- (a) (i) that were in existence on the twenty-seventh day of September, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-seven, or were commenced on or before and completed after that day;
- (ii) that are not “special premises” for the purposes of this Act; and
- (iii) that are the subject of a lease that contains a provision that the said Parts of this Act shall not apply in respect of such premises and—
 - (a) that is registered in the office of the Rent Controller;
 - (b) the execution of which by the lessee is witnessed by a solicitor instructed and employed independently of the lessor or by a clerk of petty sessions; and
 - (c)

- (c) that is certified by that No. 62, 1964
solicitor or clerk of petty sessions as provided in subsection two of this section; or
 - (b) the erection of which commenced after the twenty-seventh day of September,
one thousand nine hundred and fifty-seven.
- (1B) Where—
- (a) any prescribed premises being premises used for business or commercial purposes cease to be subject to the provisions of Parts II, III, IV and V
of this Act by reason of the provisions of paragraph (a) of subsection (1A)
of this section;
 - (b) the premises or any part of the premises
were or was, under any sub-lease consented to or approved by the lessor and in force immediately before such premises or part so ceased, occupied by a sub-lessee; and
 - (c) the premises or part so occupied were or was, immediately before such premises or part so ceased, subject to the said Parts of this Act as regards the premises or part of the premises so occupied,

then—

- (i) the premises or part of the premises
so occupied shall continue to be prescribed premises and the provisions of the said Parts of this Act shall so far as applicable continue to apply to the premises or part of the premises so occupied;
- (ii) if the lessee at any time ceases to be in possession of the premises because of the termination or surrender of his lease or the making of an order for the

(xxiv) by inserting in subsection four of the same section next before the definition of "Prescribed lease" the following new definition:—

"Dwelling-house" includes—

- (a) the premises of any lodging-house or boarding-house; and
- (b) any part of premises that is used or has been designed for use for the purposes of residence independently of any other part of the premises,

but does not include a part of premises that came into existence as such part by reason of alterations, or alterations and additions, to a dwelling-house made after the commencement of the Local Government (Regulation of Flats) Act, 1955, or premises licensed for the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors.

(xxv) by omitting from the same subsection the definition of "Residential unit" and by inserting in lieu thereof the following definition:—

"Residential unit" means a part of a dwelling-house—

- (a) that is used or has been designed for use for the purposes of residence independently of any other part of the dwelling-house; and
- (b) that, at the time it came into existence as such part, complied with the requirements of section four of the Local Government (Regulation of Flats) Act, 1955, as in force at that time.

(xxvi) by inserting next after subsection five of the same section the following new subsection:—

(6) The provisions of—

- (a) subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (e); or
- (b)

No. 62, 1964

(b) paragraph (b) of subparagraph (i) of paragraph (g), of subsection one of this section shall not apply in the case of a dwelling-house or residential unit, as the case may be, that immediately before the date on which the lessee enters into, or is entitled to enter into, possession under the lease referred to in subparagraph (iv) of the said paragraph (e) or in subparagraph (iii) of the said paragraph (g), as the case may be—

(c) was by virtue of this section exempt from the provisions of Parts II, III, IV and V of this Act to the extent provided by this section; or

(d) was not so exempt, if the lessee under the lease next preceding the lease so referred to signified in writing to the lessor his intention to vacate the dwelling-house or residential unit on or before such date and, in fact, so vacated it on or before that date; or

(e) was vacant or was occupied personally by the lessor.

(Definitions.)

(b) (i) by inserting in subsection one of section eight in the definition of “lease” after the word “land” the words “or any lease arising under a clause in a mortgage or in an agreement for the sale and purchase of land (however expressed and whenever executed) whereby in case of default the mortgagee or the vendor (as the case may be) is given the powers of a lessor with respect to the recovery of possession or ejection, or any tenancy at will implied at law in any mortgage or agreement for the sale or purchase of land”;

(ii) by omitting from subsection (1A) of the same section the words “sections one hundred and four to one hundred and ten, both inclusive, and”.

(2) The amendments made by subparagraphs (vii) and (xxiv) of paragraph (a) of subsection one of this section shall be deemed to have commenced on the tenth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-eight.

3. Part II of the Landlord and Tenant (Amendment) Act, 1948, as amended by subsequent Acts, is amended—

Further amendment of Act No. 25, 1948. (Part II.—Fair Rents.)

(a) by omitting subsection three of section fifteen ;

Sec. 15. (Rent of prescribed premises.)

(b) by inserting next before section eighteen the following new section :—

New sec. 17A.

17A. (1) Where an agreement in writing is entered into by the lessor and lessee of any prescribed premises (other than shared accommodation) which are leased with or without goods and under that agreement the lessor and lessee agree as to the amount of the rent to be paid by the lessee to the lessor in respect of such premises, the amount specified in that agreement as the rent shall, without any determination or further determination being made, be for all purposes as between the lessor and the lessee the fair rent and the rent of the premises without goods or together with goods, as the case may be, as on and from the day specified in that behalf in the agreement not being earlier than the day on which the agreement is entered into and no proceedings for the determination of the fair rent of those premises by a Fair Rents Board and no application for the assessment of the fair rent of those premises by the Rent Controller or a clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, shall, subject to subsection five of this section but notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, be commenced or lodged by the lessor or lessee during the period for which the agreement is expressed to be in force or, if no such period is expressed, during a period of twelve months next after the day on and from which the fair rent is fixed by the agreement.

Fixing of fair rent of prescribed premises by agreement.

Landlord and Tenant (Amendment) Act.No. 62, 1964

(2) An agreement referred to in subsection one of this section shall have no force or effect unless—

- (a) it is registered in the office of the Rent Controller within one month after the day on which it is entered into;
- (b) its execution by the lessee is witnessed by a solicitor instructed and employed independently of the lessor or by a clerk of petty sessions; and
- (c) it is certified by that solicitor or clerk of petty sessions as provided in subsection three of this section.

(3) A solicitor or clerk of petty sessions certifying to an agreement for the purposes of subsection two of this section—

- (a) shall explain the agreement to the lessee;
- (b) shall examine the lessee touching his knowledge of the agreement;
- (c) if he thinks fit may so examine the lessee separately and apart from any other person; and
- (d) if he is satisfied that the lessee understands the true purport and effect thereof and freely and voluntarily executes the same, shall certify in writing upon the agreement that the agreement has been so explained, and that he has examined the lessee and is satisfied as hereinbefore required, and that the lessee has executed the agreement in his presence.

A certificate purporting to be signed by a solicitor or clerk of petty sessions for the purposes of subsection two of this section shall be admissible in evidence in any proceedings and shall, in all courts and upon all occasions whatsoever, be prima facie evidence of the particulars certified in and by the certificate.

(4) Where a lessee under a lease, who is a party to any such agreement, is a company or other corporate body the provisions of this section which, but for this subsection, would require the execution of the agreement by the lessee to be witnessed, and the agreement to be certified, in the manner provided in this section shall be deemed to be omitted therefrom. No. 62, 1964

(5) A lessee of any prescribed premises the subject of any such agreement may, notwithstanding the provisions of subsection two of section thirty-two of this Act and during any period for which the agreement is expressed to be in force or, if no such period is expressed, during a period of twelve months next after the day on and from which the fair rent is fixed by the agreement, make application to a Fair Rents Board for a determination of the fair rent of those premises and the Board shall make a determination of the fair rent of those premises or vary any such existing determination in accordance with the provisions of this Act, where the lessee proves to the satisfaction of the Board that—

- (a) the rent fixed by the agreement is harsh or unconscionable; or
- (b) the agreement was obtained by fraud, duress, intimidation or improper means.

(6) Any person, whether as principal, agent or otherwise, who procures the execution by the lessee of an agreement referred to in subsection one of this section by fraud, duress, intimidation or improper means, shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

- (c) (i) by omitting from paragraph (j) of subsection one of section twenty-one the words "including (but without limiting the generality of the word 'hardship') any loss which might be imposed upon the lessor by an order fixing the Sec. 21.

the rent of the premises at an amount less than the lessor's liability under a mortgage of, or contract of sale in respect of, the premises, or under a hire purchase agreement or contract of sale in respect of any goods leased with the premises";

- (ii) by inserting at the end of the same subsection the following new paragraph :—

In determining the fair rent of any premises the Fair Rents Board shall not make any allowance by reason of any loss which might be imposed upon the lessor by an order fixing the rent of the premises at an amount less than the lessor's liability under a mortgage of, or contract of sale in respect of, the premises, or under a hire purchase agreement or contract of sale in respect of any goods leased with the premises.

- (iii) by inserting next after subsection (1A) of the same section the following new subsection :—

(1B) A Fair Rents Board, in determining the fair rent of any premises, shall not where it considers that any repairs, maintenance or renewals of the premises or any fixtures thereon should be carried out, make any allowance in respect of such repairs, maintenance or renewals, based on paragraph (c) of subsection one of this section.

- (iv) by omitting from subsection two of the same section the words, symbols and letters "paragraphs (i) and (j)" and by inserting in lieu thereof the word, symbols and letter "paragraph (i)";

Sec. 24.
(Fair Rents Board may determine fair rent of its own motion.)

(Court to consider hardship.)

- (f) (i) by omitting subsection two of section seventy and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsections :—

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, an order for the recovery of possession of any prescribed premises, being a dwelling-house, from any person on any of the grounds specified in paragraph (g), (i), or (l) of subsection five of section sixty-two of this Act shall not be made unless the court is satisfied that the lessor had provided at the date of expiry of the notice to quit and has immediately available for the occupation of the persons occupying such dwelling-house reasonably suitable alternative accommodation :

Provided that this subsection shall not apply in any case where—

- (a) the lessor (not being himself a lessee of the dwelling-house under a concurrent lease) is a protected person within the meaning of Part V of this Act and the lessee is not a protected person within the meaning of that Part or is not a person in receipt of an age pension under the Social Services Consolidation Act 1947 (as amended by subsequent Acts) of the Parliament of the Commonwealth; or
- (b) the court is satisfied that the lessee has sub-let or has parted with possession of the dwelling-house, and that he was not, at the date of the service of the notice to quit, a bona fide occupant of the dwelling-house or any part thereof; or

- (c) (i) the lessor is of or above the age of sixty years or is a widow;
 - (ii) the lessor or the deceased spouse of the lessor purchased or acquired the dwelling-house at least five years before the date of the issue of the notice to quit;
 - (iii) the lessor does not own and has not, within a period of five years before the date of the issue of the notice to quit, owned any other dwelling-house or, if the dwelling-house is one of a pair of semi-detached dwelling-houses that are owned by the lessor, the only other dwelling-house that the lessor owns, or has, within a period of five years before the date of the issue of the notice to quit owned, is the other one of that pair of semi-detached dwelling-houses; and
 - (iv) the lessor has resided in the Commonwealth for not less than ten years; or
- (d) (i) (a) at the date on which proceedings for the recovery of possession of the dwelling-house are taken an order for the recovery of possession of some other dwelling-house occupied by the lessor is in force but has not been executed; or

- (b) not more than six months before the date on which such proceedings are taken an order for the recovery of possession of some other dwelling-house occupied by the lessor has been executed; and
- (ii) the lessee is, and has been for at least two years, lessor of some other dwelling-house and in proceedings for the recovery of possession thereof on the ground specified in paragraph (g) of subsection five of section sixty-two of this Act would not be under any obligation pursuant to this subsection to provide reasonably suitable alternative accommodation for the persons occupying that dwelling-house; or
- (e) (i) evidence is adduced to the court by or on behalf of the lessor that the means of the lessee (including the means of any spouse, parent and child of the lessee ordinarily resident with such lessee) are such that the lessee is reasonably able to provide reasonably suitable alternative accommodation for the occupation of himself and the members of his family ordinarily occupying the prescribed premises;
- (ii) the lessee fails to satisfy the court on evidence as to his means (including the means of any spouse, parent and child of the lessee ordinarily resident with such lessee) that he is not reasonably reasonably able to provide No. 62, 1964 reasonably suitable alternative accommodation for the occupation of himself and the members of his family ordinarily occupying the prescribed premises; and

- (iii) the court is satisfied on the evidence before it as to the means of the lessee and of the lessor (including the means of any spouse, parent and child of the lessee or lessor, as the case may be, ordinarily resident with such lessee or lessor, as the case may
be) that the lessee is financially better able to provide reasonably suitable alternative accommodation for the occupation of himself and the members of his family ordinarily occupying the prescribed premises than is the lessor; or
- (f) the proceedings are for the recovery of shared accommodation on the ground specified in paragraph (g) of subsection five of section sixty-two of this Act and the court is satisfied that—
 - (i) at the date on which the notice
to quit was given and during the period of twelve months immediately preceding that date the lessor resided in the dwelling-house of which the shared accommodation forms part; and
 - (ii) at the date on which the notice
to quit was given and during the twelve months immediately preceding

preceding that date only one lease of shared accommodation in that dwelling-house was in force at any one time :

Provided further that this subsection shall not apply in the case of proceedings for the recovery of possession of prescribed premises, being a dwelling-house, where the proceedings are taken on the ground specified in paragraph (g) of subsection five of section sixty-two of this Act and the court is satisfied that the refusal to make an order would prejudice any claim or proposed claim by the lessor for a pension under the Social Services Consolidation Act 1947 (as amended by subsequent Acts) of the Parliament of the Commonwealth or the Australian Soldiers' Repatriation Act 1920 (as amended by subsequent Acts) of the Parliament of the Commonwealth.

(2A) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, an order for the recovery of possession of any prescribed premises, being a dwelling-house, on the ground specified in paragraph (m) of subsection five of section sixty-two of this Act shall not be made unless the court is satisfied—

- (a) that the lessor had provided at the date of expiry of the notice to quit and has immediately available for the occupation of the persons occupying such dwelling-house reasonably suitable alternative accommodation ;
- (b) that, where it is necessary to obtain the approval under any Act of any body to the carrying out of the work referred to in the notice to quit, that approval has been obtained ; and

(c)

- (c) that the work referred to in the notice to quit cannot be carried out without unduly interfering with the lessee's use and occupation of the premises :

Provided that this subsection shall not apply in any case where—

- (a) the court is satisfied that the lessor is required by law to reconstruct or demolish the dwelling-house and possession thereof is sought by him for that purpose; or
- (b) the court is satisfied that the lessee has sub-let or has parted with the possession of the dwelling-house and that he was not, at the date of the service of the notice to quit, a bona fide occupant of the dwelling-house or any part thereof.

(2B) Subsection two of this section does not apply in any case where an order for the recovery of possession of any prescribed premises, being a dwelling-house, from any person is sought on the ground specified in paragraph (g) of subsection five of section sixty-two of this Act and the lessor purchased or acquired the dwelling-house at least eight years before the date of issue of the notice to quit and has, at the time of the service of the notice to quit, served, where a form is prescribed, a notice in the prescribed form setting out the effect of the provisions of subsections one and two of this section.
