

Act No. 4, 1911.

An Act to authorise the leasing of certain superfluous lands; and to amend the Public Works Act, 1900. [12th July, 1911.]

PUBLIC WORKS (LEASING).

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Public Works (Leasing) Act, 1911." Short title.

2. The following provision shall be deemed to have had effect from the date of the commencement of the Public Works Act, 1900, and shall be read as subsection three of section ninety-one of the said Act:—

Amendment of s. 91
of Public Works Act.

(3) Provided that in case any of the lands taken or acquired under the provisions of this Act for authorised works or for any public purposes are not required for such works or purposes, the Governor or the Constructing Authority may, in lieu of selling them, lease such lands for any term not exceeding fifty years, and subject to such conditions and reservations as to the said authority may seem fit. Rents and other sums accruing in respect of any such leases shall be paid to the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

Power to lease
superfluous lands.
