- (a) must cause notice that a ballot is to be held to be published in the Gazette and sent to each grower; and

- (2) The notice published in the Gazette:

Postponement of ballot

24. (1) The returning officer may postpone (for a period not exceeding 14 days) the close of exhibition of the rolls, the close of enrolments or the close of the ballot by a notice published in the same way as the notice stating that a ballot is to be held.

(2) The power conferred on the returning officer by this clause may be exercised more than once in respect of an election.

Division 5—Preparation of the final rolls

Qualifications for voting

25. (1) A person is qualified to vote in an election for an independent grower member if the person is an independent grower and has grown designated poultry (under an agreement with an independent processor) during the calendar year in which the close of nominations occurred or during the previous calendar year.

(2) A person is qualified to vote in an election for an Association grower member if the person is an Association grower and has grown designated poultry (under an agreement with an Association processor) during the calendar year in which the close of nominations occurred or during the previous calendar year.

Enrolment of representatives of growers

26. (1) If, in the opinion of the returning officer, designated poultry is grown under an agreement with a processor:

- (a) on behalf of a corporation—the corporation is taken to be enrolled, or to apply for enrolment, in the relevant final roll for an election if, and only if, a nominee of the corporation is so enrolled, or so applies for enrolment, in that roll as the representative of the corporation; or
- (b) on behalf of a partnership—the partnership is taken to be enrolled, or to apply for enrolment, in the relevant final roll for an election if, and only if, a nominee of the partnership is so enrolled, or so applies for enrolment, in that roll as the representative of the partnership; or
- (c) by trustees or by legal personal representatives (whether as agents, administrators or executors or otherwise) on behalf of a person or the estate of a person—the person or estate is taken to be enrolled, or to apply for enrolment, in the relevant final roll for an election if, and only if, a nominee of those trustees or representatives is so enrolled, or so applies for enrolment, in that roll as the representative of the person or estate.

(2) A nominee must be a natural person who is not already enrolled in the relevant final roll for the election in some other capacity.

(3) A representative of a corporation, partnership, person or estate is taken to be a grower for the purposes of enrolment and of any election in which the corporation, partnership, person or estate is qualified to vote.

(4) In this clause, a reference to a partnership includes a reference to any group of persons who, in the opinion of the returning officer, are engaged in a single enterprise in the growing of designated poultry.

(5) In forming such an opinion in respect of a group of persons, the returning officer may ignore the existence of any legal entity that consists of or includes persons who form part of the group.

Applications for enrolment

27. (1) A person whose name does not appear on the preliminary roll for an election may apply for enrolment in the final roll for the election.

(2) The application must be in Form 5 and must be lodged with the returning officer before the close of enrolments.

(3) On receipt of the application, the returning officer:

- (a) if satisfied that the applicant is qualified to vote, must accept the application and enter the name and address of the applicant in the relevant final roll; or

- (b) if not so satisfied, must reject the application and inform the applicant in writing that the application has been rejected; or
- (c) if the application is not in the proper form or is incomplete, must return the application for correction or completion and consider the duly corrected or completed application in accordance with this clause.

Objections to enrolment

28. (1) Before the close of enrolments, the returning officer and any person who is qualified to vote in an election may object to the inclusion of the name of any person in the relevant final roll.

(2) An objection:

- (a) must be in Form 6; and
- (b) must state the grounds on which the objection is made; and
- (c) must be signed by the objector; and
- (d) must be lodged with the returning officer.

(3) The returning officer must send particulars of an objection to the person to whom the objection relates.

(4) The person to whom an objection relates may lodge a written reply with the returning officer within 14 days after the date on which particulars of the objection were sent to that person.

(5) The returning officer must consider each objection, and any reply received within that 14 day period, and may make such inquiries as the returning officer thinks fit.

(6) The returning officer may accept or refuse to accept an objection.

(7) If the returning officer accepts an objection, the returning officer must exclude from the relevant final roll for the election the name of the person to whom the objection relates and must inform that person and the objector, in writing, that the name is so excluded.

(8) If the returning officer rejects an objection, the returning officer must notify the person to whom the objection relates and the objector, in writing, that the returning officer has rejected the objection.

(9) The returning officer may require a person who lodges an objection, or who replies to an objection, to verify the objection or reply by statutory declaration.

Postponement of ballot not to affect final roll

29. The validity of the final roll for an election is not affected by the postponement of the close of the ballot by a notice published after the close of the roll, and the roll remains the final roll for the election.

Division 6—The ballotPrinting of ballot-papers

30. (1) As soon as practicable after the close of enrolments in an election, the returning officer:

- (a) must determine the order in which the candidates' names are to be listed on a ballot-paper by means of a ballot held in accordance with the procedure prescribed for the purposes of section 82A of the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act 1912; and
- (b) must cause sufficient ballot-papers to be printed to enable a ballot-paper to be sent to each person included in each of the rolls; and
- (c) if a candidate information sheet has been drawn up, must cause sufficient copies to be printed so that a copy may be sent to each person included in that roll.

(2) A ballot-paper for an election must contain:

- (a) the names of the candidates arranged in the order determined in accordance with subclause (1) (a), with a small square set opposite each name; and
- (b) if the returning officer considers that the names of 2 or more of the candidates are so similar as to cause confusion, such other matter as the returning officer, considers will distinguish between the candidates; and
- (c) such directions as to the manner in which a vote is to be recorded and returned to the returning officer as the returning officer considers appropriate.

(3) The directions to voters must include a direction that:

- (a) the voter must record a vote for at least the number of candidates to be elected by placing consecutive numbers (beginning with the number "1" and ending with the number equal to the number of candidates to be elected) in the squares set opposite their names in the order of the voter's preferences for them; and
- (b) the voter may, but is not required to, vote for additional candidates by placing consecutive numbers (beginning with the number next higher than the number of candidates to be elected) in the square set opposite their names in the order of the voter's preferences for them.

Distribution of ballot-papers

31. As soon as practicable after the printing of the ballot-papers for an election, the returning officer must send to each person included in a final roll for the election:

- (a) a ballot-paper initialled by the returning officer (or by a person authorised by the returning officer) or that bears a mark prescribed for the purposes of section 122A (3) of the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act 1912; and
- (b) an unsealed reply-paid envelope addressed to the returning officer and bearing on the back the words “NAME AND ADDRESS OF VOTER” and “SIGNATURE OF VOTER”, together with appropriate spaces for the insertion of a name, address and signature; and
- (c) if applicable, a candidate information sheet.

Duplicate ballot-papers

32. (1) At any time before the close of the ballot, the returning officer may issue to a voter a duplicate ballot-paper and envelope if the voter satisfies the returning officer by statutory declaration:

- (a) that the original ballot-paper has been spoilt, lost or destroyed; and
- (b) that the voter has not already voted in the election to which the ballot-paper relates.

(2) The returning officer must maintain a record of all duplicate ballot-papers issued under this clause.

Recording of votes

33. In order to vote in an election, a person:

- (a) must record a vote on the ballot-paper in accordance with the directions shown on it; and
- (b) must place the completed ballot-paper (folded so that the vote cannot be seen) in the envelope addressed to the returning officer; and
- (c) must seal the envelope; and
- (d) must complete the person’s full name and address on, and must sign, the back of the envelope; and
- (e) must return the envelope to the returning officer so as to be received before the close of the ballot.

Division 7—The scrutiny

Receipt of ballot-papers

34. (1) The returning officer must reject (without opening it) any envelope purporting to contain a ballot-paper if the envelope is not received before the close of the ballot or is received unsealed.

(2) The returning officer must examine the name on the back of the envelope and, without opening the envelope:

- (a) must accept the ballot-paper in the envelope and draw a line through the name on the roll that corresponds to the name on the back of the envelope, if satisfied that a person of that name is included in the relevant final roll for the election; or
- (b) must reject the ballot-paper in the envelope, if not so satisfied or if a name, address or signature does not appear on the back of the envelope.

(3) The returning officer may reject a ballot-paper in an envelope without opening the envelope if, after making such inquiries as the returning officer thinks fit:

- (a) the returning officer is unable to identify the signature on the back of the envelope; or
- (b) it appears to the returning officer that the signature on the back of the envelope is not the signature of the person whose name and address appear on the back of the envelope.

Ascertaining result of ballot

35. The result of a ballot must be ascertained by the returning officer as soon as practicable after the close of the ballot.

Scrutineers

36. Each candidate in a ballot is entitled to appoint, by notice in writing, a scrutineer to represent the candidate at all stages of the scrutiny.

Scrutiny of votes

37. (1) The scrutiny of votes in a ballot is to be conducted as follows:

- (a) the returning officer must produce unopened the envelopes containing the ballot-papers accepted for scrutiny;
- (b) the returning officer must then open each such envelope, extract the ballot-paper and (without unfolding it) place it in a locked ballot-box;
- (c) when the ballot-papers from all the envelopes so opened have been placed in the ballot-box, the returning officer must then unlock the ballot-box and remove the ballot-papers;
- (d) the returning officer must then examine each ballot-paper and reject those which are informal;

- (e) the returning officer must then proceed to count the votes and ascertain the result of the election.
- (2) At the scrutiny of votes in a ballot, a ballot-paper must be rejected as informal:
 - (a) if it is neither initialled by the returning officer (or by a person authorised by the returning officer in that behalf) nor bears a mark prescribed as an official mark for the purposes of section 122A (3) of the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act 1912; or
 - (b) if it has on it any mark or writing which the returning officer considers could enable any person to identify the voter who completed it; or
 - (c) if it has not been completed in accordance with the directions shown on it.
- (3) A ballot-paper must not be rejected as informal:
 - (a) merely because there is any mark or writing on it that is not authorised or required by this Regulation (not being a mark or writing referred to in subclause (2) (b)) if, in the opinion of the returning officer, the voter's intention is clearly indicated on the ballot-paper; or
 - (b) if the voter has recorded a vote by placing in one square the number "1":
 - (i) merely because the same preference (other than a first preference) has been recorded on the ballot-paper for more than one candidate; or
 - (ii) merely because there is a break in the order of preferences recorded on the ballot-paper.

Counting of votes

- 38. (1) If there is only one person to be elected in any election:
- (a) the method of counting the votes so as to ascertain the result of the election is as provided in Part 2 of the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution Act 1902; and
 - (b) for the purpose of applying the provisions of that Part to any such election, a reference in those provisions to the returning officer is to be read as a reference to the returning officer under this Regulation.
- (2) If there are 2 or more persons to be elected in any election:
- (a) the method of counting the votes so as to ascertain the result of the election is as provided in Part 2 of the Sixth Schedule to the Constitution Act 1902; and

- (b) for the purpose of applying the provisions of that Part to any such election:
 - (i) a reference in those provisions to the Council returning officer is to be read as a reference to the returning officer under this Regulation; and
 - (ii) the quota referred to in those provisions is to be determined by dividing the number of first preference votes for all candidates by one more than the number of persons to be elected and by increasing the quotient so obtained (disregarding any remainder) by one.

Notice of result of election

39. As soon as practicable after a candidate in an election has been elected, the returning officer must notify the Minister and the Secretary, in writing, of the name of the candidate elected.

This Regulation is made under the Poultry Meat Industry Act 1986, including section 23 (the general regulation-making power) and sections 4, 8 and 9.
