No. 13.

known to the public trustee) of the intestate at the date of his death, and the property forming his estate, and the date of his death, as then known to the public trustee, and electing to administer such estate.

(3) On such election being filed the public trustee shall be deemed to be executor or administrator (as the case may be) in like manner in all respects as if probate or letters of administration had been duly granted to him.

(4) The public trustee shall publish in the Gazette, and in one daily newspaper published in Sydney, and if the deceased resided more than thirty miles from Sydney, in the paper circulating in the district where he resided at the time of his death, a notice that he has made such an election, and such notice shall be conclusive evidence that the public trustee is rightfully entitled to administer under this section.

(5) If after filing such election the gross value of the property to be administered is found to exceed the sum of six hundred pounds, the public trustee shall, as soon as practicable thereafter, file in the said office of the Supreme Court a memorandum under his hand stating the fact, and proceed in the ordinary manner to obtain probate or letters of administration.

(6) In this section "will" includes all codicils thereto, and "probate" includes letters of administration with the will annexed, whether granted for general, limited, or special purposes.

New sections. 4. The following new sections are inserted next after section fifty-three of the said Act:—

Moneys paid to trust account.

53A. The Minister for Public Works is hereby authorised to expend the whole of the moneys so paid into the Treasury and carried to such special trust account, or such portion thereof as may be necessary, in the acquisition of a suitable piece of land and the erection thereon and equipment of a suitable building for the purposes of the public trust office.

Application of Public Works Act, 1912.

53B. Such work shall be deemed to be a duly authorised work within the meaning of the Public Works Act, 1912, but the provisions of sections thirty-four, thirty-four, thirty-five, thirty-six, and thirty-seven of that Act shall not apply to the said work. The provisions of section thirty-eight of the said Act shall apply to any contracts for carrying out such work.

George V,
No. 13.

53c. Upon the completion of the said building the said land and building shall pass to and become vested in the public trustee.

Vesting of land
and building in public trustee.

53d. The cost of acquiring the said land and carrying out the said work, together with interest thereon, shall be recouped to the special trust account in manner following :—

Recoupment of cost to special trust
account.

- (1) The total cost, subject to such partial remission as the Governor may think just under any special circumstances, together with interest thereon at the rate of four pounds per centum per annum on the sums making up such total cost calculated from the time such sums were expended, shall be certified as soon as practicable under the hand of the said Minister, and the total amount so certified shall, upon the notification of such certificate to the public trustee, become and be a debt charged upon the said land and building, and the revenues from whatever sources received by the public trustee by virtue of his office, until defrayed as hereinafter provided.
- (2) As soon as possible after the said Minister has certified the total amount as aforesaid, the Governor shall fix a period not exceeding fifty years, within which such amount shall be liquidated by the payment of such annual sums as shall after the last of such payments extinguish the whole amount of such cost with interest at the rate of four pounds per centum per annum on the balance unpaid in each year; and in fixing such period the Governor may take into consideration the nature and durability of the said building. Such period and the amount of such annual sums when so fixed shall be notified forthwith to the public trustee.

(3)

Transfer of Records Act.

George V,
No. 13.

(3) The first of such payments shall be made within one year from the date of such notification, and each subsequent payment at or before the end of one year from the expiration of the time limited for making the last preceding payment.

(4) At the end of the period so fixed and notified, and after the last payment has been made, the said land and building and the revenues of the said public trust office, from whatever sources derived, shall be discharged from any further payments under this section.

Amendment of Public Service
Act, 1902.
Sec. 5.

5. The Public Service Act, 1902, is amended by inserting in section five after the word "lunacy" the words "the Public Trustee."
