No. 66, 1964
Sec. 18.
(Compulsory insurance.)

(i) (i) by omitting from subsection five of section eighteen the words "twelve months after such failure" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "two years after such failure. In any such proceedings, proof that the employer, not being a self-insurer, having been served pursuant to subsection one of section 18A of this Act with a notice requiring him to produce for inspection a policy of insurance or indemnity obtained by him and in force at a specified date or between specified dates has not so produced any such policy so in force and that the time stated in the notice for such production has expired shall be sufficient evidence, unless the contrary be proved, that at that date or between those dates, as the case may be, the employer had failed to comply with the provisions of subsection one of this section."

(ii) by inserting at the end of the same section the following new subsection :—

(8) (a) Every employer shall keep correct records of all wages paid to the workers employed by him, and of the trade, occupation or calling of each worker, and of such other matters relating to the wages so paid as may be prescribed, and shall retain such records in his possession in good order and condition for a period of at least three years.

Such records may be combined with any records of wages required by any Act other than this Act to be kept by the employer.

(b) The Commission may, on application by an insurer who has issued a policy of insurance or indemnity to an employer, and whether or not such policy is still in force, order the employer—

(i) to supply to the insurer within a time specified in the order a full and correct statement of all wages paid during a period so specified to the workers in the employment of that employer, together with such information as to the trades, occupations or callings of the workers and other prescribed matters relating to those wages as may be so specified. The period to be specified in the order shall be a period when the policy was in force and which commenced not more than three years before the making of the application;

(ii) to make available at or within such time or times and at such place as is specified in the order, for inspection by—

(a) an officer authorised in that behalf by the Commission;

(b) a person authorised in that behalf by the insurer and so specified, the records required by this subsection to be kept by the employer and at the time of the order to be retained by him in respect of a period so specified, being a period when the policy was in force.

No. 66, 1964

(c) Any officer or person authorised under subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of this subsection may inspect such records in accordance with the terms of the order and make copies thereof and take extracts therefrom.

(d) The Commission on application by an insurer on whose application an order has been made against an employer under paragraph (b) of this subsection may order the employer to pay to the insurer such amount as the Commission may having regard to the operation of this subsection find to be due and payable as a premium or balance of premium in respect of a policy of insurance or indemnity or any renewal thereof.

(e) The Commission, on application by an insurer on whose application an order has been made against an employer under paragraph (b) of this subsection, or by the Registrar, may if satisfied that the employer has failed to comply with the order call upon him to show cause why he should not be dealt with for contempt of the Commission, and if he fails so to show cause the Commission may impose on him a fine not exceeding two hundred pounds or order him to be imprisoned for a period not exceeding six months.

Nothing in this paragraph shall affect the jurisdiction of the Commission to make a further order or orders against the employer under the said paragraph (b).

The provisions of section eighty-two of the Justices Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts, shall mutatis mutandis apply to and in respect of any fine so imposed and the persons on whom it is imposed.

(j)

- (j) (i) by omitting from paragraph (a) of subsection one of section 18A the words "any policy of insurance or indemnity" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "the policy of insurance or indemnity obtained by the employer and in force at such date or between such dates, whether before or after the commencement of the Workers' Compensation (Amendment) Act, 1964, as the notice specifies";
- (ii) by inserting next after the same subsection the following new subsection—

(1A) A worker who has received an injury, or has met with an accident arising out of or in the course of his employment or on any of the daily or other periodic journeys or other journeys to which paragraph (c) or (d) of subsection one of section seven of this Act applies, or has received an injury during any absence referred to in paragraph (e) of the said subsection, or a solicitor for the time being authorised by such worker to act on behalf of the worker in relation to a claim for compensation under this Act in respect of that injury or accident, or a representative of a union to which the worker belongs, may by notice in writing require the employer to make available for inspection a policy of insurance or indemnity in force in respect of the worker at the time whether before or after the commencement of the Workers' Compensation (Amendment) Act, 1964, when the injury was received or the accident happened, as the case may be.

(iii)

No. 66, 1964

(iii) by omitting subsection two of the same section and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsections :—

(2) (a) An employer who obtains a policy of insurance or indemnity shall retain the same in his possession in good order and condition at all times while he is employing workers in respect of whom the policy is in force and for at least three years thereafter.

(b) An employer who has in his possession or is required by this subsection to have in his possession such a policy of insurance or indemnity as is referred to in a notice served on him pursuant to this section and who fails to comply with any requirement of the notice within the time for compliance and in the manner stated therein shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

(3) In this section "union" means industrial union of employees registered under the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1940, as amended by subsequent Acts, and "representative" means the secretary of a union or an officer for the time being authorised under section 129A of the said Act, as so amended, to exercise powers under that section.

(Uninsured liability scheme.)

(k) (i) by inserting in subsection two of section 18C after the word "obtains" the words "or has applied for or applies for";

(ii) by omitting from the same subsection the words "awarded, and costs, as has not been paid" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "and costs of the application therefor as has been awarded and has not been paid or as may be awarded and not be paid, as the case may require, and in respect of the costs of the claim";

(iii)

- (iii) by omitting paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of No. 66, 1964 the proviso to subsection three of the same section;
- (iv) by omitting from paragraph (e) of the proviso to the same subsection the words "notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing provisions of this subsection";
- (v) by omitting paragraph (a) of subsection five of the same section and by inserting in lieu thereof the following paragraphs :—

(a) Where a claim is made under the Scheme by a worker at the same time as he applies for an award of the compensation to which the claim relates, or whose application for such award is then pending, the Commission may hear and determine the claim either concurrently with or after the hearing and determination of such application.

(a1) Where a claim under the Scheme has been made and the employer does not appear and defend the application for an award of compensation, or where such award has prior to the making of the claim been obtained from the Commission in default of appearance by the employer, or by consent of the worker and the employer, or if in any case the Commission for any reason thinks fit, the Commission may cause to be made such inquiries as may be deemed necessary to determine the genuineness of the grounds on which the award is sought or was based. The Commission may adjourn the application, or if an award has been made may reopen the same, and order order its Registrar, or some other fit person, to take and defend the proceedings in substitution for the employer, and to such Registrar or person for such purposes all the rights of the employer shall be subrogated.

- (vi) by inserting next after subsection seven of the same section the following new subsection :—

insurers.

(7A) Where in the opinion of the Commission or the Registrar the question has arisen whether an insurer is the insurer under this Act of an employer whose worker is making a claim under the Scheme the Commission or Registrar, as the case may be, may notify the insurer of the proceedings and such notice shall operate to join the insurer as a party to the proceedings.

- (vii) by omitting subsection nine of the same section;

New sec.

- (i) that the company cannot pay its debts and should be wound up, or
 - (ii) that it is in the interests of the public or of the shareholders or of the creditors that the company should be wound up;
- (e) that the licensee has failed to comply with any provision of this Act and such failure constitutes a substantial breach of the requirements of this Act;
- (f) that the licensee has been guilty of repeated breaches of this Act, whether of the same kind or of different kinds;
- (g) that the licensee has failed to arrange suitable and adequate reinsurance of liabilities undertaken by him under policies of insurance or indemnity issued by him;
- (h) that the licensee has failed to make suitable and adequate provision for his accrued, continuing, future, and contingent liabilities under policies of insurance or indemnity issued by him;
- (i) that the licensee has failed to comply with the conditions of his license;
- (j)

- (j) that the licensee has unreasonably failed, ^{No. 66, 1964} or unreasonably refused, to satisfy an award made by the Commission against an employer insured or indemnified by the licensee against the liability of the employer thereunder;
- (k) that the conduct of the licensee, his employees, and officers, and the arrangement of his affairs have been such that, in the opinion of the Commission, he should not continue to hold a license.

(2) For the purposes of this section a licensee shall be deemed to be unable to pay his debts if—

- (a) a creditor by assignment or otherwise to whom the licensee is indebted in a sum exceeding fifty pounds then due has served on the licensee by leaving at his usual place of business or if such licensee is a corporation at the registered office thereof a demand under his hand or under the hand of his agent thereunto lawfully authorised requiring the licensee to pay the sum so due, and the licensee has for three weeks thereafter neglected to pay the sum or to secure or compound for it to the reasonable satisfaction of the creditor; or
- (b) execution or other process issued on a judgment, decree or order of any court in favour of a creditor of the licensee is returned unsatisfied in whole or in part; or
- (c) it is proved to the satisfaction of the Commission that the licensee is unable to pay his debts and in determining whether a licensee is unable to pay his debts the Commission

Commission shall take into account the accrued, continuing, future and contingent liabilities of the licensee.

(3) (a) Proceedings on any ground specified in subsection one of this section or subsection seven of section 18c of this Act for the suspension or termination of a license or for limiting or varying the period of a license or attaching any conditions thereto or varying the conditions thereof shall be instituted by application by the Registrar in the form and manner prescribed by rules made under this Act, setting forth the ground or grounds of the application, and thereupon the Commission shall give notice in such form and manner as is so prescribed to the licensee mentioned in such application calling upon him to show cause why his license should not be dealt with as aforesaid.

(b) The Commission shall hear evidence in support of and in answer to the application, and after due inquiry shall decide whether or not the license should be dealt with as aforesaid, giving reasons for the decision.

(c) An appeal from any decision given by the Commission on such application shall lie to the Supreme Court in its equitable jurisdiction. Such appeal shall be instituted by notice of appeal filed in the Equity Office within thirty days after the giving of the decision appealed from and the Court on such appeal may make any such orders as the Commission might have made on such application. The provisions of section thirty-seven of this Act shall not apply to and in respect of any such decision.

Workers' Compensation (Amendment) Act.
