11. The compensation to be paid in respect of the resumption under the Public Works Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts, and the Murrumbidgee Irrigation Area Resumption Act, 1910, as so amended, effected by notification published in Gazette Number Five of the fourteenth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and forty-nine, at pages seventy and seventy-one, shall not exceed the value as assessed in the valuation made by an advisory board in accordance with the provisions of subsection two of section six of the Murrumbidgee
Irrigation

Irrigation Act, 1910, and section two of the Murrumbidgee Irrigation Area Resumption Act, 1910, or any Act amending such Acts, or as determined by the Land and Valuation Court on appeal: Provided that the value of the land so assessed or determined shall not exceed the value which would have been so assessed or determined in respect of an identical resumption as at the tenth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and forty-two, excepting the value of any improvements effected on such land since that date. No. 14, 1950.

12. (1) If the owner or occupier of any lands referred to in sections six, seven, eight and nine of this Act, or any other person refuses to give up possession of the said lands, or hinders the Minister or any person acting on behalf of the Minister from entering upon or taking possession of the said lands for and on behalf of the Crown, the Minister may issue a warrant to the sheriff to deliver possession of the same to the person appointed in such warrant to receive the same. Refusal to deliver up lands.

(2) Upon receipt of such warrant, the sheriff shall deliver possession of the said lands accordingly, and the costs accruing by reason of the issuing and execution of such warrant, to be settled by the sheriff, shall be paid by the person refusing to give possession, and the amount of such costs shall be payable to the Minister by and be recoverable from such person.

13. A trustee shall not be deemed to be or to have been guilty of any breach of trust or breach of duty by reason only of the fact that— Trustees' protection.
