

CENTENARY CELEBRATION (AMENDMENT) ACT.

Act No. 26, 1934.

George V,
No. 26, 1934.

An Act to enable certain land vested in the Chief Minister by the Centenary Celebration Act (51 Victoria No. 9) to be granted for the purposes of a racecourse; to amend the Centenary Celebration Act and the Centenary Park Sale Act, 1904, and certain other Acts; and for other purposes connected therewith. [Assented to, 9th November, 1934.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the "Centenary Celebration (Amendment) Act, 1934," and shall be read and construed with the Centenary Celebration Act (51 Victoria No. 9).

Vesting of certain lands.

2. (1) The land described in the Schedule to this Act is hereby divested from the Chief Minister and vested in His Majesty.

(2) The said land shall from the commencement of this Act be deemed to be Crown lands and to be dedicated under the Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, for the like purposes for which the land comprised in a certain Crown grant dated the fifteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and registered in the office of the Registrar-General as volume one, folio forty-six, was dedicated; and the Governor is hereby authorised authorised to grant the land described in the said Schedule to Sir Samuel Hordern, Knight Bachelor, Richard Halifax Dangar, Esquire, and Lieutenant-Colonel Thomas Lloyd Foster Rutledge, the present trustees of the land formerly comprised in the said Crown grant and now comprised in certificate of title registered volume two thousand five hundred and seventy-nine, folio sixty-six, their heirs and assigns, to be held by them upon the like trusts and subject to the like conditions and provisions as the land formerly comprised in the said Crown grant and now comprised in the said certificate of title is held and with the like powers, authorities and duties as were conferred or imposed by the said Crown grant as varied by the Australian Jockey Club Act, 1873.

(3) The provisions of the Australian Jockey Club Act, 1873, and of any by-laws for the time being in force thereunder, shall, as from the commencement of this Act, extend to the land which by this Act is authorised to be granted.

(4) Any trusts, conditions, encumbrances and dedications affecting the land described in the Schedule to this Act in the hands of the said Chief Minister are hereby revoked and annulled.
