PART III.

POWERS, AUTHORITIES, DUTIES AND FUNCTIONS OF THE TRUSTEES.

Vesting of trust property.

6. The trust property is hereby transferred to and vested in the Trustees subject nevertheless to the Mortgage more particularly described in Schedule Two to this Act and to the Lease more particularly described in Schedule Three to this Act.

Power to mortgage.

7. The Trustees may from time to time raise on mortgage of the trust property or any part thereof all or any moneys which may be required for the purpose of repaying any outstanding liability or for any of the purposes mentioned in section fourteen of this Act and may secure the repayment of any moneys so raised with interest at such rate as they may think fit by mortgage of the trust property or any part thereof with or upon such terms, conditions or provisions in all respects as the Trustees shall think fit and if the Trustees shall raise more moneys by any such mortgage than may be required for the purposes aforesaid they shall hold the surplus of such moneys and any income to arise therefrom upon the same trusts as the trust property is by this Act held by them. For the purposes of this section the Trustees may sign, execute or enter into any deed of extension or variation of mortgage.

Power to sell.

8. The Trustees may at any time they think fit sell or dispose of the said trust property or any part thereof either for cash or on such terms of credit as they may think fit and for the purposes of such sale or disposal may accept mortgages or other securities to secure the payment of the whole or any part of the purchase moneys. Subject to section ten of this Act the proceeds of such sale shall after deducting therefrom all costs, charges, mortgages, encumbrances and commissions in connection with such sale or disposal and after payment thereof of all outstanding debts and liabilities be invested by the Trustees in or upon any investments authorised by the Trustee Act 1925 or any Act amending the same and such investments and any mortgages or securities accepted by the Trustees to secure payment of purchase money and the the income to be derived from such investments, mortgages or securities shall be held by the Trustee upon the same trusts as the trust property is by this Act held by them.

9. (1) The Trustees shall so long as the land and building erected thereon known as the Anzac Memorial Hall being the land more particularly described in Schedule One to this Act remains unsold make available such portion of the said building as they consider necessary for use by the Sub-branch as a club and rest room for the use of returned sailors and soldiers.

Provision of club-room.

(2) Should the membership of the Sub-branch fall below fifty the Trustees may make available such portion of the building as aforesaid but they shall not be bound so to do.

10. If the Trustees in the exercise of their powers sell or dispose of the land and building erected thereon known as the Anzac Memorial Hall being the land more particularly described in Schedule One to this Act, they may if they think fit purchase out of the proceeds of such sale or disposal other land and erect thereon a Club-room for the use of the Sub-branch or may purchase land with a building already erected thereon for the use of the Sub-branch as a Club-room. Should the Trustees exercise the powers hereby conferred any balance of the proceeds of such sale or disposal not so expended by them shall be held by them as in section 8 of this Act provided.

Sale of land and building.

11. The Trustees may at any time let lease or otherwise demise the trust property or any part thereof for such term of years or upon such tenancy and upon such terms and for such rent as they may think fit.

Power of leasing.

12. No purchaser, mortgagee, lessee or other person or the Registrar-General upon any sale, exchange, mortgage, lease or other dealing purporting to be made under the powers granted by or under this Act shall be concerned to see or enquire into the necessity or propriety thereof or the mode of exercising the same nor be affected by notice that the exercise of the power is unauthorised, irregular or improper nor be concerned to see to the application or disposition of any purchase, mortgage or other money or rent paid by him.

Protection of purchasers, etc.

Mosman Anzac Memorial Hall Act.*George VI.Receipt of moneys.

13. The moneys (if any) arising from any sale, exchange, mortgage, lease or other dealing purporting to be made under the powers granted by or under this Act shall be paid to the Trustees and the receipt of the Trustee shall be an effective discharge therefor.

Power to repair, etc.

14. The Trustees may repair, alter, add to, pull down, rebuild or renew any buildings or structures forming part of the trust property and for such purposes may use any moneys which are or may be in their hands or under their control and may raise on mortgage such sums as may be required for the purposes aforesaid as provided by section 7 of this Act.

Power to insure.

15. (1) The Trustees may insure against loss or damage, whether by fire or otherwise any insurable property forming part of the trust property and against any risk or liability against which it would be prudent for a person to insure if he were acting for himself

(2) The insurance may be for any amount, provided that, together with the amount of any insurance already on foot, the total shall not exceed the insurable value or liability.

(3) The premiums may be paid by the Trustees out of the income derived from the trust property.

Application of insurance money.

16. (1) The Trustees may, out of the moneys receivable in respect of any insurance policy, rebuild, reinstate, replace or repair any property lost or damaged.

(2) Any moneys receivable in respect of any insurance policy not so expended shall form part of the trust property and be held by the Trustees accordingly.

Power to receive donations,
etc.

17. The Trustees may receive moneys or other assets real or personal by way of collections, gifts or donations and upon the receipt by the Trustees of any such moneys or other assets the same shall form part of the trust property and be held by the Trustees accordingly.

Responsibility of Trustees, etc

18. The Trustees shall be responsible for the care, management, control and maintenance of the trust property and may without limiting the generality hereof sell and dispose of any part of the trust property which in their opinion is unnecessary or deteriorated and if they think fit purchase or otherwise acquire other assets in substitution therefor.

19.

19. (1) The Trustees may make by-laws not inconsistent with this Act for the general control and management of the trust property and for regulating the conduct of their own proceedings including the times, places, conduct and quorum of their meetings.

George VI.

Power to make by-laws.

(2) A printed copy of any such by-laws signed by the Trustees and certified by them as being correct shall be received in all Courts of Law or Equity as conclusive evidence of such by-laws and of the same having been duly made under the authority of this Act.

20. The Trustees shall at least once in every year publish in a newspaper circulating in the Municipality of Mosman a report of their activities during the preceding twelve months and a profit and loss account and balance sheet and a statement showing the position of the trust property.

Publication of accounts, etc.

PART IV.

THE TRUST PROPERTY AND THE TRUSTS UPON WHICH IT IS HELD.

21. (1) The Trustees shall hold the trust property upon trust to let or lease the same, subject as herein otherwise provided and to apply the net rents profits and income received therefrom in each year (after payment thereof of all rates, taxes, interest and other authorised outgoings and after setting apart such sum as the Trustees in their discretion think fit for the purpose of reducing the principal liability for the time being subsisting under any mortgage, charge or encumbrance over the trust property or generally for the reduction or payment of any liability or for the establishment or augmentation of a sinking fund for the purpose of meeting any such liability or any contingent liabilities) for the benefit of returned soldiers and nurses in New South Wales and the dependants of returned soldiers and nurses or deceased soldiers and nurses in New South Wales who by reason of war injury, sickness, unemployment or other cause are in the opinion of the Trustees in need and worthy of assistance.

Application of revenue.

George VI.

(2) In applying such income as in this section provided the Trustees shall observe the following order of preference:—

- (a) returned soldiers and nurses who were resident in the Municipality of Mosman at the date of their enlistment or appointment for service and their dependants;
- (b) dependants of soldiers and nurses deceased in the opinion of the Trustees in consequence of The Great War 1914-1918 who were at the date of their enlistment or appointment for service resident in the Municipality of Mosman;
- (c) returned soldiers and nurses or their dependants who may for the time being be resident in the Municipality of Mosman;
- (d) dependants of deceased returned soldiers and nurses who were at the time of their decease resident in the Municipality of Mosman;
- (e) other returned soldiers, nurses and dependants resident in New South Wales.

Application
of surplus income.

22. (1) Whenever the Trustees shall have in their hands any moneys which will not in their opinion be required for any of the purposes provided by section twenty-one of this Act they shall hold such surplus income upon trust to pay the same to the Royal North Shore Hospital so long as the said Hospital continues to be a public hospital supported wholly or in part by public subscription.

(2) Should the said Hospital cease to be a public hospital supported as aforesaid the Trustees shall hold such surplus income aforesaid upon trust to pay or apply the same to such other charitable objects, purposes or institutions and in such amounts at such times and in such manner as the Trustees may see fit.

Trusts
after failure of primary objects.

23. (1) Whenever the Trustees are of the opinion that the trust property is no longer required for the benefit of returned soldiers and nurses and their dependants and the dependants of deceased soldiers and nurses as herein provided they shall hold the trust property upon trust to sell and convert into money such part thereof

as

as does not consist of money and to apply the proceeds of such sale and conversion and any other moneys which may be in their hands or under their control in or towards the erection or endowment of a wing in the Royal North Shore Hospital to be thenceforth known as the "Mosman Sailors' and Soldiers' Memorial Wing" or otherwise to pay or apply the same to or for the benefit of the said Royal North Shore Hospital.

(2) Should the said Hospital have ceased at the date of such sale or conversion to be a public hospital supported wholly or in part by public subscription the Trustees shall pay or apply the proceeds of such sale and conversion and any other moneys which may be in their hands or under their control to such other charitable objects purposes or institutions and in such amounts and in such manner as the Trustees think fit.

(3) Upon the exercise of the power of sale and conversion hereby conferred the Trustees may postpone such sale or conversion for such period as they may deem expedient notwithstanding that such postponement results in the retention of investments of a wasting speculative or reversionary nature.

PART V.
