the operation of a direction, revoke the exemption of that grower.

(5) The Committee shall not give a direction under this section unless—

(a) it has published an advertisement giving notice of its intention to give the direction, setting forth the proposed direction, and specifying the length of the period for which the direction is proposed to remain in force;

(b) it has taken a poll on the question whether the direction should be given, if it is requested to do so by a petition, lodged with the Committee within 30 days after the publication of the advertisement, by not less than 100 banana growers; and

(c) the poll is in favour of the direction being given.

(6) Subject to subsections (1), (2) and (3), the Committee may give the direction specified in the advertisement under subsection (5) by publishing, not earlier than 30 days after publication of that advertisement, a further advertisement—

(a) specifying that the provisions of this section have been complied with in respect of the direction;

(b) setting forth the direction;

Banana Industry 1987

- (c) specifying the day (being a day not earlier than the day of publication of the further advertisement) on and from which the direction is to take effect; and
 - (d) specifying the length of the period for which the direction is to remain in force.
- (7) A person (other than a person exempt from the direction) who—
- (a) fails to comply with or contravenes any provision of a direction;
 - (b) buys or accepts delivery of bananas from any person who sells or delivers those bananas in contravention of a direction; or
 - (c) offers by advertisement (in any manner) or otherwise to buy or to accept delivery of bananas from any person who, upon accepting that offer by selling or delivering those bananas, would contravene a direction, is, if the person is—

- (d) a banana grower; or
- (e) a person associated with the marketing of bananas, not being a banana grower, upon whom the Committee by certified mail has served a copy of the advertisement by which the direction was given.

guilty of an offence against this Act.

- (8) A direction may be revoked by the Committee by advertisement.

Dispute as to necessity for direction

10. (1) A question or dispute between the Committee and a banana grower as to whether or not any matter with regard to which the Committee is exercising or proposes to exercise any of its functions ought to be made the subject of a direction under section 9 shall be referred by the Committee to the Minister for determination.

(2) The Minister's determination shall be final and without appeal to any court or tribunal.

Power to require information

11. (1) To facilitate the provision under this Act of services to banana growers by the Committee, the Committee may—

- (a) by advertisement require all banana growers or a specified class or specified classes of banana growers; or

Banana Industry 1987

- (b) by notice sent by certified mail, require a person associated with the marketing of bananas, whether or not the person is a banana grower, to furnish in writing to the Committee, within a time specified for the purpose in the advertisement or notice, such information in relation to bananas and banana products as is specified in the advertisement or notice.

(2) An advertisement or notice may require—

- (a) particulars of bananas by reference to type, variety, grade, quality, quantity, the locality in which they were grown and the identity of the banana grower or supplier;
- (b) particulars of the area of land on which the bananas by or on behalf of the person to whom the advertisement or notice is directed are grown; or
- (c) in the case of a banana grower—
- (i) particulars of the number of plants by reference to age, type and variety which the grower is growing for the purpose of the production and sale of bananas; and
- (ii) an estimate, as far as is practicable, of bananas by reference to type, variety, grade, quality and quantity which the grower expects to produce for the purpose of sale within any period specified in the advertisement or notice.

(3) A person who—

- (a) without reasonable excuse, refuses or fails to comply with a requirement under this section; or
- (b) furnishes to the Committee under this section any information which to the person's knowledge is false or misleading in a material particular,

is guilty of an offence against this Act.

POLLS OF BANANA GROWERS

List of banana growers

12. (1) For the purposes of a poll, the Minister shall cause a list to be compiled, in accordance with the regulations, of banana growers (other than banana growers who, under section 15, are not entitled to vote in a poll).

(2) If, after application made in accordance with the regulations for the purpose, the name of a person is not included in the list, that person may apply as prescribed to a Local Court for an order that the person's name be included in the list.

(3) The Local Court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine the matter of the application and may—

- (a) order that the name of the applicant be included in the list; or
- (b) dismiss the application.

(4) Upon an order being made under subsection (3) (a), the name of the applicant shall be included in the list.

(5) If the name of a person appears on the list for a poll and the person fails to vote at the poll, the person is liable to a penalty not exceeding $10.

(6) If the name of a person does not appear on the list compiled under this section for a poll and the person votes at the poll, the person is guilty of an offence against this Act.

Poll for purposes of s. 7 or 9

13. A poll for the purposes of section 7 or 9—

- (a) shall be taken by the Committee on a day notified by the Committee by advertisement for the purpose or, if the Committee by a subsequent advertisement notifies a later day for the purpose, on that later day; and
- (b) shall not be in favour of the question to be decided at the poll unless a majority of votes at the poll is in favour of the question.

Banana Industry 1987

Poll for dissolution of the Committee

14. A poll at which the question to be decided is whether the Committee should be dissolved—

- (a) shall be taken only at the request, by petition to the Governor, of not less than 100 persons whose names are, or who are entitled to have their names, included in a list compiled under section 12;
- (b) shall, where so requested, be taken on a day notified by the Governor for the purpose by proclamation, being a day not earlier than 30 days after publication of the proclamation or, if the Governor by a subsequent proclamation notifies a later day for the purpose, on that later day;
- (c) shall not be in favour of the question to be decided at the poll unless—
 - (i) not less than three-fifths of the persons required to vote at the poll have so voted; and
 - (ii) a majority of the votes at the poll is in favour of the question; and
- (d) shall not, if the poll is required to be taken by a person other than the Federation or the Committee, be taken unless the Federation or the Committee has first made provision, in accordance with the regulations, for the costs and expenses of the poll.

Voting in a poll

15. For the purposes of a poll, if 2 or more persons are banana growers in relation to one plantation—

- (a) only one of them is entitled to vote in the poll;
- (b) both or all of them may, by agreement, nominate in writing which of them is entitled to vote; and
- (c) if a nomination is not made under paragraph (b), the Chairperson shall determine the person who is entitled to vote.

Costs and expenses of poll

16. The regulations may make provision for and with respect to—

- (a) the payment to the Federation by the Committee; and

(b) the recovery by the Federation from the Committee, of costs and expenses paid by the Federation in respect of a poll.

GENERAL

Financial year of the Committee

17. The financial year of the Committee is—
- (a) if no period is prescribed as referred to in paragraph (b)—the year commencing on 1 July; or
 - (b) the period prescribed for the purposes of this section.

Annual report

18. The Committee shall prepare an annual report in accordance with the Annual Reports (Statutory Bodies) Act 1984.

Minister may require further reports

19. The Committee shall, in addition to any other report it may be required to prepare and furnish, furnish to the Minister, within a time specified by the Minister, such reports on the operations of the Committee as the Minister may direct.

Committee not to be concerned in party politics

20. It shall not be lawful for the Committee to expend any of its funds for any purpose whatever in connection with the politics of any political party, nor shall the Committee become affiliated in any way whatever with any body, association or organisation having as an object the support of the politics, programme or aims of a political party.

Service of documents

21. (1) A document may be served on the Committee by leaving it at, or by sending it by post to, the Committee's office.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) affects the operation of any provision of a law or of the rules of a court authorising a document to be served on the Committee in a manner not provided for in subsection (1).

Banana Industry 1987

(3) Except where this Act otherwise provides, a notice that is required to be given or that may be given by the Committee is duly given if sent by post in a letter addressed to the person at the person's place of residence or business in New South Wales last known to the Committee.

Authentication of certain documents

22. Every summons, process, demand, order, notice, statement, direction or other document requiring authentication by the Committee may be sufficiently authenticated without the seal of the Committee if signed by—

- (a) the Chairperson; or
- (b) a person authorised to do so by the Chairperson.

Recovery of charges etc. by Committee

23. Any charge, fee or money due to the Committee may be recovered by the Committee as a debt in a court of competent jurisdiction.

Authority of Federation

24. A function conferred or imposed on the Federation or its directors or officers by or under this Act may, to the extent that (but for this section) the exercise of the function would not be authorised by the rules of the Federation, be exercised by the Federation as if it had been so authorised.

Proof of certain matters not required

25. In any legal proceedings, proof is not required (until evidence is given to the contrary) of—

- (a) the constitution of the Committee;
- (b) any resolution of the Committee;
- (c) the appointment of, or the holding of office by, any member; or
- (d) the presence of a quorum at any meeting of the Committee.

Evidence

26. In any legal proceedings—

- (a) any notification, requisition, demand, order or other document in writing, purporting to be signed or made or sent by the Committee, the Chairperson, the Secretary of the Committee or the Minister shall be judicially noticed;

Banana Industry 1987

- (b) the production of a copy of the Gazette purporting to contain any proclamation, or a copy of the official journal of the Federation purporting to contain a copy of an advertisement or notice published under this Act by the Committee, is, until the contrary is proved—
- (i) evidence of the matters contained in the proclamation, advertisement or notice; and
 - (ii) evidence that all steps necessary to be taken prior to the making of the proclamation or publication of the advertisement or notice were duly taken;
- (c) the averment on behalf of the Committee—
- (i) that any bananas were or are bananas to which the provisions of this Act apply, or were or are bananas to which a direction in force under this Act applies;
 - (ii) that any place is a place in New South Wales; or
 - (iii) that any person was or is a banana grower,
- is, until the contrary is proved, evidence of that fact; and
- (d) a certificate purporting—
- (i) to be signed by the prescribed officer of the Committee; and
 - (ii) to certify that on a specified day or during the whole of a specified period any person was or was not included in the list of banana growers compiled under this Act, is, without proof of the signature of the person purporting to sign the certificate or that the person is the prescribed officer, prima facie evidence of the matters certified in and by the certificate.

Offences—generally

27. If any matter or thing is by or under this Act directed or forbidden to be done, and that matter or thing if so directed to be done remains undone, or if so forbidden to be done is done, a person offending against the direction or prohibition is guilty of an offence against this Act.

Banana Industry 1987

Offences by corporations

28. (1) If a corporation contravenes, whether by act or omission, any provision of this Act or a regulation, each person who is a director of the corporation or who is concerned in the management of the corporation shall be deemed to have contravened the same provision if the person knowingly authorised or permitted the contravention.

(2) A person may be proceeded against and convicted under a provision pursuant to subsection (1) whether or not the corporation has been proceeded against or been convicted under that provision.

(3) Nothing in this section affects any liability imposed on a corporation for an offence committed by the corporation against this Act or the regulations.

Proceedings for offences

29. Proceedings for an offence against this Act or the regulations shall be dealt with summarily before a Local Court constituted by a Magistrate sitting alone.

Penalty

30. Except where otherwise expressly provided by this Act, any person guilty of an offence against this Act shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding $2,000.

Regulations

31. (1) The Governor may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, for or with respect to any matter that by this Act is required or permitted to be prescribed or that is necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act and, in particular, for or with respect to—

- (a) any of the functions of the Minister or the Committee under this Act;
- (b) the use and custody of the seal of the Committee;
- (c) the taking of any poll, including the method of voting at a poll;
- (d) matters concerning the compilation and revision of lists of banana growers required to vote at any poll;
- (e) matters concerning the method of determining the qualification of banana growers eligible to vote at any poll;

Banana Industry 1987

(f) the manner in which the results of a poll taken under this Act shall be notified; and

(g) prescribing forms to be used for the purposes of this Act.

(2) A regulation may create an offence punishable by a penalty not exceeding $1,000.

(3) A provision of a regulation may—

(a) apply generally or be limited in its application by reference to specified exceptions or factors;

(b) apply differently according to different factors of a specified kind; or

(c) authorise any matter or thing to be from time to time determined, applied or regulated by any specified person or body, or may do any combination of those things.

Savings, transitional and other provisions

32. Schedule 3 has effect.

Repeals

33. Each Act specified in Schedule 4 is, to the extent indicated, repealed.

Amendment of Act No. 152, 1983

34. The Public Finance and Audit Act 1983 is amended by omitting from Schedule 2 the words “Banana Marketing Control Committee” and by inserting instead the words “Banana Industry Committee”.

SCHEDULE 1

(Sec. 3 (4))

PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEETerm of office

1. Subject to this Schedule, a member appointed by the Minister shall hold office for such period, not exceeding 5 years, as may be specified in the instrument of appointment of the member, but is eligible (if otherwise qualified) for re-appointment.

Banana Industry 1987

Remuneration

2. (1) A member, not being an officer of the Public Service, is entitled to be paid such remuneration as the Committee may, with the approval of the Minister, from time to time determine.

(2) A member is entitled to be paid such allowances as the Committee may, with the approval of the Minister, from time to time determine.

Filling of vacancy in office of member

3. If the office of any member appointed by the Minister becomes vacant, a person shall, subject to this Act, be appointed to fill the vacancy.

Casual vacancies

4. (1) A member appointed by the Minister shall be deemed to have vacated office if the member—

- (a) dies;
- (b) absents himself or herself from 4 consecutive ordinary meetings of the Committee of which reasonable notice has been given to the member personally or in the ordinary course of post, except on leave granted by the Committee or unless, before the expiration of 4 weeks after the last of those meetings, the member is excused by the Committee for being absent from those meetings;
- (c) becomes bankrupt, applies to take the benefit of any law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors, compounds with his or her creditors or makes an assignment of his or her remuneration for their benefit;
- (d) becomes a temporary patient or a continued treatment patient within the meaning of the Mental Health Act 1958, a forensic patient within the meaning of the Mental Health Act 1983 or a protected person within the meaning of the Protected Estates Act 1983;
- (e) is convicted in New South Wales of an offence which is punishable by penal servitude or imprisonment for 12 months or upwards or is convicted elsewhere than in New South Wales of an offence which if committed in New South Wales would be an offence so punishable;
- (f) resigns the office by instrument in writing addressed to the Minister;
- (g) is removed from office by the Minister under subclause (2); or
- (h) being the member referred to in section 3 (3) (a), ceases to be an officer of the Public Service.

(2) The Minister may remove a member appointed by the Minister from office.

Effect of certain other Acts

5. (1) If by or under any other Act provision is made—

- (a) requiring a person who is the holder of a specified office to devote the whole of his or her time to the duties of that office; or
