Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999

under the

Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Act 1998

His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Act 1998.

CARL SCULLY, M.P.,

Minister for Roads

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to assist in providing for the consistent administration and enforcement of a driver licensing system throughout Australia. The Regulation:

- (a) establishes the eligibility requirements for learner, provisional and other classes of driver licences (see Divisions 1 and 2 of Part 2), and
- (b) sets out the procedures for obtaining and varying driver licences (see Division 3 of Part 2), and
- (c) provides for the form of driver licences and the circumstances when replacement licences will be issued (Part 3, clauses 22 and 23), and
- (d) requires the Roads and Traffic Authority (the Authority) to record matters in the driver licence register and limits the circumstances when information may be released (Part 3, clauses 24 and 25), and
- (e) establishes the classes of driver licences and their hierarchy (Part 3, clauses 26 and 27), and
- (f) enables conditions to be imposed on driver licences (Part 3, clause 28), and

1999 No 116

Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999

Explanatory note

- (g) makes provision with respect to damaged or lost licences (Part 3, clause 29), and
- (h) sets out the obligations of applicants for, and holders of, driver licences to give information to the Authority and undergo tests and examinations if requested by the Authority (Part 4), and
- (i) provides for the expiration of driver licences and the procedures for and circumstances of renewal of driver licences (Part 5 (clauses 33–35)), and
- (j) sets out the offences for which demerit points are incurred and the number of points incurred (Part 5, clause 36 and Schedule 1), and
- (k) provides for surrender of licences (Part 5, clause 37), and
- (l) provides for the variation, suspension, cancellation and downgrading by the Authority of driver licences (Part 5, clauses 38–40), and
- (m) continues the motorcycle riding and testing scheme formerly contained in the Motor Traffic Regulations 1935 (Part 6), and
- (n) provides rights for review of decisions by the Authority relating to driver licences (Part 7), and
- (o) sets out persons exempted from requirements to hold driver licences (Part 8), and
- (p) sets out offences (Part 9) and their short descriptions (Schedule 2), and
- (q) provides for the service of notices under the Act or Regulation and lists the persons to whom the Authority may delegate functions under the Act or Regulation (Part 10), and
- (r) makes provision with respect to fees payable under the Regulation (Part 11 and Schedule 3), and
- (s) contains savings and transitional provisions consequent on the making of the proposed Regulation (Part 12 and Schedule 4).

This Regulation is made under the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Act 1998, including sections 11, 12, 13, 14, 15 (1), 19 (the general regulation-making power) and 20 and clause 1 of Schedule 3.

Part 2 Application for issue or variation of driver licence

Division 1 Eligibility to apply for licences

6 Eligibility to apply for issue or variation of driver licence

- (1) A person is eligible to apply for a car licence if he or she is 17 years of age or over.
- (2) A person is eligible to apply for a driver licence (not being a motorcycle licence, a car licence, a learner licence or a provisional licence) if he or she meets the relevant eligibility requirements set out in this clause for the class of licence sought, or is exempted by the Authority (in accordance with clause 8) from being required to do so.

Note. Clause 7 sets out requirements to obtain motorcycle licences. Clause 10 sets out requirements to obtain learner licences.

- (3) A person is eligible to apply for variation of his or her driver licence to include an additional licence class if he or she:
 - (a) meets the relevant eligibility requirements for that class, or
 - (b) is exempted by the Authority (in accordance with clause 8) from meeting those requirements.
- (4) The relevant eligibility requirements are:
 - (a) for a light rigid vehicle licence or medium rigid vehicle licence—that the person has, at any time, held an Australian driver licence (including a provisional licence) of the class C for a period of, or periods totalling, at least 12 months, and
 - (b) for a heavy rigid vehicle licence—that the person has, at any time, held an Australian driver licence (including a provisional licence) of the class C for a period of, or periods totalling, at least 24 months, and
 - (c) for a heavy combination vehicle licence—that the person has, at any time, held an Australian driver licence (including a provisional licence) of the class C for a period of, or periods totalling, at least 24 months and an Australian driver licence of the class MR or HR for a period of, or periods totalling, at least 12 months, and

Clause 6 Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999

Part 2 Application for issue or variation of driver licence
Division 1

- (d) for a multi-combination vehicle licence—that the person has, at any time, held an Australian driver licence of the class HR or HC for a period of, or periods totalling, at least 12 months, and the Authority is satisfied that the person has passed a training course, or has satisfied any other assessment, approved by the Authority.
- (5) In determining the periods for which a person has held a licence specified in a paragraph of subclause (4), the Authority must exclude any period for which the person's driver licence has been suspended (other than a suspension on medical grounds) or the person has been disqualified from driving.
- (6) A person who holds a provisional licence is not eligible for a light rigid vehicle licence, medium rigid vehicle licence, heavy rigid vehicle licence, heavy combination vehicle licence or multi-combination vehicle licence.

Note. Details of licence classes, names and codes are set out in clauses 26 and 27.

7 Eligibility to apply for issue of motorcycle licence

- (1) A person is eligible to apply for a motorcycle licence if he or she:
 - (a) is 17 years of age or over, and
 - (b) meets the relevant eligibility requirements set out in this clause, or is exempted by the Authority (in accordance with clause 8) from being required to do so.
- (2) The relevant eligibility requirements are:
 - (a) that the person has, at any time, held an Australian driver licence of the class R, or
 - (b) that the person:
 - (i) is the holder of a current learner licence, and has held the licence for not less than 3 months (or such shorter period as the Authority may determine in respect of applicants over 30 years of age), and
 - (ii) has demonstrated to the Authority riding competence, and
 - (iii) holds, or is eligible to hold, a gold driver licence (as referred to in clause 22 (2)), or

- (c) that the person meets the relevant eligibility requirements related to training.
- (3) The relevant eligibility requirements related to training are:
- (a) that the person is the holder of a certificate of satisfactory completion of a provisional licence rider training course under Part 6 (being a certificate that is not more than 3 months old when the person applies for the licence), or
- (b) that the person is, under this clause, or any other provision of this Regulation, exempt from the requirement to hold such a certificate.
- (4) Despite any other provision of this clause, the Authority may, in a particular case or class of cases, require a person applying for a motorcycle licence:
- (a) to undertake an appropriate authorised rider training course referred to in Part 6 even if the person has previously undertaken such a course. and
- (b) to be the holder of a certificate of satisfactory completion of that course (being a certificate that is not more than 3 months old when the person applies for the licence).

8 General provisions relating to issue or variation of driver licences

- (1) The Authority must exempt a person from a relevant eligibility requirement for a driver licence (including a learner licence or a provisional licence) if the person holds an Australian driver licence of an equivalent class.
- (2) The Authority may exempt a person from a relevant eligibility requirement for any such licence if the person satisfies the Authority that, because of age, experience, occupation or special circumstances, the person is fit to be granted the licence or variation sought.
- (3) If a person has held a licence to drive a motor vehicle in an external Territory or another country, the Authority may take into account some or all of that period for the purposes of determining the period for which a person has previously held a licence.

1999 No 116

Clause 9 Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999

Part 2 Application for issue or variation of driver licence
Division 1

9 Suspended or disqualified persons not eligible

- (1) A person whose Australian driver licence has been suspended is not eligible to apply for a driver licence for the duration of the suspension.
- (2) A person is not eligible to apply for a driver licence if:
 - (a) the person is, at the time of application, disqualified from driving in any part of Australia or another country, and
 - (b) in the case of a disqualification imposed in another jurisdiction or another country, the offence giving rise to the disqualification, if committed in this State, would have resulted in the person being disqualified from driving.

Division 2 Learner licences and provisional licences

10 Eligibility to apply for learner licence

- (1) A person is eligible to apply for a learner licence if he or she meets the relevant eligibility requirements set out in this clause, or is exempted by the Authority (in accordance with clause 8) from being required to do so.
- (2) The relevant eligibility requirement for a learner licence for a motor vehicle of a type to which a driver licence of class C relates is that the person is at least 16 years of age.
- (3) The relevant eligibility requirements for a learner licence for a motorcycle are:
 - (a) that the person is at least 16 years and 9 months of age, and
 - (b) that the person is the holder of a certificate of satisfactory completion of a learner licence rider training course under Part 6 (being a certificate that is not more than 3 months old when the person applies for the licence) or is exempted by the Authority from the requirement to hold such a certificate.
- (4) The Authority may grant a learner licence to an applicant who is under the required age, but only if the Authority is satisfied that special circumstances exist that justify the granting of a learner licence to the person.

- (5) Despite any other provision of this clause, a learner licence may be granted for any period to a person whose provisional licence, not being a motorcycle licence, has been cancelled.

11 Conditions of learner licences

A learner licence may be subject to any of the following conditions:

- (a) a condition specifying the minimum period for which a learner licence must be held before a provisional licence will be issued to the holder,
- (b) a condition limiting the hours during which and locality in which the learner may drive a motor vehicle.

12 Learner driver must be accompanied

- (1) The holder of a learner licence must not drive a motor vehicle (other than a motor bike or motor trike) on a road or road related area unless:
 - (a) the seat next to the learner is occupied by a person who holds an Australian driver licence (not being an Australian learner licence or provisional licence) authorising the holder to drive such a vehicle, or by a police officer or a person authorised by the Authority to test drivers who is submitting the learner to a driving test for the purposes of this Regulation, and
 - (b) there is displayed conspicuously at the front and the rear or on the roof of the vehicle, so as to be clearly visible from ahead of and behind the vehicle, a sign, issued or authorised by the Authority, displaying the letter "L" in black on a yellow background.
- (2) The holder of a learner licence must not ride a motor bike or motor trike on a road or road related area:
 - (a) if the motor bike or motor trike is being used for the carriage of any person except the learner, and
 - (b) unless there is displayed conspicuously at, and so as to be clearly visible from behind the motor bike or motor trike, a sign, issued or authorised by the Authority, displaying the letter "L" in black on a yellow background.

Clause 12 Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999

Part 2 Application for issue or variation of driver licence
Division 2

- (3) The holder of a learner licence must not ride a motor bike or motor trike on a road or road related area if the motor bike or motor trike has an engine capacity greater than 260 ml or a power to weight ratio greater than 150 kilowatts per tonne.
- (4) Without limiting the liability of any other person, the owner or person in charge of a motor vehicle is guilty of an offence if he or she causes, permits or allows, or fails to take reasonable precautions to prevent, a contravention of this clause.
- (5) A person accompanying a learner in a vehicle being driven by the learner on a road or road related area must:
 - (a) supervise the learner with respect to the driving of the vehicle, and
 - (b) take all reasonable precautions to prevent a contravention of the Act, the Traffic Act 1909, the Motor Traffic Regulations 1935 or this Regulation.
- (6) Subclause (5) does not apply to a person submitting the learner to a driving test for any of the purposes of this Regulation.

Maximum penalty (subclauses (1)–(5)): 20 penalty units.

13 Towed vehicles

The holder of a learner licence must not drive a motor vehicle on a road or road related area if the vehicle is towing any other vehicle (whether or not a trailer).

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.

14 Heavy vehicle learners

- (1) The holder of an Australian driver licence (other than a learner licence) for a motor vehicle (other than a motor bike or motor trike) may drive a motor vehicle for which a higher class of driver licence is required if:
 - (a) the higher class is one the person would be eligible to apply for in accordance with this Regulation, and

- (b) the person is receiving tuition from, and is accompanied by, a person who has held that higher class of driver licence (other than a provisional licence of that class) for a period of, or periods totalling, at least 12 months and is providing tuition in accordance with the laws of this State concerning driver instruction.
- (2) The holder of a learner licence that permits the holder to drive a motor vehicle for which a light rigid vehicle licence, medium rigid vehicle licence, heavy rigid vehicle licence, heavy combination vehicle licence or multi-combination vehicle licence is required is exempt from the requirements of clause 6 of this Regulation and Regulation 124 (3C) (a) of the Motor Traffic Regulations 1935.

15 Provisional licences

- (1) If a licence is issued to an applicant who has not previously held for a continuous period of at least 12 months (not including any period of suspension) a car licence or motorcycle licence, or an Australian driver licence of a class considered appropriate by the Authority, the licence granted must be a provisional licence of class C or class R.
- (2) A provisional licence is to be issued for a period of up to 12 months.
- (3) However, the period for which a provisional licence must be issued to a licence holder transferring from being a provisional licence holder in another jurisdiction may be reduced by the Authority by the amount of time that the person held the provisional licence in the other jurisdiction.
- (4) A provisional licence is subject to the following conditions:
- (a) the holder must not drive any motor vehicle at a speed in excess of 80 km/h,
- (b) in the case of a provisional licence of class R, the holder must not drive a motor bike or motor trike with an engine capacity greater than 260 ml or a power to weight ratio greater than 150 kilowatts per tonne,

1999 No 116

Clause 15 Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999

Part 2 Application for issue or variation of driver licence
Division 2

- (c) in the case of a provisional licence of class C, the holder must not drive any motor vehicle unless there is displayed conspicuously at the front and rear or on the roof of the vehicle, so as to be clearly visible from ahead of and behind the vehicle, a sign, issued or authorised by the Authority, displaying the letter "P" in red on a white background,
 - (d) in the case of a provisional licence of class R, the holder must not drive any motor bike or motor trike unless there is displayed conspicuously at the rear of the motor bike or motor trike, so as to be clearly visible from behind it. a sign, issued or authorised by the Authority, displaying the letter "P" in red on a white background.
- (5) In addition to any other ground on which a licence may be cancelled by the Authority, a provisional licence may be cancelled immediately by the Authority on any of the following grounds:
- (a) the holder of the licence is convicted of an offence under the Act or this Regulation or of an offence set out in Schedule K to the Motor Traffic Regulations 1935,
 - (b) the holder of the licence pays a penalty pursuant to section 18B of the Traffic Act 1909 in respect of any such offence.
- (6) The holder of a provisional licence must not drive a motor vehicle on a road or road related area if:
- (a) in the case of a provisional licence of class C, the motor vehicle is towing any other vehicle (whether or not a trailer) having an unladen weight in excess of 250 kg, or
 - (b) in the case of a provisional licence of class R, the motor bike or motor trike is towing any other vehicle (whether or not a trailer).

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.

Division 3 Applications to obtain or vary driver licences

16 Procedure for obtaining or varying driver licence

- (1) An applicant for. issue or variation of a driver licence must give the Authority:

- (a) a completed application form in the form approved by the Authority, and
 - (b) personal particulars necessary to identify the applicant and the applicant's residential address, including any evidence that the Authority may reasonably require to verify those particulars (for example, evidence of the person's address on the electoral roll), and
 - (c) the applicable fee.
 - (2) The Authority may not require the application form if it would be unreasonable or impracticable in the circumstances to do so.
 - (3) The Authority may require an applicant for issue or variation of a driver licence:
 - (a) to undergo tests or assessments, or provide other evidence of the applicant's knowledge of road law, driving ability or suitability to hold a driver licence, and
 - (b) to provide evidence of the applicant's compliance with the requirements of a law relating to the assessment of drivers convicted of offences involving alcohol or other drugs in force in the jurisdiction in which the person had last been disqualified from driving, and
 - (c) to undergo, at his or her own cost, a medical examination, or produce evidence of compliance with the medical standards contained in the documents referred to in clause 31 (2), and
 - (d) to attend a specified medical practitioner or allied professional practitioner for the purpose of that examination, and
 - (e) to provide evidence that he or she is eligible to be granted the class of licence sought, and
 - (f) to have his or her photograph taken, or to provide a photograph in a form specified by the Authority, and
 - (g) to provide a specimen signature.
 - (4) The Authority may accept evidence of compliance with a requirement in subclause (3) (a), (b) or (c) obtained by an applicant in another jurisdiction.

1999 No 116

Clause 16 Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999

Part 2 Application for issue or variation of driver licence
Division 3

- (5) If the Authority is satisfied that it is not practicable for the applicant to comply with the requirements in subclause (3) (b) of another jurisdiction, the Authority may require the person to comply with the requirements of an equivalent assessment.

47 Surrender of current driver licence

- (1) If an applicant for a driver licence, or a variation of a driver licence, holds a current Australian driver licence, or a current licence to drive a motor vehicle issued in another country, the applicant must surrender that licence to the Authority before the issue of a driver licence or amended driver licence.
- (2) Despite subclause (1), the Authority may exempt a person from surrendering a licence issued in another country if the Authority is satisfied that it would be unreasonable, in the circumstances, to require that licence to be surrendered.

18 When application for driver licence can be refused

- (1) The Authority may refuse an application for issue or variation of a driver licence if the Authority is satisfied that:
- (a) the applicant is not eligible for the licence or variation, or
 - (b) the applicant does not have sufficient driving ability or knowledge of road law, or
 - (c) the applicant is not a fit and proper person to hold a driver licence, or
 - (d) the applicant does not have sufficient knowledge of safe driving practices, or
 - (e) the applicant does not meet the medical standards contained in the documents referred to in clause 31 (2) applicable to the driver licence, or
 - (f) the applicant has not complied with the requirements of a law applying to licence applicants and relating to the assessment of drivers convicted of offences involving alcohol or other drugs in force in the jurisdiction in which the person had last been disqualified from driving, or
 - (g) a provision of the Act or this Regulation prevents approval of the application, or
 - (h) the applicant has not complied with a requirement of the Act or this Regulation relating to the application.

- (2) The Authority may refuse an application for issue or variation of a driver licence:
- (a) in accordance with an order made by a court in Australia, or
 - (b) in accordance with a law in force in this State relating to the non-payment of fines, or
 - (c) if the applicant is a person who, if already licensed, would be liable to have his or her licence cancelled under section 33 of the Act.

19 Issue and variation of driver licence

- (1) If the Authority approves an application, it must issue a driver licence of the class or kind applied for by the applicant.
- (2) The driver licence may be issued subject to conditions.
- (3) In determining whether to issue a driver licence subject to a condition, the Authority must have regard to the objects of the Act in relation to the regulation of drivers of motor vehicles in the interests of road safety.
- (4) Without limiting subclause (2), the driver licence may also be subject to any of the conditions to which a provisional licence is subject.
- (5) If the Authority approves an application for variation of a driver licence, it may vary the licence either conditionally or unconditionally.

20 Issue of driver licence receipt as interim measure

- (1) As an interim measure, the Authority may issue a driver licence receipt.
- (2) A driver licence receipt has the same force and effect as a driver licence except that a driver licence receipt ceases to be in force on the expiry date indicated on it, or the day on which a driver licence in respect of the same licence class is given to the holder, whichever is the sooner.
- (3) A driver licence receipt must comply with the requirements of clause 22 (1), except clause 22 (1) (c).

1999 No 116

Clause 21 Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999

Part 2 Application for issue or variation of driver licence
Division 3

21 Competency based assessment

- (1) The Authority may approve a scheme (to be known as competency based assessment) under which a person's competency may be assessed for the purposes of a determination in relation to a licence held or to be held by a person. The scheme applies to the extent approved by the Authority.
- (2) The Authority may request the person's participation in the scheme as a prerequisite to the making of the determination, or may instead offer participation in the scheme as an alternative to other means of testing (or provision of information) for the purposes of the determination.
- (3) The Authority may, on application by a person requesting entry into the scheme, issue to the person the log book appropriate to the class of driver licence in which the person is interested together with documentation explaining the operation of the scheme and its relationship to the issue of driver licences.
- (4) An applicant for entry into the scheme must give the Authority:
 - (a) a completed application form in the form approved by the Authority, and
 - (b) personal particulars necessary to identify the applicant and the applicant's residential address, including any evidence that the Authority may reasonably require to verify those particulars, and
 - (c) the applicable fee.
- (5) An applicant for entry into the scheme must hold a driver licence of the class required by the Authority, or satisfy such other requirements as the Authority may impose, with regard to the purpose for which the applicant desires entry into the scheme.
- (6) The Authority may issue a replacement log book, on payment of the appropriate administrative fee, if it is satisfied that a log book has been lost, stolen or damaged.
- (7) In this clause:

log book means a book, in a form approved by the Authority in relation to a particular class of driver licence:

- (a) listing the driving competencies to be achieved in order to obtain a licence of that class, and
- (b) providing for the recording and authentication, in space provided in the book, of particulars of assessment, in relation to those competencies, of the person to whom the book is issued.

1999 No 116

Clause 22 Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999

Part 3 Driver licences

Part 3 Driver licences

22 Form of driver licence

- (1) A driver licence must show:
- (a) a licence number for the person to whom it is issued, and
 - (b) the full name of the person, and
 - (c) a photograph of the person, and
 - (d) the person's date of birth, and
 - (e) the person's residential address, and
 - (f) the person's signature (or a reproduction of that signature), and
 - (g) the class or classes of licence held by the person, as set out in clause 26, and
 - (h) the expiry date of the licence, and
 - (i) the code of any condition to which the licence is subject, in accordance with clause 28.

- (2) A driver licence may be colour coded as follows:

learner licence—green

provisional licence—red

1-year licence—silver

3-year licence—silver

5-year licence—gold

Alternatively, if the driver licence is a class HR, class HC or class MC licence, it may be coloured magenta.

23 Issue of replacement driver licence

- (1) The Authority may, on payment by the holder of a driver licence of the applicable fee, issue a driver licence to replace a driver licence that:
- (a) has been stolen, lost, damaged or destroyed, or
 - (b) has been cancelled under clause 38 (1) (i) or (j).

- (2) A licence holder who seeks a replacement driver licence must provide to the Authority personal particulars necessary to identify the applicant, including any evidence that the Authority may reasonably require to verify those particulars.
- (3) The Authority may require a licence holder who seeks a replacement driver licence to comply with any of the requirements of clause 16 (3) in addition to the requirements of this clause.
- (4) On the issue of a replacement licence, the licence it replaces is of no effect.

24 Driver licence register

Note. The Authority has the function of maintaining the driver licence register (see section 8 (b) of the Act).

- (1) The Authority must record the following matters in the driver licence register, in respect of each driver licence:
 - (a) the identification number allocated to the person to whom the licence was issued,
 - (b) the full name of the person,
 - (c) the person's gender and date of birth,
 - (d) the person's residential address and address for service of notices (if any),
 - (e) the class or classes of the licence,
 - (f) the commencement and expiry dates of the licence,
 - (g) any conditions to which the licence is subject.
- (2) The Authority may record, in the driver licence register, other information for:
 - (a) the purposes of the Act and this Regulation, or
 - (b) the purposes of another Act, or
 - (c) other purposes, as the Authority considers appropriate.
- (3) The holder of a driver licence is entitled to request a search of the driver licence register, and to obtain a certificate as to any matter appearing in the register in relation to him or her, on payment of the applicable fee.

1999 No 116

Clause 25 Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999

Part 3 Driver licences

25 Release of information in demerit points register and driver licence register

- (1) A request for information about a person recorded in the demerit points register or driver licence register must be treated by the Authority in accordance with the Information Privacy Principles contained in section 14 of the Privacy Act 1988 of the Commonwealth.
- (2) For the purposes of the application of the Information Privacy Principles to a request for information referred to in subclause (1):
 - (a) the information requested is taken to be personal information, and
 - (b) the Authority is taken to be the collector of the information in relation to information it collects and a record-keeper in relation to records of information in its possession or control.

26 Licence classes

- (1) The holder of a driver licence of a particular class may drive a motor vehicle of a particular kind, as set out in this clause. The classes of driver licence are car licence, motorcycle licence, light rigid vehicle licence, medium rigid vehicle licence, heavy rigid vehicle licence, heavy combination vehicle licence or multi-combination vehicle licence.
- (2) The holder of a motorcycle licence may drive a motor bike or motor trike, other than a motor trike that has a body type commonly known as, or similar to, a sedan, station wagon, coupe, convertible, roadster, utility, tray top or van.
- (3) The holder of a car licence may drive a motor vehicle with a GVM that is not greater than 4.5 tonnes and that is constructed or equipped to seat not more than 12 adults (including the driver), and any tractor or implement, other than:
 - (a) a motor bike, or
 - (b) a motor trike that does not have a body type commonly known as, or similar to, a sedan, station wagon, coupe, convertible, roadster, utility, tray top or van.

- (4) The holder of a light rigid vehicle licence may drive a motor vehicle that:
- (a) has a GVM greater than 4.5 tonnes but not greater than 8 tonnes, or
 - (b) seats more than 12 adults (including the driver) and has a GVM not greater than 8 tonnes.
- (5) The holder of a medium rigid vehicle licence may drive a motor vehicle that has:
- (a) 2 axles, and
 - (b) a GVM greater than 8 tonnes.
- (6) The holder of a heavy rigid vehicle licence may drive a motor vehicle (including an articulated bus, but not including any other articulated vehicle) that has:
- (a) 3 or more axles, and
 - (b) a GVM greater than 8 tonnes.
- (7) The holder of a heavy combination vehicle licence may drive:
- (a) a prime mover to which is attached a single semi-trailer plus any unladen converter dolly, or
 - (b) a rigid motor vehicle to which is attached a trailer that has a GVM greater than 9 tonnes plus any unladen converter dolly.
- (8) The holder of a multi-combination vehicle licence may drive any motor vehicle or combination of vehicles other than a motor bike or motor trike described in subclause (3) (b).
- (9) The holder of a licence of a particular class may, in addition to driving motor vehicles in that class, drive vehicles in any lower class according to the hierarchy set out in clause 27 (1).
- (10) The holder of a driver licence of class C or LR may drive a motor vehicle covered by that licence class that is towing a single trailer with a GVM not greater than 9 tonnes, provided that:
- (a) in the case of a motor vehicle that has a GVM of up to 4.5 tonnes, the requirements of any law in force in this State in relation to the mass limits for combinations of light vehicles are met. or

1999 No 116

Clause 26 Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999

Part 3 Driver licences

- (b) in the case of a motor vehicle that has a GVM greater than 4.5 tonnes, the mass limits for combinations specified in the Road Transport (Mass, Loading and Access) Regulation 1996 are met.
- (11) The holder of a driver licence of class MR or HR may drive a motor vehicle covered by that licence class that is towing a single trailer (other than a trailer commonly known as a semi-trailer) that has a GVM not greater than 9 tonnes, provided that the mass limits for combinations specified in the Road Transport (Mass, Loading and Access) Regulation 1996 are met.
- (12) The towing allowances of subclauses (10) and (11), other than the requirement that the driver of a vehicle towing a semi-trailer must hold a driver licence of class HC, apply irrespective of the type of connection between the trailer and the towing vehicle. Subclause (11) is not intended to prevent the holder of a medium rigid vehicle licence or heavy rigid vehicle licence from towing a car carrier, horse float or like trailer of a mass less than 9 tonnes.
- (13) A licence class may be shown on a driver licence by means of a code or symbol.
- (14) If a licence class is shown by way of a code, the code set out in the Table to this subclause must be used. In the Table, the code in Column 1 refers to the class of licence set out opposite that code in Column 2.

Table

Column 1	Column 2
Licence code	Licence class
R	motorcycle licence
C	car licence
LR	light rigid vehicle licence
MR	medium rigid vehicle licence
HR	heavy rigid vehicle licence
HC	heavy combination vehicle licence
MC	multi-combination vehicle licence

- (15) A licence class may be described by reference to the code set out in the Table to subclause (14).

27 Order and description of licence classes

- (1) For the purposes of this Regulation, the order of licence classes, from the lowest to the highest, is:
 - (a) car licence,
 - (b) light rigid vehicle licence,
 - (c) medium rigid vehicle licence,
 - (d) heavy rigid vehicle licence,
 - (e) heavy combination vehicle licence.
 - (f) multi-combination vehicle licence.
- (2) A motorcycle licence is not included in the licence class hierarchy set out in subclause (1).

28 Conditional licences

- (1) A condition to which a driver licence is subject may be shown on the driver licence by means of a code or symbol.
- (2) If a condition is shown by a code or symbol, the driver licence must bear a note to the effect that the condition can be found out by inquiry of the Authority.
- (3) The Authority may require the holder of a conditional licence to carry, when driving, any notice issued by the Authority containing a full explanation of the conditions to which the licence is subject.
- (4) Despite subclause (3), the holder of an Australian driver licence issued in another jurisdiction that is a conditional licence that bears the code X, and that refers to a condition imposed under a provision of a law of that jurisdiction corresponding to this clause or clause 38, must carry a notice issued by the Authority containing a full explanation of the conditions to which the licence is subject when driving in this State.
- (5) A code in Column 1 of the Table to this subclause may be used on a driver licence to indicate that the licence is subject to the condition set out in Column 2 opposite that code.

1999 No 116

Clause 28 Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999

Part 3 Driver licences

Table

Column 1	Column 2
Licence code	Licence condition
A	The holder must drive only a motor vehicle fitted with an automatic transmission.
B	If the holder drives a heavy vehicle, the vehicle must be fitted with a synchromesh transmission or automatic transmission.
E	If the holder is the rider of a motor bike or motor trike, the motor bike or motor trike must be of restricted engine capacity as notified in writing by the Authority to the holder on issue or variation of a licence.
I	The holder must drive only a motor vehicle fitted with a breath alcohol interlock device.
S	The holder must wear corrective lenses at all times while driving.
V	The holder must drive only a motor vehicle fitted with specified driver aids, or modified as directed in writing by the Authority or printed on the driver licence.
X	The holder must comply with any condition of which he or she has been notified in writing by the Authority on issue or variation of a licence or that is printed on the driver licence.
Z	0.02 grams per 100 mls blood alcohol concentration restriction.

- (6) A short description of a licence condition may be printed on a driver licence.

29 Damaged or lost licences

- (1) A licence is of no effect if it is damaged, or is in such a condition, that the particulars in the licence cannot be read.
- (2) The holder of a driver licence whose licence is damaged, stolen, lost or destroyed must notify the Authority as soon as practicable.

Part 4 Obligations of licence applicants and licensed drivers

30 Change of name, address or medical condition

- (1) The holder of a driver licence must tell the Authority, not more than 14 days after the change, about any change in his or her:
 - (a) name, or
 - (b) residential address, or address for service of notices.
- (2) Unless required by the Authority, the advice from the licence holder referred to in subclause (1) need not be in writing.
- (3) A new residential address must be an address in this State at which the Authority may ordinarily make personal contact with the person.
- (4) If there is no postal service to an applicant's or licence holder's residential address, the person must also provide an address for the service of notices.
- (5) The holder of a driver licence must, as soon as practicable, notify the Authority of any permanent or long term injury or illness that may impair his or her ability to drive safely.

31 Tests and medical examinations of licensed drivers

- (1) The Authority may, by notice in writing, require the holder of a driver licence, within a time specified in the notice:
 - (a) to submit to tests of the holder's knowledge of safe driving practices and road law, or
 - (b) to submit to tests or assessments of driving ability, or
 - (c) to undergo a medical examination by a medical practitioner or allied professional practitioner, or produce evidence of compliance with the medical standards referred to in subclause (2), to determine the person's medical fitness to hold a driver licence, or a licence of a particular class, or
 - (d) to attend a specified medical practitioner or allied professional practitioner for the purpose of that examination.

1999 No 116

Clause 31 Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999

Part 4 Obligations of licence applicants and licensed drivers

- (2) A medical examination required by a notice under this clause must be conducted in accordance with:
- (a) in the case of a medium rigid vehicle licence, heavy rigid vehicle licence, heavy combination vehicle licence or multi-combination vehicle licence, the standards set out in the booklet Medical Examinations of Commercial Vehicle Drivers (November 1994) published by the National Road Transport Commission and the Federal Office of Road Safety and endorsed by the Ministerial Council, as amended from time to time. and
 - (b) in the case of a motorcycle licence, car licence or light rigid vehicle licence, one of the following publications, as determined by the Authority:
 - (i) National Guidelines for Determining Fitness to Drive a Motor Vehicle (1988) published by the Commonwealth Department of Transport,
 - (ii) Assessing Fitness to Drive (1998) published by Austroads Incorporated,
 - (iii) Interim General Driver Licensing Guidelines (1994) published by the Roads Corporation, Victoria,
 - (iv) Drivers and Riders—Guidelines for General Practitioners (1995) published by the Department of Transport, Queensland.
- (3) The Authority may require the holder of a driver licence to provide to it any documents relevant to the holder's medical fitness to hold a driver licence.
- (4) The Authority must accept, for the purposes of this clause, a certificate, in a form approved by the Authority, of the results of a medical examination conducted in another jurisdiction if that examination otherwise complies with this clause.

32 Verification of record and monitoring of compliance

- (1) If there are reasonable grounds for believing that information contained in the driver licence register is inaccurate or misleading, the Authority may by written notice require the holder of a driver licence to provide evidence to the Authority, in a form specified by the Authority, relating to anything relevant to the issuing, variation or continuation of the licence, including:

- (a) the holder's personal details, and
 - (b) the holder's residential address.
- (2) For the purposes of this clause, the Authority may require the holder of a driver licence:
- (a) to provide specified documents for inspection, and
 - (b) to attend at a time and place specified by the Authority for identification.
- (3) If a person who is required to attend for identification requests a change to the time or place specified in the notice, the Authority must give consideration to that request and may change the time or place in accordance with the request.

Part 5 Expiry, surrender and cancellation of driver licences

33 Licence expiry date

A driver licence expires at the end of the day that is recorded in the driver licence register as the licence expiry date.

34 Notice of renewal of driver licence

- (1) A notice of renewal of a driver licence is a notice:
 - (a) addressed to the holder of the driver licence, and
 - (b) stating that, if the driver licence is not renewed on or before a date specified in the notice, the driver licence will expire.
- (2) If the Authority fails to send a notice of renewal of a driver licence, or the notice is not received by a person, that failure or non receipt does not affect:
 - (a) the expiry of the driver licence, and
 - (b) the obligation of the holder of the driver licence to renew the licence if he or she wishes to continue to drive a motor vehicle on a road or road related area after the expiry of his or her existing licence.

35 Renewal of driver licence

- (1) A person may apply to the Authority to renew his or her driver licence at any time within 5 years after the licence expiry date by giving the Authority:
 - (a) an application for renewal of the driver licence in the form approved by the Authority, and
 - (b) personal particulars necessary to identify the applicant, including any evidence that the Authority may reasonably require to verify those particulars, and
 - (c) the applicable fee.
- (2) The Authority may require the applicant to comply with any of the requirements of clause 16 (3) in addition to the requirements specified in subclause (1).

- (3) Subject to subclause (4), the Authority must renew the driver licence.
 - (4) The Authority may refuse to renew a driver licence if the circumstances are such that, if the applicant for renewal were applying for a new licence, the Authority would refuse that application under clause 18.
 - (5) The Authority may refuse to renew a driver licence if the Authority is satisfied that the photograph contained in the previous driver licence is no longer a true likeness of the applicant.
 - (6) If a driver licence (the old licence) is renewed, the expiry date of the new licence may be calculated from:
 - (a) in the case of renewal before, on, or within six months after the licence expiry date of the old licence, that expiry date of the old licence, or
 - (b) in the case of renewal within 5 years after the licence expiry date of the old licence, the day the licence is renewed.
 - (7) A person whose driver licence is not renewed within 5 years after the licence expiry date is not entitled to apply for a renewal, but may apply for a new licence in accordance with clause 16.

36 Demerit points and offences

- (1) For the purposes of section 15 (1) (a) of the Act, the national schedule of demerit points comprises the offences, and the points specified in relation to each offence, set out in Part 1 of Schedule 1.
- (2) For the purposes of section 15 (1) (b) of the Act, the offences, and the points specified in relation to each offence, set out in Part 2 of Schedule 1, are prescribed.
- (3) Despite subclauses (1) and (2), the number of demerit points to be allocated to an offence to which this clause applies (other than an offence under a law of another jurisdiction) committed over a long weekend is to be as follows:

1999 No 116

Clause 36 Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999

Part 5 Expiry, surrender and cancellation of driver licences

- (a) double the number specified in Schedule 1 in relation to an offence relating to exceeding the speed limit or to disobeying a “Truck & Bus Speed Limit” sign, or
 - (b) one more than the number set out in Schedule 1 in relation to the offence concerned in the case of any other offence.
- (4) Despite subclauses (1) and (2), the number of demerit points to be allocated to an offence to which this clause applies (being an offence under a law of another jurisdiction) committed over a long weekend is a number determined by the Authority (not being a number higher than the number applying under subclause (3) to the New South Wales offence with which the Authority has determined it corresponds).
- (5) In this clause:
- over a long weekend* means:
- (a) if a Friday has been declared a public holiday throughout the State—on or after the Thursday immediately before that Friday but before the Monday immediately after it, or
 - (b) if a Monday has been declared a public holiday throughout the State—on or after the Friday immediately before that Monday but before the Tuesday immediately after it, or
 - (c) if both a Friday and the immediately following Monday have been declared public holidays throughout the State—on or after the Thursday immediately before that Friday but before the Tuesday immediately after it.

37 Surrender of driver licence

- (1) The holder of a driver licence may apply, personally or by an agent who produces written evidence of his or her appointment as agent, to the Authority to surrender the licence.
- (2) The holder of a driver licence who applies for surrender of the licence must:
 - (a) return the licence to the Authority, or
 - (b) if the licence has been lost or destroyed, give the Authority a statement signed by the licence holder or agent that the licence has been lost or destroyed.

- (3) The Authority must approve an application for the surrender of a driver licence unless:
- (a) the holder of the licence has failed to meet the requirements of this clause, or
 - (b) the Authority is taking action to suspend or cancel the licence under section 16, 17 or 33 of the Act or clause 38 or 39.

- (4) Subject to subclause (5), if a driver surrenders his or her driver licence, the Authority may refund part of the fee for the issue of the licence, calculated in accordance with the formula:

$$\frac{\text{number of days}}{\text{licence period}} \times \text{fee paid}$$ where:

number of days is the number of unexpired whole days remaining of the licence period for which the fee was paid, from the day on which the Authority approves the application to surrender the licence.

licence period is the total number of days for which the licence was issued.

fee paid is the amount, other than the administrative fee, paid for the issue of the driver licence.

- (5) The Authority may deduct from the refund the amount of any unpaid administrative fees incurred in respect of the driver licence.
- (6) If an amount of refund determined in accordance with this clause would comprise an amount that is not a whole number of dollars, the amount of refund is to be adjusted downwards to the next whole number of dollars.

38 Variation, suspension or cancellation of driver licence

- (1) The Authority may vary, suspend or cancel a person's driver licence if it appears to the Authority that:

1999 No 116

Clause 38 Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999

Part 5 Expiry, surrender and cancellation of driver licences

- (a) the person has failed or refused to submit to a test or medical examination required under or in accordance with the Act or this Regulation, or has failed such a test or examination, or
 - (b) it would be dangerous for the person to drive a motor vehicle because of illness or incapacity, or because of the effects of treatment for such conditions, or
 - (c) the person does not have sufficient driving ability or knowledge of road law, or
 - (d) the person is not a fit and proper person to hold a driver licence, or
 - (e) the person has not complied with the requirements of a law relating to the assessment of drivers convicted of offences involving alcohol or drugs in force in the jurisdiction in which the person had last been disqualified from driving, or
 - (f) the person is no longer eligible, in accordance with the Act or this Regulation, for a particular class or classes of licence, or
 - (g) the licence was issued or renewed in error, or
 - (h) the licence is incorrect in any respect, or
 - (i) a non-cash payment submitted to the Authority as payment of an applicable fee has been dishonoured, or
 - (j) the person has been convicted in another jurisdiction or another country of any offence which, if the person had been licensed in that jurisdiction or country, would have enabled the driver licensing authority of that jurisdiction or country to vary, suspend or cancel the person's licence, or
 - (k) the person has failed to comply with a condition of the licence, or
 - (l) the photograph contained in the licence is no longer a true likeness of the person.
- (2) The Authority must suspend or cancel a person's driver licence in accordance with:
- (a) an order made by a court in Australia, or
 - (b) a law in force in this State.

39 Procedures for variation, suspension and cancellation of driver licence

- (1) If the Authority decides to vary, suspend or cancel a person's driver licence, the Authority must give the person notice in writing of:
 - (a) the reasons for the proposed variation, suspension or cancellation, and
 - (b) any action that must be taken by the licence holder in order to avoid the variation, suspension or cancellation, and
 - (c) the date by which the person must take that action.
- (2) The notice under subclause (1) must also state:
 - (a) in the case of a notice of intention to vary a person's driver licence, that if the licence is varied as set out in the notice, the person will no longer be authorised to drive a motor vehicle of a kind specified in the notice on a road or road related area, or
 - (b) in the case of a notice of intention to suspend a person's driver licence, that if the licence is suspended, the person will not be authorised to drive a motor vehicle on a road or road related area for the period of suspension specified in the notice, or
 - (c) in the case of a notice of intention to cancel a person's driver licence, that if the licence is cancelled, the person will no longer be authorised to drive a motor vehicle on a road or road related area.
- (3) A notice of intention to vary, suspend or cancel a person's driver licence must also state whether the licence is required to be returned to the Authority and, if so, specify the date by which the licence must be returned and the place to which it is to be returned.
- (4) A driver licence is varied, suspended or cancelled in accordance with the terms of a notice served under this clause unless the Authority, by further notice in writing, withdraws the notice.
- (5) If a person's driver licence is varied, suspended or cancelled by the Authority, the person must return the licence to the Authority within the time required by the notice served under this clause.

1999 No 116

Clause 39 Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999

Part 5 Expiry, surrender and cancellation of driver licences

- (6) The Authority may decide to vary, suspend or cancel a driver licence under this Regulation without the holder of the licence having been provided with an opportunity to show cause why the licence should not be varied, suspended or cancelled.

40 Downgrading of driver licence

- (1) If a driver licence is cancelled:
- (a) by the operation of the Traffic Act 1909 as a result of the imposition on the holder of the licence of a period of disqualification, or
 - (b) by the Authority under section 33 of the Act,
- the Authority may, if the offence or offences (or alleged offence or offences) that gave rise to the cancellation arise wholly or mainly out of the use of a motor vehicle or trailer of a class approved in writing by the Authority for the purposes of this clause, issue the former holder with another driver licence (being one that does not authorise the driving of motor vehicles or trailers of that class) in substitution for the cancelled licence.
- (2) Nothing in this clause:
- (a) limits any discretion of the Authority to decline to issue a licence to a person, or
 - (b) permits the issue of any licence to a person who for the time being is disqualified from holding one.

Part 6 Motorcycle licence riding and testing scheme

41 Definitions

In this Part:

authorised rider training course means:

- (a) a provisional licence rider training course, or
- (b) a learner licence rider training course, provided under an agreement referred to in clause 42.

rider training centre means premises that a rider training operator is authorised to use for the purpose of providing an authorised rider training course.

rider training instructor means a person accredited under clause 43.

rider training operator means a person authorised, under an agreement referred to in clause 42, to provide an authorised rider training course.

testing officer means a person accredited under clause 44.

42 Authorisation of operators

The Authority may enter into an agreement with a person under which the person is authorised to provide a rider training course at a rider training centre specified in the agreement.

43 Accreditation of rider training instructors

The Authority may, by instrument in writing, accredit a person as a rider training instructor if the person:

- (a) is the holder of a valid and unexpired licence issued under the Driving Instructors Act 1992 authorising the person to act as a driving instructor, within the meaning of that Act, in respect of motor bikes and motor trikes, and
- (b) satisfies the Authority that the person is otherwise qualified to conduct an authorised rider training course.

1999 No 116

Clause 44 Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999

Part 6 Motorcycle licence riding and testing scheme

44 Accreditation of testing officers

The Authority may, by instrument in writing, accredit a person as a testing officer if the person:

- (a) is a riding training instructor, and
- (b) satisfies the Authority that the person is otherwise qualified to be a testing officer.

45 Objects of training course

- (1) The Authority must not enter into an agreement under clause 42 unless the Authority is satisfied that the rider training course the subject of the agreement is to be directed to ensuring that a person who desires to hold:
 - (a) a motorcycle learner licence, or
 - (b) a provisional licence of class R,has sufficient knowledge and skills to warrant the granting of the licence concerned.
- (2) For that purpose, any such course is to include:
 - (a) the training of applicants in the necessary skills, and
 - (b) the instruction of applicants in the relevant law and safe riding practices, and
 - (c) the testing of applicants' skills and knowledge, and
 - (d) provision for the issue of certificates, in a form approved by the Authority and signed by a rider training instructor or testing officer (or, if the Authority so requires, by both an instructor and testing officer), attesting the satisfactory completion of the course by persons undertaking it.

46 Application to do course

- (1) A person who wishes to undertake an authorised rider training course must:
 - (a) apply in writing to the Authority, in the form approved by the Authority, and
 - (b) pay to the Authority the applicable fee.

- (2) The Authority may refund all or part of the fee if:
 - (a) the person does not complete the course, and
 - (b) the Authority is satisfied that the circumstances warrant a refund.

47 Mandatory training areas

The Authority may, by instrument in writing, identify any area within the State, being an area in which a rider training centre is situated, as a mandatory training area.

48 Exemption from compulsory motorcycle licence training

- (1) A person who satisfies the Authority that the person's usual residential address is not within a mandatory training area identified under clause 47 is exempt from any requirement under this Regulation to hold a certificate issued under this Part.
- (2) The Authority may, by notice in writing, exempt any person or class of persons from all or any of the requirements of this Part.
- (3) An exemption may be unconditional or may be subject to conditions specified in the exemption.
- (4) An exemption that is subject to conditions ceases to be in force as soon as the conditions are not complied with.
- (5) A person is exempt from any requirement of this Regulation to hold a certificate issued under this Part if:
 - (a) the person applies for the issue of a learner licence to learn to ride a motor bike or motor trike, and
 - (b) the person is, at the time of applying, the holder of a learner licence to learn to ride a motor bike or motor trike, or the equivalent of such a licence, issued under the law in force in another jurisdiction.

49 Exemption from licensing and other provisions

A person is exempt from the requirement to hold a licence in respect of any motor bike or motor trike while it is being ridden, as part of an authorised rider training course at a rider training centre referred to in this Part, by an applicant for a learner licence who is 16 years and 6 months of age or older.

Part 7 Review and appeal rights

50 Authority to ensure notification of review and appeal rights

- (1) In this Part, affected person means an applicant for a driver licence, the holder of an Australian driver licence or the holder of a foreign driver licence.
- (2) If an affected person is eligible to seek review of a decision of the Authority under clause 51 (1) or to appeal to a Local Court under clause 52 (1), the Authority must advise that person of:
 - (a) the person's right to seek review of a decision under clause 51 (1) or to appeal under clause 52 (1), and
 - (b) the options available under other laws to a person to have the decision reviewed by another court or the Ombudsman.
- (3) The time periods specified in clauses 51 (3) and 52 (2) are taken not to have commenced until an affected person is notified in accordance with this clause.

51 Application for internal review

- (1) An affected person may apply to the Authority in writing for an internal review of a decision by the Authority:
 - (a) not to take into account some or all of the period the person has held a licence to drive a motor vehicle in another country under clause 8 (3), or
 - (b) not to grant an application for the issue, variation or renewal of a driver licence under clause 18 (1) or 35 (4), or
 - (c) to vary, suspend or cancel the person's driver licence under clause 38 (1).
- (2) Despite subclause (1) (c), an internal review of a decision of the Authority to suspend or cancel a driver licence under subclause (1) (c) does not permit review of:
 - (a) the guilt or innocence of the person concerned, or
 - (b) the imposition of a penalty or the level of a penalty imposed on the person concerned.
- (3) An application must be made within 28 days after the person is notified of the decision.

- (4) An application for internal review must be considered by a person other than the person who made the decision to be reviewed.
- (5) After reviewing the decision, the Authority must:
 - (a) affirm the decision, or
 - (b) vary the decision, or
 - (c) revoke the decision.
- (6) The Authority must notify an affected person in writing of its decision within 28 days after the request for internal review is received by the Authority.
- (7) A decision subject to internal review under this clause is taken to be affirmed by the Authority if the Authority has not given written notice of its decision to the affected person within 28 days of application being made under subclause (1).
- (8) The making of an application for internal review does not affect the operation of the decision.

52 Appeal to Local Court

- (1) An affected person may appeal to a Local Court constituted by a Magistrate sitting alone against any of the following decisions of the Authority:
 - (a) not to take into account some or all of the period the person has held a licence to drive a motor vehicle in another country under clause 8 (3), or
 - (b) not to grant an application for the issue, variation or renewal of a driver licence under clause 18 (1) or 35 (4), or
 - (c) to vary, suspend or cancel the person's driver licence under clause 38 (1).
- (2) Notice of any such appeal specifying the grounds of the appeal must be lodged with the clerk of the Local Court to which the appeal is being made not later than 21 days after the date on which the appellant was notified pursuant to clause 50.
- (3) The clerk of the Local Court must give notice of the time and place of the hearing of any such appeal to the Authority and to the appellant, and in the notice to the Authority must notify the Authority as to the grounds of appeal.

1999 No 116

Clause 52 Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999

Part 7 Review and appeal rights

- (4) The hearing of the appeal may proceed despite any omission or error in a notice under subclause (3) or the failure to give any such notice if the Court is satisfied that the appellant and the Authority had knowledge of the time and place of the hearing and were not prejudiced by any such omission or error or by the failure to give any such notice.
- (5) A Local Court must hear and determine an appeal made to it under this section and may confirm (with or without variation) or disallow the decision appealed against, or make such other order in the circumstances as to the Court seems just.
- (6) For the purposes of varying under subclause (5) a decision of the Authority, the Court may exercise only such powers as the Authority could have exercised under the Act or this Regulation when making that decision.
- (7) If in any proceedings concerning a decision of the Authority about a licence it appears to the Court that:
 - (a) the licence is affected by another decision of the Authority as well as the one under review in those proceedings, and
 - (b) the appellant has commenced or intends to commence appeal proceedings under this clause in respect of that other decision,the Court may adjourn the proceedings pending hearing of that other appeal or so that both appeals may be heard together.
- (8) The decision of a Local Court in respect of an appeal made under this clause is final and binding on the appellant and the Authority.

53 Affected person entitled to be given reasons

- (1) If an affected person is entitled under clause 51 (1) or 52 (1) to seek internal review of a decision of the Authority or to appeal to a Local Court, the affected person may apply to the Authority for written reasons for the decision.
- (2) After receiving an application for reasons under subclause (1), the Authority must provide to the affected person, within 14 days of the application being made:
 - (a) the decision of the Authority and the reasons for that decision, and

- (b) the identity or position of the person who made the decision.
- (3) An application for reasons may be made before or during (or both) the period in which an affected person seeks internal review of a decision under clause 51 or appeals under clause 52.
- (4) An affected person cannot make an application under this clause if the Authority has already provided the person with the details referred to in subclause (2).

Part 8 Exemptions

54 Authority may exempt certain classes of driver from requirement to hold licence

- (1) The Authority may exempt a driver or class of drivers from the requirement to hold a driver licence, or a particular class of driver licence.
- (2) An exemption under this clause may be subject to conditions specified by the Authority.
- (3) The Authority must cause notice of an exemption under this clause to be published in the Gazette.

55 Interstate and international visitors

- (1) A visiting driver who holds:
 - (a) a current Australian driver licence or learner licence (including a New Zealand learner licence) issued in another jurisdiction, or
 - (b) a current foreign driver licence and international driving permit, or
 - (c) a current foreign driver licence that is written in English or is accompanied by an English translation,that authorises him or her to drive a motor vehicle of a particular kind may drive a motor vehicle of that kind in this State, and is exempt from the requirements of the Act and this Regulation.
- (2) A person ceases to be exempt under subclause (1) if any of the following things happens:
 - (a) if the holder of an Australian driver licence or learner licence has resided in this State for a continuous period of more than 3 months, unless he or she also holds a valid Driver Identification Document issued by the Commonwealth Department of Defence,
 - (b) if an international visitor has held a permanent visa under the Migration Act 1958 of the Commonwealth for more than 3 months,

- (c) if the person is disqualified from driving a motor vehicle on a road or road related area in any part of Australia, or another country,
 - (d) if the person is charged with an offence specified under another law of this State relating to visiting drivers,
 - (e) if the person, in the reasonable opinion of the Authority, is not considered a fit and proper person to drive a motor vehicle in this State,
 - (f) if, in the reasonable opinion of the Authority, the person's ability to drive safely is impaired due to a permanent or long term injury or illness,
 - (g) if the person fails to comply with a request under clause 31.
- (3) If the Authority forms an opinion on the matters set out in subclause (2) (e) or (f), the Authority must give the person notice in writing stating:
- (a) that he or she is no longer exempt from the requirement to hold a driver licence in this State, and
 - (b) that he or she must not drive a motor vehicle on a road or road related area in this State, and
 - (c) the reasons why the person is no longer exempt, and
 - (d) any action that may be taken by the person in order to regain the exemption, and
 - (e) the date by which the person must take that action.
- (4) Subclause (2) (d) ceases to have effect in relation to a person if the charges are withdrawn or dismissed.

Clause 56 Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999

Part 9 Offences

Part 9 Offences

56 Licence conditions

The holder of a conditional driver licence who fails to comply with a condition of that licence is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.

57 Offences involving driver licence documents

- (1) The holder of a driver licence who fails to return a driver licence to the Authority when required by or in accordance with this Regulation to do so is guilty of an offence.
- (2) The holder of a conditional driver licence who fails to comply with a requirement under clause 28 (3) or (4) to carry a notice about the condition is guilty of an offence.
- (3) A person who fails to comply with a requirement of the Authority under clause 32 (1) to provide evidence about the contents of the driver licence register is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.

58 Notification offences

A person who does not give information to the Authority when required by this Regulation to do so is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.

59 Short descriptions of offences

- (1) For the purposes of section 145B of the Justices Act 1902, the prescribed expression for an offence created by a provision of the Act or this Regulation specified in Column 1 of Schedule 2 is:
 - (a) the expression specified opposite the provision in Column 2 of that Schedule, or
 - (b) if a choice of words is indicated in that expression, the words remaining after the omission of the words irrelevant to the offence.

- (2) For the purposes of any proceedings for an offence created by a provision specified in Column 1 of Schedule 2, the prescribed expression for the offence is taken to relate to the offence created by the provision, as the provision was in force when the offence is alleged to have been committed.
- (3) The amendment or repeal of a prescribed expression does not affect the validity of any information, complaint, summons, warrant, notice, order or other document in which the expression is used and any such document continues to have effect as if that expression had not been amended or repealed.
- (4) Subclause (3) applies to any information, complaint, summons, warrant, notice, order or other document (whether issued, given or made before or after the amendment or repeal) that relates to an offence alleged to have been committed before the amendment or repeal.

Clause 60 Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999

Part 10 Administration

Part 10 Administration

60 Service of notices on persons

- (1) The Authority may serve a notice under the Act or this Regulation on a person by sending the notice by post or by some other means to the person's last known residential address, or the address for service of notices (if any) recorded in the driver licence register.
- (2) The date on which a person is taken to have been served with a notice under this Regulation is:
 - (a) if the notice is sent by mail—the fourth working day after the notice was posted, or
 - (b) if the notice was delivered to the holder personally—the date when it is so delivered.
- (3) If a person's residential address or address for service of notices is in another jurisdiction, the Authority may request the driver licensing authority of another jurisdiction to act on its behalf in serving a notice on the person or in performing any other act which the Authority could lawfully perform in this jurisdiction.
- (4) If the Authority receives a request under subclause (3) of the corresponding law of another jurisdiction, it may act on behalf of the driver licensing authority of that jurisdiction accordingly.
- (5) If it is provided in this Regulation that any notification, document or thing must be forwarded, surrendered or delivered to the Authority, it is sufficient compliance with any such provision if the notification, document or thing is forwarded to or surrendered to or delivered at a motor registry within the prescribed time.

61 Delegation of Authority's powers

The Authority may delegate all or any of its powers under the Act or this Regulation to the following persons:

- (a) a statutory authority,
- (b) the holder of a statutory office,
- (c) an officer or employee of a government department or statutory authority.

- (d) a police officer,
- (e) a local council or other local government authority,
- (f) an officer or employee of a local council or other local government authority, or
- (g) any other person who, in the opinion of the Authority, has appropriate qualifications for the exercise of the power delegated.

Clause 62 Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999

Part 11 Fees

Part 11 Fees

Note. Under the Act, fees may be set by the Authority, or by regulations (see section 10).

62 Fees

The applicable fee for a service provided by the Authority under the Act or this Regulation is:

- (a) the fee specified for that service in Schedule 3, or
- (b) the fee fixed for that service by the Authority under section 10 (1) of the Act.

63 Waiver of fees

- (1) The Authority may waive the payment of a fee payable under the Act or this Regulation, or both, in a particular case if the Authority is of the opinion that in the particular case it is appropriate to do so.
- (2) Without limiting subclause (1), the Authority may waive payment of a fee in relation to a learner licence if the applicant is, when making the application, the holder of a learner licence issued by another jurisdiction.

64 Fee exemption for eligible pensioners

- (1) An eligible pensioner is not required to pay a fee in respect of the pensioner's driver licence.
- (2) In this clause:

eligible pensioner means a person:

- (a) who is the holder of a Pensioner Concession Card that is in force issued by the Commonwealth Department of Social Security or the Commonwealth Department of Veterans' Affairs, or
- (b) who is in receipt of a pension or other amount paid by the Commonwealth Department of Veterans' Affairs in respect of a war-caused disability seriously affecting the person's powers of movement, being a pension or other amount (or a pension or other amount below a rate) approved by the Authority for the purposes of this paragraph, or

- (c) who is an armed services widow within the meaning of the Social Security Act 1991 of the Commonwealth, and:
 - (i) who is in receipt of a pension under Part II or IV of the Veterans - Entitlements Act 1986 of the Commonwealth at the maximum rate applicable under section 1064 (5) of the Social Security Act 1991 of the Commonwealth, and
 - (ii) who is under the pension age for the person set out in section 5QA of the Veterans' Entitlements Act 1986 of the Commonwealth, and
- (d) who is the holder of a current driver licence, being a licence for which no fee was payable by virtue of the Motor Traffic Regulations 1935 or this Regulation, or
- (e) who is not the holder of any such current driver licence, but:
 - (i) who has satisfied the Authority, by the production of a certificate from a medical practitioner, that the person is not medically unfit to drive a motor vehicle, or
 - (ii) who has otherwise satisfied the Authority that the person should be treated as an eligible pensioner for the purposes of this clause.

Schedule 4 Savings and transitional provisions

(Clause 65)

1 Licences issued under previous legislation

- (1) A superseded licence (that is, a licence (including a probationary licence) issued under a law in force in this State before the commencement of the Act) has effect for the remainder of its duration as if it had been issued under the Act and this Regulation, and may be renewed, varied, cancelled or suspended in all respects as though it were a driver licence.
- (2) A superseded licence authorises the holder to drive vehicles in the licence class specified in clause 26 that is most nearly equivalent to the class specified in the licence (or applicable to the licence), as specified in the notice published under subclause (4)
- (3) Despite any other provision of this Regulation, in issuing a driver licence under this Regulation in place of, or following the expiry of, a superseded licence, the Authority must have regard to the principle that where direct translation to a licence class is not possible, the licence holder should be issued with the next highest licence class.
- (4) The Authority must cause a notice specifying the nearest equivalent licence class for each of the classes of superseded licence to be published in the Gazette. The Authority may revoke or amend any such notice.
- (5) Despite subclause (1), a superseded licence that is a probationary licence may not be renewed.

2 Continuation of existing competency based assessment scheme

A competency based assessment scheme approved under the Motor Traffic Regulations 1935, and in force immediately before the commencement of this Regulation, is taken to have been approved by the Authority under clause 21.

3 Continuation of rider training schemes

- (1) An authorised rider training course provided under an agreement entered into by the Authority, and in force immediately before the commencement of this Regulation, is taken to have been provided under an agreement entered into under clause 42.
- (2) A person accredited as a rider training instructor or testing officer under the Motor Traffic Regulations 1935 immediately before the commencement of this Regulation is taken to have been accredited under Part 6.
- (3) An area identified as a mandatory training area under the Motor Traffic Regulations 1935 for the purposes of the rider training scheme immediately before the commencement of this Regulation is taken to be a mandatory training area for the purposes of Part 6.
- (4) A certificate issued under Part 2A of the Motor Traffic Regulations 1935, and in force immediately before the commencement of this Regulation, is taken to have been issued under Part 6.
