

NAVIGATION (AMENDMENT) ACT.

Act No. 57, 1927.

An Act to provide for the regulation of smoking on vehicular ferries; for the regulation of the display of lights on vehicles using a vehicular ferry; to amend the Navigation Act, 1901, and certain other Acts; and for purposes connected therewith. [Assented to, 13th December, 1927.]

George V,
No. 57.

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Navigation (Amendment) Act, 1927," and shall be read and construed with the Navigation Act, 1901, as amended by subsequent Acts.

2.

George V,
No. 57.

Power of Governor to regulate smoking and display of lights on vehicular ferries.

2. (1) The power of the Governor to make regulations under section two of the Navigation Amendment (Regulations) Act, 1904, shall extend to—

- (a) the regulation or prohibition of smoking on any vehicular ferry, whether such ferry is plying within the port of Sydney or elsewhere; and
- (b) the regulation of the display of lights on vehicles using a vehicular ferry whether such ferry is plying within the port of Sydney or elsewhere and the prohibition of the display on any such vehicle of any light which might tend to endanger navigation.

(2) Any such regulations may impose penalties not exceeding one hundred pounds for any breach of the same.

Amendment
of Act No. 60, 1901.
New s. 167.

3. The Navigation Act, 1901, is amended by omitting section one hundred and sixty-seven and by inserting in lieu thereof the following section:—

Rules and regulations.

167. (1) All rules and regulations made under the authority of this Act or the Navigation Amendment (Regulations) Act, 1904, or the Navigation (Amendment) Act, 1927, shall—

- (a) be published in the Gazette;
- (b) take effect from the date of publication or from a later date to be specified in the regulations; and
- (c) be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen sitting days after publication if Parliament is in session, and if not, then within fourteen sitting days after the commencement of the next session.

(2) If either House of Parliament passes a resolution of which notice has been given at any time within fifteen sitting days after the regulations have been laid before such House disallowing any regulation or part thereof, such regulation or part shall thereupon cease to have effect.
