

Act No. 38, 1897.

An Act to make further provision for the vesting of trust property in new trustees. [10th December, 1897.]

TRUST PROPERTY (AMENDMENT).

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. When any new trustee is appointed under or in pursuance of the powers conferred by any Act or by any deed, will, act, or other instrument creating a trust, all the property which for the time being is vested in the Chief Justice or the senior Puisne Judge for the time being by virtue of the Probate Act of 1890 or the Probate Act of 1890 Amendment Act, and is subject to the trust in respect of which the new trustee is appointed shall, by virtue of the order or instrument appointing the new trustee and without other assurance in the law, become and be legally and effectually vested in such new trustee, either solely or jointly with any surviving or continuing trustee as the case may require.

Extension of section
63 of Trust Property
Act.

2. This Act may be cited as the "Trust Property (Amendment) Act, 1897."
