4. (1) For the purposes of this Act, “salary”, in relation to an employee, means the remuneration, salary or wages payable in money to the employee in the employee’s capacity as an employee, as reported to the Board from time to time by the employee’s employer, including—

- (a) a loading in respect of any shift allowance, as determined in accordance with the regulations; and
- (b) other allowances payable in money that are of a kind included within the value of leave paid on termination of employment, but does not include the excluded amounts or allowances referred to in subsection (2).

(2) The excluded amounts or allowances are:

- (a) an amount paid for overtime or as a bonus, or an allowance instead of overtime;
- (b) except to the extent determined in accordance with the regulations, as referred to in subsection (1) (a)—an amount paid as shift allowance;

(3) If an employee’s employer, or a person authorised to do so on behalf of the employer, certifies in writing to the Board that a relieving allowance to be, or being, paid to the employee in the employee’s capacity as an employee is likely to be paid for a continuous period of 1 year (whether or not the period is partly before the date of the certificate), the allowance is, as from—

- (a) the date on which the certificate is lodged with the Board; or
- (b) the date from which the allowance becomes payable, whichever is the later, salary for the purposes of this Act.

State Authorities Non-contributory Superannuation 1987

(4) If a relieving allowance has been paid to an employee in the employee's capacity as an employee for a continuous period of 1 year that ends after the appointed day and, during that period, the allowance has not been treated as part of the employee's salary in accordance with subsection (3), the allowance shall, as from the expiration of that period of 1 year, be treated as part of the employee's salary while its payment to the employee continues.

(5) If an employee is on secondment to another employer, the salary of the employee for the purposes of this Act is the salary paid or payable to the employee by the other employer.

(6) The Governor may, by order in writing, declare unconditionally, or subject to conditions, that subsection (7) applies—

- (a) to an employee specified in the order who is on secondment but not to another employer; and
- (b) generally during the period of that secondment, or during such period as is specified in the order, being, in either case, a period commencing before, on or after the date of the order.

(7) During the period in which this subsection is declared pursuant to subsection (6) to apply to an employee on secondment, the employee's salary shall, for the purposes of this Act, be that paid or payable in respect of the employment to which he or she is seconded.

State Authorities Non-contributory Superannuation 1987

7. If an employer certifies in writing that the employer has reason to believe that an employee of the employer will not continue to be a full-time employee or part-time employee for at least 1 year from the date of the certificate, the employee shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be neither a full-time employee nor a part-time employee and to be an irregular employee.

Persons not subject to Act

(4) There shall be debited to such an employer reserve—

State Authorities Non-contributory Superannuation 1987

- (a) the amount of any benefit paid to, or in relation to, an employee who, immediately before the benefit became payable, was an employee of the employer or an employer to whom the reserve relates; and
- (b) management costs calculated in accordance with the Superannuation Administration Act 1987 in relation to the employer or an employer to whom the reserve relates.

(5) If the amount standing to the credit of the employer reserve established for Part 3 of Schedule 1 is insufficient to meet the amounts payable from the reserve, the deficiency shall be recouped from the Consolidated Fund which is, to the necessary extent, appropriated accordingly.

Adjustment of accounts and reserves for interest etc.

11. The Board shall, from time to time, adjust each of the accounts and reserves established under this Part at a rate fixed by the Board, having regard to the income of the funds of which they form part and such other matters as the Board considers relevant.

Funds, accounts and reserves generally

12. (1) There may be credited to any fund, account or reserve established by or under this Act any amount that is required or permitted by or under this or any other Act to be credited to it.

(2) There may be debited to any fund, account or reserve established by or under this Act any amount that is required or permitted by or under this or any other Act to be debited to it.

Actuarial investigation

13. (1) An investigation as to the state and sufficiency of any of the funds established under this Act shall, as at 31 March 1991 and at the end of each succeeding period of 3 years, be made by an actuary or actuaries appointed by the Board.

(2) Actuaries appointed under this section shall complete their investigation, and shall report the result to the Board, not later than 13 months after the date as at which the investigation is made.

(3) The Board shall, not later than 2 months after it receives a report under this section, forward the report to the Minister with such comments as it thinks fit.

(4) The Minister may, in relation to a particular investigation, extend or further extend a period referred to in subsection (2) or (3) if the Minister considers that special circumstances exist to justify such an extension or further extension.

PART 3—CONTRIBUTIONS BY EMPLOYERSContributions by employer under Part 1 of Schedule 1 (The Crown and other employers)

14. Where an employee is employed by an employer specified in Part 1 of Schedule 1, the employer shall pay to the Board an amount equal to a percentage of the salary of the employee, being a percentage determined by the Board, in relation to the employer, with the concurrence of the Treasurer.

Contributions by employer under Part 2 of Schedule 1 (Local government and other authorities)

15. Where an employee is employed by an employer specified in Part 2 of Schedule 1, the employer shall pay to the Board an amount equal to 2.5 per cent (or such other percentage as may be prescribed following an actuarial investigation under this Act) of the salary of the employee.

Contributions by employer under Part 3 of Schedule 1 (Hospitals and other bodies)

16. Where an employee is employed by an employer specified in Part 3 of Schedule 1, the employer shall pay to the Board an amount equal to a percentage of the salary of the employee, being a percentage determined by the Board, in relation to the employer, with the concurrence of the Treasurer.

Contributions for irregular employees

17. (1) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to the contributions to be paid to the Board in respect of irregular employees.

(2) Any such regulations may have effect despite anything in section 14, 15 or 16.

Basis and making of contributions

18. (1) Contributions under this Part shall be calculated on the basis of contribution periods, and the contributions payable in respect of a contribution period shall be paid to the Board within 7 days after the last day of the contribution period to which they relate.

(2) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to the determination of salary for the purposes of this Part, where part-time work, irregular employment, leave without pay, secondment or a break in employment is involved.

Transfer of employees

19. (1) This section applies where—

(a) an employee ceases to be employed by an employer:

State Authorities Non-contributory Superannuation 1987

- (b) the employee commences to be employed by another employer within 2 months; and
- (c) the Board determines that, because of the nature and circumstances of the employment involved (for example, employment in different Departments in the Public Service), it would not be appropriate to regard the employee as having resigned or retired.

(2) The Board shall determine the value of the basic benefit at the date of cessation of employment with the former employer and shall—

- (a) debit the employer reserve of the former employer with that value; and
- (b) credit the employer reserve of the new employer with that value.

Application of payments

20. Contributions and other amounts payable to the Board under this Act shall be paid into such funds, accounts or reserves as the Board determines, whether established under this Act or for the purposes of any other superannuation scheme managed by the Board.

PART 4—BENEFITSDefinitions

21. (1) In this Part—

“final average salary”, in relation to an employee, means the average of the attributed salaries paid or payable to the employee at the rates applicable—

- (a) on the employee’s exit date;
- (b) on 31 December (or such other date as the Board may determine) last preceding the employee’s exit date; and
- (c) on 31 December (or such other date as the Board may determine) last preceding the date referred to in paragraph (b);

“final salary”, in relation to an employee, means the rate of attributed salary paid or payable to the employee on the employee’s exit date.

(2) Different dates may be determined by the Board for the purposes of the definition of “final average salary” in subsection (1), so as to apply differently according to different classes of employees.

Basic benefit

22. (1) The basic benefit provided by this Act for an employee is an amount equal to the amount calculated in accordance with the formula—

$$B = 0.03 \times F \times Y$$

State Authorities Non-contributory Superannuation 1987

where—

B represents the amount to be ascertained;

F represents—

(a) in the case of the employee's resignation or retirement or the employee's death on or after reaching the age of 55 years—the employee's final average salary; or

(b) in any other case—the employee's final salary; and

Y represents the years of eligible service on a daily basis, commencing on or after the appointed day.

(2) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to the determination of the basic benefit for irregular employees.

(3) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to the determination of eligible service for the purposes of this Act, including the manner of determining the length of eligible service where part-time work, irregular employment, leave without pay, secondment or a break in employment is involved.

Benefit immediately payable

23. (1) The basic benefit is payable by the Board on—

(a) the retirement of an employee from employment with an employer;

(b) the death of an employee during employment with an employer;

(c) the retirement of an employee from employment with an employer before reaching the age of 55 years, where the Board is satisfied—

(i) that the retirement was due, directly or indirectly, to the permanent physical or mental incapacity of the employee (not caused by any act or default of the employee intended to produce that incapacity); and

(ii) that the employee is permanently unable, by reason of that incapacity, to be engaged, or to be employed, in any remunerative occupation in which, in the opinion of the Board, it would otherwise be reasonable to expect the employee to engage; or

(d) the cessation of an employee's employment with an employer in other prescribed circumstances.

(2) The basic benefit provided by this section is payable—

(a) where the benefit becomes payable on the retirement of the employee—to the employee;

(b) where the benefit becomes payable on the death of the employee and the employee is survived by a spouse—to the employee's spouse; or

State Authorities Non-contributory Superannuation 1987

- (c) where the benefit becomes payable on the death of the employee and the employee is not survived by a spouse—to the personal representatives of the employee or, if appropriate, in accordance with section 31 (Payment without grant of probate etc.).

Benefit to be preserved

24. (1) The basic benefit shall be preserved by the Board when an employee ceases to be an employee of an employer, otherwise than in the circumstances mentioned in section 23 (1).

(2) The basic benefit provided by this section shall be—

- (a) preserved in accordance with the regulations; and
(b) subsequently paid out in such circumstances and in such manner as are determined in accordance with the regulations.

(3) If the basic benefit provided by this section is to be paid out by the Board, it is payable—

- (a) where the benefit becomes payable otherwise than on the death of the employee—to the employee;
(b) where the benefit becomes payable on the death of the employee and the employee is survived by a spouse—to the employee's spouse;
(c) where the benefit becomes payable on the death of the employee and the employee is not survived by a spouse—to the personal representatives of the employee or, if appropriate, in accordance with section 31 (Payment without grant of probate etc.); or
(d) where the Board is satisfied that such payment will comply with relevant rules or guidelines as to the preservation of superannuation benefits—to a fund managed by the Board or a deposit fund.

Preservation of benefit

25. (1) Any amounts preserved by the Board under this Act shall be preserved in such funds, accounts or reserves as the Board determines, whether established under this Act or the Superannuation Administration Act 1987 or for the purposes of any other superannuation scheme managed by the Board.

(2) Any such preserved amounts payable by the Board under this Act shall be paid from the appropriate fund, account or reserve referred to in this section.

Interest

26. The Board may, when paying a benefit under this Act, pay interest at such rates, for such periods and in such circumstances as in its absolute discretion it thinks appropriate.

PART 5—MISCELLANEOUSEmployers and employees

27. (1) The Governor may, by order published in the Gazette, amend Schedule 1 or 2.

(2) An order under subsection (1), and any other order revoking or varying such an order, may be made—

- (a) to take effect on and from a day specified in the order, whether or not the day specified is earlier than the day of publication of the order; and
- (b) to effect the amendment to which it relates with such limitations as are specified in the amendment, being limitations that do not operate to the prejudice of an existing employee.

Employer to provide information

28. (1) An employer shall submit to the Board such information or evidence relating to employees of the employer as the Board requires.

(2) Where an employer fails to comply with subsection (1) in relation to an employee, the Board may defer payment of a benefit to, or in relation to, an employee where the information sought is relevant to the right to receive the benefit.

Employee or claimant to provide information

29. (1) The Board may require an employee or a claimant for payment of a benefit under this Act—

- (a) to provide the Board with specified information or evidence referred to in subsection (2);
- (b) to provide the Board with an authority to obtain from a third person any such information or evidence; or
- (c) in the case of a claimant for a benefit arising in relation to permanent physical or mental incapacity—to undergo a medical examination.

(2) A requirement under subsection (1) may be made only in relation to information, evidence or a medical examination that is relevant to the assessment of an application made by the claimant for payment of the benefit.

(3) Where—

- (a) the employee or claimant to whom a requirement under subsection (1) relates fails to comply with the requirement or, in purported compliance with the requirement, makes or provides an untrue statement; or

State Authorities Non-contributory Superannuation 1987

- (b) a person referred to in subsection (1) (b) fails to provide information or evidence that the Board has been authorised to obtain from the person or, in purported compliance with the request by the Board for the information or evidence, makes or provides an untrue statement, the Board may take such action in relation to the benefit concerned as, in the opinion of the Board, would place the claimant as nearly as possible in the same position as the claimant would be if the information or evidence had been provided or the medical examination made or if the statement had not been untrue.

(4) For the purposes of this section, “untrue”, in relation to a statement, includes—

- (a) misleading in the form and context in which the statement appears; and
 (b) misleading by reason of the omission from the statement of matter that is material.

Assignment etc. of benefit

30. (1) A purported assignment of, or purported charge over, a benefit is void.

(2) Where, but for this subsection, a benefit would pass by operation of law to a person other than a person to whom the benefit is payable under this Act, the benefit does not so pass.

(3) A benefit payable on the death of an employee is not an asset in the employee’s estate that is applicable in payment of the debts and liabilities of the deceased.

(4) Nothing in this section prevents the Board from making, at the request of a person to whom an amount by way of a benefit is payable, a payment of the whole or a part of the amount on behalf of the person.

(5) Any payment made under subsection (4) shall be deemed to have been made to the person entitled to the benefit.

Payment without grant of probate etc.

31. (1) Where an employee or former employee dies and—

- (a) a benefit is or becomes payable under this Act in relation to the deceased;
 (b) production to the Board of probate of the will, or letters of administration of the estate, of the deceased has not been arranged;
 and

State Authorities Non-contributory Superannuation 1987

- (c) the Board has not, within the period of 3 months that next succeeds the death of the deceased, received a notice of intention to apply for a grant of probate of the will, or letters of administration of the estate, of the deceased, the Board may, if it so decides, make a payment of the whole or any part of the benefit in accordance with subsection (2), being a payment that does not exceed $50,000 or, where some other amount is prescribed for the purposes of this section, that other amount.

(2) Where the Board makes a decision under subsection (1), the Board may—

- (a) pay the whole or any part of the amount of the benefit to an eligible person within the meaning of the Family Provision Act 1982;
- (b) after paying the funeral expenses of the deceased or reimbursing a person who has paid those expenses—pay the whole or any part of the balance to any person referred to in paragraph (a); or
- (c) in special circumstances, pay the whole or any part of the amount of the benefit, or the balance referred to in paragraph (b), to some other person.

(3) Where an employee or former employee dies and the Board is of the opinion that proceedings might be instituted under the Family Provision Act 1982 in relation to the estate, or notional estate, of the deceased, the Board may, despite any other provision of this Act, pay to the personal representatives of the deceased any benefit that, but for this subsection, would have been paid to some other person.

Recovery of money owing to Board

32. (1) The Board may recover any money owing to the Board under this Act by an employee, employer or other person, together with interest thereon as provided by subsection (3)—

- (a) except in the case of unpaid contributions—as a debt in a court of competent jurisdiction;
- (b) where any amount is, or becomes, payable under this Act to the employee, employer or other person—by deduction from that amount; or
- (c) in the case of an employee—by deduction from the employee's salary in accordance with subsection (2) by such instalments and at such times as the Board determines.

(2) An employer shall, at the written request of the Board, make deductions from an employee's salary as referred to in subsection (1) (c) and pay the amount thereof to the Board, and an amount so deducted and paid shall be deemed to have been paid to the Board by the employee from whose salary the deduction was made.

State Authorities Non-contributory Superannuation 1987

(3) Interest at a rate from time to time determined by the Board is payable on any amount owing to the Board calculated from the date on which the amount became due for payment until the date on which the amount is recovered under subsection (1) or is otherwise paid.

Payment where beneficiary incapable

33. (1) Where a person to whom a benefit under this Act is payable is, in the opinion of the Board, incapable of administering his or her own affairs by reason of illness, imprisonment or any other cause, the Board may pay the benefit to some other person to be applied wholly for the care, maintenance, benefit and support of the person to whom, but for this section, the benefit would be payable, or of any person dependent on him or her.

(2) Any payment made under this section shall be deemed to have been made to the person entitled to the benefit.

Regulations

34. (1) The Governor may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, for or with respect to any matter that by this Act is required or permitted to be prescribed or that is necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.

(2) Regulations may not be made unless the recommendation to the Governor for their making includes a certificate by a Minister to the effect that, in the formulation of the regulations, regard has been had to any relevant rules or guidelines for the time being in force in relation to superannuation benefits of the kind provided by this Act.
