

ST. LUKE'S HOSPITAL ACT.

Act No. 11, 1952.

An Act to authorise St. Luke's Hospital to establish and conduct a public and intermediate hospital or hospitals, to apply its property for that purpose and to become a separate institution within the meaning of the Public Hospitals Act, 1929-1943; and for purposes connected therewith. [Assented to, 17th April, 1952.]

BE

No. 11, 1952.

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short
title.

1. This Act may be cited as the "St. Luke's Hospital Act, 1952."

Definition.

2. In this Act "St. Luke's Hospital" means the association of that name which was registered as a limited company under the Companies Act, 1899, on the twelfth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty.

St. Luke's
Hospital
may establish and conduct
public and intermediate hospital or hospitals.

3. (1) The power of St. Luke's Hospital to establish and conduct a private hospital or private hospitals shall extend to include a power to establish and conduct a public and intermediate hospital or public and intermediate hospitals and to do all things in relation thereto which may be done by St. Luke's Hospital in relation to a private hospital or private hospitals.

(2) A public and intermediate hospital or public and intermediate hospitals may be so established and conducted either in addition to or in conjunction with a private hospital or private hospitals established before or after the commencement of this Act.

Power to use
property
for purposes of a public and intermediate
hospital or hospitals.

4. Where St. Luke's Hospital exercises the power conferred upon it by section three of this Act it may use for the purpose—

- (a) all or any of the real and personal property vested in it at the commencement of this Act notwithstanding the terms of any trust which requires that property to be used only for the purposes of, or for purposes connected with, a private hospital or private hospitals;
- (b) all or any of the real and personal property which may become vested in it after such commencement subject to the terms of any trust affecting that property.

St. Luke's
Hospital
may become separate institution.

5. St. Luke's Hospital may apply to become a separate institution within the meaning of the Public Hospitals Act, 1929, as amended by subsequent Acts.

INDUSTRIAL