payable at such time as he may determine and may, No. 61, 1968
in the direction, direct that that proportionate part shall be due and payable at that time.

(3) The Minister may extend the time for payment of any such proportionate part.

(4) A direction under this section—

- (a) may be given in respect of all holdings, any class of holdings specified in the direction
or any particular holding so specified;
- (b) may be given from time to time as the Minister thinks fit; and
- (c) shall, upon notice in writing of the direction
being given in accordance with subsection five of this section, have effect according to its tenor, notwithstanding the provisions of this Act, the regulations thereunder or the instrument under which the sums are made payable or any previous direction under this section.

(5) Notice of a direction under this section may be given by sending it by post to the person by whom the sum next payable under the direction would, if that sum were due and payable at the time the notice is so sent, be payable and by addressing it to that person's last known address.

36B. Any provisions in any lease issued under this Act before the commencement of section six of the Crown Lands and Closer Settlement (Amendment) Act, 1968, imposing a penalty at a rate per centum on any unpaid amount for late payment of any sum due under this Act or the lease shall as regards any amount unpaid at, or becoming unpaid after, the commencement of section six of the Crown Lands and Closer Settlement (Amendment) Act, 1968, be read and construed, for the purpose of calculating the amount of any penalty
accruing due after that commencement, as if that

Interest.

36C. Any sums payable under a lease under this Act issued on or after the commencement of section six of the Crown Lands and Closer Settlement (Amendment) Act, 1968, or under this Act or the regulations thereunder in respect of such a lease shall from and after the due date for payment thereof bear interest at the rate of seven per centum per annum and such interest shall be considered as accruing due day by day :

Provided that if payment of any sum is made within three months of such date such sum shall not bear interest :

Provided further that in any case where the Minister is satisfied that the circumstances warrant it he may—

- (a) direct that the whole or part of such interest shall not be charged; or
- (b) grant an extension of time for the payment of all or any part of such interest; or
- (c) remit the payment of such interest wholly or in part.

No refund shall be made as a consequence of any such direction or remission.

Nothing in this section contained shall be construed so as to prevent the enforcement of any forfeiture, or to compel the acceptance of any overdue sums together with interest as aforesaid.

(2) An application shall be made in the manner and in or to the effect of the form and shall be accompanied by the deposit prescribed by regulations made under the Closer Settlement Acts.

(3) In the case of an application under this section by the owner (subject to mortgage) the consent of the mortgagee to the application shall be necessary. Where the Minister is the mortgagee his consent shall not be necessary.

(4) If the perpetual lease grant has been issued in respect of the lease, the subject of the application, a surrender thereof to the Crown in the prescribed form shall be executed and forwarded with the application.

If the application is not granted, the surrender shall be deemed to have had no effect and the applicant or his mortgagee shall be entitled to have the grant returned to him.

(5) The Minister may at his discretion grant or refuse the application, and where the application is granted the conversion shall be deemed to have taken effect as from the date of such granting.

(6) Any areas required for roadways may be excluded by the Minister from the conversion. Any areas so excluded shall thereupon be deemed to have been surrendered to the Crown.

(7) The cost of dealing with the application, any amount payable thereon in respect of stamp duty, any moneys payable for rent (including deferred deferred or funded rent) on the converted lease or as interest (including deferred or funded interest) calculated up to the date of the conversion in respect of the capital value owing to the Crown for structural or other improvements on the land and a deposit of six per centum of the price of the purchase less any excess applied pursuant to subsection nine of this section shall be paid by the applicant on demand, and if any part of any such sum remains unpaid for three months after demand the purchase may be declared by the Minister to have lapsed, and any moneys paid therewith shall thereupon become forfeited.

Where a purchase is declared to have lapsed under this subsection, the application for conversion shall be deemed not to have been made, the surrender of the perpetual lease grant, if any, shall be deemed to have had no effect and the applicant or his mortgagee shall be entitled to have any such grant returned to him.

(8) Where an application under this section for the conversion of a closer settlement lease, which was vested in a person under section 9F of this Act, is granted within five years after the date of commencement of title to such lease, the Minister shall, unless a report has previously been made under subsection two of section 9D of this Act, request an advisory board to report whether the land comprised in the lease at the date of vesting was substantially less than a home maintenance area. Upon receipt of such request the advisory board shall report accordingly.

(9) No refund shall be made as a consequence of any conversion under this section, but if upon adjustment of moneys after conversion there remains available any excess, such excess shall be credited to the applicant for conversion and applied in reduction of the amounts payable under subsection seven of this section or applied in such manner

as the Minister with the consent of the applicant No. 61, 1968 may direct in or towards satisfaction of any debt of the applicant to the Crown.

(10) Where any lease converted under this section was, immediately before such conversion, subject to a mortgage charge or other security—

- (a) the mortgagee or person holding or entitled to the benefit of the mortgage charge or other security shall be deemed to retain the rights, powers, and remedies which are expressly or impliedly given to him by the mortgage charge or other security against the mortgagor and to have the same rights, powers and remedies which are so expressly or impliedly given in respect of the settlement purchase as he had or would have had in respect of the lease if the conversion had not been effected, and the covenants, conditions, stipulations and provisions of the mortgage charge or other security shall be deemed to apply to and to be capable of being enforced as if such mortgage charge or other security had been given or executed in respect of the settlement purchase into which the lease has been converted; and
- (b) if the mortgage charge or other security is constituted, wholly or in part, by a transfer registered in the books of the Department of Lands, such transfer shall be deemed to extend to the settlement purchase into which the lease is converted in the same manner as it applied to the lease so converted and such transfer shall be recorded in the books of that Department as a transfer of the settlement purchase.

(11) The Minister may permit the withdrawal of an application at any time before granting, subject to payment by the applicant of the costs incurred in dealing with such application.

4B. Upon conversion of a settlement purchase lease or a group purchase lease or a closer settlement lease into a settlement purchase, such settlement purchase shall be subject to regulations made under the Closer Settlement Acts and to the general provisions of the Closer Settlement Acts relating to settlement purchases except that—

- (1) The price of a settlement purchase which is a conversion of a settlement purchase lease or a group purchase lease shall be an amount which is forty times the annual rent of the lease at the date of granting of the conversion.
- (2) The price of a settlement purchase which is a conversion of a closer settlement lease shall be an amount equivalent to the sum of the capital value of the lease at the date of granting of the conversion and the balance of the capital value owing to the Crown for structural or other improvements on the farm, other than any amount so owing in respect of any advance made in pursuance of the War Service Land Settlement Act, 1941, as subsequently amended, for the purpose of paying for or effecting improvements upon such farm.
- (3) The condition of residence for a term of five years attaching to such settlement purchase shall be reduced by the period of residence performed in respect of the lease of which it is a conversion, but where the condition of residence attaching to such lease has been suspended or remitted or the holder of the lease is entitled by virtue of any consent or permission to perform the condition of residence elsewhere than on such lease, the condition of residence for a term of five years attaching to the settlement purchase shall be modified accordingly. No. 61, 1968

- (4) The condition relating to the making of improvements on the lease the subject of the settlement purchase shall be deemed to have been fulfilled to the extent that improvements have been made on that land while it was the subject of the lease of which the settlement purchase is a conversion.
- (5) The Minister shall, at the date of granting of the application for conversion, determine which of the conditions, special conditions or restrictions then attaching to the lease and binding on the applicant in pursuance of the provisions of the Closer Settlement Acts, or of regulations made thereunder, shall attach to the settlement purchase before grant.

The conditions, special conditions or restrictions so determined shall attach accordingly and shall be binding upon the applicant and his successors in title.

- (6) Where at the date of granting of conversion of any lease under this Part, there exists, in respect of such lease, any debt (other than that required to be paid under subsection seven of section 4A of this Act or included in the price of a purchase in pursuance of paragraph two of this section) payable but not finally due to the Crown under the provisions of the Closer Settlement Acts, or any other Act, such debt shall,
