3. (1) The Housing Improvement Act, 1936, is amended by inserting next after Part V the following new Parts:—

PART VA.

ERSKINEVILLE HOUSING SCHEME.

DIVISION 1.—Construction of certain works.

Certain work sanctioned.

14A. (1) (a) The carrying out on the land described in the First Schedule to this Act of the work referred to in the Second Schedule to this Act is hereby sanctioned.

(b) The said work shall be deemed to be an authorised work within the meaning of the Public Works Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts.

(c) The Housing Improvement Board is empowered to carry out the said work and shall be the constructing authority for the same within the meaning of the said Act as so amended and shall enter into such contracts and take all such necessary steps for the proper execution thereof as such authority may think proper.

(d) The provisions of the Public Works Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts, sections thirty-four, thirty-five, thirty-six and thirty-seven excepted, shall apply to and in respect of the said work.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection one of this section the provisions of section thirty-eight of the Public Works Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts, shall apply to and in respect of any contract referred to in paragraph (c) of subsection one of this section. No. 27, 1937.

14B. (1) The cost of carrying out so much of the said work as is referred to in Part One of the Second Schedule to this Act (exclusive of land resumptions) is estimated at fifty-four thousand pounds. Cost.

(2) The cost of carrying out so much of the said work as is referred to in Part Two of the Second Schedule to this Act (exclusive of land resumptions) is estimated at fifteen thousand pounds.

(3) The cost of carrying out so much of the said work as is referred to in Part Three of the Second Schedule to this Act (exclusive of land resumptions) is estimated at five hundred pounds.

(4) The respective estimated costs referred to in this section shall not under any circumstances be exceeded by more than ten per centum.

DIVISION 2.—Care, control and management of certain works.

14c. The board shall have the care, control and management of so much of the work referred to in the Second Schedule to this Act as consists of dwellings and ancillary buildings and works constructed on the portion of land referred to in Part One of that Schedule. Care, control and management.

14D. (1) For the purposes of carrying this Division into effect the board may, from time to time and notwithstanding anything contained in any other Act, take such steps, provide such equipment, and carry out such works and operations (including works of maintenance and repair) as may be necessary or as it may think desirable. Powers of the board.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection one of this section the board may let or may, with the approval of the Governor, sell or otherwise dispose of the land or any part thereof upon which any of the works referred to in section 14c of this Act are constructed.

Any

No. 27, 1937.

Any such letting may be made at such rent (whether the same is the best rent that can reasonably be obtained or not) and for such term and subject to such covenants and conditions as the board, in its absolute discretion, may from time to time determine.

Park lands.

14E. (1) Upon completion of the works referred to in Part Two of the Second Schedule to this Act, the Governor shall notify in the Gazette that such works are complete.

(2) On the date of the publication in the Gazette of any such notification—

- (a) the land upon which the works referred to in the notification have been carried out shall become Crown land within the meaning of the Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, as amended by subsequent Acts; and
- (b) such land shall be deemed to be dedicated under the said Act as so amended for the purposes of public recreation; and
- (c) the board shall have the care, control and management of such land and shall continue to have such care, control and management until the Governor by proclamation in the Gazette, pursuant to section three hundred and forty-five of the Local Government Act, 1919, as amended by subsequent Acts, charges the council of the area with the care, control and management of such land.

(3) Where the board has the care, control and management of any land pursuant to this section—

- (a) the board shall have and may exercise and discharge, in relation to such land, all or any of the powers, authorities, duties and functions which may be exercised and discharged under the Local Government Act, 1919, as amended by subsequent Acts, by a council in relation to a public reserve, the care, control and management of which is placed in the council under Part XIII of the said Act as so amended;

(b)

- (b) the Governor may make regulations in relation to such land prescribing all such matters and things as may be prescribed by ordinance under the Local Government Act, 1919, as amended by subsequent Acts, in relation to a public reserve, the care, control and management of which is placed in a council under Part XIII of the said Act as so amended.

All regulations made under this subsection shall—

- (i) be published in the Gazette;
- (ii) take effect from the date of such publication or from a later date to be specified in the regulations; and
- (iii) be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen sitting days after the publication thereof if Parliament is in session, and if not, then within fourteen sitting days after the commencement of the next session.

If either House of Parliament passes a resolution of which notice has been given at any time within fifteen sittings days after such regulations have been laid before such House disallowing any regulation or part thereof, such regulation or part shall thereupon cease to have effect.

14f. Where land is acquired by the board pursuant to this Part of this Act, no rate shall be made or levied under the Local Government Act, 1919, as amended by subsequent Acts, in respect of the land so acquired.

Exemption

14g. On and from the day upon which that portion of the land described in the First Schedule to this Act which is referred to in Part Three of the Second Schedule to this Act is acquired by the board the following provisions shall have effect:—

Rights,
and property.

- (a) The body corporate known as The Trustees of Erskineville Park shall be and the same is hereby dissolved, and the persons who, immediately before the said day, were the members of such body corporate shall cease to hold office as such.

(b)

No. 27, 1937.

- (b) All property (other than the land so acquired) and all right and interest therein which, immediately before the said day, is vested in or belongs to The Trustees of Erskineville Park, shall vest in and belong to the board.
- (c) All moneys, liquidated and unliquidated claims which, immediately before the said day, are payable to or recoverable by The Trustees of Erskineville Park, shall be moneys, liquidated and unliquidated claims payable to and recoverable by the board.
- (d) All suits, actions and proceedings pending immediately before the said day at the suit of The Trustees of Erskineville Park, shall be suits, actions and proceedings pending at the suit of the board.
- (e) The board may pursue the same remedies for the recovery of any such moneys and claims and for the prosecution of such suits, actions and proceedings as The Trustees of Erskineville Park might have done but for this Act.
- (f) The board may enforce and realise any security or charge existing immediately before the said day in favour of The Trustees of Erskineville Park in respect of any such moneys and claims as if such security or charge were existing in favour of the board.
- (g) All debts due and moneys payable by and all claims, liquidated and unliquidated, recoverable against The Trustees of Erskineville Park shall be debts due and moneys payable by and claims recoverable against the board:

Provided that the liability of the board in respect of such debts, moneys and claims shall be limited to the amount of the assets of The Trustees of Erskineville Park which are vested in or recovered by the board under this section.

Governor that the amount owing to the society by the member in respect of the loan to which the agreement relates, reduced by the value of the share capital of the member is not more than sixty-six and two-thirds per centum of the value of the land and dwelling-house as ascertained in accordance with paragraph (d) of this subsection.

No. 27, 1937.

(2) The amendments made by subsection one of this section shall be deemed to have commenced upon the second day of February, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven, and shall apply to all agreements entered into on or after that date notwithstanding anything therein contained; and the obligations of the Colonial Treasurer under any such agreement shall be varied accordingly; but no such variation shall operate to increase the limit of the amount of the Colonial Treasurer's liability as stated in the agreement.

11. The Co-operation Act, 1923-1936, as amended by subsequent Acts, is further amended—

Further amendment of Act No. 1, 1924.

(a) by inserting next after section eighty-four the following new section:—

New sec. 84A.

84A. (1) This section shall apply to and in respect of—

(a) every building society for the repayment of an advance to which the Colonial Treasurer has, either before or after the commencement of the Housing (Further Provisions) Act, 1937, executed a guarantee under the Government Guarantees Act, 1934, or under that Act as amended by subsequent Acts; and Power to appoint director of certain societies.

(b) every building society with which the Colonial Treasurer has, either before or after the commencement of the Housing (Further Provisions) Act, 1937, entered into an agreement under section 17A of this Act, whether as originally enacted or as amended from time to time.

No. 27, 1937.

(2) The Governor may, from time to time, by notification published in the Gazette, appoint a person to be a director of any building society to which this section applies.

(3) The provisions of this Act (other than this section) and of the rules of the building society relating to the qualification, disqualification, remuneration, removal from office and term of office of directors and to the vacation of office by directors shall not apply to and in respect of a director appointed under this section.

(4) A director appointed under this section shall hold office as an additional director and shall not be counted in ascertaining the number of directors for the election of whom provision is made in the rules of the society.

(5) Subject to subsection three of this section a director appointed under this section shall have all the powers, rights, authorities, functions, privileges, immunities, duties, obligations and liabilities of a director elected in accordance with the rules of the society.

(6) A director appointed under this section shall, unless he is an officer of the Public Service or a member of the Legislative Council or of the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales, be paid such fees as may be prescribed by regulation.

New secs.
88A, 88B.

Certain dealings
prohibited.

(b) by inserting next after section eighty-eight the following new sections:—

88A. A director or other officer of a building society shall not, except where specifically authorised by a special resolution of the society—

(a) sell any land to or act as agent for the sale of any land to a member of the society who proposes to pay for the same, in whole or in part, out of an advance made by the society; or

(b)

- (b) undertake the erection of any building for a member of the society who proposes to pay for the same, in whole or in part, out of an advance made by the society; or
- (c) accept as payment in whole or in part of any moneys due to him by a member of the society the whole or part of any advance made by the society to such member.

88B. (1) This section shall apply to and in respect of—

Power to dismiss director or secretary of certain societies after inquiry.

- (a) every building society for the repayment of an advance to which the Colonial Treasurer has, either before or after the commencement of the Housing (Further Provisions) Act, 1937, executed a guarantee under the Government Guarantees Act, 1934, or under that Act as amended by subsequent Acts; and
- (b) every building society with which the Colonial Treasurer has, either before or after the commencement of the Housing (Further Provisions) Act, 1937, entered into an agreement under section 17A of this Act, whether as originally enacted or as amended from time to time.

(2) The Minister may appoint a person to hold an inquiry and to report to the co-operative building advisory committee with respect to—

- (a) any matter relating to the carrying out of the provisions of this or any other Act conferring powers or imposing duties on a building society to which this section applies; or

(b)

No. 27, 1937.

(b) any act or omission of any director or secretary of a building society to which this section applies—such act or omission having relation to the carrying out of the provisions of this or any other Act conferring powers or imposing duties on the building society or to the office or position held by the director or secretary or to the powers or duties of that office or position.

(3) For the purposes of any such inquiry the person holding the inquiry shall have the powers, authorities, protections and immunities conferred on a commissioner by Division 1 of Part II of the Royal Commissions Acts, 1923-1934, and shall be deemed to be a sole commissioner within the meaning of that Division.

The provisions of the Royal Commissions Acts, 1923-1934, with the exception of section thirteen and of Division 2 of Part II, shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to the inquiry and to any witness or person summoned by or appearing before the person holding the inquiry.

(4) The co-operative building advisory committee may, after consideration of the report of the person holding an inquiry under this section, direct that the office or position in a building society of the director or secretary to whom the report relates shall be vacated, and that such director shall not be eligible to hold office as a director of or (as the case may require) that such secretary shall not be eligible for appointment or employment as the secretary of that building society.

The office or position shall be deemed to have become vacant as from the date upon which notices, addressed to the director or secretary to whom the same relates and to the society of which he is a director or the secretary, as the case may be, and signed by the chairman and executive member of the Co-operative Building

Advisory

Advisory Committee, of the direction of that committee, are delivered at or posted to the registered office of the building society. No. 27, 1937.

(5) Every director or secretary of a building society to which this section applies shall, whether he was elected or appointed to such office or position before, or is so elected or appointed after, the commencement of the Housing (Further Provisions) Act, 1937, hold his office or position subject to the provisions of this section.

12. (1) The Co-operation Act, 1923-1936, as amended by subsequent Acts, is further amended— Further amendment of Act No. 1, 1924.

- (a) by inserting at the end of subsection ten of section forty-seven the following proviso:— Sec. 47. (Shares.)

Provided that where a society has made a loan to a member and the number of shares held by such member has exceeded, or at any time exceeds, the number permitted by or under this subsection, such member shall, until the amount lent to him has been repaid to the society with interest thereon, be liable to make to the society the payments which he would be liable to make if all such shares were lawfully held by him and no security for the repayment of such loan taken by the society shall be affected by any contravention of this subsection.

- (b) (i) by omitting subsection one of section sixty-five and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection:— Sec. 65. (Borrowing powers.)

(1) (a) Where a society is authorised by its rules to raise money on loan the society may raise the money in such manner as the society may think fit, and in particular by legal or equitable mortgage charged upon the undertaking of the society or upon all or any part of the property and rights (both present and future) of the society, including its uncalled or unpaid capital, subscriptions, loan payments and other moneys, or by the issue of bonds.

(b)

No. 27, 1937.

(b) A society shall not be deemed to be authorised to receive money on deposit unless, by its rules, it is expressly authorised to receive money on deposit.

(ii) by inserting in subsection two of the same section after the word "financial" the word "or";

Sec. 66.
(Loans and deposits.)

(c) (i) by inserting in subsection three of section sixty-six after the word "bank" the words "or any society registered under the Friendly Societies Act, 1912-1935";

(ii) by omitting from subsection (7A) of the same section the words "during such period" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "or if all deposits received have been repaid at the time of the loan";

(iii) by inserting at the end of subsection (7B) of the same section the following paragraph:—

For the purposes of this subsection a bond shall not include any instrument which makes any property liable, whether specifically or otherwise, to any bank or any society registered under the Friendly Societies Act, 1912-1935, or any financial or trading corporation, or liable specifically to any other person as security for money raised on loan or received on deposit.

(iv) by omitting subsection twelve of the same section and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection:—

(12) No member or other person lending money to or depositing money with a society shall be bound to see to the application thereof or be in any way affected or prejudiced by the fact that such society, in borrowing such money or receiving such deposit, has contravened the provisions of this or any other section of this Act or the rules of the society.

(d) by inserting at the end of section eighty the following new subsection:—

No. 27, 1937.

Sec. 80.

(Special resolution.)

(4) A certificate of registration of any special resolution or of any alteration of the rules of a society given by the registrar shall, in favour of any person advancing money to the society on the faith of such certificate, or in favour of any guarantor of any such advance, be conclusive evidence that such resolution was duly passed or such alteration in the rules was duly made as the case may be.

(e) (i) by inserting in section one hundred and thirteen after the words "of this Act" where firstly occurring the words "or any rule of the society";

Sec. 113.

(Civil remedies.)

(ii) by inserting in the same section after the words "of this Act" where secondly occurring the words "or of the rules of the society."

(2) Subsection one of this section shall be deemed to have commenced on the thirty-first day of December, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four.

Commencement of Part V.

14. (1) The Housing of the Unemployed Act, 1934-1936, is amended—

Amendment of Act No. 4, 1934.

(a) by inserting next after section six the following new section:—

New sec. 6A.

6A. (1) The trust may, from time to time by resolution, delegate such of the powers, authorities, duties or functions of the trust or of the chairman as are specified in the resolution—

Delegation.

(a) to any member of the trust;

(b) to any officer appointed under subsection two of section six of this Act;

(c)

No. 27, 1937.

(c) to any officer or employee of whose services the trust makes use pursuant to subsection one of section six of this Act.

(2) Any such delegation may be made either generally or for any particular case or class of cases.

(3) Any person, when acting within the scope of any such delegation to him, shall be deemed to be the trust or the chairman as the case may be.

(4) Any instrument necessary to be executed and any notice, order, summons or other like document requiring authentication for the purpose of the exercise or discharge of any power, authority, duty or function delegated to any person under this section, shall be sufficiently executed or authenticated, as the case may be, if signed by such person in such a way as to show that he does so under and in pursuance of the delegation.

(5) The trust may by resolution revoke any delegation made under this section.

Sec. 8.
(Powers of trust.)

(b) by inserting at the end of section eight the following new subsection:—

(3) The trust may, from time to time, upon such conditions as may be determined by it, provide assistance of whatever nature it may think fit to any unemployed person or other person in necessitous circumstances in connection with the erection, improvement or repair of any building used or intended to be used as a home for such person and his family.

Sec. 9.
(Further powers of trust.)

(c) by inserting at the end of section nine the following new subsection:—

(4) The trust may, from time to time, upon such conditions as may be determined by it, effect such improvements or repairs as it may deem necessary to—

(a) any building on land which is vested in or leased by the trust; or

(b)
