

Act No. 2, 1906.

RAILWAYS (VICTORIAN AND QUEENSLAND
BY-LAWS) ENABLING.

An Act to enable Victorian and Queensland by-laws to be applied to Victorian and Queensland railways situate in New South Wales, and to the traffic thereon; and for other purposes. [1st August, 1906.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the "Railways (Victorian and Queensland By-laws) Enabling Act."

Victorian and Queensland by-laws applied to Victorian and Queensland railways in New South Wales.

2. (1) The Governor may, by order, declare any by-laws made by the Commissioners for Railways of the State of Victoria, or by the Commissioner for Railways of the State of Queensland, to be in force in respect of any railways vested in or worked by the said Commissioners or Commissioner, situate within New South Wales, and of any traffic on such railways, and thereupon such by-laws shall, in respect of such railways and traffic, have the force of law, and may be enforced in the courts of New South Wales. The Governor may revoke or vary any such order. Any such order shall be published in the Gazette.

(2) Penalties imposed by such by-laws may be recovered in any court of petty sessions by any officer appointed in that behalf by such Commissioners or Commissioner and approved of by the Railway Commissioners of New South Wales.

(3) Evidence of such order, and that the same was duly made and published, may be given by the production of a document, purporting to be a copy of any such order, and to be printed by the Government Printer, or by the authority of the Government.

(4) Any document purporting to be a copy of such by-laws, and to be printed by the Government Printer, shall, in any proceedings for penalties, be evidence that the by-laws in the words of such document were duly made by the said Commissioners or Commissioner.
