

PROCLAMATIONS VALIDATION ACT.

Act No. 39, 1919.

An Act to validate certain proclamations, orders, regulations, and by-laws; to amend the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act, 1912, and the Parliamentary Elections (Amendment) Act, 1918; and for other purposes. [Assented to, 23rd December, 1919.]

George V,
No. 39.

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Proclamations Validation Act, 1919." Short title.

Electoral

George V.
No. 39.

Electoral Acts.

Validation of electoral regulations.

2. (1) The regulations relating to general elections and purporting to have been made under section 3A of the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act, 1912, as amended by the Parliamentary Elections (Amendment) Act, 1918, which regulations were laid before the Legislative Assembly on the twenty-first day of August, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, shall have the force of law, and shall be of the same effect as if enacted in the said Act.

Number of nominators.

(2) Subsection two of section seventy-two of the said Act is amended by omitting the words "and the number of nominators" and inserting in place thereof the words "and the number of voters".

Validation of influenza
proclamations, orders,
regulations,
and by-laws.

3. All proclamations, regulations, and by-laws made and published in the Gazette since the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, referring to or in connection with an infectious or contagious disease, highly dangerous to public health, or the disease Spanish or pneumonic influenza, or cancelling, amending, or varying any such proclamation, order, regulation, or by-law, shall be deemed to have been and to be good and valid and to have had and to have the force of law :

Saving.

Provided that nothing in this section shall affect the rights of the parties in the action in the Supreme Court brought by George Fox against Frederick Gregory Adrian by writ issued out of the said court on the twelfth May last past.